Dr. Durham of Atlanta Wants a Divorce.

THE TALE OF WOETE TELLS

MAKES OUT A STRONG CASE OF MARITAL UNHAPPINESS.

The Doctor Says His Wife Leaves Home for Months at a Time to Enjoy the Company of Strangers of Shudy Requiredon,

Atlata, Sept. 6 .-- Tr. William M. Durham, of 73 Peachtree street, a well | known practitioner of medicine, is the victim of domestic troubles, and as a for that has been a victim for eight Jong years. The doctor's patience is at l last exhausted and this morning he resorted to the courts for relief and filed a petition for divorce from his wife, Arta B. Durham. In his petition the doctor charges that Mrs. Durham frequently deserts him for long periods, and betakes herself to New York and other festive resorts where, in company with men and worden of shady reputation, she spends the time that should a be speni in his domestic chyle. It is turther charged that Mrs. Durham has a weakness for theatricals and engages in the pastime with a levity altogether unbecoming the consider and character of a decent married woman. die states turther that in order to save her and to save himself and the reputation of his home he has sent her money on which to return home but instead of cultilities her promises to dogo, she violated it and spent it in riotous hyng. A raffroad ticket from New 1 York to Atlanta was then forwarded but this quickly found its way into a gradicar's office.

Col. Byrd came down from Rome this morning and brought his grip and change of clothing with him. Asked he was going to travel, he said that he had information that three camps of convicts had escaped his inspection, camps so completely lost to the world that few know of their existence, and none knew just how good or badly the poor creatures incarcerated in them were faring. Those camps are somewhere in North Georgia, presumably, but the colonel thought best not to say where as his object is to surprise them on his visite.

When this inspection is done the work he was employed to do will about be finished. During the morning Judge Falligant of the Eastern circuit called and had a long talk with Col. Byrd. He says he thinks his counties are all right in the matter of convicts, and their lessess, but if not, he is anxious to straighten them out, as he wants to put in a good solid sixty days in the Adriondacks
