

FOURTH OF JULY, 1819.

Arrangements adopted by the Committee of the Corporation & Military Association.

1. The day to be announced by a Gun at day-break.
2. At sun-rise a salute of 13 guns, in honor of the old Confederation—the bells of the several Churches to ring during the firing.
3. At 9 o'clock A. M. the Citizens, &c. to assemble at the Mansion House.
4. At 10 o'clock A. M. the procession to be formed on the firing of a signal gun, and move through Market, Columbia, Pearl, Hudson and Green streets to the Baptist Church, in the following order :

Marshal of the day—Col. STILWELL.

Assistant Marshals—Capt. JENKINS and Capt. COLE.

Maj. Dalaby's corps of U. S. troops.

Capt. Campbell's Artillery.

Capt. Judson's Infantry.

Capt. Williams's Governor's Guards.

Capt. Taylor's City Guards.

Governor and Suite.

Lieutenant-Governor.

Officers of the Revolutionary Army and Members of the Society of Cincinnati.

Orator, and Reader of the Declaration of Independence.

Committee of Arrangements.

Officers of the United States Army and Navy in uniform.

Military Association.

Sheriff, Marshal, Deputy Sheriffs, and Constables, with their staffs of office.

Members of the Corporation and its officers.

Secretary of State and Attorney-General.

Surveyor-General, Comptroller, and Treasurer.

Chancellor.

Judges of the Supreme Court, of Probates, Common Pleas and General Sessions.

The Reverend Clergy:

Incorporated Societies, viz.—

1. Medical Society,

2. Mechanics and Cordwainers.

3. St. Patrick's,

4. St. Andrew's.

Unincorporated Societies according to seniority.

Citizens and Strangers.

On the arrival of the procession in the Church—

1. Prayer, by the Rev. Mr. FINLEY.
2. Declaration of Independence, by Lieut. F. M. SOUTHWICK,
3. ORATION, by Maj. CHARLES A. CLINTON.
4. Benediction by the Rev. Mr. CUMMING.

On leaving the Church, the procession will again be formed and move through Hamilton, Pearl, Lydius, South Market, and State streets to the Capitol, where it will be dismissed, the Military excepted, who will fire a federal salute and sue de joi, and then proceed to the Mansion House, and be dismissed.

At sun-set a salute of 13 Guns.

ISAAC HAMILTON,

HENRY W. SNYDER,

GERRIT GATES.

J. S. VAN RENSSELAER,

H. STAFFORD,

H. A. WILLIAMS.

J. O. COLE,

H. G. WYNKOOP,

S. A. VAN VECHTEN,

J. GIBBONS, Jun.

} Committee
of the Corporation.

} Committee of the Military Association.

☞ The Committee have directed the proper officers to be stationed at the Church, with instructions to permit none but Ladies to enter until the procession shall arrive.