

CONNECTICUT COURANT. PUBLISHED BY GOODWIN & CO.

FIFTEEN ROUS NORTH-WEST OF THE STATE-HOUSE, HARTFORD. Price Two Dollars per annum, payable in advance...

WEEKLY ALMANAC. Table with columns for Month, Day, and various astronomical and meteorological data.

TEAS, CARGO OF SHIP REGULUS.

Will be sold on WEDNESDAY, the 10th instant, at 10 o'clock, the Cargo of Teas on board the Ship Regulus...

DANIEL BUCK & CO. OFFER FOR SALE.

35 Bbls. Retailing Molasses. 35 Boxes Lamp Sugar. February 23.

DOMESTIC GOODS.

16 Bales 3/4, 4/4, and 5/4 Brown Sheetings and Shirtings. 50 Cases 3/4, 4/4, and 5/4 Bleached Sheetings and Shirtings.

CARPETINGS, &c. JOHN OLSTED.

Receiving his Spring assortment, and will be supplied during the season with the greatest variety of New and Handsome Patterns ever offered in this State...

SPOOL THREAD.

White and Black, of American Manufacture, equal in quality to the imported. Just received, and for sale by HOWE, MATHER & CO.

POTTER'S CATHOLICON.

Unrivaled and extensive reputation already acquired by this medicine, demands from the proprietor his grateful acknowledgment to a discerning public.

PROSPECTUS OF THE NORTHERN COURIER.

It has long been the desire of many in this city and vicinity, that a periodical should be established, to be issued in the middle of the week, not only for the accommodation of the advertising community, but for the dissemination of correct principles, to counteract the pernicious effects of every opponent of the Patent Democrat, through their organs, the Times and the Standard.

THE WIDOW'S MITE.

Amid the pompous crowd Of rich address, came a humble form: A widow, meek as Poverty did make Her children with a look of sad content...

A PROCLAMATION.

THE period of the year is approaching, at which it has been usual for the People of this State to set apart and devote one day to the purposes of abstinence, self-examination, and humble supplication.

BROOKS' LETTERS.

Do the people here and hereabout, live on land or on water? Do they go by four legs? Are they amphibious or not? I have seen a very small, well-greedy little child, and a small, well-greedy little man, and a small, well-greedy little woman...

THINGS IN HOLLAND.

Amsterdam, August 10, 1835. The traveller landing at Rotterdam from another country, is not only reminded by a change of language, but he is in a foreign country, but by a change of coin too.

THE WIDOW'S MITE.

Amid the pompous crowd Of rich address, came a humble form: A widow, meek as Poverty did make Her children with a look of sad content...

THE WIDOW'S MITE.

Amid the pompous crowd Of rich address, came a humble form: A widow, meek as Poverty did make Her children with a look of sad content...

A PROCLAMATION.

THE period of the year is approaching, at which it has been usual for the People of this State to set apart and devote one day to the purposes of abstinence, self-examination, and humble supplication.

BROOKS' LETTERS.

Do the people here and hereabout, live on land or on water? Do they go by four legs? Are they amphibious or not? I have seen a very small, well-greedy little child, and a small, well-greedy little man, and a small, well-greedy little woman...

THINGS IN HOLLAND.

Amsterdam, August 10, 1835. The traveller landing at Rotterdam from another country, is not only reminded by a change of language, but he is in a foreign country, but by a change of coin too.

THE WIDOW'S MITE.

Amid the pompous crowd Of rich address, came a humble form: A widow, meek as Poverty did make Her children with a look of sad content...

THE WIDOW'S MITE.

Amid the pompous crowd Of rich address, came a humble form: A widow, meek as Poverty did make Her children with a look of sad content...

A PROCLAMATION.

THE period of the year is approaching, at which it has been usual for the People of this State to set apart and devote one day to the purposes of abstinence, self-examination, and humble supplication.

BROOKS' LETTERS.

Do the people here and hereabout, live on land or on water? Do they go by four legs? Are they amphibious or not? I have seen a very small, well-greedy little child, and a small, well-greedy little man, and a small, well-greedy little woman...

THINGS IN HOLLAND.

Amsterdam, August 10, 1835. The traveller landing at Rotterdam from another country, is not only reminded by a change of language, but he is in a foreign country, but by a change of coin too.

THE WIDOW'S MITE.

Amid the pompous crowd Of rich address, came a humble form: A widow, meek as Poverty did make Her children with a look of sad content...

THE WIDOW'S MITE.

Amid the pompous crowd Of rich address, came a humble form: A widow, meek as Poverty did make Her children with a look of sad content...

A PROCLAMATION.

THE period of the year is approaching, at which it has been usual for the People of this State to set apart and devote one day to the purposes of abstinence, self-examination, and humble supplication.

BROOKS' LETTERS.

Do the people here and hereabout, live on land or on water? Do they go by four legs? Are they amphibious or not? I have seen a very small, well-greedy little child, and a small, well-greedy little man, and a small, well-greedy little woman...

THINGS IN HOLLAND.

Amsterdam, August 10, 1835. The traveller landing at Rotterdam from another country, is not only reminded by a change of language, but he is in a foreign country, but by a change of coin too.

THE WIDOW'S MITE.

Amid the pompous crowd Of rich address, came a humble form: A widow, meek as Poverty did make Her children with a look of sad content...

TEXAS AFFAIR.

The most recent accounts from Texas, present a gloomy aspect. A Mexican army of 2,500 regulars, were advancing into the territory, and at the latest dates, they were within eighty miles of St. Antonio, a principal town possessed by the Texas forces.

NEW FROM AFRICA.

By the arrival of the brig Susan Elizabeth, at this port, letters have been received from Thomas Buchanan, Esquire, agent of the New York and Philadelphia Young Men's Colonization Society, who sailed from Bassa Cove on the 23d of November last.

NEW FROM AFRICA.

By the arrival of the brig Susan Elizabeth, at this port, letters have been received from Thomas Buchanan, Esquire, agent of the New York and Philadelphia Young Men's Colonization Society, who sailed from Bassa Cove on the 23d of November last.

NEW FROM AFRICA.

By the arrival of the brig Susan Elizabeth, at this port, letters have been received from Thomas Buchanan, Esquire, agent of the New York and Philadelphia Young Men's Colonization Society, who sailed from Bassa Cove on the 23d of November last.

NEW FROM AFRICA.

By the arrival of the brig Susan Elizabeth, at this port, letters have been received from Thomas Buchanan, Esquire, agent of the New York and Philadelphia Young Men's Colonization Society, who sailed from Bassa Cove on the 23d of November last.

THE WIDOW'S MITE.

Amid the pompous crowd Of rich address, came a humble form: A widow, meek as Poverty did make Her children with a look of sad content...

A PROCLAMATION.

THE period of the year is approaching, at which it has been usual for the People of this State to set apart and devote one day to the purposes of abstinence, self-examination, and humble supplication.

BROOKS' LETTERS.

Do the people here and hereabout, live on land or on water? Do they go by four legs? Are they amphibious or not? I have seen a very small, well-greedy little child, and a small, well-greedy little man, and a small, well-greedy little woman...

THINGS IN HOLLAND.

Amsterdam, August 10, 1835. The traveller landing at Rotterdam from another country, is not only reminded by a change of language, but he is in a foreign country, but by a change of coin too.

THE WIDOW'S MITE.

Amid the pompous crowd Of rich address, came a humble form: A widow, meek as Poverty did make Her children with a look of sad content...

A PROCLAMATION.

THE period of the year is approaching, at which it has been usual for the People of this State to set apart and devote one day to the purposes of abstinence, self-examination, and humble supplication.

BROOKS' LETTERS.

Do the people here and hereabout, live on land or on water? Do they go by four legs? Are they amphibious or not? I have seen a very small, well-greedy little child, and a small, well-greedy little man, and a small, well-greedy little woman...

THINGS IN HOLLAND.

Amsterdam, August 10, 1835. The traveller landing at Rotterdam from another country, is not only reminded by a change of language, but he is in a foreign country, but by a change of coin too.

TEXAS AFFAIR.

The most recent accounts from Texas, present a gloomy aspect. A Mexican army of 2,500 regulars, were advancing into the territory, and at the latest dates, they were within eighty miles of St. Antonio, a principal town possessed by the Texas forces.

NEW FROM AFRICA.

By the arrival of the brig Susan Elizabeth, at this port, letters have been received from Thomas Buchanan, Esquire, agent of the New York and Philadelphia Young Men's Colonization Society, who sailed from Bassa Cove on the 23d of November last.

NEW FROM AFRICA.

By the arrival of the brig Susan Elizabeth, at this port, letters have been received from Thomas Buchanan, Esquire, agent of the New York and Philadelphia Young Men's Colonization Society, who sailed from Bassa Cove on the 23d of November last.

NEW FROM AFRICA.

By the arrival of the brig Susan Elizabeth, at this port, letters have been received from Thomas Buchanan, Esquire, agent of the New York and Philadelphia Young Men's Colonization Society, who sailed from Bassa Cove on the 23d of November last.