London, Printed by Charles Bill, and the Executrix of Thomas Newcomb, deceas'd; Printers to the Queens most Excellent Majesty. 1708.

A Form of Thanksgiving to be Used throughout the Cities of London and Westminster, and elsewhere within the Bills of Mortality, on Sunday the Eighteenth Day of this instant April; And in all other Places throughout England and Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, on Sunday the Ninth Day of May next ensuing, immediately after The General Thanksgiving, both at Morning and Evening Prayer.

Almighty God, the great and glorious Protector of thy People, and their present Help in time of Trouble; We thy unworthy Servants do most thankfully Adore thy great Goodness to us, in the happy Success of Her Majesties Counsels and Forces against the late Insolent and Unjust Attempt to Invade Her Kingdom of Great Britain. It is of thy Mercy alone that they who intended mischief against us are so suddenly Disappointed and put to Rebuke, and that their Devices are made of none Effect. For these and all other Instances of thy Favour to us, we bless and magnifie thy glorious Name; Beseeching thee to give us Grace to make such a Religious Improvement of them, that thou mayst still Delight to do us Good, and to cause our Enemies to fly before us, till thou shalt vouchsafe to bless us with a just, lasting, and happy Peace, to the Glory of thy Name, the Honour of our Sovereign, and the Security of thy Church and People; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

By Her Majesties especial Command,

Sunderland.
