

238

318

17

238

A PROCLAMATION,

For an Anniverfary Thankfgiving, in Commemoration of his Majesties Happy Birth-day, being the Forteenth Day of October, &c. in Scotland.

26. Sept. 1685

JAMES. R.

As much As It Having Pleas'd Almighty God to let Our most Rightful, and Re-doubted Sovereign JAMES the Seventh, by the Grace of GOD, of Scotland, England, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. Peaceably upon the Throne of his Royal Ancestors, our most August and Glorious Monarch, Notwithstanding of the Hellish Plots and Murtherings against the Sacred Person of Our late King, (of ever Blessed Memory,) and our said present Sovereign (whom GOD long preserve) And also notwithstanding of the Desperate and Treacherous Endeavours of those who lately, by Armed Force, Invaded these Our Sovereign Lords Realms of Scotland and England, of Design, not only to have Subverted his Royal Government, but even to have embrewed their wicked Hands in the Sacred Blood of Our said Sovereign Lord the R I R G, and utterly to have defecated all his Majesties Faithful and Loyal Subjects; Which Treacherous Attempts, by so signal and remarkable Instances of the Divine Providence; have been so miraculously Defeated and Confounded: Of all which, his Majesties Privy Council being deeply sensible, They hereby, in his Majesties Royal Name and Authority, Ordain and Appoint the fourteenth day of October, being his Majesties Royal Birth-day, to be Solemnly kept and Observed throughout this Kingdom for this Year, and Yearly hereafter, as an Anniverfary Day of Thankfgiving for his Majesties happy Birth, and therein to Commemorate his most Auspicious Entry to his Royal Government, and miraculous Deliverances; And that all Signs and Demonstrations of Joy, on such Solemn Occasions, be performed by all his Majesties Subjects: And further Recommends to the right Reverend the Arch-Bishops and Bishops, that they cause the Ministers in their respective Dioceses, for this Year, and Yearly hereafter, upon the said fourteenth day of October, with the People, at Divine Service in the Church, Devoutly give Solemn Thanks to Almighty God, and Celebrate his Holy Name, for his so signal Goodness and Protection, to Our said Gracious Sovereign, and in Him, to these his Kingdoms; And that all his Majesties good Subjects may have notice, and be Certified hereof his Majesties Privy Council doth hereby Require and Command his Majesties Lyon, King at Arms, and his brethren Heralds, Banners of the Privy Council, Purcellvants, Messengers at Arms, forthwith to pass to the Herat Cross of Edinburgh, and there (having his Majesties Coat of Arms Displayed) by sound of Trumpet, and open Proclamation, in his Majesties Royal Name and Authority, make Publication of the Premises: And Ordains the Sheriffs of the severall Shires of this Kingdom, to cause Publish the same at the Herat Crosses of the head Burghs of their Shires; And the Magistrates of Burghs, at their Herat-Crosses respective, as they will be answerable at their highest Perill, that none may pretend Ignorance: And the Sheriffs aforesaid are hereby strictly Required to cause deliver to the Ministers within their Sheriffdoms respective, a Printed Copy of this Act, that they may from their Pulpits on the Lords Day, preceeding the said day of publick Thankfgiving, after Divine Service in the Forenoon, Read the same to the People, and give them the necessary Exhortations upon this Occasion. Extracted fourth of his Majesties Privy Council, by me Sir William Paterson, Clerk to his Majesties most Honourable Privy Council.

Edinburgh, the Sixteenth day of September, 1685.

WILL. PATERSON, Cl. Sti. Concilii.

GOD Save the KING.

Edinburg, Printed by the Heir of Andrew Anderson, Printer to His most Sacred Majesty, Anno DOM. 1685. This may be Re-Printed by George Croom, at the Blue-Ball in Thames-street, over against Baynard's Castle.