

K. England William & Mary 1689

By the King and Queen,
A PROCLAMATION.

For a GENERAL FAST.

WILLIAM R.

Whereas for about a Year last past, a wicked Rebellion hath been Carried on and Maintained against Their Majesties in Their Kingdom of Ireland (Which is known to be inseparably Annexed to the Imperial Crown of England) Which Rebellion hath been Contrived, Encouraged, and chiefly Supported by the French King, Resolving by that means to make an Absolute Conquest of the said Kingdom, and hold it as a Province, or else to bring a total Ruine and Destruction upon the same: for Which and other Causes, Their Majesties have been Obligated to enter into a Just and Necessary War against the said French King. And whereas his Majesty is Resolved by the Assistance of God, Vigorously to prosecute the said War by Sea and Land; And so Effectually to Reduce that Kingdom to its due Obedience, that Their Majesties good Subjects there may not only be Relieved from the present Force and Violence, but be Secured against all such Aggressions for the future, and be Settled in a firm and lasting State of Peace, Safety and Prosperity: For Which Purpose his Majesty hath Determined to make a Royal Vorage and go thither in person, putting his Trust in Almighty God (Who hath by his Marvellous Providence hitherto Preserved and Conducted his Majesty) that he will vouchsafe a special Blessing on this his Righteous Undertaking, and thereby Constitute the Deliberance of these Kingdoms. Their Majesties taking the Premises into Their most serious Consideration have thought fit to Appoint, and do by and with the Advice of Their Privy Council, hereby Appoint and Command a General and Publick fast and Humiliation to be Observed throughout this Realm in most Devout and Solemn manner, for Supplicating Almighty God for Pardon of our Sins, and Imploving his Blessing and Protection in the Preservation of his Majesties Sacred Person, and Prosperity of his Arms in Ireland, and the Naval Forces, to be Religiously Kept and Observed on Wednesday the Twelfth Day of March next, throughout Their Majesties Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and thenceforward to be Observed on the Third Wednesday in every Month successively during the present War. And for the more orderly Solemnizing of the said several Fast Days, Their Majesties have given Directions to the Right Reverend the Bishops of this Kingdom, to Compose a Form of Prayers suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches and Chappels, and other Places of Publick Worship, and have given Charge for the Dispersing thereof through their several Diocesses in the whole Kingdom: And Their Majesties do most Expressly Charge and Command, that the said Fastings and Prayers be Soberly, Reverently and Decently Performed by all Their Loving Subjects, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and upon Pain of such Punishments as Their Majesties can justly inflict upon all such as shall Contemn or Neglect to Religious a Work.

Given at Our Court at Whitehall the Twentieth Day of February 1689. In the Second Year of Our Reign.

God save King William and Queen Mary.
