"IMPOSITION AVOIDED." Money saved, and relief obtained, by purchasing and using
LEE & BUTLER'S
IMPROVED LIQUID OPODELDOC, At 25 Cents per Bottle, instead of WHITWELL'S ORIGINAL OPODELDOC, At 37 Cents per Bottle.

THE composition now offered to the public by the subscribers, is a valuable improvement on Dr.
Stor's Opopodeldoc, so long and universally celebrated.
As numerous instances have occurred of the failure of that remedy to effect a cure in all cases for which it was recommended, the subscribers have been induced to induce to make experiments, in order to furnish a more perfect article. They feel pleasure in being able to assure those who are disposed to make trial of this remedy, that they may do so with the most implicit reliance upon its efficacy in the cure of the Gout, Rheumatism, Bruiſes, Burns, (provided the skin is not broken), Scalds, &c. &c. &c. &c.
It will be found a valuable application to Horses for galled legs, occasioned by the saddle, wind galis, and strains of every description, &c.
It is deemed unnecessary to swell an advertisement with certificates of an extensively approved remedy, under the sanction of great names, as these are amply sufficiently obtained, and frequently procured from their original inventors. The subscribers would only remark, that this Opopodeldoc is made up of many of the most valuable ingredients, and is prepared in their practice, and considered by them as a valuable Remedy.

"COUNTRY MERCHANTS."
Purchasing this preparation at wholesale prices, will obtain more profit on the sale (at 25 cents per Bottle) than on any other kind of wherewithal, as they are having the satisfaction of selling to their customers an article inferior to none sold by the name of Opopodedoc, and by the subscribers believed to be decidedly superior, notwithstanding the assertion made by J. P.
Whitwell, "That all others, (all other kinds of Liquid Opodeldoc) are but base imitations; (of his, Whitwell's, little better than Whiskies, or N. E. Rum." &c. &c. &c.)

BY HIS EXCELLENCY
HENRY W. EDWARDS,
GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF CONNECTICUT, A PROCLAMATION.

A consciousness of our feebleness and impotency, and of a situation by which we are controlled and regulated, has, in all ages, led men to look beyond human means for aid and direction. To this natural impulse, with a Christian People, are superad-ded the authority of the revealed will of our Divine Master and Lawgiver, and the example of the good in all ages since the light of Revelation first dawned upon the minds of the human race, and we are were not lost on our pious forefathers. They were led, by the spirit which prompted their emigration, and the dangers and difficulties by which they were surrounded, to frequent self-examination and humble supplication. This practice has been continued by their descendants; and will be continued, while a dignity of human frailty and human duty exists among us.

In accordance with these views and the practice of my predecessors, I do, therefore appoint FRIDAY, the twenty-eighth day of March next, to be observed as a day of Fasting, Humiliation and Prayer; and I do hereby invite all the people of the State, on that day, to obtain from their Heavenly Father, and to devote themselves to self-examination, and such religious exercises as are suited and appropriate to a CHRISTIAN FAST. I invite the people of all denominations, with their pastors and religious teachers, to assemble in their usual places of worship, and with humble spirits to acknowledge our weakness and infirmity, and our absolute dependence for all that we are and all that we hope for, on the superintending power and protection of our Heavenly Father; and offer up their fervent supplications, and pray for the blessing of our Heavenly Father, that He would enlighten our minds and purify our hearts: That He would give us a due sense of our guilt, and a true knowledge of our weakness and insufficiency, and our absolute depen-
on the superintending power and protection of our Heavenly Father; and offer up their fervent supplications,
and pray for the blessing of our Heavenly Father,
that He would enlighten our minds
and purify our hearts: That He would give us a due
sense of our guilt, and a true knowledge of our
weakness and insufficiency, and our absolute depen-
on the superintending power and protection of our Heavenly Father; and offer up their fervent supplications,
and pray for the blessing of our Heavenly Father,
that He would enlighten our minds
and purify our hearts: That He would give us a due
sense of our guilt, and a true knowledge of our
weakness and insufficiency, and our absolute depen-
on the superintending power and protection of our Heavenly Father; and offer up their fervent supplications,
and pray for the blessing of our Heavenly Father,
that He would enlighten our minds
sense of our guilt, and a true knowledge of our
on the superintending power and protection of our Heavenly Father; and offer up their fervent supplications,

on the superintending power and protection of our Heavenly Father; and offer up their fervent supplications,
and pray for the blessing of our Heavenly Father,
that He would enlighten our minds
sense of our guilt, and a true knowledge of our
on the superintending power and protection of our Heav-
