

Respect SIR,

Philadelphia, 11 August, 1782.

VARIOUS inducements have led me to print a neat and correct Edition of the BIBLE, containing the OLD and NEW TESTAMENTS; which, I expect, will be ready for sale by the beginning of October. The edition consists of several thousands, printed with the same type as the annexed page, and upon the same kind of paper; the binding will be equal in goodness or rather superior to any usually imported.

It will be easy to see that a work of such magnitude must, at any time, but especially the present, be attended with very great expence; and render it necessary for the Undertaker to solicit the assistance and patronage of gentlemen of influence in different parts of the United States: I take the liberty, therefore, of requesting that you will interest yourself in favour of this first Edition of the BIBLE, in the English language, ever printed in America; and oblige me so far as to make the undertaking as universally known as you can. Orders for any number, accompanied by the money, bank-notes, or good bills of exchange, payable in this city, will be thankfully received and executed with dispatch, by

SIR, your obedient and very humble servant,

I S A I A H.

16 Thus saith the LORD, which maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters;

17 Which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army, and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow.

18 ¶ Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.

19 Behold, I will do a new thing: now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.

20 The beast of the field shall honour me, the dragons and the owls: because I gave waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen.

21 This people have I formed for myself; they shall shew forth my praise.

22 ¶ But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou hast been weary of me, O Israel.

23 Thou hast not brought me the small cattle of thy burnt-offerings, neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense.

24 Thou hast brought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices; but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast wearied me with thine iniquities.

25 I, even I, am he that blot-teth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins.

26 Put me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified.

27 Thy first father hath sinned, and thy teachers have transgressed against me.

28 Therefore I have profaned the princes of the sanctuary, and have given Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches.

C H A P. XLIV.

YET now hear, O Jacob my servant, and Israel whom I have chosen.

2 Thus saith the LORD that made thee, and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee, Fear not, O Jacob my servant, and thou Jeshurun whom I have chosen.

3 For I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring:

4 And they shall spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water-courses.

5 One shall say, I am the LORD's: and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob: and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the LORD, and surname himself by the name of Israel.

6 Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his redeemer the LORD of hosts, I am the first, and I am the last, and besides me there is no God.

7 ¶ And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come? let them shew unto them.

8 Fear ye not, neither be afraid: have I not told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God besides me? yea, there is no God; I know not any.

9 ¶ They that make a graven image are all of them vanity; and their delectable things shall not profit; and they are their
