

A PROCLAMATION,

For an Anniversary Thanksgiving, in Commemoration of his Majesties Happy Birth-day, being the Forteenth Day of October, &c.

JAMES. R.

DRASMUCH AS It Having Pleas'd Almighty God to set Our most Rightful, and Re-doubted Sovereign JAMES the Seventh, by the Grace of GOD, of Scotland, England, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. Peaceably upon the Throne of his Royal Ancestors, our most August and Glorious Monarch, Notwithstanding of the Hellish Plots and Machinations against the Sacred Person of Our late King, (of ever Blessed Memory,) and our said present Sovereign (whom GOD long preserve) And also notwithstanding of the Desperat and Traiterous Endeavours of those who lately, by Armed Force, Invaded these Our Sovereign Lords Realms of Scotland and England, of Design, not only to have Subverted his Royal Government, but even to have embrewed their wicked Hands in the Sacred Blood of Our said Sovereign Lord the R I N O, and utterly to have destroyed all his Majesties Faithful and Loyal Subjects; Which Traiterous Attempts, by so signal and remarkable Instances of the Divine Providence; have been so miraculously Defeated and Confounded; Of all which, his Majesties Privy Council being deeply sensible, They hereby, in his Majesties Royal Name and Authority, Ordain and Appoint the fourteenth day of October, being his Majesties Royal Birth-day, to be Solemnly kept and Observed throughout this Kingdom for this Year, and Yearly hereafter, as an Anniversary Day of Thanksgiving for his Majesty's Happy Birth, and therein to Commemorate his most Auspicious Entry to his Royal Government, and miraculous Deliverances aforesaid; And that all Signs and Demonstrations of Joy, on such Solemn Occasions, be performed by all his Majesties Subjects: And further Recommends to the right Reverend the Arch-Bishops and Bishops, that they cause the Ministers in their respective Diocesses, for this Year, and Yearly hereafter, upon the said fourteenth day of October, with the People, at Divine Service in the Church, Devoutly give Solemn Thanks to Almighty God, and Celebrat his Holy Name, for his so Signal Goodness and Protection, to Our said Gracious Sovereign, and in him, to these his Kingdoms; And that all his Majesties good Subjects may have notice, and be Certified hereof his Majesties Privy Council doth hereby Require and Command his Majesties Lyon, King at Arms, and his brethren Herald, Officers of the Privy Council, Pursevants, Messengers at Arms, forthwith to pass to the Mercat Cross of Edinburgh, and there (having his Majesties Coat of Arms Displayed) by sound of Trumpet, and open Proclamation, in his Majesties Royal Name and Authority, make Publication of the Premises; And Ordains the Sheriffs of the severall Shires of this Kingdom, to cause Publish the same at the Mercat Crosses of the head Burghs of their Shiers; And the Hightests of Burghs, at their Mercat-Crosses respective, as they will be answerable at their highest Peril, that none may pretend Ignorance: And the Sheriffs also aforesaid are hereby strictly Required to cause deliver to the Ministers within their Sheriffdoms respective, a Printed Copy of this Act, that they may from their Pulpits on the Lords Day, preceeding the said day of publick Thanksgiving, after Divine Service in the forenoon, Read the same to the People, and give them the necessary Exhortations upon this Occasion. Extracted fourth of the Records of his Majesties Privy Council, by me Sir William Paterson, Clerk to his Majesties most Honourable Privy Council.

Edinburgh, the Sixteenth day of September, 1685.

WILL. PATERSON, Cls. Sti. Concilii.

GOD Save the KING.