A Request to the Rich.

His Book was intended for the use of Poor Families which have neither money to buy many, nor time to read them. Imuch desiredel erefere to have made it shorter; But I could not do it, without leaving out that, which Ishink they cannot well spare. That which is spoken accurately and in sew words, the ignorant understand not: And that which is large, they have neither money, leasure nor memory to make their own. Being unavoidable in this straight, the first remedy lyeth in your bands; I humbly propose it to you for the Souls of Men, the comfort of your own, and the common good, on the b half of Christ the saviour of your Souls and theirs, that you will bestom one Book (either this, or some sitter upon as many poor Families as you well can. If every Landtord would give one to every poor Tenant that he hath, once in his life, our of one years rene, it would be no great charge in comparison of the benefit which may be hoped for, O in comparison of what prodigality consumeth. The price of one ordinary dish of mean, will buy

aBook: And to abate for every Tenant, but one dish in your lives, is no great self denial. If you indeed lay out all that you have better, I have done. If not, grudge not this little, to the poor, and to your selves: Is will be more comfortable to your review, when the reckoning cometh, than that which is Spent on Pomp, and Ceremony, and Superfluities, and fleshlyPleasures. And if Landlords (whose power with their Tenants is usually great) would also require them scriously to read. it at least on the Lords days) it may further the success. And I hope rich Citizens, and Ladies, and rich Women, who cannot themselves go talk to poor Families, will fend them such a Messenger as this, or some sitter Book, to instruct them, seeing, no Preacher can be got at so cheap A rate. The Father of Spirits, and the Redeemer of Souls, perswade and assist us all to work. while it is day, and serve his Love and Grace for our own and other Men's Salvation. Amen.

TO THE

READER

R. Arthur Dene's Book , called, The Plain Man's Path way to Heaven, was so well accepted, because it was a plain familiar Dialogue, that about forty years ago, I had one, faid to be of the Thirtieth Impression. While I was thinking to endeavour the reprinting of it, those Reasons that hindred me, did perswade me to do' fome what like it to the same Ends. Accordingly I began in the three or four first days Conference to speak as much as I could in the Language of the Vulgar, though I thought it not best so to hold on to the end: 1. Because it would have made the Book too big, or else have necessitated me to leave out much that cannot (in order to practice) be well spared, 2. Because I may suppose, that: riper Christians need not so loose a stile or .. method as the ignorant and vulgarido: And the latter part, of the Book support feth the Reader to be got above the lowest Form, though not to be a Learned. Acurate Man. The Title of the Book is rough, according to the design. In the Coaference with the Malignant I have brought in only such Objections, as are now most commonly used; and therefore which the ignorant most need our help against.

Thave two things that some Readers will think need an excuse; That I have put in the Sixth days conference, two Sheets of Instructions published heretofore; which I did, because such small things alone are cast away and lost; and because I would neither write oftner then is needful the same things, nor yet omit so nevessary a part.

II. That I have published Forms of Prayer andCatechizing But Ihave not now fo little to · do, as to confure their conceits, who think fuch Forms to be unlawful or unuseful Bue that they are not better done, I confess doth need more excuse than I can give you, lex, poctithat the Catechism should satisfie but few; for neither it, nor any that ever I faw, doth fully fatisfic my self. It is harder than most think, to fult the words, both to the Matters and to the Learners. Had I used fower. words, I must have left out some of the necessary matter: Had I used more, I had overmatched the memories of the weaker fort. The more ignorant any one is, the more words his Understanding needeth: and the fewer words his Memory needeth, & who can give the same man few and many? I have therefore put but few into the Catechism to be remembred, and put the rest in the Exposition to be read. Those that think that so short aSummary as the Creed, Lord's Prayer, and Decalog up, Will the Raptismal Covenant, which make up the firsk Gatechism, is unuseful, are not of my Judgment, nor of the AncientChurches, who . made these the Test of Mens Christianity, and firness for Christian Communion. . I know that the Exposition of the longer Catechism; is too hard for the Ignorant that have no instructer to open it surther to them; and that the first part (about God) is harder than the rest: But that is from the Incomprehensibleness ofGod, with whom yet order requireth us to begin; and it is so in most Systems of Theology: And the Reader that understandeth it not at first, must come back, and study it again: For He that is the first and the last, must be the first and last of all these Studies. I had thought to have done as others, and have added another Catechism with numerous and shorter anfivers: But I was afraid of over-doing. The hard passages which the younger do not reach, are not unuseful to the riper, who must have their parts. The Lord be your Teacher, and blefs (when we are dead and gone) the Infernations which we leave you, according to his Word and Will.

The First days Conference.

The Conviction of an Unconverted Sinner.

Speakers. ? Paul, A Pastor. . Saul, An Ignorant Sinner.

Paul. Hen I saw you last, Neighbour, I told you, that both my Love to you, and my Office, do bind me, besides my publick preaching, to waten over every person of myFlock, and to instruct and help them man by Man, as far as I am able, and they consent: Thus (a) Christ himself instructed Sinners, and thus must we: You know we cannot speak so familiarly, and come so close to every ones case, in a common Sermon as we may do by Conserence: And in Conserence it is, not a little rambling discourse upon the by, that is fit for so great a business; and therefore I intreated you to allow me now and then an hours set and soher talk with you, when all other matters might for that time be laid by; and I am now come to claim it as you promised.

saul. You are welcome, Sir; I confess, to you, that being ignorant and unlearned, I am loth to talk with such a Man as you, about high matters, and things of Religion, which I do not well understand, But because you defired it, I could not say you nay.

(4) Joh. 4. & 3. 1, 2, &c.

P. You shall see that I come not to dispute with you, or to cavil, or to do you any harm, or to pose you with any needless questions, nor to try your Learning & but only to help you before you die, to make fure of everlasting life.

S. I have so much reason my self, as to know, that Christs Ministers are like Nurses that must cut every Child his Mest as it is fin for him; and that if I were fick, it is not a long speech of my Physician that will serve to cure me; but he must come and fee me, and feel my pulse, and find out my difeale, and then tell me what will do me good, and how to take ir. But to tell you the truth, Sir, there are so many busie Fellows, that love to meddle with other folks matters, and censure others, and do but trouble Men, either to draw them to their own opinions, or elfe to make themselves Teachers, and to seem better than they are themfelves, that I was first unwilling, you should trouble me with fuch matters, till I thought with my felf that I am one of your charge, and till I heard how discreetly and renderly, and well, you speak to those that have been with you, And now I am ready to receive your Instruction.

P. But I have this one request to you before we begin, that we may do all with Reverence, as in the presence of God, and beg his blessing; and that you will not be offended with me it I speak freely, and come close to you; as long as you know that I have no ends of my own, but only in Love to feek the falvation of your Soul: And it is not Flattery that will cure Difeases, or save Souls.

S. I confess Man's Nature loyeth not to be ashamed or galled, or troubled; but yet God forbid that I · should be effended with you for seeking my own good: For I know you are wifer, than I, and know by your Life and Labour that it is nothing but all our Salvation that you leek.

The Poor Pan's Family Book.

P. I pray you (b) tell me what case do you take your Soul to be in for another world; and what do you think would become of you if you fhould die this day?

S. God knows what he will do with us all, I know not. But we must hope the best, and put our trust in the mercy of God,

P. No doubt but God Inows; but do you think that we may not (c) know our felves? May not a Man know certainly whether he shall be saved or not?

S. I think not: we can but hope well, but not be fure. For who can tell the fecrets of God?

P. Cannot a Man know it, if God should tell him?

S. Yes; but Ged tells no body his mind.

P. Do you not think the (d) holy Scripture, is Gods Word? and that whatloover it tells us, that God tells us ?

S. Yes, I cannot deny that.

P. Do you believe that there is (e) another life after this, and that Man dieth not like a Dog, but that his Soul goeth either to Heaven or Hell ?

s. Yes, that must not be denied.

P. Seeing Heaven is an unconceivable Glory, and Hell the most unexpressible misery, do you not think that there must needs be a (f) very great difference between those that go to Heaven, and those that go to Hell?

s. Y:s,no doubt; God is not unjust: He would not take one to Heaven, and fend another to Hell, if they were both alike.

P. And do you think that there is so great a difference, and yet that it cannot be known? Is a godly Man and a wicked Man folike, that they cannot

P. Another cannot infellibly know it, further than the life declareth it. But cannot you (g) know your own? Cannot you know what you love and what you bate?

S. No doubt but a man may know his own mind.

B. Very good: And you hear the Scripture read

P. Very good: And you hear the Scripture read at Church, where there are abundance of Promifes made to the Godly, both for this life and that to come; and terrible threarnings to the ungodly. To what use and purpose were all these, if no one could know whether he were Godly or Ungodly? Who could take any comfort in the Promises, if he could not know that they belong to him?

S. Not unless he have some guels or hope.

P. And do you not hear, in 2 Per. 1.10. that we must give all diligence to make our Galling and Election sure? And 2 Cor. 13.5. Examine your selves wherever you be in the faith or no: Prove your selves. Know you not your own selves, that fesus Christ is in you, except ye be Reproduces? Do you think God would bid men try and examine and make sure, if it were impossible?

J. No fure, we must do our best: But who can tell who are Ele Eted and who are Reprobates, which are God's secrets?

P. You cannot know before they are Converted whom God will convert and whom not. But when he Converteth a Sinner he fets his name and mark upon him; not outwardly only as you do on your Sheep or Goods; but inwardly, as the (h) Parents convey their own nature and like ness to their Children: That is, he Regenerateth and Sanslifieth them: He putteth into them a Holy nature; a new mind, and a new will and turneth them to a new life: And may not all this be known? Cannot od's Elect be known to themselves, when he hath given them the Spirit of Christ, and made them new Creatures, and let his certain mark upon them? Did you never hear, ? Tim. 2. 19. The foundation (or obligation) of God standeth sure, having this seal; The Lord knoweth them that are his; and, Let every one that name the name of Christ depart from iniquity: God knoweth whom he will convert and save from eternity: But when men Believe in Christ, and depart from iniquity, then they have his set of Election on them, and by it they may know them.

s. I cannot deny what you say, for it is plain.

P. I pray you tell me further; Have you not read or heard, that one fort are called in Scriuture the Children of God, and faid to (i) have his Nature, and his Image? and therefore are faid to be Kegenerate and born again; and Born of God, and begotten by incorruptible feed to a lively Hope, and a rever fading Crown in Heaven, and are made Holy as be is Holy? And the other fort are called (k) the Children of the Devil, and faid to be of Lim and to be ruled as Captives by him, and to do his works and will? And dare you think that G d and the Devil are so like, as that their Image and Nature, & Works and Children, cannot be known one from another?

s. I dare not think for God forbid.

P. And have you not heard in Scripture abundance of particular Marks had down, by which we may know whether we are the Children of God? And can you think that they are all laid down in yain?

P. And do you not hear expressly that by these marks we may know that we(1) are the Children of God? And that knowing it, we may Rejoyce, even with unspeak. able glorious joy? And that Believers are Comman? ded to Rejoyce in the Lord, yea always to Rejoyce. And God's word cannot be falle, nor doth it command the (m) urgodly thus to Rejoyce: Therefore certainly man may know whether he is the Child of God or no.

S. I never thought of formuch before as you have rold me: I can be deny it. But I must confess that I have no fuch knowledge of my felf.

P. Be not offended with me, if I freely proceed upon your own confession. Have you no assurance of your falvation? nor certain knowledge what cafe your foul is in? Tell me truly, what care, what (*)dillgent labour have you used to have made all fure? Is it because you could not get assurance i or because you would not do your parc? Can you truly fay that you have fet your heart upon the matter, and made it the greatest of your care and labour in this world, and left nothing undone which you are able to do, to. make fure of everlasting life.

S. I would I could fay fo? but I confess I cannot, God forgive me, I have had some shallow thoughts of these matters upon the by; but I never laid out such ferious thoughts, such earnest labours upon them as you speak of.

P. Have you not. I am forry to know it: But I pray you tell me what is it that hach hindred you.

S. Alas, Sir, many things have (o) hindred me One is the cares and business and crosses of this world which have taken up my mind and time. And ano ther is the vain pleasures of the steft, the delights of sense, and a daily contentedness in the particulars of my prosperity. Something or other so took me up, that my mind hath no leifure nor room for God.

P. And do you think you have done well and wifely; will this course serve your turn for ever? What have you now to shew of all the pleasures that fin afforded you ever fince you were born? what now are you the (p) better for every merry hour that's, past? for every sweet delicious dish? for every pleasant merry cup, for every playful day or company? for every wanton lust and daliance? Tell me now what good, what sweetness, what inward comfort is left behind? What the better are you now for all?

s. You need not ask me fuch a question. The pleasure is gone of all that's past? but I am flill in hope of more.

P. And how long will that endure which you hope for ? Are you fure to live another week, or day, or hour? And are you not fure that an end will come, and (q) lhortly come, and unrelifibly come. And where then are all your delights and merriments? Do you think death is made more fafe and comfortable, or more dangerous and terrible, by the remembrance of all the finful pleasures of a fleshly life? Go try if you can comfort a dving man (that is not mad) by telling him that he hath had a life of sport and pleasure; or that he had his cups and fealts and whores and honours, for folong a time; and that he (r) hash had bis good shings here: and that this world hath done for him all that it can do, and now he must part with it for ever. And as for all your possessions and wealth, what will they do for you, more than to be the fuel of thele transitory delights that their sleshly lusts may not lack provision? Will you carry any of it with you? Willit make your death more fafe or easie?] or do you not know that sanctified wealth and pleafurer, do all leave nothing but their sting behind, and prepare for everlasting woe?

S. I know all this: And yet this world hath a marvelous power to blind mens minds, and take up their hearts, and turn their thoughts from better things.

P.It's true with those that are blind already, and never had spiritual wisdom or holy inclination, to mind God or any thing truly good. But if men were well in their wits, could the beaffly pleafures of the flish for a moment, be preserved before holy everlasting p'easures? Could they be quieted in all. their milery, with the pride and pelf of a few days, and which they knew they must shortly leave for ever? Could a life that is posting so speedily, to its end, make men forget an endless life?

But tell me, Neighbour; Did you not know all this while that you must die? you must certainly die? you must shortly die ? At d did you not know, that when death cometh, Time is gone, for ever gone, and all the world cannot recalit? Did you not know that your (s) business in this world was to prepare for Heaven, and to do all that ever must be done. for your everlasting hope and happiness? And that it must go with all men in Heaven and Hell, as they have prepared here?

s. I have heard all this, but is was with a dulf and fleepy mind; It did not flir mo up to fober conlideration, because I hoped still for longer life.

P. But you know that the longest life must have an End: Where now are all that lived before us; And, alas! what are an hundred years when they are gone; what now is all your Time that is paft? But tell me further; What shift make you all this while with your Conscience? Did you never think of the (1) end of all your prosperity? and of your Souls appearing in another world? Do you not pass through the Church yard, and see the Graves, and tread upon the dust of those that have lived in the pleasures of the world before you? Have you not feen the Graves opened and the Carcasses of your neighbours left there in the filent darkness, to rot unto ugly loathsomness and dust? Have you not seen the bones, the skulls of your Fore fathers, and the lioles where meat and drink went in? And did you not know that all this must be your own condition? And is such a life better than Heaven? And such a corruptible body fit to be pampered with all the care and labour of our lives, whilst our souls are almost forgotten and neglected?

s. God forgive us; we forget all this, though we have daily and hourly remembrances, till death is just upon us, and then we do (u) perceive our folly. I was once fiel; and like to die, and then I was troubled for fear of what should become of me: And I fully resolved to amend my life: But when I was recovered, all wore off, and the world and the flesh took place again. P. But you are a Man, and have the use of Reafon? When you confess that you are unready to die and have done no more to make fure work for your foul, tell me, what shift make you to lie down quietly to fleep, lest you should die and be past hope before the Morning? Are you not afraid in the Morning, left you should die before night, and never have time of Repentance more. What thift make you to forget, that if you die unready and unconverted, you are a lost and miserable Man for ever? Are you fure at (w) Night to live till Morning! Are you fure in the Morning to live till Night Are you fure that you will not be long? Do you not know by what a wonder of Providence welive? How many hundred Veins and Arteries and Sinews and other parts our Bodies have, which must every one be kept in order? So, that if one break, or be flopt, or if our Blood do but corrupt and fowr, or our other nourishing moisture be distempered, or our Spirits be quenched, how quickly are we gone? And dare you willfully or negligently live one day unprepared for Death in so slippery and uncertain a life as this?

S. You lay well: But for all this uncertainty, I.

thank God I have lived until now.

P. And will you turn God's Patience and Mercy into prefumption, to the hardning of your heart; and the delaying of your Repentance? Will he always wait your leifure? As long as you have lived, will not Death come, and thort) y come? And where are you then? and what will you do next? Have you ever soberly bethought you what it is for a soul to take its farewel of this World, and presently to appear in another World, a World of Spirits good or bad, and to be (x) judged according to our preparation

The Poor Pan's Fantily Book. 11 preparation in this life, and to take up a place in Heaven or Hell, without any hope of ever changing.

S. You trouble me, and make meafraid by this talk: But Death will not be prevented: And why then should we begin our fears too soon? They will come time enough of themselves. The sear of Death is a greater pain than Death it self.

P. Alas, is dying all that you look at? Though Death cannot be prevented, Damnation may be prevented, Dying is a small matter, were it not for what cometh next. But can Hell be escaped without fear and care and serious diligence? Or had you rather be condemned for ever, than be frightned to your Duty, and from your fin and danger? Is Hell cafter than a little necessary Fears and Care? If you were either a Beaft or a Devil, there were some sense in what you say: For if you were a Beast, you had nothing after Death to fear; and therefore the fear of death beforehand would do no good, but increase your sorrow: And if you were a Devilthere were no hope: And therefore you might defire not to be tormented before the time, for it will come time enough at last. But God be thanked, neither of these is your cale: You must live for ever; and you may live in Heavenly Joys for ever, if you will. And are not these things then to be fore-thought of.

s. Really. Sir, I am afraid if I should but set my self to think of another World, and the state of my Soul as seriously as you talk of, it would frighten me out of my wits; it would make melancholy or mad. I have seen some people moped and melancholity with being so serious about such things; and therefore do not blame me to be ascaid of it.

P. God be thanked that you have yet your Reafon: And being you have it, will you fludy of these few Questions tollowing?

- S. All this is true, if a Man were fure of Heaven; But when he must think of Hell too, and his Fears are greater than his Hopes, the cale is otherwife.
- P. Now you fay fomething; But I pray you confider, that it is one thing to think of Hell acsparingly, as those that have little or no hopes to escape it; this might make a man mad indeed; But this is not your case. But it is another thing to fear Hell, as that which you (a) may most certainly avoid, and withal actain eternal life, if you will but confent to the offers of that Saviour, who will freely fave you. No Man shall be damned that is truly willing to be faved; to be faved, I fay, from Sin and Hell.
- S. I pray you tell me then, what maketh the thoughts of the World to come so terrible to us? And what maketh so many that are troubled in Conscience to be Melancholy, or to live so sad a life?
- P. I. I will tell you what. I have had to do with as many Melancholy, Confcientious persons as any one that I know of in England, And I have found that,

1. There is not one of many of them, but it is some (b) Worldly Cross which makes them melancholly, and then it turneth to maners of Conscience afterwards, when they have a while had the discase.

2. And, for the most part, it befalleth very few, but either weak Spirited tender women, whole Brains are fo weak, and their Fancies and Passions fo strong and violens, that they can bear no trouble, nor terious thoughts, but their Reason is presently disturbed and born down; or else some Men that by natural distempers of Body, either from their Parents, or contracted by some disease, are

II. And when I have known it befal some few in their first Repentance, it hath usually been fome very homous Sinners, who have lived to debauched in Drunkenness and Whoredom, or committed Perjury, or Murder, that Conscience did more terrifie them than they were able to bear. But this was not from any harm that they apprehended in a Godly life, but because they had been so wigodb; This was but the fruit of their former wickednefs, and partly Ged's Justice that will not pardon heinous finners, till he hath made :hem perceive Sin is evil, and that they must indeed be beholden to his Mercy and to Christ. But usually when God hath broken the hearts of such Men by his terrours, he tenderly binds them up with comforts and maketh those terrours very profitable to them as long as they live. O how precious is Christ to such? How sweet are the promises of Pardon and Salvation? Howodious is Sin to them all their lives after? but if it should fall out that fuch a wicked Man repenting, should never recover from his melancholy sadness, it is a thousand times better and more hopeful State, than he was in before, when he went on in .in with prefumpti-on and delight.

III. And there is another use too common, like the Case of some women that in travel are hurt by an unskilful Midwife. Every poor Repenting finner is not to happy as to fall into the hands of a wise, experienced Counsellor vo direct him: But fome do distract mens n inds about different opinions in Religion, and talk to a poor somer for this fide and against that fide, or about matters that are past their understandings: and some do not clearly and fully open the nature of the Covonant of Grace, which giveth Christ and life to all true Consenters, nor seek sufficiently by opening the Riches of Grace and Glory to win mens hearss or Love to God; but hend themselves much more to raise mens fears, and tell them more of what they descrive and what they are in danger of, if they repent not, than of what they shall enjoy with God through Christ when they come home. The fost must in its time and place be done; but the (c) latter is the great work that must save the Soul. For a man is not converted and fandified indeed, by any change, that is made by Fear alone. till Love come in, and win his beart, and repair his Naiure.

S. You have faid to much, as doth convince me that I must not for fear of the trouble cast away the thoughts of my foul and eternity. But truly, Sir, I have thought of these things so little, that I am but puzled and loft, and knew not what to do. And therefore you must help to guide my thoughts, or I can do nothing with them.

P. You have now hinted your self another cause that so many are puzzled about Religion, and turn it to a melancholly life. When a finner hath lived ignorantly, carelelly, and finfully all his days, and cometh at last, by the mercy of God, to see his min fery, it cannot be expected that he should prefently be acquainted with all those great Mysterious things which he never did seriously mind before. And so is like a man that hath a way to go that he never went, and a book to learn that he never learnt before. And all young Scholars do find the easiest Lessons hard till they have time to be acquainted with them. They are like a man, that was born and bred in a dungeon, where he had only candle-light, who when he first comethinto the world, and feeth the fun, is aftonished at the change, but must have time, before (by all, that light) he can be acquainted with all the things and persons which he never before faw. Long (d) ignorance will not be cured in a day. And. darkness naturally feedeth fears. But time and patience in the light will overcome them.

But to answer your defire, I will dired your thoughts; And I think that now the next thing you have to think on, is to look into your heart, and look back upon your life, and come to a clear resolution of this question, whether you are yet a truly converted linner, & are forgiven and reconciled to God, or not and whether you are yet in the way to heaven or no? I pray you tell me now what you think of your telf? if you die this night, in the case you are now in, do you think you shall be saved or not?

s. God knows? I told you that I do not know; But I hope well; For no man must despair.

P. To despair of ever being converted and saved; is one thing, that you must not do: And to know that a Man is not yet converted, and to delpair of being faved without Conversion, is another thing that is your duty, if you are yet renewed. But as for your Hoping well, I must cell you that there is a Hope of God's giving, and there is a Hope of our own and of the Devil's making. And you (e) must not think that God will make good the Devil's word, nor our word, but only his own word. To a repenting Believer God promilerh forgiveness and Salvation; And fuch a one must Hope for it; And God will never disappoint his hopes. But unto unbelievers, ungodly impenitent persons, the Devil and their own deceitful hearts only do promise forgiveness and falvation. And they that do promife it must perform it, if they can; for God will not. Do you think, that God hath provided that all men shall be faved any where in his word?

S. No, I dare not fay for.

h P. Do you think then, that if all men shall Hope to be faved, that this would fave them ever the more? S.No, but yet there is some comfort in Hoping well. . P. But how little a while will deceitful comfort last? Do you not know that there are some men that God hath told us that he will not fave? As Luk. 13. 3. 5. Except ye repent ye shall all perish? Mat. 8. 13. Except ye be Converted, and become as little Children, je shall not enter into the Kingdom of Heaven? Rom. 8. 13. If ye live after the flesh ye shall die? The text is plain, you cannot deny it. fell me then, if any one of these shall Hope to be faved, in such a condition in which God faith, that Mo man shall be faved, should such a mando well to Hope for the

S. But may we not hope that God will be better than is word? There is no harm in that.

P. That which you call Better is not Better but worfe. The King hath made Laws for the hanging of murderers. If he should pardon them all, they would call it Bener to them; But the Commonwealth would call it worfe. For no man could have any fecurity for his life; but every one that had a mind of his Money, or that hated him, would kill him if he could. And where then were Justice. What is the Law made for, but to be the Rule of the subjetts life, and of the Judges Senience, and to tell men what they must expeat? And if it be not faifilled, it is vain and deceitful, and sheweth that the Law-maker either had not wit enough to make it well, for had not power enough to execute it. A Benefattor or friend indeed may give more than he hath promised, if he ice caus: But a(f) Righteous Governour must Rule according to his Laws, or else he deceiveth men by them; which is not to be imputed to God. At least, he will not (g) lie, and falsifie his word. s. But for all that the King may pardon an offender. P. That is, because that weak man can make no Law to perfect, but on fome occasions there will be . need of dispensation. But it is not so with God. And a Righteous Kingwill never pardon crimes but in some rare extraordinary case, which shall be no disparagement to his Law, nor hurt to his subjects; which is no comfort to all the rest of the malefactors.

But I doubt you do not understa d, that God did at first make a perfect (h) Law, which forbad all

S. But I do Believe in Chrift; and Believers are forgiven. P. If you truly Believe, you have good reason for your hopes; but I am loth you should be mistaken in lo great a bufinels. I must first tell you therefore what true Believing is. Every true Believer doth at once believe in God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. And he believeth all God's word to be True, and he beartily confenies bisat God is bis only God, and that Christ is bis only Saviour, and the Holy Ghost his Sanstifier, and he trustesh himself wholly to God alone, for Happiness and for Justification, and Santtification, and Salvation. Do you do this?

S. I hope I do; I believe in God, and truff him. P.Let us a little consider all the parts of faith, and try whether you thus Believe or not. 1. Do you trely bolieve that without Regeneration, Repentance, Conversion, and Holinels, none can be faved, and see God? Fob. 3.3,6. Lik. 13.3,5. Manb. 18.3. Heb. 12. 14. And that if any man have not the Spirit of Christ,

2. Do you take the (q) Love of God, and the Heavenly Glory to be your only Happiness and Irust to nothing in this World, neither Health, Life, Wealth, or Pleafure, for your daily comfort, and greatest content.

3. Do you defire and trust that Christ will save you from all your Sins, and will Teach you all the will of God; and that he will landifie you by the Holy Ghoff, that you may live a (r) Holy and

s. You put me hard to it now, I know not what to fay to this?

P. You may know, whether you Believe and Trust in God and Christ or not, if you will but confider these three things. 1. What you must Believe and Trush him for. 2. What word of his it is that you believe. 3. What are the effects, which are af-ways brought forth by a serious Faith. And I. You must trust in God for that which he hath promifed to give; and you must take all cogether; or else it is not Trusting God: As you trust a Physician to Cure you, and trust a School. master to Teach you, and trust a Lawyer to Counfel you in his way; and so you trust every man in his own undertaken work; So must you trust God to be your only everlishing Joy and bet. ter to you than all the World, and to be the Lawgiver and Ruler of your Life: And you must trust [f] Christ to Justific you, and save you from your ims; and you must trust the Holy Ghost to kill your fins, and to illuminate, sansifie and quicken you, and by degrees, to make you perfectly holy. For these are the things that God is to be trusted for. But if any should trust God to save them from Hell, and not from Sin, or from the guilt of fin, and not from the power of it; or to let them keep their fleshly Lusts while they live, and then to give them Heaven at death, this is not to trust God, but to abuse him; nor to trust his mercy, but to refuse it. How doth he trust in Christ to fave him, that is not willing to be faved by him? And he that will not be faved from his Sin, will not be faved by Christ. And how can he rust the Holy Ghost to sanctific him, who is not willing to be fandified, but thinketh a Holy life to be an intolerable toyl and misery.

II. To Believe God, is to believe his word. And what word of God have you to believe, but that he will fave Conversed Believers and condemn all ungodly Unbelievers? If now you will Believe that God will fave any unconverted ungodly Sinners, this is to believe the Devil and your selves, and not God; For God never faid any fuch word in all the Bible, but protesteth the contrary. And what a self deceit is it to hope to be faved for Believing a lye and fathering it upon God? And what Blafphemy is it to call it a Believing God? when you believe the Devil that contradicteth him?

III. Believing and Trusting will be seen in their effects. Is it possible for a man truly to believe that he shall have a life of Joys in Heaven for ever, if he will turn from the field and the World to God, and value and seek Heaven more than Earth, and yet not do it, but be a Carnal Worldling still is it possible truly to believe that the wicked thall be turned into Hell, Plah 9.17, and yet to go on Hill in wickedness?

take any of his Counsel, or at least none of his Medicines, would you not count him mad that lookt to be cured by fuch a ruft? S. I confess this helpeth me better to understand what Irusting in God and believing in Christ is : I doubt many (u) fay they trust him, that keep their tins, and hold fast the World, and never dreamt of fortaking all for the Hopes of Heaven.

But I thought, Sir, that this Command of forfaking all and taking up our Crofs, had been spoken orly to luch as lived in times of Persecution, when they must deny Cirist or die; and not to us that live where Christianity is protested, God forbid that none should be faved but Markyrs.

P. But do you not find. 1. That it is the very Covenant and Common Law of Christ imposed on all that will be faved, that they deny shemfelves, and forfake all, and take up the Crofs and follow him, or elfe they cannot be his Disciples? Matth. 10. 37. Uc. Luke 14. 24. to the end. Luke 18. 21, 22. Uc. 2. And doth not every one that is Baptized, Covenant and Vow to forfake the world, the flesh, and the Devil? and to take God for their only God, which is their Al? For if it be not enough for them, and taken as their Portion, and loved above the world, he is not taken for their Go.l. But it's well that you confess that you (w) must forfake life and all for Christ rather than deny him. For if a man must do this Altually in persecution, then he must is do it before in Affestion and Resolution: Can you die for Christ then, unless your Heart be prepared for it now? Can you then leave all this world for God and Heaven, unless you before-hand love

S, No man is like to do that which his Heart is not disposed to before, and which he is not purposed

P. Why then you fee the case is plain, that every one that will be Christ's Disciple, must forfake the World in Heart and Resolution, and be a Mirtyr in true Preparation and Disposition, though no one must cast away his Estate or Life, nor be Martyr by fuffering, till God call him to it. He that loveth the Werld, the Love of the Father is not in lim. 1 John 2. 15.

By this time you may perceive, if you are willing, whether your Full in Christ, and Truff in God, have been true or falle. And now rell me what elfe you have to prove that you are a Juftified Christian, and that your hope of Silvation is built on God ?

S. My next proof is, That I Perpent of my Sins; and God hath promited to forgive them that repent.

P. Repontance is a good Evidence as well as Faith; But here allo you must take heed of that which is counserfeit; and therefore you must be fure to understand well what true Repentance is.

s. Reportance is to be forcy for my fins, when I have committed them, and to wish I had never done them.

P. If you know Repentance no better than for you nay be undone by the mistake. True Repentance is the same with true (x) Conversion; And it is fuch a fettled Change of the Mind, Will, and Life, from fl-fuly, worldly and ungodly, to spiritual, Heavenly and Holy, as maketh us hate all whole Soul, the Judgment, the Will, and the Life, and not of any one of these alone. It is a counterfeit Repentance, which changeth only a man's Opinion, and not his Heart, and his Conversation. And it is Counterfeit Repentance when men pretend that their Wills are changed, and they are willing to live a Godly Life, when they do it not, and their lives are not changed.

2. True Repentance doth not only turn a man's beart and life, from this or that particular fin, but from a [7] fleftly, worldly, and engodly State; So that he that before did feek above all to fulfil the defires of his fleth and to prosper in the World, doth now shive, as hard to kill those defires as he did to fatisfie them; and now taketh the World for vanity and vexation, and turneth it out of his heart. It is counterfeit Repentance which reformeth only some open shameful sin, as Drunkenness, Predigality, Fornication, Deleiving, or the like; and full keepeth up a Worldly Mind, and the pleafing of the Flesh in a cleanlier way. No one Sin is rightly killed till the love of every sin be killed.

2. True Repentance is a turning to God, and setting of our Hearts and Hopes on [a] Heaven: so that we now love Holiness, and seek God's Kingdom above this World. It is counterfeit Repentance, or meer Melancholy, when men by assistion or Conviction cry out of the vanity of this World, and set not their Hearts upon a bener, and seek not after the Heavenly selicity.

4. True Repentance is a seriled and un effettual change: It maketh a Man [b] love that which is Good, as if it were now namural to him, and not only to do some good for fear, which he had rather leave undone; nor only to forbear some Sins for fear, which he had rather he might keep. And therefore the very bears and love being changed, Temptations, even the same that before prevailed, would not now prevail again, if he were under them. It is but a counterfeit Rapen ance, when Men are forry for finning, but amend not: or are forry to day, and fin again to morrow, and that by fuch gross and wilful Sin, which they wight [c] fortake if they were truly willing. By all stand then you may try whether you have repeated indeed as von supposed.

S. But Luke 17. 4. Christ bids us forgive those that, seven times in a day trespass and seven times in a day return, and say they repent. And will not God then do so?

as we can judge, and not of faying, I repent, when it is an apparent lie or mokery. 2 And he speaketh of fuch Trespasses, the oft committing of which is contiffent with true Repentance. For instance: it is possible that a Man may seven times a day think a vain thought, speak a vain word; or if he pray seven rimes a day, he may have every time some coldness or imperfection in his prayers; and such like infirmities of creturning may fland with truckepentan e, because the Sinner would fain overcome them, if he could And foif a man often wrong you through infirmity, and oftropent, you must forgive him. But tell me truly; if one of your own Servants or Children should seven times a day, or but once a week, or once a month, spit in your face, and bear and buffet you, or wound you, and fet your house on fire; and as oft come and fay, I repent of it, would you take this for true Repentance, or think that this is it that Christ here means? O: if your Servant thould every night come to you and fay, Master, I have done no work to day; but I Repent I wish I Ead done it, and fo hold on from day to day; will You take this for Repentance? Do you think it possible for an ungodly, worldly, fl flily Man to Repent truly of fuch a life to day, and turn to it again to mornow, and fo on? It cannot be. I do not think that there is one wicked Man of many, but when he hath been guilty of Fornication, Drunkenness, or any such sin of sensual pleasure, doth repent of it when the pleasure is gone, and wisheth that he had not done it, when yet he goeth on, and is a lover of such braftly pleasure more than of God; For there needeth no saving Grace.

to fuch a kind of Repentance: Sense and Experience may serve the turn. For when the plea-. fure of the fin is gone, it is nothing, and therefore is no matter for the Sinner's love, (unless it be the functful remembrance of it, which is another thing. 1 But it is the future pleasure which is fill defired. When the Drunkard is fick, or findeth the next day the sweetness all gone, and nothing left but Shame, or Poverty, or a wounded Conscience, no thanks to him to say, I am forry, and wish I had been sober: but fill he loveth the fin, and will not leave it, and therefore hath no true change of Heart and Life, which is the true Repentance. And now confider well what I have faid, and judge your felf, whether you have ever truly repented of a Wordly, a Fleshly and an Unboly Heart and Life.

S. You put me so hard to it, that I know not what to say: I know not well what to think of my self. And therefore, Sir, as you have examined my case, I shall intreat you to help me to pass a right judgment of it. For you are wifer in these things than I: And though the patient feel the pains, yet the Physician can better judge of the cause, and nature, and danger of the discase.

P. You say well: But then the Patient must a tell what he feeleth, and you must answer me these few Questions.

1. Hath your Soul and everlasting State had a more deep and [d] erious thoughts and regard than your body and your worldly we fare?

S.I cannot fay forthough I have often thought of it...

F. 2. Do you verily believe that your fins are fo edious, as that if God should [e] condemn you to Hell, he should do no worse by you than you deserve.

S. I know you would not have me lie. I have been taught indeed that so it is: but my heart never perceived my Sins to be so great as to deserve Hell: I should think it unjust to be so used, as I would not use my greatest enemy.

P. 3. Have you not only heard, but believed, and perceived that you have as much need of Christ to be your Saviour, as a condemned Mulefastor bath of a Pardon? And is Christ more (f) precious to you than all the Riches of the World, his Ransom and Mediation being your hope, and his Grace your earnest delire?

s. I know that we cannot be faved without Christ: But I cannot say that I have so much desired him.

P. 4. Have you perceived at the heart that the love and favour of God is far (g) better than all the Treatures and pleasures of this World? And do you verily believe that all the blessed shall see his Glory in Heaven, and perfessly love, and praise, and serve him, and be filled with perfess joy for ever, in this blessed sight and love of God? And do you set more by the hope of this Heavenly Glory, than by your Life and all this World? And do you prefer Heaven before Earth, in your Esseem, your Desire, and heartiest labour and diligence to make it sure?

S. I would I could fay : I doubt there be but few that reach fo high as that.

P. 5. Have you truly believed that all (b) that will come to Heaven must be a Regenerate Sanctified People, in Mind, Will and Life; and that this must be done by the Holy Ghost: And have you earnoftly delired thathe would sanctifie you through ly? and kill all your Sins, and make you servently in love with God, and all that is good and fully obcdient to his will? And have you given up your self to Jesus Christ in a well considered, terolved Covenant, consenting to be Tanght and Governed by him, and willing to imitate him, and to re ceive his Spirit!

S. I cannot fay fo: though I defire to amend.

P. 6. Do you feel the [i] evil and odiousness of a Worldly, Carnal, Unrenewed Hears, and of au Unholy Life? Yea, of your want of Faith, and Love to God, as well as of outward, shameful Sins? And are these Sins of Heart and Practice, the greatest trouble and burden to you in the World?

S. I would it were fo, but I do not find it fo.

P. 7. Can you truly fry that you [k] live not fully in any known gross Sin? and that you have no Sin, no not the least known Infirmity, which you had not rather leave than keep? And that you had rather be perfetly Holy (in perfet Knowledge, Love, and Obedience) that to have all the Riches, and Pleasures, and Honours of this World?

s. I should diffemble, if I should tay fo.

P. 8. Can you truly fay, that when a Temptation compute to your most beloved Sin, God's Authority which forbiddeth it, is [1] more powerful to keep you from it, than the Temptation and your Lust to draw you to it?

S. I would it were; I should then fin less.

Are you truly willing to (m) wait on God. to obtain his Grace in the constant use of Hearing, Prayer, Medi acion, and the Company and the Count fel of the godly, even in the stridest means which God appointeth you to use for your salvation? S.I think they are happy that can do fo, but I cannot.

P.10. Can you truly fav that you are at a (n) point with all this world, refolving to let goEftate, Honour, Liberty and Life, rather than let go your Faith and Obedience, or by wilful Sin to turn from God?

S. I know I should do so; but I am not come to that.

P. In a word; if you were now to be (o) bapilzed first, and underst od what you did, would you take God for your only God and Father, and Christfor your only Saviour, and the Holy Ghost for your San&ifier, to lave you from Luft and Sin and Hell, and to bring you to perfect Holiness and Glory; forfaking the World, the Flesh and the Devil, and totally giving up your felf to God; and this by a folemn facred Vow, which if you keep no", you are lost for ever? Would you thus confiderately be Baptized if it were to do again?

5. I should promise, and be Bap ized: But whether I should consent to all this heartily, I doubt.

P. By all these answers set together, you have enabled me how to judge of your condition. If all this be so as you have answered, I must needs rell you, that I think that you are yet unconverted, unjustified and under the guilt and power of your fins, even in the gall of bitterness and bond of iniquity: And that if you should die as you are, without Convertion you are lost for ever : you must be made a new Creature, or you are undone. I know this judgment may possibly seem harsh and be displealing to you: But it is foolish to flatter our friends or our felves, when we stand so near the world of light.

But withal I tell you, 1. That your case is not. remediless: And that you may be faved from it, whenever you are truly willing. 2. And that you are not so far from Grace and Recovery as many hardened sinners are. For I perceive that you deal openly, and are not so desperately set against Conviction and Conversion as too many are.

S. I thank you for dealing plainly with me ; But what makes you judge so hardly of my case?

P. Out of your own mouth I pass my judgment; for you confess that it is not yet with you, as it is with all that have the Spirit of Christ. And if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. Rom. 8. 9.

And I will take the boldness to add some obfervations of my own, which have long made me fear, that yet you have not the spirit of Christ; nor true Repentance unto life. For, 1. I have never perceived that you did seriously mind the case of your soul. One might be often in your Company and hear nothing but of Common worldly things (which may be talk'd of in due timeand measure) not a word of (p) Heaven, nor that favoured of any care of your Tilvation. And fure one cannot truly believe, and mind, and regard' fo great a matter as life eve lafting, and never thew it, by any ferious enquiries or discours.

Counfel and Example.

3. And I never heard that you (r) let up the worthip of God in your Family: You feldom prayed with them at all, unless now and then that you faid over haffily a few cold words, without any fervency: You never (f) inftructed nor Catechized them, nor took care of the Souls of Children or Servants, but only used them like your Beasts, to eat and drink and do your work. And you are often from the Church Assemblies, and seem not much moved with what you hear: And neither neighbours or your Family hear a word of it from you, when you are once out of the Church.

3. And you can now and then drop a perty Oath, and Curfe when you are angry? And you spend the Lords day almost in common talk and bufinefs, except just while you are at Church: And though I never took you for a Drunkard nor Whoremonger, nor heard you fcorn or rail at Godliness, you can fit by them that do it, and eafily bear it, es if it were but a small matter; And I heard of one that you once over-reacht by an unconscionable bargain; but you never made him any restitution. And I perceive that you are all for your felt (though your are a quiet and good Meighbour;) You speak best of those that do you any good, be they what they will in other respects? And you have always an ill word for those that you are fallen out with, and that you think have wronged you, or that think ill or meanly of you, let them be never to beneft in all other telles?. In a word, The Love of God, and a Heavenly mind is a thing that will in some measure show it felf, by preferring God and Heaven still before all? And I could never perceive any fuch thing by you; which made me fear your case was as bad as you now confess it.

Ido not name these things, as if each one of them by itself were a certain fign of an ungodly person; How far an Honest minded man may be carried in a passion to a curse or railing speech, or any Oath, or through disability may omit any Family duty, or through a wrong opinion of it may negle& the Lords day, I am not now determining. But fure I am, that God faveth none but those that Love, Honour and Obey him above all others, and make him their Trust, and Hope, and Happiness; and that Christ faveth none but those that value him as their Saviour, and give up themselves to be taught and ruled by him; and fan affied by his Spirit, and that Heaven is a place for no carnal worldling, that loveth the world above it, and leeketh this world before it, and that mindeth most the things of the slesh, and had rather (1) satisfie than mortifie his finful luft and will. And as far as ever I could perceive by your Convertation, this is your case though you are not so grasly wicked and unconscionable as the debauched fort.

s. I confels I never made the faving of my foul, fo much of my care, and fo ferious a bufinels as you talk of; nor hath my heart been to tentible of the need that I have of Christ, or of the greatness of God's Love and Mercy to finners in our Redemption; nor have I had fuch believing and ferious thoughts of the Life to come as to make it feem more defitable to me than this world; nor can I say, and not lie;that I loved God better than my money and thoughts or Practice of such things; much less that ever I made the pleasing of God, and the obtaining of perfect and everlasting holiness and happiness with him in Heaven, to be the chief care, and end and labour of my life. But yet I thought that all being finners, and God being merciful, L might be faved, if I believed in Christ, and put my trust in him alon. But now you have made me better to understand what it is to believe and trust

Fall down on your knees and earneflly beg Gods help and mercy, to convince you, and shew you the truth of your Condition. 3. Look back up in all your life and look into the inwards of your foul, and let Conscience compare your heart & life with the word of God, and urge it to speak plainly, and to judge you truly as you are. 4. Do not only try and judge your felf by some few allions which have been extraordinary with you; but by the main defign and feepe and tenour of your heart and life; For there is so be good in the worst men, and some evil in the best; And if you will judge of a Good man by his worst actions, or of a bad man by his best, you will be unrighteous and mis-judge them. Simon Magus when he was profeshing his faith at his Baptilin, seemed better than Simon Peter, when he was deny ng Christ. And judge not your heart by fome good shoughts, or fome bid thoughts which have been rare; But judge it by that which hath had your chief esteem, your chief Love or choice, and been the main defign which you have driven on, and had your chiefest care and diligence in feeking it. Be fure you find out what it is, whether God or the fish, that hath been uppermost, that hath had your Heart and Life, and been that to which the other hath stooped and fubler /ed.

These are all the Directions that I will trouble you with, faving that I would have you. 5. Of the Conversion of a Sinner; What it is.

P.ul, A Teacher.
-Saul, A Learner.

Ell, Neighbour; have you examined your felf by the Word of God, fince I faw you, as E directed you?

Saul. I have done what I can in it.

P. And what do you think now of your case upon tryal?

S. I think it is much worse than I had hoped it was, and as bad as you feired: When I first read the Promiles to all that Believe in Christ, I was ready again to hope that I was fafe: But when I read farther, I found that it was as you had told me; and that I had none of Christ's Spirit, and therefore am none of his; and that I am not a penicent Convert, and am not in a state of Life. But I now befrech you; Sir, upon my Knees, as you picy a poor Sinner, tell me (a) what I must do so be laved 3

P. Are you willing and Refolved to do it, if I tell it you, and prove it to you fully by the Word of God ?

s. By the Grace of God I am resolved to do it, be it what it will : For I know it cannot be to bad as Sin and Hell.

P. You fay well. I will first tell you this again in the general, 1. That your cate is (b) not remedilefo, but a full and fufficient falvation is purchaled; and tendred in the Gospel to you as well as to any others.

2. That Christ and bis Grace is this Remedy; and (c) that God hath given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son: He that hath the Son hath life, and he that hath not the Son hath not life, but remaineth in his guile and fin. 3. That Christ having already made himself a fufficient Sacrifice for Sins, and merited our Reconciliation, Pardon and Salvation, to be given in his way, (d) hath made a covenant of Grace (Conditional) with fiaful man, by the Promife of which he forgiveth us all our fins, and giveth us right to everlasting life.

4. That Christ's way of faving men from fin is by lending his (e) Ministry and Word to call them, and giving his (f) Spirit within to fantifie them: And this Spirit is Christ's Advocate to plead his cause, and do his work, and prepare us by Holiness for the Heavenly Glory.

5. That all the condition required of you, that you may have all thele Bleflings of the Covenant of Grace, is but fincerely to (g) Believe and Confent, and give up your felf in Covenant to God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, and continue true to the Covenant which you make.

Alle Woor spair's Family-Ubook. 51

Read over these Five Points well, and consider of them: and then tell me whether this be not glad tidings to an undone miserable sinner? -----

Have you read them over?

S.I have read them; And I perceive that they are glad ridings of hope indeed. But truly, Sir, I have heard the Gospel so carelesty, that I do not throughly understand these things; and therefore intreat you to open them to me more fully and plainly.

P. I know you were baptized in your infancy; which was your priviledge, being entred by your Parents into the Covenant of God. But their Confem and Dedication will ferve your turn no longerthan till you come to age and natural capacity to confent and covenant for your felf. Tell me then, have you ever soberly considered what your Baptilm was, and what Covenant was then made beewixt God and you? And have you feriously repl newed that Covenant your felf, and so given up? your felf to God.

S. Alas! I never either feriously confidered or renewed it; but I thought I was made a Christian by it, and was fufficiently regenerated, and my fins. done away, and that I was a Child of God, and an Heir of Heaven.

P. Lad how did you think all your fins fince your Baprilin were forgiven you?

s. I come fled them to God, and some of them to the Minister, and I received the Lord's Supper : and I thought that then I was forgiven, though I never had the crue feafe and power thereof, on my hearr and Life.

P. What if you had never been Baprized, and were now first to be Baptized? What would you go s

P. Why truly Baptizing is well called Christening: For Baptilm is such a Covenant between God and Man, as maketh the Receiver of it a visible Christian; and if you had sincerely renewed and kept this same Covenant, you had needed no new Conversion or Regeneration, but only particular Repentance for your particular following fins. Baptism is to our Christianity, what Marrimony is to a flate of Marriage: or like the Lifling an Oath of a Soldier to his Captain, or of a Subject to his Prince. And therefore I will put you upon no other Conversion, than to review your Baptism, and understand it well, and after the most serious deliberation, to make the same Covenant with God over again, as if you had never your felf made it before, or rather as one that hath not kept the Covenant which once you made.

Now if you were to be Baptized presently, there are these three things which you must do: 1. Your Understanding must know the meaning of the Covenant, and (b) believe the truth of the word of God, which is his part. 2. Your Will must heartily defire and accept of the Benefits of God's Covenant offered you, and resolvedly consent to the Conditions (i) required of you. 3. And you must presently oblige your telf to the faithful prastice of them; and to continue true to your Covenant from the time of your Baptilin till death.

S. Truly if Conversion be no more than to do what I vowed to do, and to be a Christian serioully, which before I was but by name and Lypocritical profession, I have no more reason to stick at ir, than to be against Baptisin and Christianicy it fell. Piest then will you help my Understanding about it?

P. The Christian Belief hath three principle parts: that is, our Believing in (k) God the Fuber, and in Got the Son, and in God the Holy Ghoft: And each of these hath divers Articles. I. In the firft part all these things must be understood and believed. 1. That there is (I) one only G O.D, in three Perfons, the Father, Son, and Holy Ghoft: who is an Infinite, Eternal, Perfedt Spirit, a perfedt Life, Understanding, and Will: perfectly Powerful, Wife, and Good; The first Efficient, chief Governing, and final Cause or End of all; Of whom, and thro? whom, and to whom are all things: The Creator and therefore the Owner, the Ruler, and the Benefactor and End, especially of man.

2. That this God made Alam and Eve in his own (m) Image, under a perfect Law of innocency, requiring perfect obedience of them, on pain of death.

3. That they (n) broke this perfect Law by wilful fin, and thereby fell under the lentence of death, the displeasure of God, the forfeiture of his Grace, and of all their Happiness.

4. That all of us having our very Beings and Natures from them (and their Successors, (o) derive

This is The Baptilmal Covenant, the manner of whose outward administration you have often seen.

By this Covenant, as it is Gody Law and Ast on his part all that iruly confent, and give up themselves thus absolutely to God the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, are presently pardened all the sins that ever they were guilty of, as by God's Instrumental Ast of Oblivion: And in it they have the Gift of the Right to the Spirit, and to everlasting life, and of all the mercies necessary thereunto.

3. The (x) Holy Ghost in a peculiar manner is given to all that thus truly B deve and consent to the Holy Covenant: To dwell and work in them, and Regenerate them more fully to the Nature and Imagnof God, working in them 1. A holy Liveliness and Aliving for God; 2. A holy Light and knowledge of God; 3. A holy Love and Desire after God, and all that by which God is manifested unto man. And they that have not this renewing Spirit of Christ, are none of his: And by this the Temptations of the flesh, the world and

o. At death mens fouls are judged particularly, and (y) enter into joy or misery; and at the end of this world, Christ will come in Glory, and raise the dead and judge all the world according to their works. And they that have sincerely kept this Covenant (according to the several Editions of it which they were under) shall be openly justified and Glorised with Christ: Where they shall be made perfect themselves in soul and body, and perfectly know, love, praise and please the most blessed God for evermore, among the blessed Saints and Angels: and those that have not Performed this Covenant shall be for ever deprived of this Glory, and suffer in Hell everlasting misery, with Devils and sugodly men.

These nine points must all be competently understood by you; or else you cannot understand what Baptism, Repentance, Conversion, or Christianity is: And you cannot consent to you know not what.

S. Alas Sir, when shall I ever be able to underfland and remember all this?

P. It is all but your Common Catechism; Yea it is all but the Creed which you daily repeat, a little opened. But if you do not remember all these words; if yet you remember the fense and matter of them, it will suffice.

S. But you told me that besides Understanding and Belief; the (2) Will's true consent is also necessary.

P. II. That is the second part of Religion and Holines; and indeed the very Heart of all; for what the Will is, that the Man is. But I need not here many words to vell you, that when you have considered the terms of the Baptismal Covenant, your hearty resolved full consent to it, is the Condition of your present Right upon which Christ taketh you as his own.

duties which Christ shall appoint you. And the Lords Prayer is given as the more particular Rule of all the Desires of your Will. Wherefore you must well study the meaning of that Prayer.

3. You told me also that Pradice is the third part of Religion: How shall I know what that must be?

P. III. You must here know, c. The Rule of your Practice. 2. That your Practice must be according to that Rule. The Foundation and the End of all your Practice is laid down already in what is said.

I. The Foundation and Root of all is your Relation to God according to this Covenant. 1. You are Devoted to him as being totally His (a) own: And therefore you must Live to Him, and seek his Glory, and rest in his Disposals. 2. You are related to him as his (b) Subject. And therefore must endeavour absolutely to Obey Him above all the World. 3. You are Related to him (when you are a true Believer) as his [c] Child and Friend. And therefore must live in Faithfulness and Love. And this is the Foundation and Summ of all your holy life.

11. And the Ends of all your Prilice must be,
1. That you may be fully delivered from all fin and misery, and be made more [d] Holy and more servicable to God and prolitable to men, and may Giorisis your Father, Redeemer and San-

After, by the Glory of his Image on you, and so may be more pleating to him; And, 2. That you may be perfectly holy and Glorious and happy in heaven, and may with Saints and Angels dwell with Christ, and know, and love, praise, and serve the Lord in Glory, in perfect joy for evermore. These Ends being all most excellent and sure, must be still in your eye, as the great and constant poise and motive of all your Practice.

III. As you are a Subjest, your obedience both its Rule; And the Rule is the (e) Law of your Rodeemer and Cressor. This Law is the Law of Nature, and the Commands of Christ superadded in the Gospel, set together. The (f) Law of Nature is the whole Nature and Order of all things in the world, and specially of man himself, as it ignifies the will of God about

The special superadded Commands of Christ are, that we (g) Believe in him as our Saviour, and believe all the added Articles of Faith, and hope for Life by his purchase and promise, and love God as his goodness appeareth in his Son and Gospel, and love Christ's members for his sake, that we pray for the Spirit of Christ, and obey him; and that we Observe that Church Order, as to Ministry, Church Assemblies, the Lords day, the two Sacraments, publick Worship and Discipline, which Christ by himself or his Spirit in his Apostles bath commanded us.

The Degree of Obedience which is your Duty, is indeed (i) Persection without surther sin: But your daily Infirmities have a pardon; And therefore the Degree of Obedience Necessary to your Salvacion is but that it be sincere, that is, That as to the predominant bent of your Heart and Life, you truly obey your Creator and Redeemen, and make this the chief trade or butiness which you live for and manage in the World.

V. I must also add, that in all this you must still remember, that, i. the Devil, and 2. the World, 3. but above all your own (k) Flesh, mind and appering, will be the great Enemies of all this Holine is and Obedjencesand therefore you must understand their enmity, and the danger of it; and refolve by God's Grace to renounce them and refift them as your Ememies to the laft.

And though only fincerity, is necessary to salvation, yet, 1. You have not fincerity, unless you have 2 (1) defire and endeavour after Perfection. 2. And a greater degree of Holinels is necessary to a greater slegree of Glory.

S. Alas! Sir, I shall never remember all this. P. You may see then how foolishly you have done, to lofe your time, Childhood and Youth, which should have been spent in learning the Will of God, and the way to your Salvation. If you had morning and night defiroufly meditated on these things, and read God's word, and asked Countel of your Teachers, and learned Catechilms, and read good Books, and if you had marke well what you heard at Church, and had spent all the Lords day in such work as this, which you frent in play and idlenels, and vain talk, you might have been acquainted familiarly with all this, and more. But that which is past cannot be recalled, If you cannot remember all this, 1. Labour to understand it well 5.2. And remember that which is the fum of all.

bl. S. What is that ?

. P. 1. The shortest sum is the Baptismal Covenant it felf, To (m) Believe in, and give up your felt to God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, as your Creator, Redeemer and Santlifier, your Owner, Ruler and Chief Good and Ende: Renouncing the Flesh, the World and the Devil.

2. The next (n) furnmary explaining this more largly is, 1. The Creed, as the fum of what you must Believe. 2. The (o) Lord's Prayer as the sum of what you must Defire. 3. And the sum of the Law of Nature is in the (p) Ten Commandments; and the Church Laws of Christ about Ministry, Communion Sacraments and other worship, you will be taught in the Church by fense, and use, and daily teaching. Cannot you tay the Creed, Lord's Prayer and Ten Commandments.

S. Yes, I learned the words, but I never laid the scafe, and substance of them to heart.

vour Duty is yet shortlier summed up in (q) Love, which is the fulfilling of the Law, For Fuffice is comprehended in Love, which will teach you to do as you would be done by.

s. What Love is it that you mean?

P. The Love of God, the love of your felf, and the love of your Neighbour, is the fum of all your Duty.

S. This is but reasonable Duty, which no man can deny or speak against. And one part of it I shall eafily keep, which is, to love my felf.

P. Alas! poor man: Have you kept it hitherto? What onemy have you had in all the World. comparable to (r) your felf? All that your enemies could do against you is but as a Flea-biting. What if they flander you, oppress you, imprison vou, or otherways abuse you? Wrong not your felf, and all this cannot hinder your falvation, nor make God love you ever the less, nor make death ever the more terrible; nor will in ever be your forrow in Heaven to think of it, All your Enemies in the world cannot force you to commit one fin, nor make you a jot displeasing unto God. Bur you your felf have committed theylands of fins, and made your felf an enemy to God. O the felly of ungedly men! They can hardly forgive another if he do but heat them, or flander them, or impoverish them; And yet they can go on to abuse, undo and destroy their Souls, and run towards Hell, and eafily forgive then felves all this; yea (s) take it for their benefit, and will not be restrained, (1) nor perswaded to forbear, nor shew mercy to their own miserabl: Souls. I tell

The Wood Man's Family Book. you though the Devil hate you, yet all the Devils in the world have not done so much against you as you have done against your self. The Devils did but tempt you to fin, but never did nor could compelyou; But it is you that have wilfully finned your felf, and fold your Soul, as Efau his Birth-right. for a Morsel, for a pleasant Cup or Game, or for a

Was it not You, even you your felf, that forgot your God, neglected your Saviour, relifted the Holy Spirit, refused sanctifying Grace, despised Heaven, and fee more by this dirty World ? : Was it not you your felf that loved not Holineis, nor a Holy God, nor the Holy Scriptures, nor Holy Perfons, nor Holy Thoughts, or Words, or Ways? that loft your precioustime, and umitted almost all cour duty, and run into a multitude of fins? And if the Devil fludied his worft to hutt you. what could he do more, than to tempt you unto fin? If you have been a fwo n Bnemy to your felf, and plotted how to do your felf the greatest mischief, what could you do worse, than to sin and run on God's displeasure? Which is the way to the Gallows, but by breaking the Law, by Murder, Felony, or the like? and Which is the way to Hell. but loving fin, and refusing Grace? And ver are you a lover of your felf?

S. All this is too true; And yet I am fure that I love my felf; How then comes all this to pass?

P. You love your felf with a Sensitive love, that goeth all by Senfe, and little by Reason, much less by Fairb. As a Swine love h himself when he is burfting his belly with Whey, or a Rat when he is eating Rushine. You love your Appeint, but you have little care of your Soul; You love your felf but you love not that which is good for your felf, Meat and Medicine.

Indeed God hath planted a love to our felves for deep in Nature, that no Man can choose but love himself: And therefore in the Commandments the love of God and our neighbour only are expressed; and the love of our selves is presupposed. But Christ knowing what destroyers men are of themselves, and forsakers of their own salvation, doth call upon sinners to Love, Care, and Labour for their own Souls.

These things conjunctly make up Man's enmity against his own Salvation. 1. The Soul hath lost much of the knowledge of its own excellency in its higher Faculties. 2. Its Love to its self as Rational is dulled, and wanteth stirring up. 3. It is inordinately sallen in love with its self-as sensitive, and its lower faculties. 4. It dotwn on all sensual objects that are deligibledled. 5. It is as dead and averse to those noble spiritual bigher objects in which it must be happy. And in this sense Man is his own greatest enemy.

I the rather speak all this to you on this point, because your very Repensance confisheth in being angry with your felf, and falling out with, and even loathing your felf for your fine, and your felfundoing. And till you come to see what you have done against your felf, you will never come to that true humiliation and self-distrust asis reedful to your falvation. And also becarse that it is kere and here only that your fafety and happine's is like to flick for the time to come. Do but as a man that lovel himself, and you are life. God intreateth you to have mercy on join felf. He hath refolved on what terms be will have mercy upon finners: They are unchangably fet down in his Gospel. And finners will not yield unto his terms. Though

Though they be no larder, than, To receive bis Gifts according to their nature, men will not be intreated to receive them. They would have fleshly and woldly prosperity, but deliverance from fin, and Holy Communion with God, they will not have. Here is the only stop of their salvation. All men (a) might be holy and happy if they would : But most men will not. This is the woful state of sinners! They will cry to God for mercy, mercy, when judgment cometh, and it is too late; and yet now no countel, no reason, 110 intreaty will perswade them to accept it. It is a pitiful thing, to hear Christ's Ministers, in his Name, befeech men to accept of fantlifying faving mercy, from day to day, and all in vain, and to think how these same men will cry for mercy, when mercy hath done with them, and the door is thur. Yea bow they still tay, we hope to be faved because God is merciful, while they will not have his laving mercy. As it mercy fluck in the hand of God as an unwilling giver, while it is they that refule it as unwilling to receive it. Like a Thief that is intreated by the Judge to give over in time, and to have mercy on himself, and not to cast away life, and will not hear nor be perswaded; and yet at the Bar or Gallows will cry out for mercy. What would you say to a familhed Beggar that should stand begging for an alms, and not take it? Would it not be a frange fight at once to hear the Beggar fay, I pray you give me money or bread, and the Giver offering it, and lay, I enireat thee to take it, and have pity on thy felf, and do not famish; and cannot prevail?

S. It is a sad and mad condition that you deferibe, and it is too true: But methinks it were a fitter comparison if you likened them to a sick man that begs for beath of the Physician, but will take no Physick; while the Physician begs of him in vain to take Physick that he may have health. For it is not the beath that men are unwilling of, but the I hysick. It is not falvation, but the strait gate and narrow way.

P. There is some Truth in what you say, (that they are against the means;) But you are mistaken in the rest i For Holiness which they resule, is not only a means, but it is much of (w) Salvation it self. Holiness is the souls health, and not only its medicine: And perfect holiness, which is the perfect Knowledge and Love of God, will be Heaven it self. And to resule Holiness is to resule Health and Heaven.

s. The Lord knoweth that this hath been my case: I have been my own most hurtful enemy; and done more against my self than all the world bath done; and while I loved my self carnally, I undid my self foolishly: And I understand now that it is not so easie a matter to Love ones own Soul aright as I had thought. But he that will not Love God, it is pity be should live; For God is all Goodness.

P. Alas! Man, it is far harder to (x) Love God truly than your felf: I tell you, that your want of Love to God is the greatest sin that ever you were guilty of, and the very summ of all your sins. And were the true Love of God more common, falvation would be more common; for no true Lover of God shall be condemned. I know that there is something of God that all men Love.

They love him as he is the maker and maintainer of the world, and of their own lives and bodily prosperity; And as he giveth them food and rayment, and all the mercies which they abuse to gratifie their lusts. But they love him not as he is Holy, and a Righteous Governour forbidding sin, requiring holiness, hating and punishing the ungodly, restraining sleshly lusts, and not forgiving nor saving the impenitent.

If you had loved God all this while indeed, would you not have loved his word, and loved to praife him and call upon his name, and loved what he loveth, and delighted to do his will, and pletic him? Did you love God when you broke his Laws, and hated Holiness, and could not abide an obedient, holy, heavenly life, and loved not to think or talk much of him, nor to call upon him: You may as well fay that he loveth the King, who spits in his face and rebelleth against him.

As long as you think you have been a tover of God in your (y) linful flate of life, and think it so easie still to love him, you know not God, you know not your self, you know not the need or the nature of true Conversion, nor can you Repent of this Greatest sin, while you know not that you are guilty of it. Do you not know that you have all this while been an enemy to God, and a Hater of him?

S. I have been an enemy to my felf, but sure no body can hate God.

P. Where there is enmity, loathing, aversation of mind, and unwilling sels, there is batted. The carnal mind, is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the Law of God, nor indeed can be. Rom. 8. 5, 6, 7. If there were no enmity between God and man, what need was there of a Mediator or

He hatethe all the workers of iniquity: Pfal. 5. 5. because: they are all enemies to him, and contrary to his holinels, as darkness is to light. It is the very case of all ungodly Persons, that their hearts are turned away from God to this (a) world, and to the pleasures of the siesh, and being in love with these, they (b) love not that God, nor that Holy word, which calls them off, and condemneth them for their finful minds and pleasures. Let your Conscience speak plainty; Hid not the would more of your Heart than Heaven? Were you not a Lover of Plafure more than of God? Were not your thoughts lying down and riding up, and, all the day more forward and ready to think of your worldly and flethly concernments than of God? and were not those thoughts more Iweet and welcome to you? Was not your heart fo loath and backward to think of God with pleafure, that you never did seriously set your self one hour together in your life to meditate of him, and of the Heavenly Glory? Nay in Sermons. and Prayers you could not keep your Thoughts upon him. You know what it is to love your friend, to love your money, land and pleasure; Do you know by as good experience what it is to love God? And if you love him not above all, you. love him not indeed as God. Were you not more. weary of holy thoughts, or holy conference, or prayer, than of your worldly bufiness or discourse? Was not your heart against the Holiness and frictness of God's word and of his Servants? In a word, If you had no (c) Enmity to a Holy and Heavenly mind and life, why did you not chufe it? And why could not all God's mercies invite you to it? Nor all teachings and intreaties ever perswade you to it? Why are you to backwar I to it? Is this no Enmity? And if you were an Enemy to Holinefs, and to the Holy Word and Government of God, was not this to be an Enemy to God? I will tell you we are all Enemics to God till Christ have reconciled us and the Holy Ghost renewed us, and turned the Enmity into Love.

S. I never laid the state of Enmity to heart till now. I knew that I was a finner; But I knew not that I was an Enemy to God, even when I began to fear that he was for my fin an Enemy to me. But I find now that it hath been with me just as you. fay; and I perceive that all fin hath some Enmity to God in it.

. P. Where God is not loved as God, he is in fome fort (d) hated; And between Love and Rnmity there is in man no middle State. For none in this are perfest Neuters, or indifferent. fie a matter, nor fo common, to love God truly, as I thought it was.

P. To (f) Love God is God, with all our mind and bears and might, is the fum of Holine's, the proper fruit of the Spirit, the certain Mark of God on the foul, and the furest Evidence of his love to us, and the very beginning and foretafte of Heaven. It is that which Christ came into the world to effect, by the most wonderful demonstration of God's love to finners, as the fittelt means to win their love, Faith in Christ is but the Bellows to kindle in us the Love of God ; and Falib working by Love, is all our Religion in a few words, Therefore if Love to God were Easte and Common. all Goodness would be so, and Salvation would be 10.

But having faid thus much of the Love of your Soul, and Love of God, what think you next of the Love of Others? Is that also easie to you?

S. I am fometimes angry when I am wronged or provoked, but I know no one in the world that I with ill to.

P. So far it's well. But, 1. Do you Love Men more for Godand his Image on them, than for your felf? 2. Doyou(g) Love your Neighbour as your felf? I pray you understand the matter aright. 1. God must be first and principally Loved, as the cheif and infinite Good; He must be Loved for and his brothers righteous. If you have read the Scripture, and other History, and have but heeded what is done about you in the World, you might eafily perceive that the World hath ever confided of two contrary forts of men, who are as two Armies are ftill to this day in constant opposition to each other: The wicked are the (e) Devils feed and are my; and the godly are the army of Christ, and the Regenerate feed of God. Whence is all the hatred of Godline's on the earth, all the scorns, and slinders, and cruel perfecutions and butcheries of holy perfons, and the number of Martyrs and Sufferers, but from this inbred Enmity? This is Chrift's meaning, when he faith, that he came not to fend Peane, but a sword: Because he came to cause that Holinefs which the wicked will fill hate and perfecute. Look about you and see whether we may not yet truly fay with St. Paul, Gal. 4. 29. But as then be that was born after the flesh persecuted bim that was born after the spirit; even so it is now? And we were all of this malignant disposition in some degree till grace recovered us. Rom. 5. 10, When we were Enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his son. So Col. 1. 21. Jun. 4. 4. He that will be a friend of the World is an Enemy to God. The friendship of the world is Enmity to God. I will mind you of no other proof more than Christ's own sentence, which is not unjust, Luk. 19. 27. Those mine Enemies that would not I should reign over them, bring them bither and flay them before me. Those that would not have Christ reign over them (and Subdue their worldly minds, and fleshly lusts, and make them holy) are his Enemies. And hath not this been your Cale?

bimself, as being Goodness it self, and most amiable in himself, and that unlimitedly with all the Soul. The Creature must be loved only for Godsas bearing his Image, or the marks of his perfection, and as a means to know and please and glorific him: Those must be most loved who have most of the Image of God, in wildom, rightcoulacts and holinels. The Godly must be loved as Godly, with a special Love. ProfessedChristians must be beloved as such. All men even our (b) Enemies, must be loved as Men, with a Common love. And all this for God's work up-

But a selfish Carnal man, loving his Carnal self more than God, doth make himlest the standard and Reason of his love to others. He loveth not those best who are best, and most boly, or serviceable to God, and the publick good; But those that Love and bonour bim most; and those that are most of his opinion; and those that will be ruled by his will, and never cross it; and those that do most for him, and are most profitable to him. A true Christian loveth his neighbour, as you love the Children of your dearest friend; for the Parents lake. But a carnal man loveth his Neighbour, partly as a Dog loveth his Mafter for feeding him, and partly as all Creatures, Birds and Beatts, do love their Companions, for likeness of kind, and from Jociableness and acquaintance. Have you not loved an ignorant worldling, a prophane swearer, a derider of holiness, who loved you and spake well of you, and took your part, and did you many friendly Offices, better than a wife and godly perfor that never did any thing for you, or that had low thoughts of your wit and honesty, though to worse than indeed you did deferve?

CS. I cannot deny bur you describe me rightly.

P. And did you never dishonour your Govenours, Prince, or Parents? Did you never feek to hurt another, nor defire revenge? Did you never deceive your Neighbour, nor wrong him any way in his Estate? Did you never belye nor slander him, or backbite him, nor fallly accuse him, nor feek to make him odious or contemptible to others? Did you never envy him, nor covet his Estate or Honours, nor leck to draw any thing from him to your felf? If you did, what love was in all this bue felf love ?

May, what labour and cost have you been at to fave the Souls of miserable Sinners, or to relieve their Bodies? And he (i) that feeth his Brother have need, and shutteth up the bowels of his compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? At what rates, and with what condescension, Self-denial, and diligence have you shewed your Neighbours that you love them?

2. At least hach it been with any such love as your love your felf ? How early can you bear your Neight bours Wrongs, Reproaches, Slanders Poverty, Sicknefs, in comparison of your own? You can aggravate his faults, and extenuare your own; and judge him very culpable, and, centurable, and punificable for that which you make nothing of in your left.

.S. I must confess I have sinned against the Love of God, of my felf, and of my Neighbour. And I fee that I must have a better Heart, before I can truly love God, my felf, and my Neighbour for the tine to come.

P. I have plainly opened to you the nature of true Convertion, even (k) Fuith and Repentance:

that is, the nature of the Covenant which your Parents in your Baptism made in your name, or entred you into, and which at age you wust fincerely make your felf, if you will be faved. What fav you now to it upon Confideration of the whole? Can you heartily consent to it, and thus give up your felf to God and to Jesus Christ, or not?

S. O, Sir! it is a great butiness: I must have many a thought of it yet before I shall understand it well; and many a thought more to overcome all the backwardness of my Heart; Such a work is not to be rashly done.

P. I like your answer, so be it that it come not from unwillinguefs, nor imply not a purpose to delay; that which must needs be done, or you are for ever (1) undone, cannot be done too foun, fo it be done well. But tell me were you never confirmed by a Bishop, by the laying on of his hands?

J. Yes, to tell you the truth I was 5 though none of all the Parish went to him but I my self.

P. And what was it that he did to you? And what did you?

S. He faid a short Prayer, and laid his Hand on my Head, which I took to be his Bleshing, but what he faid I know not; But I faid not a word to him.

P. Did he not examine you of your Knowledge, and Faith, and Repentance, and whether you have kept your Baptismal Covenant, and now Consent ço it.

s. Nota word; We were all Children that kneeled down to him, and had his Bleffing, and we knew no more. Only now you remember me, I heard him tell one at Age that went before us, that we must stand to the Covenant that we made in Baptilin: But little did I know or confider what that Covenant was: Nor had I given any other account if I had been examined, but only that I could fay the Creed, the Lords Prayer, and the Ten Commandments :

though I understood them not.

P. If you will read the Church Liturgy about Confirmation, you will see that, 1. You should have been able to fay all the Church Catechism; 2. And that you should have had the Curate's Certificate thereof, 3. And that being come to years of discretion, and having learned what was promised for you in Baptism, you should your self with your oun mouth and confent ratific and confirm the same; and also promise that by the grace of God you will ever more endeavour your felf faithfully to observe it. And the Bishop, I suppose, though you understood him not, did put this Queltion to you, Do you here in the presence of God and this Congregation, Renew the Solemn Promise and Vow that was made in your name at your Baptism: Ratifying and consirming the fame in your own persons, and acknowledging your selves bound to believe and do all those things which your Godfathers and Godmothers undertook then for you? And you are to fay [1 do] And it is ordeved that I none shall be admitted to the Holy Commurion, till fuch time as he be Confirmed, or be ready and definers to be Confirmed.] I confess these Cover nanting words are only in the New Common Proyer Book, 1666, and therefore it's like you heard no fuch thing; but there was yet more in the Old Rubrick of the Reasons of it.

So that you lee that if the Bishops and Pastors would faithfully manage this great work, none floodd Communicate at the Lord's Table, till he professed all this Covenant Consent, in which your, time Conversion doth confift.

S. I would it were fo: It would make a great reformation in the Church. I had learnt the Church

Yea.

Catcchilm at about feven years of Age, but I knew little more than a Parrot what I faid, and foon forgot it, and never dreamt of fuch a folemn Covenant with God as you deferibe, on which my whole Salvation doth depend, which needeth the best underflanding and deliberation.

P. Tam so much the more of your mind, because it was the wildom of all Christ's Churches, for many hundred years, to keep those that defired Baptism at Age a sufficient time in the order of Catechifed persons, long teaching them the meaning of Christianity and Baptism before they Baptized them-And because the Bereans, All. 16, are commended for fearthing the Scripture, to fee whether that which was taught them was fo or not: But especially because Christ himself, Luk. 11. 28, 29, 30. would have all that come to him, fit down first and count what it is like to cost them to be his true Disciples, and to consider well of the Work, and how they shall go through with it, before they engage themselves to him.

s. But why then did Peter (m) Baptize thousands in the day that he had converted them?

P. 1. They were fews that had been instructed in the Law, and known the true G. d, and had been foler nly entred into his Covenant before, and fo wanted no necessary knowledge, except only about the true Melliah, whom they themselves exp. Etcd. So that their case (n) differed much from that of the Gemiles or those that are found in utter ignorance. 2. And though the time was shore, yet they gave sufficient evidence of their Convertion, in their Humiliation, Confession, and penitent defires of being acquainted with the way of Salvation in Chriff; and no doubt but they openly Alie Wood Man's Family=1Book. professed the Christian Faith, with their Repentince at their Baptism. If you are just now truly acquainted with the meening of the Baptitmal Covenant, and fully resolved to content to is, and perform it, I would have you renew it without delay; But else take time to be instructed and resolved.

S. Seeing I must make just the same preparation on, and profession, and Covenant, as if I were newly to be baptized, had it not been better to have forborn my Baptifin till now, than to be haptized in Infancy, when I knew not what was done; What warrant is there for being baptized before we believe?

P. You are not now capable of disputes: When you are, read my Book for Infan's Baptilin. In the mean time I shall only tell you, i. That all that: are to be entred into Christ's Church, as its Members and his Disciples, must enter by Baptism: which is proved, Mat. 28. 19, 20. Difeigle me all Nations, baptizing them; Baptilin is made the door of entrance into the Golpel Church, and there is neither a word of Command nor Example of en-

tring any other ways

2. But the Infants of B. lievers are to be entred into Christ's Church, as its Infant Members and Disciples: which is proved, i. Because Infants were Members of the Church before Christ's Incarnation; and Christ came not to deltroy the Church Priviledges, but to enlarge them. cumcifion entred the Fews Child.en; And the Ishmaelites and Edomites, and the posterity of Keturah used Circumcision as well as the Fews; And though Circumcifion cease, Infants Churchmembership ceaseth not. For these two were separable before; In the Wildernels for for y years all the Fews Children were uncircumcifed and yet they ceased not to be Church-members; B 2

Yea, Dem. 29, they were expresly entred into the Covenant of God.

3. It appeareth therefore that the Inflitation of Circumcilien proveth not that Infints Churchmembership was then instituted; Yea, it is plain that it continued from Adam's time, 1. Because there is not one word of intimation in the Scripture else when it began. 2. The word [feed] Gen. 3.15. in the New Covenant is extensive to all Ages; For though it be meant of Christ as the Head and Captain, it is meant of all the holy feed as his Membars, 3. God did still joyn the Children with the Parents in Promises and Threats, Bleffings and Curlings in all Ages, before Circumcition, 4. There is no proof that ever God had any Church on Earth of which Infants were not Members.

4. God both by Nature and Infiitation, Deur. 19. 10, 11, 12. Gen. 17. 13. made it the duty of Parents to enter their Children inco the Covenant of God, which is no where reversed; But under the Gospel there is no appointed way of entring them mio Coverant, but by Raptism. If God Command us to dedicate them to him, he will fare receive them.

5. Scripture telleth us that Christ would not have cast off the Jewish Nation, and consequently their Children, from their Church fate, if their own unbelief and rej Aing him had not done it. Mub. 33. 37. O fernfalen! kow of would I have gathered thy Children, as a Hen gutheresh her thickens under ber Wings, and ye would not! Rom. 11. They were broken off for unrelief; Therefore but for unbelief they had not be in broken off. And the Geniles are graffed into the same Olive or Church state. they ceased to be a Kingdom and National Church. And therefore their Children lost their Church and Covenant-right. And if the Children of Believing Fews had it, all had it, when the Church was one.

6. Mar. 28.19. He tells us that Nations are capable. of being discipled. And the Kingdoms of the World are to be the Kingdoms of the Lord and of his Christ; But there is no Nation or Kingdom, which Infants are not a part of.

7. And Christ himself was angev with his Difciples that would have kept little Children from him, and faid, Forbid them not to come unto me, for of fuch is the Kingdom of Heaven. And the efore he is fill ready to receive them when dedicated to him. though he then haprized them not, because the common afe of Christian Baptism was to begin after his death.

8. And the Apostle, 1 Cor. 7.14. tells ue, that our Children are holy; which mult needs figuifie more than Legitimate, for so are Heathens Children.

o. And the Apostles still haptized whole Households.

10. And the universal Church in all Ages hath-observed it.

11. And Infants have a vilible way of fin and mifery, by Generation; And if there were no visible way of their recovery by forgiveness, that to is, if there were no Promile or Covenant of Pardon which they had a certain part ir, Christ's Remed; would be fo narrow as to exclude the Age that is first miserable; and whan hope could we have of the salvation of any of our Infants without a Promise?

S: But they believe not.

P. Nor they fin not, and yet they are guilty of O. iginal fin, and need a Saviour. Though they 12.1

believe not actually, they are the infants of Bc. lievers; and their Paren's Faith is as far imputed to them for their reception, as the unbelief of the wicked is imputed to their children for their rejection and greater punishment; which is plain in Scripture. Indeed while they have no reason and will of their own, their Parents reason and will bath the disposal of them, they begin in their Members.

& Bat what good doth it to those that under-Itand not?

P. Is it no good to have a folenon delivery of a scaled pardon of Original an? And a Covenant relation to God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghofi? and a visible Title to the blessings of the Covenant ? and to be no Strangers, but Fellow-Citizens of the Saints and of the Church or Houshold of God, and if they die, to have right to life eternal? when it is the Dogs that are without the doors? The benefit is the Child's, and the comfort is the Tarents. Is it not a priviledge that you may take a Leafe of Lands for your Child's life as well as your own, and make him a party in the Covenant, and bind him to pay the Rent, though he understand it not? And if at Age he think he is wronged, he may quit his part in Christ and Heaven when ever he pleafe.

S. But I perceive by my own case, we should do it more fenfibly, if we stand till we understand what we, do.

P. 1. Your Parents should be as sensible when they dedicate you to God, though you could not. 2. P. Yes: I must before let you know, in what manner it is that this Covenant must be made, if you will be a Christian indeed, and have the benefits. 1. You must consent to the Whole Covenant of God, and not only to some part. You must be (p) devoted to your Creator, your Redeemer, and . your Sanctifier ; You must take for your Owner, . your Ruler, and your Saviour. You must be willing to be fanctifi d as well as pardoned, and to be faved from fin, and not only from punishment.

You must Covenant Absolutely, without any fecret (4) exceptions or referves: If you fecretly keep a referve in your heart, that you will come to Christ but upon tryol, and that you will be Religious as far as will stand with your prosperity and safety in the world, and so you may not be undone; if you except fecretly either honour, estate or life, which you resolve not to lay down, if Christ require it, you then play the hypocrite, and lofe all.

4. You must consent to a present change, and at prefent thus wholly give up your felf to God; and not only that you will do it some time bereaf. ver. P. Sir, he that is called and confectated to this Office, to declare from the word of God himfelf, things (a) Great and Necessar) and Irue concerning the everlasting state of their souls, must needs call men to sober and serious thoughts; And if there be some trouble in these thoughts to those that have soolishly neglected their own happiness, it is no wonder.

* El. The man hath been all this time, an honest painful labouring man; I never heard that he said, or did any man harm; but hath followed his business, and gone to Church, and received the Sacrament, and lived in love and peace with his Neighbours; I never saw him drunk, nor any harm by him; And now you will make him doubt of his Salvation.

P. Sir, I would have no man Doubt of his Salvation without cause: Nor no man presume of Salvation without cause. The Saving or Losing of the Soul for ever is a great business, and not to be case upon presumptuous and blind hopes. I would but have him (b) make ture of Heaven. And can any man, think you, make too sure? It is not you nor I that are the Judge of Souls, but God? And his Laws are the Rule of his Judgn ent. His word tells us who it is that he will save. Suppose I am a Physician and have a Medicine that infallibly cures all dropsies and Consumptions in time; And I see the signs of a Dropsie or Consumption on one of your Servants, and I tell him my opinion of his case and danger, that he will die unless he presently take this certain remedy; And you come and chide me for frightening and discomforting him, and tell him that there is no danger? Which of us is the more comfortable Friend to the man? I assure him of Recovery if he will use the means: You slatter him with false hopes to keep him from using them. And I am a Physitian, and you are none: Which of us may he wisclier believe?

El. When you should draw men to Bolieve, you drive them to unbelief and doubting,

P. Faith is not meerly to Believe that we are already forgiven and shall be saved: if it would prove a man good to believe that he is good, or prove that a man shall be saved, to believe that he shall be saved, and that he hath true grace when he hath none, then all the Heathens and wicked men in the world may be saved by believing it shall be so. Then let your Tenant believe that he hath money when he hath none, and believe that he hath paid your Rent, when he hath not. Believing God, supposeth some word of his to be believed: And that word of his promiseth Salvation to the ungodly: We must believe the Gospel, that Christ pardoners and savesh all that truly (e) Believe in him, that is, Take him practically for their Teacher, their Saviour and Lord, to sandifie them by his Spirit; and mortifie their worldly slessly lusts, and make them a holy and heavenly people. To take Christ for such a Physician and Saviour of your Soul, is truly to believe. And to doubt of the truth of his word, is the doubting of unbelief. But so is not every doubting of our own sincerity. A drunkard may doubt he is not sober, and yet not thereby doubt of the Gospel of Christ.

KI. If poor men have no more wit than to hearken to all that you would put into their heads, you will drive them all into despair at last.

P. We do but teach them how to prevent everlasting despair. There is no hope of being faved in despite of God, or against his will. And to cherish such (f) hopes (of being saved without Holiness) till time be past, is the way to Hellith desperation. What if the King tell his Subjects, If you murder there is no hope of your lives ; I will not pardon you. Will you lay to them, Go on and kill men; do not despair; the King doth ill to put you upon desperation? What if you had been with Paul in the shipwrock, when he said, [There shall not a hair of your head perish; but if these stay not in the ship, we cannot be saved?] Would you have faid, He preacheth despair; go forth, and fear not? What if you had heard Christ himself say, Fob. 3. 3, 5 [Perity I fay unto thee, except a man be born again, of water and the Spirit, he cannot emer into the Kingdom of God? And Mat. 18. 3. Except ye repent ye shall all perish? I Would you have faid, Believe him not : He precebeth desperation? What if you fay to your Servant, if thou do not work, thou shalt have no Wages: shall he say, I will not despair, but I will hope well though I work not? What do you by this talk, but the same that the Devil did to Eve? God faid, In the day thou easeft thou shalt die: The Devil Said, Ye shall not surely die. Did God preach despair, and the Devil preach better? Till men despair of being laved without Holiness they will never feek Holiness, and so never be faved. I do despair that ever the Devil fhould make good his word, and fave any Souls that God hath faid shall not be faved.

El. Christ came to abolish the Law, and set up the Golpel: and you preach nothing but the Law 3 when mercy better feemeth the mouth of a Gospel · Preacher.

P. Do I preach either the Law of Innocency, which giveth no pardon, or the fewish Law? It was there that Christ abolished (in a fort) and nothisown Law of Grace. Doth not he preach mercy, who proclaimed pardon to all that will truly repent. and turn to God by Faith in Christ? Repentance and Conversion are Gospel mercies. The Law knoweth no place for Repentance; but fin and die, is all that it faith. Is it all our work from year to year, to magnific the mercy of God in Christ, and (g) to intreat men to accept of mercy, and not to refute it or abuse it? and yet must it be said, that we preach not mercy? I pray you tell me, sir, what is the do-Arin of mercy that you would preach if you were in our ficad.

El. I would tell them of the mercy of God, and that it is greater than our fins, and that Christ e died for finners, that they that believe in him and trust God shall be saved.

P. What is it to believe in Christ and Trust God, I have opened to Saul already; and mult not ofc repeat the fame things. We doubt not but God's mercy is greater than our fins: But no unholy Calshall be faved by it: For this merciful God hath faid that without Holiness none shall see G.d, Heb. 12 14. The Sun is brighter than our Eyes; And yet the blind cannot fee by it. We tell them of the ex. ceeding mercy of God, and of the sufficiency of the Sacrifice and Merits of Christ; but we tell them wi hal that the rejecting of this Christ and mercy, will increase their misery and be the food of the never-dying worm, the torment of their Confeience to remember it for ever, Read Heb 3, and 6, at d 10, and 12. and sec whether we say true or not. Would you tell the people that all men shall be faved? Or that any other Faith and Repensance would fave them, than such as I described?

El. I would tell them that a quiet and fober Re-Figion will be accepted, better than all the stir you make; and that all this ado, and noise about Religion, to trouble men's minds instead of making them better, is but the work of a few hot brain'd Coxcombs, that can neither let themselves nor o.

P. O. Sirs! that you had but tried what (b) quietness there is in the Conscience of a Renewed, justified person in comparison of what is in the gall d ulcerous Conscience of the ungodly ! O, it is a proud, a worldly, a follily heart and life which is the sting that will give the sinner no rest! and the d. filed guiltyConscience which will never let the foul be quiet! which hath a life of unpardoned fin to look back upon: a life of sensuality, and ungodliness, of Pride, tulnels, and Idleness, abundance of Oaths, Curfes, Lies, contempt of God; These are they that will not let the World be quiet, nor suffer the Consciences of the wicked long to give them any rest. Twice God protesteth by the Prophet, There is no peace to the wicked, Ila. 48. 92. & 57. 21. If. 59. 8. The way of peace they know not. There is no judgment in their goings; they have made them crooked paths, whofeever goeth therein shall not know peace. God hateth all the workers of iniquity, P/al. 55. And what peace is there than to fuch ? Ezek. 13. 11, 12. When they shall say peace and safety, sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travel on a Woman with Child, and they Shall not escape.

I pray you tell me truly. Do you think that he that hath truly repented of his careles, ignorant, worldly, proudly, fleshly life, and hath forfaken it, or he that hath yet all this sin unrepented to answer for, is alike to live the quieter life? If sin he the way of peace, how did it drown the world? How did it kill Christ? How doth it cause Hell? Then you may also say, that poyson and wounds are breaking our honos, and sickness, are the way to the hodies ease.

I pray you, Sir, yet answer me these two questions. Do you not believe in your Conscience that a truly penitent godly man, that hath spent his days chiefly in laying up a Freature in Heaven, is liker to die in hope and peace, than a careless sleshly worldly man? 2. And may not he live in the greatest greatest peace who will die in the greatest peace? is not that course the sittest to give us peace in health, which is sittest to give us peace in sickness?

And will you tell me, What is the quiet and fober

Religion which you are for your felf?

* El. It is to love God and my neighbour, and do as I would be done by, and to go to Church, and fay my prayers, and when I have finned, Repent and cry God's mercy, and trust in Christ, and fo be quiet, and trouble my self no further.

P. You have faid a great deal in a few words. But I hope you do not think that faying this will fave then that do it not. Give me leave then to go over all particularly. I. If you love God, you will Love his (i) Laws, and his Government, and his Service, and his Servants, and you will Love to please him, and you will long to be with him, and you will love him better than fleshly pleature, or all this world. Will you think he loveth you, that loveth the dirt in the Greets better than you? or that careth not how far he is from you, nor how little he hath to do with you? that loveth not much to hear, or think, or speak of you? If you love God, you will make him your delight; and not think his word and fervice the trouble of the world; And you will keep his Commandments, and not think fin your greatest pleasure, and obedience to God your greatest pain.

2. And if you love your neighbour as your felf, you will not let Lazins lie in hunger at your doors, nor your poor Tenants and N-ighbours feel cold and want, while you are cloathed in purple and tilk, and fare sumptuously and deliciously every day. You will not lay out hundreds by the year on hounds and sports, and idle Gentlemens fervants, and on feafting, and gall intry, and excess of bravery (k) and furniture, while your poor Tenants live in toyl and milery. You will not rack your rents so as poor men with all their care and labour cannot live. You will not see your brother have need, and shut up the bowels of your compassion from him, and then say that you love God and your neighbour. You will not hate and scorn and persecute God's Servarts that are most careful to please him, and still say you love both God and them. You will not think that to seve your riotous Companions and Play sellows, is to seve your neighbour as your selfs.

3. And for your Repenting when you have finned, and crying God mercy, I hope you do not mean a Mocking of God, with faying you Repent when you do not. I hope it is not only to be forry and with you had not finned, when you have got all that fin can give you, and still to go on and do the same: To cry God mercy for a worldly, fleshly, voluptuous life, of pride, fulnels and idlenels (the lins of sodom, Ezek. 16. 49. and of too nany Gentlemen) and (1) to continue it still, and hate those that are against it: Nor to repent of oppresfing the poor, and racking your Tenants, and to do to ftill. Repentance is a true change of Mind, Will, and Conversation: True Repentance is all that I perswade this man to, when you say that I trouble him, and break his peace.

*El. You are an arrogant, faucyFellow. What have you to do to meddle with my bravery, or fports, or Tenants rents? You think your prieffely calling may warrant all your incivilities and infolence; Were it not for the reverence of your *Coat I would kick you out of doors, or lay you by the heels. It was never a good world fince fuch fellows as you were fuffered to prate your pleafure against your Betters, under pretence of reproving tin.

P. I knew, Sir, on what disadvantage I should discourse with such a one as you? But I do it for this poor man's fake, who defired it. If I were discourling with you about Common things, I would keep fuch a distance as should no way offend you. If any fubmissiveness would excuse me, I would not feem infolest or uncivil. I would not stand covered before you. I would not press into your prefence, nor expe& honour from you, but would be content to stand with your poorest Servants. But when it is a business that God's truth and holiness, and mens Salvation, and my ministerial fidelity, lieth on, it is Cowardife and base treathery, and not civility, to defert the truth for want of (m) plain dealing. I hope you know that not only the Prophets and Apoliles, but Bafil, Chry. fostom, Ambrose, and tuch others, have dealt much plainiler with Emperours, than I have done with you: And Gildas spake homelier of the Brinish Princes and Nobility. As long as you may use us at your pleasure, you may give us leave to speak according to our mafter's pleafure. For we do not fear but at last he will bear us out.

* El. It is the trick of you all to claw the vulgar by accusing the Gentry and Nobility of oppression, yea, and you would by as much by the King him-felf if you durst.

El. The poor live in their way as well as we in ours: Their dyot and their labour is as suitable to them as our plenty and ease is to us.

P. It is but from use then; For his sich is of the same kind with yours; And if so, I hope if you be sur to it, you can use your self to live so to: And if so, methinks a due abatement of excesses and voluptuousness should be much more case to you.

But, Sir, it is not the meet labours of the poor that I pity them for, nor for the unpleafanmess of their dyer. I am perswaded the minds of many of them are quieter, and their meat and fleep is sweeter than yours. But, pardon me for telling you that I am much among them, and I find, 1. That some of them drink nothing but Water, or Beer that's little better, and use a dyet so unwholesom, as breedeth Dropsies, Consumptions, and deadly sicknesses, having not Fire and Cloaths to keep them warm. 2. That many are so full of cares how to pay their rents and debis, that they have no heart to think of the greater business of their Souls: And many are fo fired with their excessive labour, that when they should pray, or read a Chapter, or instruct their Families, either they have no time, or they are presently with weariness alleep : yea tired on the Lords days, with the week-days labour. 3. And worst of all, they cannot spare their Children from work while they learn to read, though I offer them to pay the Schoolmaster my self: Much less have they time to Catechife and teach them. : So that poverty caufeth a generation of Barbarians in a Christian happy Land. You would forgive my boldness, if you understood the sadness and sinsulness of all this: and that some Rich men that have caused such things as these, do now want themselves a drop of water to cool their tongues.

But all this is by a digression. I pray you tell me next, Wi at that is which you accuse me of, as ever troublesome to my Neighbour, or to the world, in my dostrin?

El. I have told you: It is disquieting mens Con-

'liciences.

P. But what is it that I say amiss to disquiet them?

*El. You would make them believe that God made us to damn us, and make his Mercy as narrow as your Conceits.

P.Do you not think that (p) some shall be danged for their sins? And that God best knoweth who? And that he best knoweth how to use his own mercy? And that we must believe his word? If you think that all shall be saved, speak out and let us hear your proof. If not, tell me to whom I deny Salvation that God hath promised it to?

*El.You make strict Laws and Opinions of your own Brains, and then damn all that do not keep them.

*P. What be those Laws and opinions of ours?

* El. What I more than a good many: If a man go finer than your felves, if he be not of your fishion, if a Woman wear black Spots, or go with bare Breasts, if we play at Cards, or D cc, or go to a Play-house, if the People set up a May-pole, or dance on Suudays, if one drink a Cup, and be but merry: O these are a prophane people; They are not precise enough to be saved.

P. There is nothing so small in which a true Servant of God would not be Obedient; And great sin is oft committed in (4) small things. And their signification and the omission, which they import, are of sadder than the things themselves. If your Harvest layoue; or your House were on fire, and your Servan's should let all alone, and go to Cards, or a Play-house the while, and say, How precise is my matter to think that there is any harm in this? You know how to answer him. Truly, Sir, our lives are short; Our Soula are precious; our work is great, and much undone; time makes haste; we have lost much already; Hell is terrible; sleeven is Glorious; God is just; And all that ever must be done for our fouls, must be now done. And in this case, he that hath time to cast away on Stage Piays and Cards, and Idlaness, let him do it; For my part I have not: As strict as you think me, God knoweth that my work is yet so much to do, that I have no time to spare for such things as these. He that liveth by Faith, foreseeth Heaven open all the way.

And such a sight doth cool my appetite to sports of O precious Time! How tearful am I lest thou will be gone, before my faith be strengthned, my hope confirmed, my love to God increased, and my preparation made for Death and Judgment! O what hearts are in those men that can see time passing, Death coming, God present, Judgment and Eternity at hand, and yet sit needlessly at Dice-or Cards, or Idle recreations! Have we no more to do with Time? I speak not against needful Recreations, which fit us for an ordinary laborious.

Calling, as whetting doth the Mower's Sithe. But wo to them that cast away so short and precious time, in fooleries and idleness, which is all that ever they shall have to prepare for their ever-

And I must tell you too, Sir, that I need not such pleatures, The word of God, and the foretight of eternal Glory afford me better; so much better, that these Rink in comparison of them.

But yet, Sir, it is not my custom to talk first or much of such things as these. Here stands your Tenaut; ask him whether I once named any such matters to him? I remember Old Mr. Dod's saying to one that would have him Preach against long Hair, Win their hearts to Christ, and they will cue their hair them elves. I remember a person of a great Estate, yet living, that in youth was Ignorant, Vain and Goudy, and being oft perlivaded to leave some Gandy Palhions, long despited all that was faid. But at last by a Sermon being convinced of greater matters and humbled, and sudden. ly changed to a godly life, all the beloved Vanities and Fashions were in two days cast away, and never taken up again, without any talk about such things, to the marvel of Spectators.

Oh, Sir, could I but perswade you to that due sense of things eternal, as their truib and greatness do bespeak even of reason it self; could I prevail with you to engage your beart and life to luch care and (r) diligence for God and your Salvation, and the common good, as God will require of you, I would leave you to pass away as much time as this work can reasonably, spare. (s) One thing is necessary. Do that and then go to play.

El. But you are the most Censorious Genera. stion of men in the world; You make a Se& and

Party for Religion, of precise and self conceited people; and then none must be saved, but your precise party; and how empty willHeaven be, if none be there but Puritans?

P. 1. I suppose you will grant, that if we should never fo much flatter ungodly perfons, with the hopes of Salvation, their case might be the worfe, but it could be never the better. God's will and word will not change with ours. He will never fave an unholy Soul. If all the Prelates and Preachers in the world should agree to tell them that they shall be faved. They would stand before God never the more justified for all this. It would but keep them from Repentance, and confequently from being faved indeed. 2. And you cannot but know that all Mankind is proner to fecurity, prefumption, felf flattery and Impenitence, than to overmuch fear, unless it be some persons that

The Poor Pan's Family Book. 99 are melancholy. 3. And you cannot but know that file hopes are far more dangerous, though unish fears be the more troublesome. For presumption keepeth them more from repentance. 4. And if L may judge of others by my felt, we Ministers are more prone to be too tender of troubling people, than too terrible. For naturally we all love our own eale, and quiet, and the love of our Neighhours; (1) and we know that it is flattery that gets Love, and plain dealing Hatred: And we long nor to be hated. And most Ministers have need of their Neighbours bonnty: And hatred is not the way to procure that, especially with the Rich. Therefore you should rather charge us to deal plainly. and to take heed left powerty, or cowardiness, or lukewarmnoss tempt us to daubing flattery or filence.

2. But, Sir, what is the Sect or Party of Puritana that you fay we confine Salvation to ? I pray you let us not spend time in meer words! If you mean that we confine Salvation to any that agree with us in by-matters, circumftances, doubtful opinions, or any thing not effectial to Chestianity and Godlines. ir is a fin which we detelt. Prove it by me if you Ask Saul whether I speak a word to him of any doubtful Controversie in Religon?

But if the Party you talk of be that which Christ calleth Believers Penisents, Regenerate, San Aiffied, Godly Persons, do you not believe your felf that God in Scripture hath confined Salvation to such only? At the Woll is of (u) two Parties; thefeed of the Woman and of the Serpant

· El. Do you alledge God's Word against his Goodness and merciful Nature? It is contrary to God's goodness to save none but a few Puritans and Precifians, and to condemn all the rest of the World to Hell. Would you have us to

P. Your scornful names of Puritans and Precifians, are but words of your own, thrust in to vent your spleen, and to darken the question. If you mean any other than Repenting, Sanctified Believers, it's nothing to our case: I talk for no other. But, Sir, we will not be mocke our of our Duty and Salvation. Heaven were little worth, if it were not worth the bearing of decision, from

to the matter.

1. As to the number of those that God will save, I never prefuned to determine of it. I only tell you that none are laved but those that are findified by the Spirit of Christ: Remember I pray you, that this is all that I lay, How many are sanctified I know not, but twould advice you, instead of such enquiries, as you love your felf, to make fure that you are one of them. Bir experience may help to make some conjectures: It all the World, or most of the World be truly holy, that is, do Love God and Heaven better than sleshly pleasure and worldly prosperity, then all or most of the World shall be saved. But if there be few fuch, there are few that will be laved. This is the truth, If God's word be true; And inflead of being offended at it, you had belt to lay your hand upon your heart, and fee whether or not it be so with you. For God will not fave you for your riches, nor high looks, nor for contending against his word;

2. Do you think that God doth not know his own Nature and Goodness, and what is confishent with it better that you? Will you tell him that he hath made a Law, or given us a word, which is (w) contrary to his own nature and gundness? if you will teach God to know hinfelf better, or to amend his word, he will convince you e're he hath done with you, that you fhould rather ltave known your felf and God better.

3. Is it contrary to the Goodness of God to flut men out of fleaven, who will have none of it? or who hate it? or who prefer a swinish lust before it? Attend a little, Sir, and I-shall shew you your unrighteous cen'ure of God. If you can but torgive God for making you a Man, you may perceive that it is you that damn your felfy and then quarrel with God for it. Is it not man, himself that Loverb the World and fleshly pleasure more than God! That committeeth all the fin that is committed? That (x) turneth away his heart, his love, his delight, his thoughts from God, and from all that is Heavenly and Holy? Are not your lufts your own, and your passions your own? Is it not your self that make your felf ungodly, and contrary to the Holy nature of God and Heaven? and your felf who refult and refule the Spirit and Grace of God? Do you know how much of Hell is in fin it felf, and of your own making as well as of your own deferving? To be faved is to know God and Love bim, and deli bifully ferve him: This in perfection is Heaven, and doth God deny you this when you truly defire it? or do you nor(y) deny it to your felf? Is it not you, that delight not in God and his Service? And that rather chuse your fleshly pleasure? And is it not 304 then that put your self out of Heaven? Heaven is a state of perfect holinels: And you will not have Holineft, and yet you fay you would have Heaven. God settethbefore you a feast of holy 1015; And your appetire is against ir ; you loath it : You refule it: No intreaty will perswade you to talk it: You deride it as precileness. And when you have done, you blame God, because you have it not. Ifyou would have a Mahometan Heaven of Leachery, and Wine, and Sports; a Heaven of Cards, and Dice, and Plays, and Jefting; a Heaven of proud domination over your Brethren, or of Money, and great Effates and Pomp: You are mistaken: There is none such in another world: all this Heaven was (7) here on Earth: And here you chole it, and here you had it. Hereaster there is no Heaven but the sight and delightful Love of God, and perfedien of Holiness: Would you have this, or would you not? if you will: then resule it not, decide it not, neglect it not: Presently begin, and spit out your filthy she shy pleasures, (a) seek the Lord, and he will allest you, and accept you: But if you will not, remember who put you cut of Heaven.

And when death hath opened your Eyes, and shewed you what it is that you refused, and have (b) lost, and what it was that you preferred before it, your own Conscience will near you with perpetual torments to think what a glory you might have had and would not! What a God you departed from! And what all the stelly pleasures were which you preferred, and what is now become of all! I tell you, if God should no surther meddle with you, your (c) Conscience in the remembrance of this would to men you.

You fee then that besides what they deserve from the hand of divine Justice, what it is that somers execute upon the Class. You cannot both resulted Heaven, and make your self-incapable of and yet have it: And you cannot lose it, and not for ever feel the loss.

4. And is not God just? and injustice centrary to his Nature? Is it centrary to the geodness of the King or Judge to hang a Thicf or Murderer? And what it they be many? must they therefore be (d) unpunished? It many should beat you, or abuse you, doth not that rather agravate the wrong than extenuate it? You scruple not killing a nest of Wasps or Hornets, though they be many; Millions of Men are not so much to God, as a swarm of Flies are unto Men.

5. And I would know whether you think it contrary to Gods goodness to condemn any at all, or not? If no, what numbers proportionably will vonlimpose upon him to five? What if he saved a thousand or ten thousand for one that he condemneth? Would that feem to you confishent with his Godness? And are you fure it is not fo? We are fore that this Earth is to the rest of the Universe, but as one inch is to the whole Earth; and how finall a part is that? and you know not but (e) Angels and pure inhabit ants may possels all the rest, except what is allotted to the Devils and the Danned And if so, if ten thousand to one in this wicked world (which is the next to Hell) were damned, it would not all be one to many Millions. of the pure and bleffed ones in the rest of the Creation. I only fay that men that are ignorant of fuch matters, as we all are, are unfit to quarrel with God about them.

* El. You have faid much, I confess But it is all no justification of your own aurogance, that lay claim to Heaven before your Neighbours. All we are prophane and ingodly people, and you only are the holy Brethren, and the (f) children of God. You say, Stand by, I am Polier then thou; And, as the Pharifee, I shank thee, Lord, that I am not as other men, nor as this Fullican.

P. I. Who do you mean by us [us] and by [you] speak plainly that you may be understood. It any

And either you and the rest of our Neighbours are really Godly Santtified persons, or you are not; If you are, we fay you are the children of God, and the Heirs of Heaven, as well as we, or any others; Did you ever hear me fay that any godly man is ungodly? or is not the child of God? Name the manthat I have faid to by. If your own Conscience tell you that you love God better than the world, and (g) feek first his Kingdom and righteousness, and if your conversation prove it, you have then the witness in your self that you are fanctified, & need not care what others fay of you. But if your Conscience tell you, that it is not fo, but that you are a lover of the world and pleasure more than of God, filence not your Conscience, and defire not that we should flatter you with lies, when your own Confcience knoweth that tho cale is otherwise.

2. But, Sir, do you think that there is no differ rence among men ? Are the good and bad, the godly and wick d all alike? Then indeed there would be no difference hereafter. But if there he a difference, may it not be known? And must be that hath God's Gracebe unthankful, and falfly fay, that he hath none? Those are like the unhumbled Pharifees, who thank God for that grace which they. have not; and not they that humbly thank him for what they have. Would you have a temperate, chafte, and just person think himself tobe a Drunkird, a Fornicitor, a Theif, when it is not lo, and all for fear of being proud? Then why are you angry with those that count you ungodly, if humility bind all men to think themselves ungodly? God neither defiresh that we should think with the

P. Who do you mean, Sir?

P.1. Would you have men profes uugodliness? Would you have us be Drunkards, Swearers, Fornicators, Covetous, for fear of being Hypocrites ?Or would you have us fay that we are such when we are not? Is this your confession of Christ? Would you have no man profess himself a Christian or a Servant of God? What then! Must we profess the Service of the Flesh and the Devil?

2. Do not you take on you to be a Christian, and to he Godly? Why else are you angry with them that count you ungodly? Else you are an Infidel and an Atheift. But if you profess Christianity and Godliness your felf, are you therefore an Hypocrite? But which of us is the Hypocrite, our sciences and Lives must tell. I hope you will not renounce God and Christ, for fear of being an Hypocrite.

S. But alas, Sir, too many people fearing God are to far from being, pure in their own eyes, that the greatness of their Sius overwhelmerh them. And we can hardly keep them from concluding that they have no grace at all, and are as ready to call thenselves Hypocrites in their fears, as you

s. I am glad indeed if you hate Hypocrifie. The Hypocrite is he that professeth to be that which indeed he is not. You and I do both profess the same Christianity: Now the queftion is which of us is the Hypocrite? If one man live according to his profession and be serious in his Religion, and hate all known fin, great and small, and feek God diligently, and use all the means that God commandeth him; and if another, making the same protession of Christianity, do live in open worldliness, and sensuality, in gluttony, drunkennels, gaming, idlenels, and fornication, and deride holy living, and all that are ferious in the Religion which he himfelf professeth, and counteth the practice of Christ's own Commands to be needless precisenels? Do I need to ask you, which of thefe is like to be the Hypocrite? I have admired to here debauched persons, call ferious Christians Hypocrites, when the want of seriousness in professed Christianity is the very nature of Hypocriffe. Are not all finners? It one of your Servants heat you, excuse him, because all are sinners? But, Sir, do you not know that there are (i) finners that shall be faved in heaven, and finners that shall go to Hell? Sinners that are pardoned, and Sinners that are not pardoned? And why so? but that there are sinners that are penitent, contrite, and truly converted, and finners that are not so. They were the deadlieft Enemies of Christ, and the filencers of his Apostles as far as they could, and the perfecutors of Christians. And now I pray you tell me, who are the Pharifees?

" El. But you leave out that which is against you, They devoured Widows houses, and for a Pretence 'made longer prayers; and fo do you.

P. I pray, Sir, tell me what Widows house I have devoured, and I promise you to restore it quickly. Do I oppress my Tenants, as I before described to you? Have I any house but a mean one to dwell in? Am I not fain to take up with the common Jail, when your Worship sends me thither for Preach-.ing?

And as for long Prayers, I have two questions to put to you. 1. Was it the Length of prayer, or the false presence, which Christ reproved dif the length, why did he continue all night in prayer himfelf(who had less need than I) Luke 16. 12. Why are we bid Pray continually, and continue conft. in Prayer, 17 bef. 5. 17. Rom. 12, 12, Col. 4, 2,

El.No: It was the false pretence that is blamed. P. What is it not a proof that Long Prayer is a thing very good and laudable, when fincerely used? Esse it would not have made a cloak for fin, For one Evil is not a fit covering for another. My fecond question is, whether the Pharifees long prayers were free prayers, uttered from the habits of the mind, or forms of Liturgy?

Alle poor Hans Kamily-Book. III

El. I think they were fuch as your extemporary

c prayers.

P. Then you will wound the cause of Liturgies. which I would not have you do ; for if the pharifeesthat were so ceremonious used none, it will scarce be probable that any were used in the Jewish. Church.

El. Well then suppose them to be set Liturgies.

P. It is they then that are likely to the Pharife is, who by long Liturgies cloak their Oppressions and Coverouincis.

El. You are noted to be as Coverous a fort of people as any: You will cheat a man in Bargaining; and you will not twear but you will lie like Devils.

P. I affure you, Sir, if we do so it is contrary to our Doarin; For we profess that such persons are no Children of God, nor can be faved in such a state. Therefore you must prove tagainst the Particular Persons whom you accuse. For if we know of fuch, we number them with wicked men, and bring them to Repentance and restitution, or excommunicate them.

And for those Ministers that are called Puriians by you, whether they are in the right or wrong I meddle not; but, 1. If they be so Covetous, how come they these many years to live in pinching poverty (except a few that have something of their own, or live in other mens houses,) and all to avoid that which they think is fin? 2. And if they are fuch Lyars, why do they not escape all their sufferings? If they durft but once lie under their hands, and tay that they affent and confent to what they do not, they might be as free as others.

EI. There as many vallanies committed secretby among you, as among others. Our faults "are open and known to all; but you are as bad in Corners, as demurely as you carry it. Did you onot hear lately of a great Prof. for near you that was drunk, and another that got his Servant-maid with Child? This is your profession. If the truth might be known, on my Conscience, you are all c alike.

P. Your (1) own tongue still confuteth you, and honoureth those whom you would fain reproach. If you fin openly, it feemeth you are not affiamed of it; you tell us that it is no wonder among you: as if it were your profession. If we fin secretly, how do you know it? Your naming one or two defamations, implieth, that, with fuch as you mean, ic is a rarity and strange thing. And slanders are so common against such persons, that when it is examined, it is two to one but it proves falle. But if it be true, either the A&s you mention are marvels, committed by one of a hundred, once perhaps in all their life time fince their change; or elfe they are such as you describe that live secretly in such fin. If it be the latter, they are Hypocrites, and such as we call to Repentance and Conversion, as being in the gall of bitterness and bond of iniquity: And all that I defire of you and your Tenant here, is, that you will not be fuch. If you like such, why do you blime them? if you diffike them, why will you be fuch your felves? If you fry that you make no profession of Religion, I answer again; unless you renounce Christ, you profess as much as the Hypocrites named by you. For you profess Christianity, and they profess no more,

But if they were the falls of ferious Christians, I ask you, which is the liker fort of men to be true Christians. They that live impunitently and commonly in gross sin, and hate those that reprove them and live better; Or they that live blamelesly in the fear of God, save that (m) one among many of them doth once in his life commit some heinous fin, which layeth him in fuch shame and brokenness of heart, that of:-times such never well recover their comforts . again while they live? If Noah was once drunk in his life : If there where one Cham in his Family : If Lot was twice tempred to drunkenness and incest: If Da. vid once was guilty of odious fin: If Peter once (or thrice at once) denyed his master; If there was one Judas in the family of Christ himself; Will as y but the Malicious thence conclude: that They are all a. like? Or that one fin repensed of, is as bad as a life of fin never truly repented .f.

And do you know what your flanderous inference doth import? No less than that Cheift is no Christ, and that all the World shall be damned. For wark, I pray you, that we are certain, that open (n) unconverted finners are not faved from their fins by Christ, and that so dying they are 10st for ever. Now you come in and fay, that the reft, that profess Repentance and Obedience, are in secret, and at the heart, as bad as they. And if so, they are all certainly lold men. For without Holiness none shall see God. And the ungodly shall not stand in Judgment. Heb. 12. 14. Pfal. 1. 6. (0) And God hateth all the workers of iniquity. Now to fav that All are tuch, either openly or fecretly, is to fay that either God is a lyar, or that no one shall be saved. And yet you are the man that cannot believe that many are dair ned! And if Christ sanctific and (p) save none from their has, he is no Saviour, and so no Christ.

But, Sir, if you will fearch after such scandals, and bring fuch fins to open the ne and punishment, wherefoever they be found & proved, you shall have all our help and thanks; And you shall notery down Hypocrific and Scandal more heartily than we will do.

' El. Fain you would feem pure, and perfect without finas the old Catharists pretended themselves * to be-

P. Did von never hear any of us pray? If you had, you would have heard, that we are more large and earnest in confessing and lamenting our fins even in publick, before God and the Congregation than any others ordinarily are. In truch, every Godly man is so humbled in the (4) sense of his fins, that he is a greater burden and trouble to himself than all the world is besides, and he loatheth himfelf for all his firs. We confels our felves finners with daily grief and shame. And if indeed the Cathariffs did otherwife, they were no kin to us, nor any of our acquaintance. Why do we exhort others fo much to Contrition and Repentance. if we are not for the same our selves? Would not all men make others of their own mind?

'El. Come, come, when you have prated ne-'ver fo long, you must confess that you are a pack of R bels; and feditious Rogues; the firebrands of your Country, that would destroy the King and 'all of us, if we were in your power. The world hath had experience enough of You. You have flearned to cont and talk smoothly in your way, and have God, and Christ, and Heaven, and Scripture in your mouths; But on my Consciences, the Devil

• El. I meanall of you that pretend to so much Godliness and preciseness, and make such a do with Scripture and Religion. You will not Iwear, or drink, nor whore, nor go to play, but you are

'Traitors all.

P. Doth not every man profess Goaliness, who professeth to be a Christian? Doth not the King himfolf, and his Council, and Nobles, and Judges, and all the Magistrates of the Land almost, and all the Bishops and Clergy profess Christianity and Godlines, and to believe the Scripture, and to hope for Heaven? Do not they all pray in the Common Prayer, Libai the rest of our life bereaster may be pura and boly. that at the last we may come to eternal joy] And [that we may live a Godly, Rightcoms and sober life] And [that we may fall into no fin] And that [we may serve him without fear, in Holiness and Right oufness before him all the days of our lives] with many more such passages? Tre you good friends to your King and Country, that would make men believe that it is a fign of a bad fubj & to be Religious and that to [GearGod and to Honour the King] may not fland together? What! will you charge the King and all' his Magistrates with Treason ? Are they all Traitors who obey him and defend him? "

' El. You know who I mean well enough: I mean you Puritans; all the pack of you.

P. A Puritan is a word of so arbitrary interpretation, that fure it is too large to found a charge of Treaton on. Mr. Robert Belion, and B thop Downam, and Bishop Robert Abbos, and many fuch, will tell you, that it is commonly used in the mouths of the prophane, for any man that feareth God, and liveth holdy, and avoideth wilful fin, and will not be debauched as sensualists are: And sometimes it is taken for one that is against the Prelacy and Geremonies. In the first sense, as a Purisan signifieth a serious Christian, and a Godly man, dare you say that the King, Nobles, Judges and Bishops are not such? I am not acquainted with them; But our Religion teacheth us to Judge all men to be what they profels themselves to be till the contrary be certain and notorious. Dare you say that all the Magistrates, Prelates, Citizens and Subjects of the Land are either Ungodly men, or Trainors? Sure this cannot be your meaning.

El. You are loath to know my meaning; I mean all the pack of the Precisians, that are for so much ftrickness, and preaching, and praying, and talking * of Scripture.

P. Dare you fay that neither the King, nor his Noblessnor Judgess nor Bifliops, nor Clargy, are for Scripture, and for much Preaching, and Praying, and for fir & precise obedience to God, and for firicaness of Justice, Temperance, and Sobriety ? What ! will you far that all are Traitors to the King, that will not be Rebels against God and perfidious Traitors against Christ and Christimity.

El. I mean your lecond fort of Puritans, the Nonconformists; if you are willing to understand.

P. Now I understand you. Sir, but it is but in part; But what is Conformity or Nonconformity to our case? What if all the Nonconformists were as bad as you make, them, will you therefore plead for Nonconformity and Rebellion against God? What an argument is this ? Nonconformists are Rebelli; therefore an ungodly man needeth no Repentance and Conversion, or we may be saved without a holy heart and life. Do you think this is wife realoning? Do not Conformilts plead for Holinels? Be you but a Godly Conformist, and I shall rejoyce in your felicity. But, because I must love my Neighbour as my felt, I have three or four queftions further to ask you? 1. Is it they that Conform

The Poor Man's Family-Book. in Nothing, or they that conform not in Every thing? Such a one was Chillingworth; (And I thought you had not taken the Papifts to be all Traitors, who are

2. Is it their Doctrin that is traiterous; Or is their. Hearts and Practice contrary to their Doctrin? For the former, they defie their flanderers, and challenge them to cite one confession of any Reformed Church, that hath in it any disloyal Doftrin. Bishop Andrews in Toriura Torii will tell you, that in this the Puritans are belyed, and that they take the same Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and profess the fame Loyalty with others. But if it be, their Hearts and Pradices are contrary to their own Doctrin, are you not a flanderer, if you charge such diffembling on any one that you cannot prove it by? Such charges must fall on parsicular persons, and be proved; and not on Parties; For what shall notificany man's mind, but his ewn Profession, or his Practice; When they readily swear Allegiance and Loyalty, are they not to be believed, till some proof confute them? And if in Civil Wars you Gentlemen, Lawyers and Statelmen fay, this is Law, and that is Law, and entangle poor mens Consciences, will you afterwards conclude, that no mans Conscience will be true to his Oath of Allegiance, which scrupleth Ecclesiastical Oaths or Subscriptions ? Another man would think it a more probable arguing, to fay, He that scrupleth one · Oath or Subscription, is like to make Conscience of another; for if he dare break an Oath when he bath taken it, why should he not venture as far to take it?

3. But, Sir, all this is Satan's ordinary course, to endeavour to engage the interests of Princes seemingly on his fide to make Religion odious. Chrift must be a cused, as forbiding to pay Tribute to Casar and and as an usurper of the Kingdom. Filate must condemn him, lest he seem not Casar's Friend. Paul goes for a Pestilent sellow, and a mover of sedition among the people, that taught things contrary to Casar and the Law.

But again, Sir, what is all this to the tale here that you come to treat about? Did I perswade your Tenant to be a nonconformist? Did I speak one syllable to him of any such matter? Did I put any scruple into his mind against any orders of the Church? Ask him whether I did? When I had nothing to fay to him, but to exhort him to Repentance, and the love of God, and a holy and hear venly life and conversation, and quickly to forsake his fins, how cometh Nonconformity to have any thing to do here? What is that to the question in hand? Pray you Saul mark your Landlord's Argument; [Nonconformists are all Traitors and Rebels, (if you will believe him) Therefore for suke not your fins and turn not to God and a holy life by true Repen. sance] Or [Other men are (faith he) Rebelt against the King; Therefore continue a Rebel against God] Have you not natural Logick enough to perceive, the deceit of fuch an argument?

For my part I here give you my plain profession that all that fear God must honour the King, and not resist the higher powers; and that for Conscience sake, lest they receive damnation; and that Rebellions and Treasons against King or Kingdom are the works of the Devil and the desh, which all true Christians must abhor.

*El. However, you cannot deny but you are a pack of Schilmaticks; that for a Ceremony will tear the Church; and let up Convenicles of your own; And Schilm is kin to Rebellion.

1. You shall not thus draw us away from the bufiness in hand; I will not now dispute with you what Schifm Schism is, who seem not to understand it; Because it is impertinent, and tendeth but to divert us from our business. I ask you, c. Do I perswade your Tenant here to Schism, or only to Repensance and a Holy Life? 2. Are not Conformists and Nonconformists agreed in that? You know not what I am in those matters my self: But send for one able Minister that is a Conformist, and another that is a Nonconformist, and try whether both agree not in the truth of all that I am perswading him to believe or practice.

*El. The truth is, you are of so many S. &t, and so many opinions, that he may somer grow a Bedlam among you than a good Christian. You are of as many minds as men; one I ub preacher saith, this is the word of God, another saith, that is the word of God, scarce a whole house is of one Religion: And if he must turn to any of you, how shall he know which Party it must be? Must he be a Presbyterian, or an Independent, or a Browshift, or an Anabaptist, or what P. How shall he be fure which of all these is the right, that he may rest?

P. Saul, You hear this terrible Objection of your Landlord; Will you but mark my answer in these three parts, and if it be not Reason, spit in my face and take your course.

Religion. Our Religion is but One thing; which is simple Christianity: And every by-opinion is not essential to Christianity. No two men in the world I think are in every thing of one opinion: He that will not take a journey, which is for his Estate or Life, till all the Clocks in London strike together, leas wife a man as he that will not turn from his fin to God, till all Christians are of one opinion in all the difficult points of Religion.

2. My earnest advice to you Saul, is, that you become not a (f) Sellary of any party whatloever: Become a rue Christian, and love the Unity, Peace, and Concord of Believe's; and for Opinions, follow the right as far as you can know it, but not to engage for doubiful things in any Divitions, Sects, or Parties: But if men will needs quarrel, fland by, and pray for the Churches Peace.

3. Try whether Christians of all Opinions, do not agree in all that I exhort you to. If I have taught you, or perfwaded you to any one thing, but what the Conformists or Nonconformists, Episcopal, Presbyterian, Independant, yea, and the Papifts are all of a mind in, and will all bear witness to be certain truth, then let your Conscience judge whether you be not a most unexcusable man, that will not be perlwaded to that which even all differing Christians are agreed in? And whether this Objection of Sacts and different Religions, condemn not you the more, that will not agree with them where they all agree? and I leave it also to Sir Elymas his Conscience.

'El. You would make me feem a Fool or an Atheift, as if I perfuaded him from all Religion 'By ---- you are a fort of the infolencest Rogues in the world. I will stand talking with you no more. But for you, Saul, I tell you, if you hearken to fuch fellows, and turn a Puritan, I will turn Thee and thy Wife and Children out of doors the next week after it. And you Sir Preacher, 1 will take another course with you, if you cease not thus to trouble my Neighbours, I doubt not but I ting faces, and fuch like Hypocritical shews?

P. Sir, I have no weapons to use, but Reason and God's word: And scorning is like Sense and Appetite: a thing that Reason hath nothing to do with, but rebuke: Nor do I purpose to answer you in that dialica. I doubt you cannot undertake that you will not weep or whine on your death bed? But if not, it may be worse.

* El. Come, Sir, when you have all done, who made the way to Heaven fo long? Why lead you the people fo far about? What need so many Sermons, and solong Prayers, as if God were moved or pleased with our talk? I can say all that is in your Sermons and Volums in three words; All is but Think well, and Say well, and Do well.

P. That's quickly faid Sir; But if I define you to fpend all or half your life in Ibinking well, and Stying well, and Doing well, will you not fay that I am a Puritan; and ask what need all this ado? Is it any thing elfe that I have per (waded your Tenant to? And ithat you are opposing all this while? It fill how unhappily you conside your feif,

Whe Wood Han's Kamily-Book. 129

Let us but agree of this, that we must labour faithfully to Think well, and Say well, and Do well, and Repent unseignedly that ever we did otherwise, and trust in thrist for pardon and for help, and we will so conclude, and differ no more.

But you must know, that Well and Ill do differ. And what thoughts, words, and deeds are Well indeed. And that is Well which God commandeth, whether you like it or not.

Bug if you mean that our Sermons need to be no (g) longer, will you try first this art of short writing in a Scrivener? Let him tell his Boys You have nothing to do but to make your letters will, and see them together well. Let a School nastersay no more to his Scholars, but, You must know your Letters and Syllables, Words and Sentences, matter and method, and there needs no more. Let a Carpenter tell his Apprentice, There is nothing, to do but frame the House and rear it; and in rearing nothing but lay the Foundation and erect the Superstructer, and Cover, and Seelit. Why do mea set Boys so many years to School, and to Apprenticeships, when two or three words may serve turn.

But as for long Prayers, Su, we know that God is not moved by words; but we are our felves. And, i. The exercise of holy defires exciteth them: As all habits are increased by Ast and all Asts further us by excitation of the faculties. And our fervent defires are our Receptive disposition; And if you have any Phylosophy you know that, Recipitur all modum Recipientis, and what a wonderful variation of effects there is in the world from the stand beams or influxes of the Sun, by the great variety of Receptive dispositions. Two ways Prayer maketh using exercise of the blessing; by Physical Control of the standard of the blessing; by Physical control of the blessing; by Physical of the blessing; by Physical of the blessing;

fical difficultion, (as appetite maketh our food sweet and effectival;) and by (b) Moral disposition, as we are in the way who e mercy cometh, and in the use of the means which God will blefs. What if you offer your Children money, or what elfe you fee belt, and bid them, Ask it first and thank you after ; and one of them doth to, and the other faith, My Father is not foeblid shomutable or unloving as to be moved with my asking or thanking what good doth this do to bind Will you not lay, No, but it is good for you to do your duty, without which you are unworthy of my gift, & it is not wildom in me to encourage your difebedience nor to give you what you think not worth the asking. We cannot have God's mercies against his will: And Prayer is one of his conditions, & what can be more reasonable than, Ask and have ? He that valueth nor mercy, will neither relish it well, nor use it well.

There is a fweet and ad nirable cooperation between the bounciful Communication of God, and the Holy and conflant defires of the Soul. The fleavenly influx cometh down on the Soul, and exciteth those defires, and defires arise, and by receptive disposition causeth us more plented sly to receive that influx : even as the influx of the Sun, and the tiery spirits in the eye concur to our fight. We are Receiving grace all the while that we are defiring its Therefore the conferm excitation of holy defines by fervent prayer, is the constant way of our Recepti-

This is our duty, and our honour, and our joy. God mad : all his Creatures for hinfelf; even for the plaffire of his holy will. Therefore he made our Reason and Tongues for bimself. And can we have a nobler or f vector Thene, for our Thoughts, our Affections, of our Words? O what is there in our bleffed Saviou, our Glorious God and Heavenly Joys, that we should ever be backward to think or feeth of them! Or ever count fuch work a toil! Or ever he weary of it! Would you have us think that Heaven is a place of weariness? Or have us afraid lest it be a hou'e of correction? As no Papift can rationally ever be willing to die, who believeth he shall go to the pains of Purgatory, which is sharper, they say, than their sufferings here; So you would have none at all willing, to die, if you would make them believe, that long praiting God is a wearifome imployment to a well disposed soul. If you do not think that an hour is too long for dinner and supper at your plenteous tables? If you can feast long, and talk long, and play long, and game long, and read Romances, and fee Plays long, I pray you pardon us for praying long. nies. Before, you denied our Good works: And now it is but our Hearis and Hypperifie that you accuse, which God only knoweth. It you gave half your Revenue to the poor, should I do well to think that you did it in Hypocritie?

But, come, Sir, I will do that for you which you avoid: you know in our Country there are few Gentlemen of Estares called Precisions but Mr. T.E. And you know he hath built an Hospital, and endowed it with many hundred pounds per annum.

You know Mr. N. N. In another Country, who is called a Precitian, and I have credibly heard that he giveth five hundred pounds a year to Charitable uses, these fixteen years at least; And both of them go plain, and forbear Pomp and Gallantry, that they may have to do it with.

I use to lodge but in two houses in London, and therefore am not acquainted with many mens secrets of this kind. One of them is a godly man of no great Estate, and is readier to offer me money to any good use, than I am (for shame) to receive it. The offer is a Teads small, not reputed now worth very many hundreds by the year; and he giveth in one Country a hundred pounds a year to Charitable uses; And I do not think it is another hundred that excus th him at home. I will offend them all by selling you this, because of the Text, Mates. 16.

But why do I mention particulars? I here feriously profess to you and the world, my Ordinary experience; that if I have at any time a Collection or contribution to motion for any poor Widow, or Orphans, or any real work of Charity, those that you call Precisians do usually give their (1) pounds more freely than most others give their Grawns, and freelier give a Crown, than most gothers a shilling, proportionable to their Estates. Yea, they do now in London give many pounds where men of far greater Estates will give next to nothing. Not but there are Great men of great Estates, that in Gallantry it's like will sometimes be liberal: And I doubt not but there are so no men that have lib ral minds, who have little Religion. But I tell you only my own experience. But still Remember that I speak not of men of any sest as such, but of such serious boly men, as you call Precisians, of what side frever.

And these things more I defire you to remember: 1. That you know not other mens Estates, and therefore know not what they are able to give. 2. That fuch men as you and others, will keep many of them poor enough whom you call Precifians, that they shall have more cause, to receive than to give. 3. That Christ hath (u) charged them to give their Aleas in fecres, and not to let the right hand know what the left hand doth: And therefore you are no competent judge of their Charity. 4. That the great Covetonfacis of abundance that we have so do with, maketh them think that they have never enough: And they accuse all of Covetouinels that latisfie not their Covetous defires. 5. That no man hath enough to fatisficall men: And if we give to nine only, the tenth man that had none, will call us cruel, as if we had never given to any. 6. That the malignant enmity of the world to Godfiness, doth dispose men to (w) flander all Godly perfons, without proof or reafon, and to carry on any lie which they hear from others. 7. That there are more and greater good works than giving Alas. A poor Minister that faith, with Peter and John, (x) Silver and Gold have I

fuch a one that did fo.) And because you have said to much for good works, I take the boldness to intreat you to do more. We that are your Neighbours, fee nothing that you do, but only give Lazarus a few feraps at your door: But we fee that you are cloathed in Purple and Silk, and that not only you, but you; Children and Servants fare jumptuoutly and deliciously every day. How much you spend in Taverns, and compand flare, and feathing, and gaming, and vitits, and on your pride and pleafure, the Country talks of; but we hear little of any Impropriations that you bay in for the Church, or of any free Schools or Hospitals that you settle, or of any poor Children that you fet to School or apprenticeflips, or the like; The fins of So.lim are your daily bufiness, Pride, Fulness of Bread, and Illiness; and want of Compassion to the poor makes then up, Ezek. 16. 49. O what a dreadful account will you have, when all this comes to be recknaed for, as is foretold, Mar. 25. When it's found on your accounts, fo many pounds on vities, and needless entertainments, and pomp, to many on sports, and on superfluitys of horfes, dogs, and furniture, to many to tempt all in your house to gluttony, to say nothing of other wafteful lufts. And to pious and Charitable uses alas how little! The Lord convertyou, left you hear, Take the sothful, and unprofitable Servant and cast him into outer darkness; and lest you want a drop of water for your tongue.-At least, O do less hurt, if you will do no good.

El. I'le talk no longer with you, left you think to make me tremble with Felix, or to fay Almost Sou perswelle me to be a Precisian: You put such a.

P. I ask you then, if Saul had never been Baptized till now, would you advise him to be Biptized or not?

' El. Yes; Do you think I would not have him a.

we are agreed of your duty. I call you to no other Conversion nor Holiness, than understandingly and seriously to Renew your Baptismal Vow and Covenant with God the Eather. Son, and Lloly Ghost. What ever you hear scorners talk of Purious and Precise-ness and troublesome Religion, and of our many Selts and many Religions, of Conformity and Monconformity, of a hundred Controversies, remember that the serious renewing and Faithful keeping your Baptismal Covenant is all that I preach to you, and perswade you to. I will therefore write you out this Covenant, defiring you to take it home with the Exposition of it, which I gave you, and consider of it with your most serious thoughts, and when you are resolved, come and tell me.

The Holy Covenant.

Do (*) Eclieve in God the Fa her, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, according to the particular Articles of the Christian faith; And heartly Repenting of my sinful life, I do presently and absolutely and restrictly give up my self to Him, my Creator and Reconciled God and Father in Christ, my Saviour, and my Savistissier: Renouncing the Devil, the World, and the sinful desires of the sless. That taking up my Cross and densing my self, I may follow Christ the Captain of my salvation to the death, and live with him in colless Glory.

Read but our Church Liturgy, yea the Papiffs Liturgies, and you will fee that here is not a word but what is the fenfe of Baptiffa, and what Papiffs and Processants and all Christians are a freed on.

I pray you Sit Elymas read it, and tell him here whether there be any word that you except against. El. I cannot deny it without denying Christianity. God make us all better Christians: For I perceive we are not what we promifed to be. It was you that I talk'd against I thought, all this while: But I begin to perceive that it is Christie. anity it felf, (in the (4) Practice, though not ' in the name) which my heart is against: I cannot like this Godlinels, and Self-denying, and Mortification, and Cross-bearing: And yet I perceive that I vowed it when I was Baptized. And if I renounce it. I must renounce my Chriflianity it felf. I would I had not talk'd with you: For you have disquirted my mind; And I find that it is ferious Religion in felf that is against my u ind and courte of life, and my mind against it, and that I must be either a Saint or an Abeist : And which I shall prove I cannot tell, but if I must Repent, there is no haste.

The Resolving and Actual Conversion of a Sinner.

Paul, A Teacher. Speakers. Saul, A Learner.

Elcome Neighbour; you have been longer away than I expeffed; What was the matter with you?

Saul. O Sir, I have feen and felt the heavy hand of God fince I faw you. We had a violent Feaver common among us, and my Landlord Sir Elymas is dead, and so is his Servant that was with · him, when you talk'd with him; and I narrowly cheaped with my life my felf,

P. Alas! Is he dead? I pray you tell me how he took our Conference, and how he died?

S. He told me that you were too bold and fawcy with him; but he thought you were an honest man, and that you had more realin for your Religion than he thought any of you had had? And that the truth is you had the Scripture on your fide, and while he disputed with you on Scripture Principles you were to hard for inin! But though he was lorth to tell you fo, he liked the Papilts better, who fet not fo much by Scripture, and when a man hath finned, if he confess to the Priest, they ablelve him. Yearather than believe that none but fucls: . fuch Godly people could be faved, and rather than live to strict a life, he would not believe that the Scripture was the word of God.

P. Alas! how the rebellious heart of man stands out against the Law and Grace of God! As for the Papifts, I assure you they confess all the Scriptures to be the word of God, and of certain truth, as well as we; And they will deny never a word of that which I perswaded you to consent to. They differ from us in this, that they take in more Books into the Canonical Scripture than we do; And they fay that all that is in their Scripture and ours, is not Religion enough for us; but we must have a great deal more, which they call Traduion. See then the ignorance of these men; That because they think we make them too much work, they will run to them that make them much more. Though I confels their additions confifts fo much in words and ceremonies, and bodily exercise, that flesh & blood can the more eafily bear ir. When the Papifts dispute with us, they would make men believe that our Religion is too loofe, and favoureth the flesh, and that theirs is far more firict and holy; And yet our Sinfualists turn Papifts to escape the strictness of our Religion,

And as for their Pardons and Absolutions, I asfure you their own Dolfrine is that they profit and fave none but the truly penitenr; And even their Gregory the feventh, called Hildebrand (and the firebrand of the Church and Empire) and that in a Council at Rome professeth, that neither Penitence, nor false Baptism is effectual: Though tome of them make Aurition without Contition, or bare Fear without Love to serve the turn. And if their Priests do flatter the Presumption and falle hopes of Fornicators, Drunkards, and fuch groffer finners, by absolving them as oft as they confess their im, without telling them that it is all uneffectual, unlets by true Converfation they for fake it: They do this but as a meer cheat for worldly ends, to encrease their Church, and win the great and wealthy of the world to themselves, quite contrary to their own

But as for his not believing the Scriptures, the truth is, there lieth the core of all their errours. There are abundance among ft us that call themselves Christians, because it is the Religion of the King and Country, who are no Christians at the heart, which made me fay to much of the Hypocritic of ungodly men. And I cannot fee how a man that truly believeth the Scripture can quiet himself in a sleshly and ungodly life, but his belief would either Convert him, or Torment him. s. But I am perswaded he had some Convidions upon his Conscience, which troubled him : When he was taken first with the Feaver, they all put him in hopes that there was no danger of death, and so he was kept from talking at all of his Soul or of another world, till the Peaver took away his understanding; But twice or thrice he came to himfelf for half an hour, and Mr. Zedekiab his Chaplain advited him to lift up his heart to God, and believe in Christ, for he was going to a place of joys, and Angels were ready to receive his Soul; and he looked at him with a direful countenance, and faid, Away flatterer, You have beirayed my Soul! Too Lite ! 100 Lite ! And he trembled to that the bed thick and a him.

P. And low died his fervant Malchus?

s. O quite in another manner! He heard in the next room all the tack between his Mafter and you, and doubtlets it convinced him, but he went on in his roturer course of 1 fe, till (a) fickness took him;

And then he was greatly terrified in Conscience, especially, when he heard that his Master was dead. And he would often talk of you, and wish that he could have spoken with you (but none would endure to hear of fending for you.) O if you had but heard how he cried out towards the laft; O my madnels! O my finfial wicked life! O what will become of my miterable foul? O that I had the time again which I have loft! Would God but try me once again. I would lead another life than I have done! I would make nothing of all the Scorns of fools, and all the temptations of the world! His groans did ftrike me as a dagger at the heart: Methinks I still hear them which way ever I go.

P. And what buth been your own condition fince I faw you? And what thought you of your Maffer's

s. O. Sir, I would not for a great deal but I had heard it? I thought till I heard you answer him, that there had been some sense in the talk of these Revilers at a Godly life: But then I foon faw that it is all but foolish foorn and railing. Any scolding women would talk as wifely! His fuperiority and confidence and contempt was all his wildom.

P. It is no wonder if he talk foolifhly, who talketh against the God of wisdom, and his holy word, and against the interest, health, and happiness of his own foul; He that can live to far below reason, as to fell his Salvation for the short and Swinish pleasures of fin, may talk with as little reason as he liveth.

3. But how could I be any longer in doubt, when you confirmined him in the conclusion to yield you all the cause?

P. And what course did you resolve upon and take? S. Alas, Sir, my own naughty-heart did hinder me much more than his objections did. I went home convinced that your words were true, and that I must become become a (b) new creature or be undone. And I perused the Baptismal Covenant which you wrote down, and the Articles of the Creed, the Lords Prayer and the Commandments: I studied the meaning of them, with that exposition which you gave me: My ignorance to darkened my mind, that all seemed strange and new to me, though I used to rote them over in the Church from day to day. And being very unskilful in fuch matters my felf, I went oft to my Neighbour Eusebius, as you advised me, and I thank him he gladly helped me to understand the words and things which were roo hard for me, But when I had done all this, my worldly bufinels took up my thoughts fo, and the cares of my family were fo much at my heart, and my old Companions to often tempted me, and my fleth was fo loth to let go all my finful pleasures, and the matters of Religion were so strange to me, that I delayed my Resolution, and continued still purposing that I would shortly turn? But while I was purpofing an I delaying, the Feaver took me; And having feen the death of Sir Elymas and of Malchus, and then received the Sentence of death in my felf, God by his terrours did awaken me out of my delays.

P.O what an unreasonable thing is it to delay when you are once convinced? What, delay to come out of the bondage of the Devil? The guilt of fin? The stames of Sodom? The wrath of God? If death take you in an unconverted State, you are lost for ever. What if you had died formerly in your fin? What if you die this night? What assure have you to live an hour? Alas! how brittle and corruptible a thing is the body of a man? And by what a wonder of providence do we live; Is fin to good? Is the state of a sinner so safe or comfortable, that 'any should be loth to leave it? IsGod and Christ & Heaven fo bad that any should delay & be loth to be Godly? Can you be happy too foon? Or too foon be a Child of God? Or too foon get out of danger of Dannation ? Is God hateful? Is fin and milery lovely, that you are so both to change? If sin be best, keep it still If God and Heaven be worst, never thing of turning to him. But if best, do you not presently defire the best? Must Christ and his holySpirit wait on you while you take the other cup, and flay your leifure while you are deftroying your felf? Do you not know that every fin, and every (d) delay, and every refistance of the Spirit doth tend to the greater hardening of your heart, and making your Conversion less hopeful and more hard? Do you hope for Pardon and Mercy from God: or do you not? It not, desperation would begin your Hell: If you do, is it ingenious to delire to commit more of that fin which you mean to repent that ever you committed, and to beg for Pardon from God? Dare you say in you. Heart, Lord, I have abused thee, and thy Son, and Spirit, and Mercy long; I will abuse thee yet a little longer, and then I will repent, and ask Forgiveness? worketh by his appointed means. O that you knew what other are enjoying, and what you are loling all the time that you delay, and on how flippery ground you stand! and what after forrows you

s. Sir, I thank you for your awakning convincing Reason: But I was telling you how God hath already, I hope, resolved me against any longer delay. When I thought I must presently die, all my fins and all your countels came into my mind, and the fear of Gods displeasure did overwhelm me. I thought I had but a few days to be out of Hell. And O what would I not have given for affurance of Pardon by Jetus Christ, and for a little more time of preparation in the world, before my Souldid enter upon Eternity! O I never faw the face of fin, the truth of God's threatnings, the need of a Saviour, the preciousness of time, the madness of delaying throughly, until then. And now Sir, the great mercy of God having restored me I came prefently to you to prefels my Resolution, and to take your further good advice.

P. You see, that God is merciful to us, when we think that he is deffroying us: (g) Illiations are not the least of God's mercies, which our dull and hard. ned hearts make necessary. Suci Fools we are, that we will not understand without the Rod. My advice is, that you read over here again the Doctrin of Christianity which I gave you in our second days Conference, and the Covenant of Baptifin which I wrote you the third day, and let m: fee whether you understand and believe it and confent thereto.

(Here saul readeib it over. ---) S. You would have me understand what I do; I defire you here to anliver me thele few doubts, that I may clearlier proceed, and make my Covenant with God in (b) Judgment.

Quest. I. What must I trust to for the pardon of my me, and which way and on what terms may I be fure of it?

P. The prime cause is God's mercy; This mercy hath given Jejus Christ to be our Redeemer, Christ hath by perfect Holinefs, and Obedience, and by becoming a facrifice to God for our fins, deferved and purchased our Pardon and Salvation. So that you must wift to the Sacrifice and Mari orious Righte. outness of Christ alone, as the Purchasing Meritorious cause of your forgiveness, and of your Reconciliation, Justification, Sanctification, and Salvation. But the way that God our Father and Redeemer doth take to give us a Right unto these blesfings, is by making with Man a Law and (i) Covemant of Crace. By this Law he commandeth us to become Christians, that is, to believe in God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghoff, and to give up our selves to him, in the Covenant of Bap ism; Repenting of Sin, and thus turning to God by Jesus Christ. To all that do this, he giveth right to (k) Christ himself first as their Head and Saviour, and with him right to pardon, to the Spirit, and Salvation. So that God is the giver of Christ to redeem us: Christ is our Redeemer, and the Meriter of our Life: The New Law or Covenancis the Instrumental Donation of Life, like an Act of Oblivion. Your own Covenanting or giving up your felf to God in Christ, which is by a REPENTING PRACTICAL (1) FAITH, or (which

So that God's Covenint, Gift or Grant is your Title, or the Foundation of your Right, (as Christ is the Meriter and Maker of the Covenant;) and your Practical Faith is the Condition on your part. And to every one of thefe, to (m) God's Merei 19, to Chriff' Sher fice, Merits and Interceffins, to the Covenantor gift of God, and to your own fincere Paith, Confent and Acceptanc, you must trust for it's own proper part; and you must underfind what the part of each one is, and not truft to any one of these for the others pare: The Mercy of God as the Fountain: The Blood and Righteo unels of Christ as he Merit and Purchase; The Covenant of Christo Donation as the Instrument and Title: And your Faun and Content as the Condition of your Title; (as thankful a c prance usually is of all free gifts.)

then I gave him, and I bought for less then I told him I paid, I was oft guilty of immodest carriage with women, and to confess my shame, I was guilty of actual Fornication. I made little conscience of a Lie? Alas, my fins have been fo many and fo great, that I can hardly think that God will pardon them.

P. The Covenant of Grace (n) forgiveth all fins without exception, which confift with the performance of the Condition of pardon after them; that is, all fins are pardoned to the PenitentBeliever: But to the Impenitent Unbeliever no fin is pardoned (except conditionally,) And final Impenitence and Unbelief are pardoned to none. So that a true Christian is not to doubt of the pardon of any of his former fine, any further than he doubteth of his Paich and Christianity.

S. Quest. III. But I shall fin again; in some degree: How then must I have pardon of my Sins hereafter? I have heard that Baptilin washeth away all fin; but it's long fince I was baptized and I am yet imperfect. -

P. Baptilm is faid to walk away fin, because that God's Covenant celebrated in Biptifin, giveth pardon of all fin through the Blood of Christ to all that truly receive ir, and confent on their part to the Covenant. Now this Covenant on God's part is a standing Law and Pardoning Act. And it par: doneth all fin to our death to them that fill- repent and believe. But it is faid to pardon all at Baptism. Because then there is supposed that we have no more to be pardoned. But if any be ungodly after Baptism, God's Law or Covenant pardonethall that it findeth us guilty fawhenever we truly turn to God, by Paith and Repentance, But a the ward it pardoneth daily our daily fins of infirmity only; and to the lapled their extraordinary falls upon their extraordinary repentance; Because the faithful (0) have no other afterward to be forgiven. For being sanctified, they no more live an ungodly fenfual worldly life. So that you must hereafter for your particular fins, have a particular Repentance and recourse to Christ.

S. Queft. V. How must I do for grace and strength to keep my Covenant when I have made it ?

P.(p)Of your felf you can do nothing that is good. Your heart is to corrupted with fin, fill it befanctified, that you will not be willing; and your mind to blind that you will not well understand your duty nor your interest; and your Soul so dead and impotent, that you will have no life or strength to practife what you know. But if the (q) Spirit of Christ do once give you Fairb and Repensance and Confens, by this you have right to Him as an In Iwelling Fring siple; and you are then entied into Covenant Rola. tion to the the Holy Ghoft And that which he will do in you, is to functifie your three faculties. 1 Your Vital power, with spiritual (r) LiFis, Strength and Activity. 2. Your Understanding with spiritual LIGHT, that is, Knowledge and Faith. 3. Your Will with Holy LOVE and Willingness And when he hath planted thele in you, he will be read thill to prefer ve, excite, alluate, and increase them. that it is the Holy Ghost that must be your Life, Light and Love. But you must know how to obey his motions, and not refift him.

P. You must know that God hath first pessessed Christ's human Glorified Nature with the Spirit, that he may have it as the Head; and from Him it is to come to us as his members. Therefore I faid that the whole Gift of the Covenant is (f) Chrish and Life. Now Christ giveth us his Spirit both as a Saviour freely, and as a Ruler according to his law of Grace, as to the Order of Conveyance. Therefore as the first Gift of the indwelling Spirit" is on Condition of your Fairb, to the Continuance of it is on Condition of your continuing in the Faith, (for all that you neither had Faith at first, nor in continuance, without the antecedent work of the Spirit.) And the increase and astual bely's and Comfort of the Spirit, are given you on Condition of your dependance on Christ your Head for the daily Communication of it.

Therefore you must remember, I That the Giving or Denying the helps of the Spirit to our fouls, are the greatest Rewards and eunishments which Christ, as our King, doch exercise and administer on us in this world. And therefore look much at this in your felf, whether Gods Spirit help you,or forfake you.

2 That your means is to wait on Christ in the daily Exercise of Faith, and use of all his Instituted Ordinances, and to attend his Spirit and not refift it.

s. But I am afraid, I have finned against the Holy Ghoft, the unpardonable fin; For I have joyned with Prophane persons in deciding the Spirit. Especially when I heard many young Students, and MiliThe Pool Pan's Family Book. 153

sters themselves do the same, it imboldeed me to imitate them. I have mock'd at them, that did but talk of the Spirit; or speak of the Necessity of the Spirit: I have said ; [These be the spiritual men, the boly Breihren; ikat pray by the Spirit, and greach by the Spirit, and whine by the Spirit, and cheat and lie and dissemble by the Spirit, These are the gifted Brethren! with many fuch foolish feorus. And is not this the fin against the Holy Ghost?

P. The bn was very great, and the case of these That encouraged you, fearful: And no doubt but it was a fin against the Holy Ghost. Betit is notevery fin against the Holy Spirit which is unpardonable. But only the Blasphemy of Infidels deferibed, Mat. 12. Wnich is, ibit when they cannot deny the Miracles of Christ, they will rather hold and maintain that he (1) wrought them by the power of the Devil, than they will believe in him. So that it is none but Insidels, and but few of them that have thic blasphemy of the Holy Ghost.

3. Quest, VI. How shall I do to know the operation ons and motions of the Spirit, from delutions, and how shall I know whether I have the Spirit or not?

P. I. The Spirit is from God and our Saviour, and leadeth to them. I teld you its Operations are, 1. (11) Holy life or Vivacity toward God. 2. Holy light to know and believe God. 3. Holy Love to Love God, and his Government and Children, If. you have these, you have God's Spirit: for it is nothing elfe. These are God's restored Image on the foul, and the new Divine Nature of his Regenerate Adopted Children.

II. The motions of the Spirit are, 1. Always fitted to God and Holiness as the end. 2. And always

s. What is the reason of that?

1. Because God giveth the (x) fame foirit indeed; but not in the Jame measure to all. Now to the Aposses and Evangelists he gave it in the greatest extraordinary degree, purposely to plant hise burches and to indite an infallible Scripture, the Records of that Gospel, and to confirm it by Miracles, and leave it to the World, as the Rule of our Faith and Life, So that as a man first engraveth aleal, and then sets - it on the wax; fo the Holy Ghoft first inspired the Apostles to write us the Infallible Word and Rule. And then he is given to all others in a smaller degree, only (y) to help us to understand, beleive, and obey that word. Therefore the lower operations of the Spirit in us, are to be tried by the bigher Operations in the Apolites recorded.

S. Queft. VII. What then is the Law and Rule, that I must live by, according to the Covenant that I make?

P.1 God is the Universal King, and Christ our Redeemer, as man, his Administrator. God's Law is writen as I told you, 1 In Nature, 2. In Scripture, where alfo the Law of Nature is contained, in the main. This is God's Law which you must live by.

in God's Universal Law, and lest to their determination. Like as are the By Laws of Corporations under the Liws of the King. And all these under God must in their places be obeyed.

s. Quest VIII. What Church must I joyn my self

P. You were Baptized only into Christ's Univerunto ! fal Church: And to be a Christian, and to be a memher of that (a) Church, is all one. That Church is nothing, but Spiritually all Heart Covenamers, or Be-· lievers, and Visibly all Baptized visible Covenanters, or Professors, united, to and with, Christ the Head. And no Pope or General Council is the Head of it, Supream or Official.

But you must joyn with that part of this Church where you live, and God giveth you opportunity to worship him, and learn his will, with the best advantage to your own foul; not violating the Common good and Peace. But you must joyn actually with none that will not receive you unless you fin.

S. Quest. X. What must I do with my Calding and Labour and Estate in the World : Must I forfake its or not? P. Adam was to labour in Innocency: Six days; must you labour, and do all that you have to do, Exod. 20. He that will not (c) labour (if able). is unworthy to eat. Idleness was one of Sodom's fins; Religion must be no pretence for stoathfulness. You must not(d)love the world as your felicity, or for it felf, or for your fleshly lusts: But you must make use of the world, in the service of your Creator, yea and love it as san&ified means of your Salvation, and as a wilderness way to your promised Inheritance. As the Mariner love h not the Sea for a Dwelling, but as a passage to his desired Port. Good Husbandry is not unbeleeming a good Christian, You must labour for your daily Bread, as well as pray for it; yea, for the maintenance of your Family, and that you may have things decent, and to give to him that needeth, Rom. 12. 17. 2 Cor. 8. 21. Epbel. 4. 28. 1 Tim. 5. 8.

But this is the things that you must principally remember. That God and the (e) Heavenly Glory is. your end, which must still be defired for it self, and before all; and the world and all things in it are. but means to help you to that end; and only as they are fuch, must be valued, loved, defired and fough'; and when ever they oppole God and your Heavenly Interest, must be forfaken, and used as we do (f) hated things.

And when common worldly things thus further your obedience, and are devoted to God, and referred to his will and fervice, then they are (g) fanctified to your mortal Enemy.

s. Quest. XI. What it Iam now uncertain whether my heart be sincere in this Co enant which I make with God, when I renounce all, and profess to prefer him before all ? May I venture to Covenant, and profess that consent whose sincerity I am uncertain of? Will not this be a kind of lying unto Gcd?

P. If your Heart be falle, it will be lying : But if it be not, it will be no lying: the you are uncertain. The Truth of your Content is one thing, and your Certainty of it is another : That it be true is necessary to your Salvation; but not that you be fure that it is true. But there is much difference between, 1. One that flattereth himself with conceits that he consenteth, when he doth not: (Such a one sinneth in professing a lie.) 2. And one that is but yet delibera ing, and is unresolved what to chuse and do. (This person must not Covenant till he feel the Scales turn by a true Resolution.) 3. And one that rruly conferreth and resolverbibut is afraid left his deceitful heart be not fincere in itsthis person must Covenant in this uncertainty. Because all that can be expelled from us is, that we speak our own minds according to the best acquainsance with them that we can get; Otherwise we must torbear all thansgiving for special mercies, and a great part of our worship of God, till we are certain of the incerity of our own hearts; which too many are not.

S. But some think that Baptism is not to enter us. into this special Covenant which presently pardoneth; but only to enter us into Christ's School, as our Teacheston by him we may learn how to be Regenerate and tinceresthat we may then be pardoned.

If this would ferve I could eafilier confent.

P.I may not stand at large to shew you the falfness of that opinion; The best is, Baptilin hath these 1600 years years been kept unchanged by the Church in one form; And the Church never knew any Baptism but, 1. Such as was joyned with a prefent Profession of present Vaith and Repentance, and renunciation of the Devil, the World, and the Fleth, and a total devotedness to God in Christ. 2. Such as had the promife of prefent pardon of fin to all fincere Receivers of Baptism. 3. Such as stated the Receiver in a virible membership to Christ, and Right to Glory, so that in charity we are bound to take and love and use such as sincere, till they shew the contrary. 4. The Church never (b) Baptized any whom they took not thereby to be made vilible Christians. And they took no man for a Christian, that took not Christ presently for his Saviour, Priest and King as well as for his Teacher; Yea and God for his God, and the Holy Spirit for his Sanstifier. 5. And fo much as you talk of maketh a man but one of the Catechifed, prepared for Christianity, whom the Church never took for Christians, till they were Baptize 1. 6. And the few that are of the opinion which you mentioned, yet confess that you cannot be faved, till you confent fincerely to the Covenanz of Grace it felf.

s. Quest. XII. What if it prove that my heart is rot hacere? Or what if I should fall away again hereafter?

P.I. If your heart be not (i) sincere in your consent to the Covenant, you will remain mapardoned in your fin and mifery till it be fincere.

But if (which God forbid). you should fall Quiet away from Christ, renouncing him, as if you believed him not to be the McIsiah; I say, If You thus totally and fetledly renounce Christby unbelief, I cannot fee but you must either be guilty of the Blasphemy of the Holy Ghost, or come so near it, as that according to Heb. 6. 6, 7, 8. your recovery will be utterly improbable. s. I am much afraid lest when temptation cometh I should turn again to my former folly (though God forbid I should renounce my Saviour.) I am fo entangled in ill company, and in a custom of finning, and have so bad a nature, and so many temptations, and Worldly mares, that though I am now refolved, I am airaid left I should yield and

P. It becomethyou to (k) Fear ii, that so you may prevent it. But this fear should not hinder you from Refolving and Consenting. For, 1. You know that mais odious, and its pleasures are poyson, and decrit; And therefore that this world affordeth nothing to and in Competition with God, and your Salvation. 1. You must indeed (q) repeat of sin with shame and godly forrow, and loathing of your self: But it is no farther than sitteth you for the comforts of pardoning and healing Grace.

2. You must believe all the comfortable Promises of the Gospel; All the love that Christ hath manifested: All the wonderful History of his life and death, and Resurrection and Ascention and Heavenly Glory. The certainty of his word and gracious Covenant.

3. You must believe the wonderful (q) Love of the Father in giving us his Son, and Reconciling us to himself, and Adopting us as his Sons, and undertaking to secure us as his peculiar treature, and giving us his Holy Spirit.

4. You must live under the helps and consolations of the Holy Ghost, still drawing you to God, and making you more Holy, and helping your infirmities against your fins.

5. You must live in the Hopes and defires of Everlasting Glory: Verily expecting to see Christ Gloristed, with all the Saints and blessed Angels, and to see the Glory of God, and with a perfected Soul and Body, perfectly to see his Love, and perfectly to love and praise him to Evernity.

heart: And when others fear death for fear of Hell, you must welcome it as the door to endless life.

7. You must be come it as the door to the Communi7. You must live in the Charch, in the Communion of Saints, where all God's Ordinances must be your helps for the daily exercises of all these grayour helps for the daily exercises of all these graces and delights. And your chiefe st exercises of Piety must be hearing these glad tidings in the Gospel opened to you; Begging for more Grace; Joyful Thanksgiving for all these mercies; Singing forth and speaking the Praises of Jebovah; and with Joy and Thanksulness sersting upon Christ's stelli and blood and spirit in the Sacrament thereof, and there, in the renewing of this your Covenant, receiving a renewed sealed pardon, and new degrees of life and strength.

Tell me now what trouble is in all this? that a man should be afraid or weary of it? Unless you take it for a trouble to be safe and happy, to have the greatest mercies, the greatest hopes, and to live in the love of your dearest friend, and in the foretastes of everlasting joys. In a word, Godliness is prosing ble to all things, baving the promise of the life that now it, and of that which is to come, I Tim. 4.7.

S. You tell me of another kind of Godline's than I thought of. And I was the more afraid it had been a melancholy tediouslife, because I saw many that professed it, live so.

P. I told you the reasons of that before, which I must not repeat. And moreover to young beginners, that come new out of another kind of life, and whose souls be now by grace yet suited to the work, it may seem strange and troublesome. And the truth is, many Converts in the beginning are moved at a Sermon, and stille their own convictions, and open not their case to their Teachers, or else fall now into the hands of a Judicious Guide, who will clearly open to them the true N sture of Con-

Conversion; and so they set on they know not well what: Which makes me lay all thefe matters fo plainly and distinctly before you. Because it will be a wonderful prevention of your troubles and dangers after, if you do but fet out well inffructed in the beginning.

But the work and common cause of all is, that people are fo exceeding ignorant and dull (together with their undisposedness) that one must be whole months, if not years, before we can make them un. dorstand these few plain things which here I have opened to you. But yet we must take up with a dirk and general understanding, rather than delay too long, or be too firist with them.

S. I thank God for your Counfel and his Grace; I am relolved, and ready to subscribe my Resolution on, to be the Lord's entirely upon his Covenant terms.

P. I will go home with you to your house, and I will try whether you and I can instruct all your family that need it, and being them to the same refolution. For as it is your duty to endeavour it, fo God useth to bless his believing Servants, with the Conversion of their Housholds with them; as the case of the fivlor and Lidea, Alt. 16. 21. cheus, Stephanus, and others thew us: You shall therefore d lay your open protession of your Refulved Conversion, till you do it in the presence of them all. And it will be a great mercy to you if God give you but a Family willing to go along with you in the way to Herven; and daily to worthip the same God and obey him. his finful ire, and openly professeth his consent to the Covenant, and they pray together for his Con-

S. Ibless the Lord for this day of Grace, what would you yet advile me to do?

P. One thing more, to God's Glory and your Comfort ; that you will the next Lord's day Communicate with the Church in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, which is appointed to be the Renewed of the Baptifmal Covenant before the Church: where God will fee his Seal to your pardon and to his Covenant part. But withal feeing you have been a known offender, that you will freely before the Congregation confess your finful life, and projets your Repentance and Refolution for a new and holy course, and crave their prayers to God for your pardon and strength, and their loving reception of you, and give God the Glory, and warn others to take heed of finning again aGod and their Baptism d Vows.

· S. This is sweet and bitter: I shall be glad to be admitted to the Sicrament of Communion ; But I shall be ashamed to make so publick a Confession.

P. It is a shame to sin, but it is an honour to confess it and repent. I perswade you not to confess your ferret sins before the Church; but only those which are commonly known, and therefore are your shame already; and I ow will that thank be removed till n.cn have notice of your Repentance? And you must not be ashamed of your duty, if you would not have Christ be ashamed of you.

S. But where doth God require fuch Confession? P. Thole that were Baptized by John confessed their fins, Mar. 3.6. Mark. 1.5. Al. 2 37. The Jews confessed their killing of Christ, by being pricked at heart, heart, and crying out for help when it was charged on them, All, 19.18. The Converts confessed their finful deeds, and publickly testified it to their cost. Fam. 5. 16. 2. You were publickly baptized, and you have openly finned against that Covenant, therefore if you will be openly raken for a Penitem into Church Communion, you must openly profess Repentance; Untels you would have us take all impenitent Persons to Communion

3. You are obliged to be more tender of (s) God's honour, than of your own; And therefore to honour him publickly, as you have publickly dishonoured him, and flick at nothing that tendeth to bis Glory, as this will do.

4. You are bound to cast the greatest shame that you can on fin: It is the shameful thing that hath deceived, and defiled you: If you have fer it up above God, and now refuse to cast it down, by open flame, how do you repent of it?

5. You owe all possible (1) belp to others to save them from the fin which hath deceived you. You bave encouraged men to fin, and for ought you know some of them may be in Hell for ever, for that which you have drawn them to! And should you not do your best now to save the rest, and to undo the burt that you have done? See therefore that you till them with deep Repentance, how fin declived you, and warn them, and befeech them to take warning by you, and to repent with you, as they finued with you. Your Companions that are not there may hear of this, and he convinced.

6. You owe this to the Church (u) godly Christi. ans, that they may rejoyce in your Conversion, and may fee that you are indeed a due object of their special love. 7. You owe this to your felf, 1. That you may remove your publick shame, and have the comfort of Christians special love: As God cannot delight in an impensions sinner, no more should his servants. 2. That your Conscience may have the comfort that your Repentance is fincere; which it will be justly still doubting of, if you cannot repent at as dear a rate as open Confession. How will you forfake all and die for Christ, if you cannot so far deny your pride, as to confels your sin?

8. Laftly, You owe this to me, that the Church may not take me for a polluter of its Communion, by

s. You have faid more than ever I heard of this, and it fully fatisfieth me. But would you have all that are Converted and Repens do thus?

P. Some have lived with some kind of Religiousnels from their Childhood, though with many ordinary fins, and have by undifcerned degrees grown up unto true Godlinels; Thele are uncertain when they first had special grace, and were not open scandalous Violaters of their Baptismal Vow: And therefore I can lay no fuch injunction on them.

But I would have all do thus, that have thus broken that Vow, and are convert d afterwards to true Repentance; For all the reasons which I now mentioned: And the Universal Church hath ever been for such publick Repentance in such a case; yea and for particular groß laples afterward. And matters with your Soul? Saul. I thank God and my R deemer, and you his Manister, fince I publickly repeated, renounced my fin, and gave up my felf to my Got and Saviour and Santlifier, $ find my lelf as in a new world! My (a) hopes rovive, and I have had already more comfort in believing and in feeking God, than ever I had in my life or fin. I am grieved and alhamed that I flood off follows, and have spent formach of my life in wickedness, and in wronging God who gave me life. I am affirmed that ever fuch trifles and fooleries possessing heart, and kept me so long from a holy life! And that I delayed after I was convinced! I could wish from my very heart that I had spent all that time of my life in begge, y, flavery, or a Jail, which I tpent in a flethly finful courte! O had I not? now a merciful God, a furficient Saviour, a pardoning Covenant of Grace, and a consforting Sm. Enfer, -which way should I look, or what should I do? It a-mazeth me to think what a dangerous state I to long lived in ? O what if God had cut off my life, and taken away my unfanctified Soul! What would have become of me for ever? O that I had fooner turned to my God! And fooner caft away my fins; and fooner tried a holy life! But my Soul doth magnifie the Lord, and my Spirit doth rejoyce in God my Sayiour, that he hath piried a fell-destroying finner, and at last his mercy hath (b) abounded where my fin did abound.

P. It is but little of his Goodn is, which as yet you have tasted of, in comparison of what you must find at laft. But that you may yet make fure work, I shall spend this days Conference in acquainting you what Temptations you have yet to overcome, and what dangers to escape: For yet you have but begun vour race and warfare.

S. Your Counfel hath hitherto been fo good, that I shall gladly hear the rest.

P. I. The first Temptation that you are like to meet with, is, A feeming (c) difficulty and puzzling dirkness in all or many of the Dollrines and Praitices of Godlinefs : You will think strange of many things than are taught you; and you will be flalled at the difficulties of understanding and believing, of meditaing and praying, of waiching against fin, and of doing your duty. And by reason of this difficulty, Satan would make God's tervice frem wearifort, uncomfortable and grievers to you, and to turn back your Love from God.

And all this will be, because you are yet but as a flranger to it; like a Scholar that cutreth upon Books and Sciences, which he never meddled with before: or like an Apprentice that newly learneth his Trade, or like a Traveller in a strange way and Country: The 13003 Man's Family Book.

To an ignorant and unexperienced person, that never meddl d with fuch things before, but hath been used to a contrary course of life, all things will feem thrange and difficult at first.

S. What courie must I take to escape this Temp-

P. I. When you meet with any difficulty, you must fill remember that it is your own dark mind, or backward bears, that is the cause, and never suspects God's word or ways: No more than a tick man will blame the Mear infload of his Stomach, if he loath a feaft. But take occution to renew your Repentance. and chink, all this is long or my felf, who spent my youth in fin and folly, which I should have spent in hearing the word of God, and practiting a godly life; What need have I now to double my labour to overcome all this?

2. Refolve to wair patiently on God in the use of bis means; And teaching, time, and use and Grace, will make all more plantand cane and del ghtful to you. Do not expect that it should come on a fulden, without time, and diligence, and parience.

a. Keep still as a humble Disciple of Christ in a Learning mind and way, and turn bot in felf-conceitedness to cavillagainst what you do not understand. This is the chief thing in which Convernon maketh us like linle Children, Mir. 18.3. Children ate confcious of their ignorance, and are teachable; and fet not their wits against their Teachers, rill they grow towards twenty years of age, and then they grow wife in their own conceits, and begin to think that their Tutors are in Raken, and to fet them wits tagain a the truth which they thould receive. But of this more anon.

If. The second Temptation will be, upon these difficulties and your mistakes in Religion, to grow to perpiese d

The Devil will strive to lose you and bewilder you in some mistakes; or to make you think that your Convertion was not true, because you had no more brokenness of heart for fin; or because you know not just the time when you were Converted. Or be will make you think that all Religion lyeth in Atriving to weep and break your heart more; or that you have no Grace, because you have not such a lively sense of things invisible, as you have of the things that are feen; Or he will tell you, that now you nuft not think nor talk of the world, but all your thoughts and talk must be of God, and his Word, and Holy things; and that all other is idle thoughts and talk; and that you must tie your self to longer tasks of Meditation and Prayer than you have sime and strength to carry on.

s. Sir, you make me admire to hear you! Can fuch motions of Holiness come from the Devil! If I did not know you, I should suspect some Carnal Malignity against Holiness in your speeches.

P. Did not the Devil plead Scripture with Christ in his temptations? Mat. 4. And doth he not (d) transform himfelf into an Angel of light to deceive? When he cannot keep you in fecurity and prophanenes, he will put on a vizour of Gedlinels: And whenever the Devil will feem Religious and Righteous, he will be Religious and Righteous overmub?

s. What getteth he by this? Would he make us more Religious?

P. You little know what he boreth to get by it-Overdoing is undoing all: He would deffroy all your Religion by it. If you run your Horle till you ture him, or break his wird, is not that the way to The Pool Man's Family-Book.

173 Tole your journy? Nothing over-violent is darable If a Scholar study so hard as to crack his Brains he will never be a good Scholar or wife man, till he is cured. Our Souls here are united to our Bodies, and must go on that pace that the Body can endure. If Satur can tempt you into Imger and deeper mufing (especially on the faller Objects in Religion) than your body and brain can bear, you will grow Melanchally belo e you are aware, and then you little know how ill a Guest you have entertained.

For when once you are melancholly, you will be difabled then from fecres Prayer, and from Mediating at all; It will but confound you; You cannot bear it; And to by over-doing, you will come to do nothing of that fort of duty. And you will theu have none but either Fanatick whimfies and villo is and propheryings, or effe (more ufually) fad de-Ip doing thoughts in your mind; All that you hear and read and fee, you will think maketh against yon; You will believe nothing that foundeth comfortably to you; You cannot think none bur blick and hideous thoughts, The Devil will tell you a hundred times over, that you are an hypocrite and unlan Ethird, and all that ever you did was in Hypocrine; and that none of your tins are yet forgiven; and that you shall as sure by to Hell as if you were there aheady; that God is your Riemy; that Christ is no Saviour for you; that you have finned against the Holy Gnost; or that the day of Grace is pull; that the Spirit is departed, and God hith forfaken you; that it's now too late, too late to repent and find mercy; and that you are undone for ever. Thef. black thoughts will belike a beginning of Hell to you.

And it is not your felf only that will be the fulferer by this; but many of the ignorant and wicked will: 174 The Poor Man's Family-Wook.

will by feeing you, be hardened into a love of feenrity and fenfuality, and will fly from Religion as a frightful thing which doth not illuminate men, but make them mad, or cast them into desperation. And so Saran will use you, as some Papists have drawn the Pisture of a Protestant like a D vil, or an Ass, to affright men from Religion; or as we set up aliukins to frighten Birds from the Corn: As if he had written on your Back for all to read [see what you must come to, if you will be Religious.]

S You describe to me to tad a case, as almost makes me melancholy to hear it, and it tempts me to be affraid of Religion it self, if it tend to this: But what would you have mesto do to escape it?

P. Religion is felf as God commendeth it, tendeth not to this. It is a life of boly faith, and hope, and jay: But it is errours about Religion, that tend to it. And especially when my great cross or disappointment in the world, becometh an advantage to the Tempter 10 cast you into worldly discontents and cares, and trouble, and perplexity of mind: This is the mest usual beginner of melancholy; and then it turneth to Religious trouble afterward.

And I the rather tell you of it now; because you are capable, through God's mercy, of preventing it: But it is a disease which when it seizeth on you, will disable you to think, or believe, or do, any thing that much tendeth to your cure; Words are usually in vain; It overcometh the freedom of the will.

The prevention is this; 1. Set not too much by any thing in the world; that so the loting of it may not be able to reach your heart. Take the world as nothing, and it can do nothing with you. Take it for dung, and the loss of it will not trouble you.

2. Keep true apprehentions of the Nature of Religion; that it lieth in Faith, Hope, and Love, in(e) Righteoufness Prace and Foy in the Holy Chosts in the fore-thoughts of everlasting, Chory, and in comforting your self and one another, with remembring that you shall for ever be with the Lord; in thanksgiving to your bountiful God, and in his joy-sul Praises; Let these be your thoughts, your specifics, your exercise publickly and secretly. Set your self more to the daily exercise of Drvine Praises and Thanksgiving, to alturate Love and Foy, than to any other part of duty. Not that you have done Repenting; but that these are the chief, the life, the top, the end of all the roll.

3. When you feel any feruples or troubles begin to feize upon you, open them prefently to a judicious Minister or Friend, before they fasten and take rooting in you. Remember and observe these things.

III. A Tord Temptation that will affinite you, will be in communal doubt of your own fince-try; So that though you be not melanikely to face, Satan would bring you to it, by a life or communal doubts and fears.

And here he hath very great advantage; Because man's heart is so dick and decentral, and because our Grace is estably very little and weak; and a little is hirdly discread from none; and because that the greatest affarance of interruy is a work that requireth and biskill, great diligence, and clear belos.

S. I cally believe that ans will be my cale; I feel fome beginnings of it already; But what would you advil me to do to repent it?

PI have written a fin all Book on this point alone, called, The Right Method for Peace of Conscience, &c. to which I must refer you; But briefly now I say, is You must still keep by you in weicing the Baps tismal Covenant of Grace, with the Explanation of it, which I gave you; and never mistake the Nature of that Covenant and of true Religion; And on all occasions of doubting, renew your pare, that is, your Consent; and go no further for marks of Godliness and true Conversion, if you can truly say, that you still consent to that same Covenant; For this is your Faith and Repentance, and your certain evidence of your Right to the benefits of God's part. Fin'd still your true consent, and never doubt of your fincerity.

2. But because he that consenses to Learn will learn, and he that (f) consenses to obey will obey; your Life must also testifie the truth of your Consent. Therefore instead of over tedious trying and fearing whether you truly consent and obey or not, not your self heartily to your duty; study to please God, and to live fruitfully in good works; resolve more against those sins which make you question your sincerity; And the practice of a Godly life, and the increase of your Grace, will be a constant discernible evidence, and you will have the witness of your self that you are a Son of God.

s. I thank you for this fhort and full direction.
I pray go on to the next Temptation.

P. IV. If you escape these sadder thoughts. Satan will tempt you to security, and tell you that now you are Converted, all is sure, and you never need to sear any more. To ose that have true Grace can never lose it; and sins once pardoned are never unpardoned again; and therefore now all your canger is past. And if he can thus take off all your fear and care, he will quickly take of your zeal and diligence.

S. Way! Is not all my fear and danger patt?

P. No: not as long you are on earth: Ior. menting fear you must refift; But Preventing (8) fear and Repenting fear will be fill your duty: You are but entred into the Holy War. You have many a Temptation yet to relift, and conquer: Temptations from Suan and from men, and from your figh: Temptations of Prosperity and Adverfity. You have constant and various ducies to perform, which require firength and skill and willingnefs. You have remaining corruptions yet to mortific, which will be firrying to break out against and to undo you. You know not how many burdens you have to bear, where flesh and bears and friends may fail you. Itell you all the rest of your life must be the practice of what you have promised in your Covenant; a Labour, a Race, a Warfare: And you must defend your self with one hand, as it were, while you build with the other; And ail the way to Heaven must step by step, be carried on by Labour and villory, conjunct. Will you reward a man meerly for Promising to serve you? Will you excuse aSouldier from fighting and watching because he is listed (and engaged to do it?) The two first Articles of Religion are, that God is, and that he is (b) the Rewarder of them that diligently feek him. If you receive the unmoveable Kingdom, you must (i) ferve God acceptably with reverence and Godly fear, as knowing that Our God 1 is a Confuming fire. And though it be God that giveth you to will and to do, you must (k) work out your Salvation with fear and trembling. You must the (1) steadfast unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, as knowing that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. You must fight a good fight, and finish your course, and love the appearing of Jetus Christ, if you will expect the Crown of Rightcousness. You must overcome if you will inherit, and be (m) saithful to the death, if you will receive the Crown of Life. Do you think that you come into Christ's Army, Vineyard, and Family to be carelets?

5. But if I cannot fall from Grave, nor be unjustified, though there be duty, there is no danger, nor cause for tear.

P. Controversies of that kind are not fit for your head; much lefs to build fecurily upon; It is certain that God's Grace will not fortake you, if you (n) tortake it met first. And it is certain that none of his Ele& thall fall away and perifh. But it is certain that Adam loft true grace, and that fuch Apostable may be not only possible, but too too cafe in it fell, which yet flall never come to pass. But this is enough to the prefent cale; that as you have no cause to district God; so it is certain that God doth not decree to lave mon without danger, but to lave them from danger; And that your fear and care to escape that dany, it of his and inferry) is the means decreed and commanded for your escape ; And that God hath no further decreed that you she it of cape, that he hath decreed that you shall fear it, and escape by rational care (excepting some unknown dangers which he purs by;) Heb. 1.1. Let us therefore fear, less a promise being less of entring into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. The sum of all is instanced in Heb. 11. 7. By faith North being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepired an Ark to the saving of his brusse, by which he condemned the world, and became bein of the Rightousness which is by faith.

Go on thereto e with faith and hope and joy; But hick not that all the danger is paft, till you are in Heaven.

P.You are married already; and the refore I need not advice you to that lawful remedy; but I charge you to take heed of all quarrels and fancies which would make your own Wife diffaftful to you. 2. Audahove all befure that you be not Idle in mind or body! You that are a poor labourer are in tenfold lets danger than rich Men and Gentlemen are. When a man is idle, the Devil findeth him at leibure for filthy thoughts and immodest dalliance; But if you will Labour hard in your calling from morning to night, to that your bufiness may necessarily take up your thoughts, and also wears and employ your Body, you will neither have Mind of filthiness, ror lime for daliance. 3. And befure that you fare hard for Quantity and Quality; The fire of left will go out, if it be not fed with Illenefs, fulnefs and pide. Glutions and Drunkards are flilllaving in fuel for fitthy lefts. And great Infitted inclinations, in uft have great falling. And Physick and die will do much (as eating much cold herbs, and drinking cold water;) But to have a body full employed in butiness and labour, and a mind never idle, but ftill taken up with your Calling, or with God, together with a spire diet, is the fum of the cure; with keeping for enough from the bain, and caffing out filthy thoughts before they falken in the mind.

The flory is commonly reported of a Lord Keeper in our time, who reat Islington as the pathed by, saw a man that had nowly hang d hind It; and causing him to be cut down, recovered him to health. You will be tempted alto to Pride and Ambition to fek preferment and domination over others; and to a worldly mind, to thirft after (1) Riches. and great matters for your felf and your Children after you in the world. And this Pride and World. liness are the most mortal fins of all the rest: As p ffelling the very heart or Love, which is the feat that God referveth for himself. But against these you must have daily Instructions in the publick Mini-Acy. I will now fay no more to you but this: That he that thinketh on the grave, and what man's flesh must shortly turn to, and of the brevity of this life. which every hour expecteth its end; and thinketh how dreadful a thing it will be, for a foul to appear in the guilt of Pride or Worldline spefore the holy God: one would think should easily detest these fins; and (2) we the world as if he weed it not.

S. Proceed I pray you to the other 1 emptations.

P. VI. The Controversies and differences which you will hear about Religion, and the many Secs, and parties and divisions which you will meet with, together with their speeches and usage of one another, will be a great Temptation to you.

I. In Dostrinals, you will hear some on one side, and some on the other, hourly contending about Predestination, and Providence, and Universal Redemption and Free will, and Man's Merits, and in what sense Christ's Rightcousness is imputed to us, and about sufficiention, and the Law, and the Covena its of Works and of Grace; and of the Nature of Earth, and Repentance; of Assurance of Salvation, and whether any fall away from grace, with many such like.

⁽f) 1 lim.6, 9, 10. Luke 22. (r) 1 Cor. 7. 29,30,31.

Il. In matters of Church Government and God's: worship you will meet with some that are for Prelacy, and fome against it : some for Government by the Pastors in equality, some for the People's power of the Keys, and some for an Universal Government of all the world by the Pope of Rome. And you will find some against all praying by the Book, or a fee-form of words, and tome against all other praying fave that, at leaft in publick; fome for Images and many Symbolical Ceremonics of mens making, in God's publick worship, and sonie against them; some for keeping all from the Sacrament of whole Conversion or holiness the people are not farisfied; and some for admisting the scandalous and ignorant, and fome for a middle way; with many other differences about words, and gestures and manner of ferving God.

III. And it will increase your temptation to hear all these called by several Names, some Greeks, some Papists, some Peotestants, and of them, some Lutheraus, and Arminians, some Calvinists, some Antinomians, some Libertines, some Prelatical, some Erastians, some Presbyterians, some Independents, some Anabaptists, (besides Scekers, Quakers, Familists, and many more that are cruly Piereticks;) And some (especially the Papists) would make you to believe that all these are so many several Religious, of which none but one (that is, their own) is true

IV. But the greatest part of your Temptation will be to see how all these do use one another, and to hear what language they give to one another, You shall find that the Papists make it a part of their Religion or Church Laws, that these whom they actount Hereticks must be burnt to draw h and ashes, and that Inquisitions by torments must force them to consess and detect themselves and opiners;

The Poor Han's Family-Book. and that (u) Temporal Lords that will not exterminate all fuch from their Dominions are to be excommunicated first, and next deprived by the Pope of their Possessions, and their Dominions given to o. thers that will do it: and that Preachers are to be filenced and cust out, that swear not, subscribe nor, and conform not, as their Church Cinnons do require them. Others in all Countries almost you will find inclining to the way of force in various degrees, and faying, that without it, the Church cannot frand, and Discipline would be of no effect, and no Union or Concord would be maintained; These will call those that do not obey them, schilmaticks, factious, seditious, and such like. O. thers you will find pleading for Liberty of Confcience, some for all, and some for many, and some for themselves only; some crying out against the Prelates, as Anii Ctristian, Perlecutors, and Formalitte, and Enemies to all ferious and Godly men: fome. will top rate from shem as no Churches, not fir for Christians to hold communion with. One party will charge you as you would scape schisin and damnation, not to joyn with the Protestants, or Nonconformifts or Separatifts; Another will charge you as you would not be guilty of talfe worship, Idolatry, Popery, Perfecusion, &c. not to hold Communion with the conforming Churches. And the Anabaptists will tell you that your Infant Baptifus was nothing but a fin and mockery, and that you must be Baptized again if you will be faved (tay fome) or if you will be capable of Church Communion, fay others. The Antinomians will tell you that if you turn not to their opinious, you are a Legalist, and stranger to: freeGrace, and let up a Righteousness of your own against the Righteoutness of whist, and my fallers from grace by adhering to the Liw. The Arminians and Fesuits and Lukerans will tell you, that if you are against them, you blash he moully make God a Tyrant, and Hypocrite, and the Author of sin: The Dominstoms and Anni Arminians will tell you, that if you be of the opinion which they appose, you make man an Idol, and ascribe to him that which is proper to God, and are enemies to God, grace and providence, and near to Sovinianism. These and such other Temptations you must meet with, from disputers, who account themselves or are accounted by their Party, the best and with Learned'st men.

pelted things as these: What then shall I do it I come to see them, and should be thus assumed? Is Religion no plainer and surer a way? I Some are yet young and (3) raw of understanding, and never had time, and hard study and helps sufficient to acquaint them with all these difficult controverted points, 2. And then it is the common difease of mankind, to be too little difirufful of our own understandings and to be too. confident of our first apprehensions: Whereas alas the understanding of man is a poor dark slippery fumbling thing! And most mens first conceptions of doctrinal matters are very lame, if not falle ; Be-

caussant first we come Arangers to the matters,

189 find we always leave out one balf (at least) that is to be known: And a half knowledge hath half Ignorance with it, if not errout; Because Truths are like the parts of a Clock or Watch, in such connexion, that the ignorance of one part may make us err about the use of all or many of the rost. And the truth is, Wife and Indicious Christians are very few. For it is but few that are born with flrong naswal wits; and few that fall in the hand of right Teachers; and few that are patient, diligent students. All which belides the special belps of God's Spiris, are necessary to make a Judicious man.

2. And there are in me ft of us too much of our inordinate pride and felfishness, and passion unmortified, according to the various degrees of grace. Most Christians are weak and (a) Infants. And weak grace hath strong corruptions: And frong corruptions will be great troublers of the Church and Facily; as they are great troublers of the foul that hath them.

Do you not hear in Prayer what large and fad Confessions all Christians make (both Pastors and People) of their many and great corruptions, of their Ignorance, Pride, Pethon, and the like? And do you not hear by their complaints that they are their own grievous trouble, and make their own lives a burden to them? And do von think that they diffemble, and mean not as they speak? And do you not think that those corruptions which disturb themfelves will diffurb the Church ? it's firange if a Church which confiste the of a thousand felf troublers, have not some hundreds of Church troublers.

You will be apt at your first conversion to think that true Christians are nearer to perfession than they are; 'as if the Godly had nothing but Godune's in them But when you have tired them longer, you will find that Grace is weak; and mens faults are many and very sliff, and hardly cured; and your over high estimation of the best, may by experience receive a check; and you will see that men are still but men.

S. But I shall never be able to keep up that fervent Love to the Brethren which is my duty, if I find them as bad as you describe them. It will tempt me to think that Grace it self is less excellent than I thought it, if it do no more, and make men no better. I feel already your very discourse abate my great estimation of Religious persons: What then will such experience do?

P. If your estimation be erroneous, and you think them perfecter than they are, the abatement of it is your duty: For God would not have us judge fally of them, nor ground our Love to them upon mistake. But the excellency of Holiness, and the true worth of the Godly, may be discerned through all these troublesome faults. The use that you must make of all this, is such as followeth.

1. You must consider how great God's (b) mercy is to man, that will bear with so much taultiness in the best; And how tender a Physician we have who endureth all these stinking corruptions which we can scarce endure in one other, and the humble can scarce endure in themselves.

2. What confrant need we have of a Siviour and a (c) Sin & fir; And how much we must still live upon the healing grace of Christ.

3. How had our case was before Conversion, when it is so had still; And what wretches we should have been, if God' had left us to our selves; And what Church troublers the ungody are, when the bester fort have such troublesome faults.

4. What anex ellent thing Grace is, that doth not only keep alive under so much sin, but daily work it out, fill at last it perfectly overcome it.

5. How (d) tender we must be of judging one another to be ungodly, for such faults as are to common among some of the penitent. Though sin be never the better, because we are all so bad, yet we are the unsittents be halty centurers of one another.

of It is a help to the hope and comfort of a penitent burdened finner, that yet Christ will (e) pardon him and heal him at last, when he seeth how much God beareth with and pardoneth in all; As it is a comfort to the sick man to hear that thousands do live that have had the same disease. It almost all God's servants were perfect, it would be hard for the (fimperfect to believe that they are his servants.

7. It, sheweth you what need we have all to hear with one another, if ever we will have love and peace: And what a (g) self-condemning course it is of Perfecutors, to ruin the Godly upon an Accufation of some tollerable errour of fault, when all men have such like.

8. It will rell you how little cause any of us have to be (b) Proud, and how needful (i) humility and renewed repentance is to those that are Rill so bad.

9. It will tell you how little reason we have to be (k) fecure and idle, and to think that our mortifying work is done, when still we have all so much sin to overcome.

nerciful carriage towards those that are unconverted, or that are lapsed into sin, and teach us to pity them and pray for them, rather than revise them, when we find so much faultiness among the better fort of Christians. And it will keep us from that (1) overrigid and censorious and magisterial expectation or execution of Church discipline, when faults are so common under high prosessions.

11. It will make those (m) few Christians the more amiable in your eyes, whose great Wifdom, Piety Sobriety, Peaceablene's and Patience, not only keep them from joyning with the Church troublers, but also maketh them both the supporters, and bealers of the reft. For through God's great mercy many fuch judicious, wise, humble, blameless, charitable, and peaceable men there are, who are to the ordinary weak professors, what the healthful are in a Hospital or Family to the fick, and the aged to the Children 5that bear with the rest, and help to cure them by degrees, and keep the peace which they would break, and reconcile the differences which others make, and rid out of the Church the excrements of reviling and harred and divitions wherewith the others do de file it: And(n) bleffed are thefe Peace-makers, who have the (o) pure and peaceable wifdom from above; for they are eminently the Children of God.

12. Liftly, This must teach you to Remember the difference between Earth and Heaven, and to look up with bonour and desire to the jersest harmony of holy souls, united in one slame of Love to Go1; and to say, come Lord Jesus! When shall I be in that peaceable perfect world, where no ignorance, no sin, no

The Poor Apan's Family-Book.

Pride, no Passion, no Carnal Domination troubled the Holy Triumphant Church? And it must quicken your Prayers, that God's will may be done on Earth as it is in Heaven. These are the true uses to be made of all our Differences, Contensions, Scandals, Persecutions, and Church divisions.

S. O how great a mercy is a wife and feafonable Monitor and Guide! I was ready to think the Scandal described to be so great, as might even warrant, if not necessitate my offence, and the abatement or my liking of Godly men, it not of Godliness it self! And you have shewed me abundance of fruitful ufes to be made of it; and that with undeniable evidence of reason.

P. To think ill of Christ or Christianity, of God or Goddiness, for the errours or faults of any men in the world, is a mad and a most disingenious thing. For z. What is all sinfulness but a want of Godliness, or that which is its contrary? And will you vilifie Health because many are sik? or oase because many have pain? or life because many die? or ligh, because many are blind or in darliness? When on the contrary, it is pain and fickness that best teacheth men to value eafe and health. And should not the finful confusions in the world then, and the miscarriages of Christians, cause us to value wildon, holines, and . peace the more? It is not Godline's but want of more Godlines's that maketh men do all this amis. There is nothing in the world but more wifdom, and more true Godlinej's that can cure it. And when there is none, the world is so much worse, that it is almost like Hell.

2. And it is not God that forbiddeth and condemneth all this? Is it not his Law that every finner breaketh? Is there any one in the world, or all the world, to much against all fin as God is? What would you have him do more to fignific his dislike of it?

^{(1) 2} lim. 2. 25, 26 (m) Pbil. 2. 21. (n) M.tt. 5. (o) Fim. 3. 17.

He ferbids it: he caused his Son to die for sin; he yet chaftifeth the Godly themselves for it; and he will cast the impenitent into hell for it; and he will never fuffer any fin in his Heavenly Kingdom. And is it not madnet's or blafthemy then, if any will lay the blame of mens fins on God, or on his Holy Laws?

3. And it is God that is most abused and injured by fin, and diffolcated with it: And for you to think hardly of him, or of those that please him, because that others by hin do injure him, is as unreasonable and unrighteous, as it many of your Neighbours should rob you, and beat you, and therefore the rest should rob and beat you again, because the first did fo, and should beat all that will not beat you. It is no more equal dealing to think the worle of God and Godlincis, and Godly men, because that teandalous pertons do offend him.

S. But could not God make men better, and cuce all this if he would? Why then is the World fo bad?

P. God who in Himfelt is Infinitely Good, in his Infinite Wifdom feeth it best, to make his Creatures in great variety, and not to communicate the same degrees of excellency to them all: As you feel that every Star is not a Sun, nor all Stars equal, nor the Clouds like the Stars, nor the Earth and Water so pure as the Air, nor so active as the Fire; as you see a difference between Men and Beasts and Birds and Worms, and Trees, and Plants, and Stones, in wonderful variety: And it is folly to accuse God, tor not making every Worm a man, or every Man an Angel, or every Stone a Star or Sun: Because he is a free Creator and Benefactor, and may make or not make, give or not give, as he pleafeth, and knoweth well why he doth what he doth, which we Poor Worms are unfit to know; E ven so some reasonable Creatures he hath made so Glorious

The 18002 Man's Family Wook, Glorious in Moline's and Perfection that they cannot tin, that is, they never will fin; I mean the Angels! And some he hath made such as may please him, and be Happy if they will (affilting them by abundance of inflinctions, and mercies, and affictions :) and yet (p) may fin, and perilh, if they will not be perfivided. And among thise, even mortal man, he freely giveth more mercy to folie than he doth to others: But to all fo much, as that nothing can given and offered them even to the last. Now it is true that Cod could make every man at Angel, and every wicked man a Saint; and all thof whom he hath left to a Possibility either to stand or fall, as themselves shall chife, he could have made fuch. as that to fin thould have been impossible to rbem. S. VII. You have brought to my mind, and al nost here answered already another Tempration which I have fometimes felt my feef; It hath poled me to think that God, who is to good, thould make Hell for any, and damn men to such torments as I would not have my greatest Enemy feel; much more that the far greatest Part of the world thould all be damned; For if Scripture had never faid, that few are faved; yet as long as it faith that none but the Holy and Obeliens are laved, it is all one. For I fee that very few are Holy; few love God, and his Word, and Heaven, above this World. Upon these thoughts I have sometimes been tempted to doubt whether God be good and merciful: and fometimes to doubt whether the Scripture that faith these things, he true: For he that is Good will do Good. Therefore it God save but One of many, where is the abundance of his Goodnels.

P. That you may understand these matters well, you must begin at the bottom with the clearest certainties, and so proceed to the rest. And, 1. I ask you, is it not absolutely certain that God is Good, yea Bener than all the world? If not, how came all that goodness into the whole world, which we find in Nature and vertue, if God did not make it? And he cannot make that which is better than himself.

S. This is not to be questioned: Else he were not God.

P. Quest. 2. Is it not certain that there is pain and misery found in the world even on some Creatures that never sinned? What toil do you put your On and Horse to? You beat and abuse them: They have painful discases; and sometimes broken bones, and you take away the lives of multitudes of barmless Creatures at your pleasure; Yea they torment and kill one another, the Cat, the Mouse, and the Dog, the Hare, and the Hawk, the Birds, & c. Doth not all this stand with the Goodness of God?

S. Yes, experience telleth us that.

P. Quest. 3. Doth not a wifer sinner deserve to feel more than an Innocent Creature?

P. Quest. 20. Seeing that humane Government is, necessary to peace and order of the World, and Justice as necessary as Governments s not Divine Government, Laws and Justice more necessary? Else all the Sove signs of the World would be ungoverned? and all powerful wickedness to unpunished; and all heart fins (which are the roots of all the rest) and all fecret Villanies would be as free as piety it felf; And no Universal Order could be maintained without an Universal Governour; And if all Governours inflict more punishment on Offenders than they are willing of themselves, must not God do so? Sin is voluntary, but punishment is mostly unvoluntary. And if fin against Man deserve the Gallows or temporal death, fure fin against God deserveth more; even a punishment as durable as the Sinners Soul, which is immortal.

S.1. You have filenced my murmuring thoughts as to the Being of Bell; But what fay you of the Numbers that are damned?

P. 1. Remember that it is proved to you, that a God doth (before their sin) no worse to any, than as a free Benefactor, to give his own Benefits in various degrees: And that in the lowest degree, he giveth to all men Pardon, and Salvation if they will have it, and will not finally and obstinately reject it.

2. Remember that none are damued but those that wilfully damn themselves, and resule Salvation.

3. Confider that man is as nothing to God, and therefore there is no reason that he should spare sinners for their numbers sake; when the number maketh the sin the greater, as many fire sticks make the greater slame. Millions of men are not so much to God as two or three slies or wasps to us, who yet never stick to destroy a thousand of them.

I ask you. Quest. 1- If God danned but one of a Million, or of a Kingdom, and that only for obstinacy macy and Impenitency in fin, would it much offend you?

s. No; For I should see then that his Mercy is Greatest.

P. 2. If he damned none but the Devils, and faved all mankind, would it offend you?

S. Not much: because their malice is so great.

P. 3. Do you not grudge sometimes that God doth not punish the vicked, especially the Persecutors of his Church? And are not good men ready sometimes to call for fire from Heaven, and sometimes to marvel that God doth no more shew his hatred against them? And yet will you grudge at him, because he will do it, sully and seasonably in Hell?

S. The Lord pardon us: We are hardly pleased with his judgments.

P.4. Do you know that all this Earth is no bigger in comparison of all the world, than one inch of Ground is to all the Earth? And how many thousand, thousand, thousand times, is all the Earth greater than one inch? And are not all the rest of the vast and glorious parts of the world, as like to be fully inhabited as this? How know you but those unmeasurable Regions have a thousand, theusand millions of blessed Angels and Spiritual Inhamants for one wicked man or Devil that is damned? Are you sure it is not so?

S. How should I be sure? God only knoweth. I confess it is likely enough, if we may judge by the different spaces as you compare them.

P. 5. If when you come to Heaven, you shall find that Hell was the sinful place of Devils, and Earth by sin was one spot of God's world, made next like Hell; and that millions of millions of Angels and Holy Spirits, and Inhabitants are Glorified, for one wicked Man or Devil that is dam-

God?

S. I fee that it is unset for poor dark finners to judg the Judge of all the world, or to prefume to quarrel with his judgments, when we know no better what we fay.

. P. The uses which you should rather make of the numbers that are condemned are such as these. 1. To confider how mad a Creature an ungodly man is, when so great a number will by no warnings be: kept from damning their own fouls for ever-

2. That man hath exceeding need of a Saviour. and a Sanftifier, who is such a pernicious Enemy

10 himself.

3. How much you are beholden to God, who hath made you by his Grace to be one of those few that shall be saved.

4. How foolish and unsafe it is to think and speak and do as the most do, unless you would speed as the most do for ever; and how unmeet it is for · them to be conformed to this world, who hope to be for ever separated from them.

5. How excellent a people those few should be, above the common rates of men, whom God hath called out of fo great a number to himself. How fervently should they love him, and how holily and heartily should they serve him.

S. O that we could be fuch as this mercy doth:

deferve!

P. Two things more I will conclude with for your fatisfaction. 1. That Hell is not to be thought of like a meer Furnace of fire, where finners are fryed, as abiding in one place: But the flate of the Devils who are now at once tormented in Hell, and yet (q) rule in the air under one Beelzebub,

The Pool Pan's Kamily-Book. 203

or Prince, and night and day compass the earth, as feeking whom to deceive and devour; This, I fay, sheweth us, that Hell is a state of sin and misery continued partly by the voluntary pravity of the damned, and confiltent with a kind of Allive and Polirical life. And the greatest relemblance of it is the case of wicked men in deep Melancholly, who can neither ceale to be wicked, nor to torment themselves, or of Rogues in Irons in the Isil, compared with the state of the Angels in heaven.

2. That all great excellencies are rare; There is but one Sun (that we know of,) the number of men on earth is small to the number of flies and worms and fishes, &c. Gold is not so rommon as Iron, or Clay; nor Diamonds or other Jewels fo common as Peble flones; The woods are covered with thorns and bryars, and the commons with heath and furze, and weeds, without any care and labour of man; Bur Orchards and Gardens must have greater care, and lie in a much narrower room : Kings, and Nobles, and Judges, and Doctors, are but a finall part of mankind. And if God will have but few of us come to Heaven, one of those few shall be of more worth, than thousands of the wicked R propares that perilh.

S. Bar, Sir, the chief matter is yet behind; you have told me before of the foundals, errours, and felts, and temptations by them, which will be in the Church; & you have told me now of the multitudes that are wicked; But you have not told me, how I may elcape either of thele Temptations, what shall such an ignorant soner as I do, when I not only fee the ill example of the multitude, High and Low, but also hear men that seem Learned and Godly, Condemning one another: When one faith, This is the true Caurch; and another lach, Nay; but they are Hereticks or Antichristian; One faith,

You are damned if you be not of our way, and another faith, You are damned if you be not of our way. Alas I am not able to judge which of them is in the right, I know not what a Socinian, a Quaker, a Papift, an Antinomian, or any of these parties are, nor what they hold: How then shall I answer them, or know whether they be in the right? What will you advise me to do in this difficulty?

P. 1. I will first remember you, that All this is no more than Christ foretold us of, and warned all his Disciples to prepare for. That false Christs: and falle Prophets (hould arife, who should deceive, were it pessible, the very Eled. Matth. 24. 24. When they say, Here is Christ, And there is Christ, go not after them: ver. 16. That of our own selves men should arife speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples afier ibem : Act. 20.30. That is miss be that keresies must arise, that they which are approved may. be made manifest; 1 Cor. 1119. That Saian would aransform himself into An Angel of Light, and bis Mi. viflers into Ministers of Righteoulness to deceive, Cor. 11.14. That some would cause divisions and offences contrary to the Apostles dostrin; even such as serve not the Lord Fefus, but their own Bellies, and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the Simple. Rom. 16. 16,17. Among the Corinthians how quickly did the more carnal fort of Chri-Aians fall into factions and divisions, some being of Paul, and some of Apollos, and some of Cephas? And the Gallatians to followed the Jewish Teachers, that Paul was afraid of them, left he had Jaboured in vain. And in many of the Churches, the Nicolaitans and Deceivers (called the Woman Jezebel) did teach and seduce the people from the rruth, Rev. 2. 8 2.

But your fafety in this great danger must be thus maintained.

I. rou must (r) hold fast to your Baptismal Covenani as explained in the Creek, Lords Prayer and Commandments: And take all for Christians who are true to that: and take all such Christians for the true Catholick Church: For that which maketh a man a Ghristian, maketh him a member of the Body Politick of Christ which is his Church. that if any man teach you any thing contrary to that, you must rejestit. For your Bapismal Covenant is your Christianits. And if any call him an Hereick that owneth this Christian Covenant, as opened in the Creed, Lords Prayer and Commandments, believe him not, but take him for a flanderer of your Brother, except he prove it. 1. By some proved contrary Profession, which will prove that he doth not indeed believe as he professeth to believe. Or by some impeaitent wickedness of life. So that the same Covenant which your own Christianity confisteth in, will serve both for a test to try men's destrins by, and also to try which is the true Church; and who are the members of it, with whom you must have Communion, and who are Hereiicks, whom you must avoid.

II. Achere to those truibs wherein all Christians are (f) agreed. Papists, and Protestants, and Greeks, and all forts, truly Christian, are agreed in the points forenamed, of the Baptismal Covenant, the Creed, the Lords Prayer, and the Ten Commandments: And they all contest, that all which we receive for Canonical Scripture, is the true infallible Word of God; In all this our divisions are

III. The boly (1) Scripture then being acknowledged by all, for the word of God, you must receive no Doctrine which contradicted it. Nor refuse any Doctrine which is affected in it: But try all by this divine and certain rule.

Texts, is the occasion of mens different opinions, you may well take up with that sense which hath either of these two marks. I. That which is so plain and frequently repeated, that to an impartial sober man it is past Controversie: and if any pervert it, the plainness of the Text will certainly shame him. 2. That which all Christians (unless some inconsiderable dotards) are agreed in as the proper sense, in all the Commentaries of their-Learned men. And if you held tast all the Texts which are thus plain, and all which Papists, Greeks, Protestants, &c. do give the same exposition of, you will have a great stock of saving truths.

V. Be fire that you faithfully Love and (u) Fratife this much foremendoned, which all are agreed in: And then, 1. Holy souis nave great advantage of worldly or opinionative hypocrites, in times of differences and contentions. At least (x) these Souls shall certainly be saved.

VI. (7) Learn all that you yet understand not in the same humble teachableness from the Ministers of Christ in which you first entred in o his Church. Think not that you are grown too wise to (7) need their further teaching, when you once grow proud of your own understanding, and think that you can judge of all things at the first hearing, and that all is filte which crosseth your first conceits, and that Ministers can add but hick to what you know already: then you are as bad as perverted already: For this is the root of a multitude of errours.

VII. The (a) judgment of the Generality of able, Godly, felf-denying, impartial Ministers should prevail more with you, than the judgment of any partial Sell, whether it be Great or Small, either such as stand for worldly interest, or such as run into parties by Division. For the Church of Christ hath ever suffered by these two sorts, and therefore they are still both to be suspected.

to magnifie themselves, and (b) keep the World in subjection to them, that all may honour them, and be ruled by their wills. Dominations is evidently their work, and end; and no wonder if they fit their Doctrin to it.

9. On the other fide, the raw injudicious fort of Christians, if once they grow into an over high a esteem of their own Understandings, and Godliness are e acceeding apr to fasten with confidence upon their own first undigested notions, and publish them as saving truths, when after twenty years experience, . they will be assamed of them themselves; And they are as apt to defire to be made conspicuous for their Godliness in the World; and to that end to separate from ordinary Christians, as below them and unworthy of their Communion; as among the Papists, the Religious must separate themselves from others, into Religious houses and societies, which are accounted holier than the rest. These Selfs have ever been the nest of errours; and divisions have full tended to subdivisions, and all to the ruin of Love, Peace and Codlinels, and consequently of the Church.

So that the Generality of Divines and Godly penple, whom you plainly perceive to avoid both these extreams, and to live in concord among themselves, in a felf-densing fober holy life, neither feeking worldly bonours and preferments, nor running from concord into (c) proud self of inionated feets, as they whom you may best trust with the resolution of your doubts, and the conduct of your foul, so far as Ministers must be trusted.

For, 1. God is not so likely to guide by his spirit, false hearted worldly hypocrites (d) whose God

The Poor Pan's Family=1500k. is their Belly and Mammon, as the humble, holy, faithful Paftors of his Churches. And Christ himfelf hath given you this Direction, Mat. 7. By their fruits ye shall know them. For though a bad man may be in the right, and a Good man in the wrong; yst if in a practical controverse you see the generality. of bad men go one way, and the generality of good men go the other way, the far greater probability of, truth is on the good mens fide.

2. Because yet it is not so likely that God should. reveal his mind, to a few good men, and those of the rawer Injudicious fort, and fuch as are most infected with proud over-valuing their own wildom and Godliness, and such as have had least time and study and means to come to great understanding, and such as thew the nfelves the proudest confurers of others, and least tender of the ChurchesPeace and Concord, and fuch are apt to break all to pieces among themfelves; I fay, It is not fo likely that thefe are inthe right, as the main body of agreeing, humble, godly, peaceable, studious Ministers, who have hadlonger time and better means to know the truth; And the body of Christians, even the Church, hath more promifes from Christ, than particular dividing, persons have.

VIII. The Light and Law of Nature is the Primitive Original Light and Law of God; Therefore receive nothing from any Teachers which is certainly. against ic.

IX. Pray earnestly to God to preserve you from errour; And when Con'cience and experience, stell you that any opinion or party would lead you to plain fin, (as to dishonour your superiours, to.

favour Perlecution or Idolatry, to divide Christians and set them against each other, to destroy Christian Love, to favour loose and slessly living, to neglest Gods Ordinances, or the like, be sure so far it must needs be falle.

X: Y? Wait still as a doubting Learner, where you cannot yet reach to a Divine Belief.

If you understand but these two lines, it will help you to escape all these cheats of the Papists, and the chief perplexities of mind, which all our S. Etc.

1. Remember that the Christian Faith and Religion is of God: And if you believe the same Articles meetly upon the word of men (whether sew or many) it is not formally true Faith and Religion in you, because it is human only, and not Divine. If you believe the Priest only, or the Church, that there is a Resurrellion of the Body, and a life everlasting, this is not a Believing in God.

Teachers of the Church is to help you to know what God hash revealed what is his word; and so to believe and practife it: and not meetly to believe the Priests themselves.

3. Yet a certain belief of Them in their places, is needful towards the promoting of your belief of God. As he that cannot read, and is unlearned, must believe that what is Read is in the Bible, and that the Translation in the main agreeth with the Original, and that this Bible is the same which the Church received from the Apolles, and such like. He that will believe his Teacher in nothing, can learn nothing of him.

4. But this human faith is another thing, quite different from the Belief of God? And it is but a subordinate whelp to it, and no part of it, if man be not Ood, to believe man is not to believe God. Therefore if you should believe all the Creed, and all the Volums of Councils and Canons, meerly as the testimony of the Church, or whatfoever elfe you take only on your Teachers word, remember that it is no part of your Divine Faith or Religion, but only an appurtenance to it (good or bid) as the matter is. So far as you learn of and believe your Teact ers, you are a Learner and Disciple of theirs; and by them may be taught to know what is the word and will of (e) Christ: Which must be known by its proper evidence, which they must shew you, and not upon their bare word alone : for to be a Teach. er, is to thew you that Trub and Resson of believ. ing, which they have learnt them I lyes. But to be an Authorisesive (f) Lord of your faish, is another thing; and fuch lay, Believe, because we speak it. But to far as you have Learned by your Teachers, what is the word and will of (g) Christ, and believe and ober it because it is his word, to far you are indeed a Christian and Religious.

5. Therefore if any cell you, [This or that is the word of God] or [this is the true meaning of the word of God,] this is my Counfel, and this is your Duty; 1. If they be fuch as you are obliged to hearken to, as being your Tachers, or men of credit in such things, hear-what they can fay, as one that is willing to Learn the truth; And hear what others say against it: For it's hard to Judge in Controversies where both sides are not heard (if the difficulty be considerable.) 2. Be not hally to conclude off, or on, that it is true or salse; but continue meerly as a Learner, till you know by all their Teaching, that the thing is true; and tell them in

⁽c) 1 Pet. 1. 21. (f) 2 Cor. 1. 24 & 10. 15. (g) 1 Cor. 2. 5 1 Ikef 1. 8.

Either the thing is True or False, before you believe it. If it be Falfe, no Teackers or Church can make it True, nor can shew you the real evidence of Truth in it; Therefore if you believe it, whoever tell it you, you are guilty of believing a Falschood fathered upon God, when it hath no evidence. If you fay, that their Evidence feemed good to you; that was, because you were finfully rash and hasty, in receiving falshood, and not staying till you had time to (b) try it to the full. But if the thing prove True; yet it cannot be expelled that you noceiveit, 'till you have time sufficiently to (i) try it. Nor can it be faid, that your delay being dangerous, you must presently receive it on your Tercher's word; For that is but to be a Believer of a Man; And that which a man cannot know to be God's word without time to try & lee the evidence. it is in vain to fay, be must do it. And when a man hath first received both all the Essentials of the Christian Religion before mentioned, and all the Doctrins, and all the Expositions of Scripture, which the Generality of Christians in all ages have agreed in, together with all the Light and Law of nature; the Controversies which remain, can be of no fuch necessity, as that you must needs make haste, to believe men that tell us they are God's truth; before we have time to prove and learn it to be fo indeed.

Whoever therefore be your Teachers, or whatever Church pretendeth to inform eyon, Call wothing God's truth or word, till you have Sufficient Evi-

213 dence to prove it so: But continue as Learners in that doubt which you cannot overcome, 'till you can be (k) Divine Believers; And if you do believe any thing meerly on your Teachers word, fay plainly, Karl believe you as a man in this; but it is no part of my Religion and Belief of God, 'till I find indeed that is is his word.

Follow these ten Directions, and you will be safe against all the divisions, and clamours of contenders, that fay, Here is the Church and Truth, and there is the Church and Truth, and when feets and reafonings make others at their Wits end, your way will be fure and plain before you.

S. How clear have you made that case to me, which I thought would have utterly bewildred and confounded me!

P. VIII. The eighth Temptation which I must forewarn you of, is this: You will be in danger to mistake the nature of Christian Religion, by minding only some parts of it, and over looking the rest (and perhaps the greatest) and taking up with the separated ·paris alone.

God's word is large, and man's mind is narrow: And we are apt, when we observe fomething, to think that it is all. So some are so intent on Duty, that they have poor thoughts of Grace and Mercy: And some think that the magnifying of Grace, obligeth them to vilifie inherent boliness, and performed duty. And nothing is now more common, than to fet Truth against Truth, and duty a. gainst duty; when they are such as God conjoyneth. But the instance that I will now warn you of is this : The true nature of Religion is nothing elfe, but Faith turning the Soul by Repentance from the Less and world, to the Love and Praise and Obedience c. God, in the Joyful Hope of the Heavenly Glory,] Read this over and over again. Now the too colhimoncase of Christians, is, to live so much in the use of meer felf love and fear, as that almost all the notable exercise of their Religion is but a timerous care to be faved; and an enquiring after marks, or other ways, by which they may know that they shall be faved; and a performing of duty, as an heavy, but necessary task, that they may be faved : But that which you must aim at is, [To fludy much God's wondrous Love in Christ, and the Certainty and Greatness of the Heavenly Glory; and so far to mourn for fin, as it tendeth to magnific Grace, and to cleanfe and preserve the Heart and Life; And to live in the constant Delights of Divine Love, and Joyfullhanksgiving, and Praises to our Creator, Redeemer and Sanstifier. and in the Belief and hopes of life everlasting : And out of Love to God and Man, to delight in constant obedience to God, and in doing all the good that we can do in the world : And in this way to truft God quietly and gladly with body and foul.

This is true Religion: And weeping for sin, and particular Ordinances must not be neglected, but effected only as lower parts, which are but stepping stones to this ascent, and never to be set against it, not our chiefest care to be spent upon them.

by this, that true Religion is a very noble and a pleasant life. But most good People that I have known do but ask what they shall do to be saved, and beg for a softer heart that can weep for tin, and keep on in hearing, Prayer and Sacraments. And the Praises of God do take up but a little room in their devotions (except some that do it by way of erroneous opposition to humiliation and Consession of sin.) And Divine Love, and

The 1000; Pan's Family Book. 2.15 the joys of Faith, and Hope, and Holineis, are little feen.

P. 1X. Your next and fore Temptation will be, to (1) abate your real and diligence by degrees, and to grow to a customary coldness and formality, and less able life of your Religion. All your spiritual vigour will die away into a Carkass and Image, if you be not careful to prevent ir.

s. What would you have me do to prevent it?

P. 1. Let your first and chief labour be every day about your Heart. Stir up your soul when you find it sluggish. Learn how to preach to it in your meditations; and to (m) chide it, and urge it to its work.

2. Live under the liveliest Ministry, and in the most serious Christian company you can get; or if that may not be, supply that want by reading the most lively serious Books.

3. Take heed of turning your Religion and zeal to By Opinions and Parties, instead of the life and practice of Eaith, Hope, and Love. For a factious wrangling contentious zeal, is as definitive of true holy zeal, as a Fever is of a natural heat and life.

4. Take herd of growing in love with the world: For as the thoughts of Riches and Riling grow freet to you, the thoughts of God and Heaven will grow lifeless and unpleasant.

5. Take heed of finaing wilfully: For all such sin doth harden the heart, and fortest the quickening help of the Spirit.

6. Hold on in the use of all God's Ordinances, For intermissions and unconstancy tendeth to a total negalest: And a continual course of lifeless duty, tendeth to spiritual death it self.

P. X. Your next Temptation is the dreafulleft of all the rest; you may be Tempted at last to doubt whether the Scripture be the word of God, and whether Christ be indeed the son of God, and whether there be an Heaven and Hell, and Immortality of the Soul. And this may befal you, 1. Either by the company of Books, of Infidels or Atheifts, who prate against the Scripture and the life to come. 2. Or else by the malicious suggestions of Satans stirring up in your unbelieving thoughts. 3. But especially in case of Melancholy, which is a disease of the body, which giveth him great advantage to moleft the mind with blasphemous temptations; so that he will draw you to doubt whether there be a God, or whether he be the Governour of the World, or whether Christ he true, or Scripture be Gods Word; And here he will fer before you the Texts, which you understand not, and persivade you that they are contradictory, and ask you, is it likely that this or this should be true? and thus will your very foundation be affaulted. And the confequent may be either very troublefome or very dangerous to you. If you do abbor thefe fuggestions, it will be a torment to you to be followed with fuch odious hideous notions; Though as long as you abhor them they will not condemn you. But if you patiently hearken to them, then your danger will be great.

S. I pray you open the danger tome, that I will be worfe than your beginning.

But if you do not turn professed Infidel, yet if your doubts or unbellef be the Aronger party in you, they will make you an Elypocrite which is a feeres Infilel. For while you prevalently doubt of the life to come, and whether the Scriptures be God's Word, you will take this life as your fureff portion, and you will fecretly refolve to fave your life and worldly prosperity, and put the matters of the life to come upon a venture; you will never die nor be undone for Christ, nor ever win Heaven with the loss of Barth ; but only take up that Religion which is most in fashion or which may best que: your Conference in a flethly worldly life : And you will hope, that if there be a Heaven you may bace is as a referve, when you can keep the world ho longer: But because it seemeth to uncertain to you, you will hold fast what you have in present as long as you can. Therefore in all Controverties, and matters of Religion you will have an Indiffereney, covered with the name of Moderation; for he that doubteth of all Religion, can in case of danger be of any, while indeed he is heartily of none. And he that doubtoth whother there be a Heaven, will not much flick with you about the way to it. And he that heactily believeth nor in Christ, will not be very scrupulous about his Dochins or Commands. Thus fecter Unbelief, or prevalent doubling of the Chris ftian truth will make men miferable Infidel Hypocrites. Walter Sugar nabic effects?

P. No: The question will be whether your Fairb or your Unbelief be the stronger and mere prevalent. If your Doubling be stronger than your Belief, then you will be an Inside! Hypocrite; and will have no Religion, but what shall give place to your worldy interest; and will never forst ke all for Christ; and God, and Christ, and Heaven must come under the World and the Flesh; and while, less it should prove true, that there is a life to come, you will think it necessary to have some Religion, it will indeed be none; because it maketh God no God and Christ not brist, and Heaven no Heaven, by putting them after or below the World

But if your Belief be stronger than your Unbelief, or doubling, then it will not only refift such temptations, but it will fill keep up the interest of God, and Heaven, and Christ, and Holiness in your heart; and your Faith, tho' weak, will (n) overcome the World. Your Resolutions to forsake all for Christ, and Heaven will be firm and confiant; you will go on in the ferious use of all the means of your Salvation; you will forfake the gainfulleft and forecest fins; you will perform the hardeft and the greatest duties. And though your Graces will be all the weaker, and your life the worse, for the weakness of your Faith; yet you will rather die or let go all, than for-Take your Master, or hazard your hopes of life e-Kernal: And as long as your Doubts or Unbelief are thus overcome; by a Faith that is weak, but fronger than they, though you cannot fay, I am certain, that there is another life, or that the Scripture as the word of God, yet Christ will take you for a true Believer.

s. This is comfortal le. But methods then all men should be faved, though they have no Belief but the meer discerning of a possibility of another life. For all men are most retain that they must die and a little time is even as nothing; and all the pleasures of this little time, are but a doting dream, and vanity and vexuion shameth them ail. If then we are most certain, that there is no true felicity here, and that by seeking a better we have nothing here to lose that's worth the keeping, common reason will tell any min that he should let go all for the smallest hope or possibility of an endless theavenly Glory: For no man in the world can say, I am slove there is no Heaven nor Hell; and all can say, We are sive thre is nothing but a very short dream of vanity here. And what need of Faith then for the determining so plain a case?

P. You speak a great deal of Reafon; But you mediconfider, t. That Resion in off (a) carnal men is much enflived to their Sinfe : and cannot rightly do its effice, Do you not fee it in Drunkards, Fornicators, Glattons, and all voluptuous persons, how they daily go against the plainest Reason, yea, and their own Knowl dge, through the violence of fenfe? And Reafon it felf is also out bribed, and (p) biinded to take part with finitality. As vain as it's world is, it hash the heart of every carnal min; and that Resfor which shall turn it out of his Harry life they him a Better in a powerful manner, and thre mult be with a containty, or with fo ftrong a probability as seemeth to him near to certainty; yea and this must be powerfully presented to his mind, by God's Spirit within; (to heal his blindness and fentual violence) as well as by the word without,

P. 1. It is the merciful Providence of God which commonly to ordereth it, that West and young Christians have but weak Templations to Unbelief. Their Temptations at first are strongest unto fenfuality and the love of the world, and not to Infidelity it felf. And then they are more troubled with Doublings about their own fincerity than about the truth of the Word of God. P. As the Father reconcileth us to himself by the Son, who came as his Messenger from Heaven, to make known God, and Life eternal to Mankind; so the Euber and the Son do send the Holy Chost into the Souls of men, to be Christ's Advocate, As gent and Witness in the World: So that in one word, It is (a) the Holy Spirit that is the proof of the truth of

c. brift and of the Goffel.

S. But I have heard Preachers speak much against this Argument, and say, that, I. Thus no man can know that Christ and the Gospelare true, but he that bath the Spirit. And what then shall we say to sofidely, to conviace them? And that thus every Phanatick, har thinks he bath the Spirit, will make hamself the only Judge. 3. And that sew Godly men do seel such a Testin only of the Spirit in themselves, as to tell them what is, and what is not God's Word. 4. And if they did, how shall they prove that it is indeed God's Spirit, and no delusion? So that when our Catechisms say that only the witness of the spirit can assure us that the Gospel is the word of God, many learned men cry shame upon that Affertion.

P. That is because that those Catachisms have not made them understand the matter, one side or both not knowing what is meant here by the testimony of the Spirit; or else they speak of another thing.

Phanaticks mean; An inward impusse, or allual word or suggestion of the Spirit within them, saying or perswading their minds that this is the word of God. But this is not the thing that I am speaking of.

But I will better tell you, how the Holy Spirit is the Advocate and Wintels of Christ.

The HolySpirit is sent by the Pather and the Son, to do that on Souls, which none but God can do, and which God doth not do by any other means but by Christ, his Servants, and his Dollrin. This work of the (x) Spirit is the extraordinary ex resson and impression of God's Threefold Perfections, his POWER, his WISDOM, and his GOODNESS, This way the Spirit is witness of Christ.

1. Before his coming, in the (y) Prophets, and the first Edition of the Covenant of Grace, where, 1. Many Miracles; 2. A word of Divine Wisdom and Prophesies (fulfilled;) 3. And the Mercy and Holinels of God were all expressed.

11.1n Christ's own (x) Person, and his life appeared the fame Divine Impressions and Expressions of the Holy Spirit, 1.1, the (a) Power which he exercised in working abundance of uncon rouled Miracles ; healing all diferies by his Word, raifing the dead, and finally rifing from the dead himself, and atter forty day abode in Ear h, Alcending visibly up to Heaven, while his Diffiples gazed after him. 2. The Wildom of God was notably imprinted on all that Holy Do-Arin, by which he brought Life and Immortality to light, and taught mento kn wood, and life erernal. 3. Love and Goodness were most confp cuous in his wonderful work of Man's Redemption, his condefcention, his sufferings, his Covenant of Grace, with all the rest of his Declarations of the Pather's love and Holiness. And thus the Spirit on Christ himself (which also in a visible shape fell upon him at his Baptilm) was his Winness.

All the same Impressions of the Holy Spirit, appeared on the Christians who were Converted by. the Apostles, and received their Testimony of Christ, and delivered it downwards to us. 1. Miracles of one kind or other were common among them long. Even among such culpable Churches as the Galations (Gal. 3.1,3.) and the Corimbians, (2 Cor. 13.1,5.) 2. VI. beauties and mysteries of Holiness, and the evil of sire, the vanity of the world, and the madness and mystery of the wicked: In a word, They are wise to God and to Salvation, though in their generation the men of this world may be wifer than they.

3. They have the spirit of holy Love, to God and Man and to themselves for God's take, 2 Tim. 1. 7. They love God above all, and love him in his works, and especially in his word and Saints, and love to do good to all they can, and think not life too dear to exercise and manifest this Love.

Now this Holy Image of God is first printed on the Gossel as a seal; and by it as the Instrument, and by the spirit as the hand, it is imprinted on the souls of all Believers. And how is it pessible for God to set a plainer Mark of his approbation on Christ's Gospel, and to tell the world that it is his own, more clearly than by the Holy Spirit, hus Witnessing to Christ by all these six particular instances? 1. The Spirit on the Prophets and Covenant that foretold Christ. 2. The spirit on Christ himself. 3. The spirit on the Apposites. 4. The spirit on the Churches. 5. The impress of the spirit on the Gospel it self. And 6. The Ipirit on all believers in all Generations.

And now you may see why I told you, that by the SPIRIT as Christ's Advocate, Agent and Witness, I mean another thing, than an ounseld suggestion of the spirit telling us that this is the Word of God; that by Witness I mean especially [Evidence] Even as the Being of eRational foul in all men, I aving the faculties of Vital Astion, Understanding and Free will, to prove by evidence, that a God who hath Life, Understanding and Util, is their Creator; so the Regenerating of anotone or sew but half true Believers, by the Quickwing, Illustrating and Converting work of the Word, and Spirit conjunct, powerfully giving us a new Vital assisting if some and Love te God and Holiness, both in

ly, the Owner of the Gospel that is used thereunto. And also hence you may see, why I told you, that it is not only the Subile wir of the Learned, but much more the Holiness of every Regenerate foul, that helt helpeth men to a confirmed belief of the Gospel.If you are truly fanctified, you have the Witness in your felf, 1 Joh. 5.7, 8,9, 10, 11. You have Christs sanctifying grace which is his Mark, his Advocate, and Agent in you, & your carnest, and pledge, and first finits of eternal life. By this you may know that Christ's is true, and that you are the Child of God, even by the Spirit which he hath given you, 1 Fob. 3.24, Rom. 8.9, 16,26. Gal. 4.6. As the likeness of the Child to the Father is his Evidence, so is the Divine Nature and Image on the Regenerate. None but God can thus Regenerate fouls: And God would not do it by a Do-Etrine that is false, to honour it and to deceive the world. And this Love to God, and Holy nature which is in you, is the feed of God, which will not fuffer you to deny your Father, your Saviour, and your Regenerator. You see now how the weakest may prove Christ and his Gospel to be true, and may stand fast against all the assaults of the Devil; even by the Great Wimess of the Holy Spirit, and not in any Panatick fenfe or feigned operations.

S. The Lord help me to understand and remember it. Tou have said that which already I see to be the Light it self, and feel it give some strength to my belief. And though I was ready to ask you, How I should be sive that the History of all the se things and Miracles is trueffer now I am answered by this communed Evidence, which is not far off, but is in me, and down to the end of the World is community at hand to answer doubis.

P. The History of these Miracles and other seas is also delivered down to us with as great advantage as our Acts of Parliament, and that rivere were such men as Alexander, Cafar, and Conflamine in the world, which are most easily proved true.

6. But have none of the Heatken but the Spirit,

P. In what measure they had it, and whether to their falvation, I pass by; But as it is the Light of the sun it self, which appeareth before sun-rising, to was it the Spirit of Christ himself, which illuminated Good it the Spirit of Christ himself, which illuminated Good men before Christ's Incarnation, under the first Excition of the Covenant of Grace: And also which gave the Heathens that measure of Wisdom & Vertue which they had. But all was much less than what true Christians con monly have, since the Sun is risen.

S. But you have not yet told me how they that have not the spirit, shall be convinced of the truth of Christ?

P. Do you not see that the Werks of the Spirity which I have opened to you, are such as a stander by, that is Rational and true to his own Conscience, cannot deny? Might not an unregenerate non have seen the Miracles of the Prophets & Christ & the Aposlic, and been convinced of them & of Christ's Resurrection by Historical certain evidence? May be not be convinced of God's Image on the Gospel it felt, and of the Holineis and Wildom of the Godly, and plainly see that the Rightcons is note excellent than his Neighbour, and perceive the spirit by its fruits? Doubtless he may, it Malignity blind him not.

S. I perceive by this, that it greatly concerns hall Christ's servants to cherish and obey the spirit, and to grow in Grace, and live very holy and heavenly, and especially. Loving and Fruity lives, when their holiness is to be the Acading witness for Christ and the Cospet to the world, from age to age? And that the sins of Christians are a greater wrong to Christ than ever I before imagined.

P. I will give you one proof of that from the words.

words of Christ himself: fob. 17.21,22,23. Christ prayed for them that should believe on him by the word, that they all may be one, as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us, that the world may believe that thou hast sent me: And the Glory which thou gavest me, I have given them, that they may be one even as we are one, I in them, and thou in me; that they may be made perfect into one, and that the World may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them as thou hast loved me.

S. This Text is so vehement, and tayer be on much of the Glory of Christians, and so much of the convincing evidence of Christianity to Convert the World, upon the Unity of Believers, that it stirreth up in me a greater fear of Schisms and Divisions and Sells than I had before. I pray you therefore add a short Character of each Sell, telling me what that evil is in each one which I must avoid.

Thou haft a foul that cannot be fairfied in Knowing, till thy (c) Knowledge reach to God himfelf: Nor can it be Disposed by any other: Nor can it (or the Societies of the world) be well governed according to its nature, without regard to his soveraign Ambority, and without the hopes and (d) Fears of For and Mifery kereafter: Non craft be (e) Happy in any thing, but Seeing, and Loving, and Delighting in this God, as he is revealed in the other world. And is this Nature given thee in vain? If the nature of all things be fitted to its (f) Use and End, then it must needs be so with thine.

11. By Knowing thy felf then, thou must needs know that there is a (g) GOD; and that he is thy Maker, and infinite in all perfection; and that he is thy Owner, thy Ruler, and thy Felicity or End. He is mad that feeth not, that such Creatures have a Cause or Maker, and that all the Power and Wisdom, and Goodness of the world, is caused by a Power, and Wifdom, and Goodness, which is greater than that of all the world. And who can be our Owner, but he that made us? And who can be our Highelt Governour, but ou: Owner? whole Infinite Pow. er, Wisdom and Goodness, waketh him only fit there to. And if he be our Governor, he mun needs have Laws; with Rewards for the good, and Punishments for the bad; and must Judge and Execute accordingly. And if he be out Chiefest Benefattor, and all that we have is from bim, and all our Hope and Happiness is in himmothing can be more clear than that the very Name of A an doth prove, that in hope of diture happiness, he faould absolutely resign bimself to the Will and disposal of this God, and that he should (b) aifotutely obey him, and that he should Love and ferve bim with all his powers. It being impossible to Love, O bey and Please that God too much, who is thus our Gaufe, our End. our All.

111. by knowing thus thy felf and God, it is case to know what Primitive Holinefs and Godlinefs is. Even this hearty, entire, and absolute refignation of the foul to God, as the infinite Power, Wisdom and Goodnels as our Creator, our Owner, Governour and Pelicity or End : fully submitting, to bis Dispulals ; Obeying his Laws, in Hope of his promised Rewards, and Fear of his threatned Punishments; and Loving and Delighting in Himself and all his appearances in the world; and Deficing, and seeking the endless fight and enjoyment of him in Heavenly Glory; and Expreffing these Affellions in daily Prayer, Thankigiving and Praise. This is the US: of all thy faculties : the end and business of thy life : the bealth and happiness of thy foul, This is that Holine's or Godline's which God doib fo much call for.

IV. And by this it is called to know, what a(k) state of sin and ungodiness is. Even the want of all this Holiness, and the setting up of a Carnal-SELF selected of GOD. When memore proundly Great and Wise, and Good in their own eyes; and would Dispose of themselves, and all their consecuments, and would Rule themselves and Please themselves, according to the slessifier and Prosits and Lennurs of the world, as the provision to satisfie the deliness of the Fless; and God shall be no surther Loved, Obesed, or Pleased, than the Love of Flessby Pleasures will give leave; nor shall have any thing but what the Flesh can space. This is a wicked, a carnal and ungody slate; though it break forth in various ways of sinning.

V. By this Experience is felf may tell you, that most men (1) yea, all, till Grace renew them) are in this ungodly miferable state : (Though only the Scriptures tell us how this came to pais.) Though all are not Fornicarous, not Drunkarde, nor Extortioners, nor Persecutors, nor live not in the same way of sinning. yet Selfishness and Pride, and Sensuality, and the Love of worldly things, Ignorance and Ungodliness, are plainly become the common corruption of the Nature of man: so that their Hearts are curned to the world from God: and filled with impiety, filthynels and injustice; and their Reason is but a servant to their senses; & their (m) mind and love, and life is carnal: and this carnal mind is enmity to the Holiness of God, and cannot be fulje& to his Law. This corruption is hereditary, and Is become as it were a Nature to us being the mortal malady of all our Natures. And it is easie to know, that such an unholy wicked Nature must needs be loathsome to God and (n) unsit for the happy enjoyment of his love, either here, or in the life to come: For, what Communion hath light with darkness.

VI. Hence then it is casie to see, what Grace is needful to a man's falvation. So odious a creature, such and unthankinlRebel, that is turned away from God, and fet against him, & defiled with all this filth of fin, must needs be both (v) Renewed and Reconciled, Santified and Pardoned, if ever he will be faved. To Love God and be Beloved by him, and to be Delighted herein, in the fight of his Glory in the Heaven and Happiness of fouls ; And all this is contrary to an unholystate. Vill men have New and Holy Hearts, they can neither See God, nor Love bim, nor Delight in him, nor take him for their chief content; For the Flesh and World have their Delight and Love. And till in be (p) pardoned, and God Reconciled to the foul what Joy of Peace can it expect from him, whose Nature and scussice engageth him to loath and punish it.

VII. And Experience will tell you, how (q) infusicient you are, for either of these mo works your felves, to Renew your souls, or to Reconcile them unto God Will a Nature that is carnal realst and overcome the Flesh; and abbor the sin which it must dearly lovesh? Will a Worldly mind overcome the World?
When custom hath rooted your natural corruptions, are they easily rooted up? O how great and hard a work is it, to cause a blind unbelieving singer to set his heart on another world, and lay up all his Hopes in Heaven! and to cast off all the things he seeth, for that Gol and Glory which he never saw! And for a bar-

VIII. Nature and experience having thus acquainted you with your fin and mifery, and what you want, will further tell you that God (r) doth not yet deal with you according to your deferts. He giveth you life, and time, and mercies, when your fin had forseited all these. He obligeth you to Repent and Turn unto him. And therefore experience telling you, that there is fome Hope, and that God hath found out some was of shewing mercy to the Children of Wrath, Reason will command you to enquire of all that are fic to teach you, What way of remedy God hath made known. And, as you may foon discover that the Religion of Heathens, and Milhometans, is fo far from thewing the true remedy, that they are part of the diference it felf: fo you may learn that a (f) Wonderful Person, the Lord Jesus Chrift, hath undertaken the Office of being the Redeemer and Sa. viour of the world; and that he, who is the Eternal Word and Wildom of the Father, harh wonderfully appeared in the nature of men, which he took from the Virgin Mary, being conceived by the L'oly Ghoff; that we might have a Teacher fint from (+) Heaven, infallibly and easily to acquaint the world with the will of God, and the unfeen things of life eternal: How God (t) bare, witnets of his truth, by abundant, open, uncontrouled Miracles: (u) How he conquered Satan,

How he is now in Heaven both God and Manin one Person, the Teacher, and King, and High Friest of his Church. Of Him must we learn the way of life. By Him must we be Ruled as the Physician of Souls. All power is given Him in Heaven and Earth. By bis Sacrifice & Merit & Intercession must we be pardoned and accepted with the Father, and only by him must we come to God. He bath procured and established a Covenant of Grace, which Bap ifm is the Seal of. And this shall be the Law according to which he will judge all that hear it at the lass. For he is made the Judge of all, and will raise all the dead, and will justifie bis Saints, and judge them unto endless Joy and Glory, and condomn the Unbelievers, impenitent and (x) ungodly unto endless misery. rection. Thir Gofpel the Apostles Preached to the world; and that it might be effectual to mens falvation, the (y) Holy Ghost was first given to inspire the Preachers of it, and enable them to speak in various languages, and infallibly agree in one, and to work many great and open miracles to prove their word to those they preached to; and by this means they (2) planted the Church; which ordinary Ministers must increase, and teach, and overfee, to the end of the world, till all the Elect be gathered in. And the same (a) Holy Spirit hath undertaken it, as his work to accompany this Gospel, and by it to convert mens souls, illuminating; and far Rifling them; and by a fecret (b) Regeneration to renew their natures, and bring them to that Knowledge and Obedience, and Love of God, which is the Prinnive Holineis, for which we were created, and from which we fell. And chasby a Saviour and afanilisier must all be Reconciled and Renewed, that will co GDriffed with God in Heaven. All this you may learn from the Sacred Scriptures; which were (c) written by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, and sealed by Multitudes of open (d) Miracles, and contain the very Image and Superfoription of God, and have been received and preferred by the Church, as the certain Oracles of God, and bleffed by him through all Generations, to the landifying of many louls.

1X. When you understand all ikis, it is time for you to (e) look home, and understand no warbut flate your fouls are in. That you were made capable of Holinefs and Harfinefs, you know; that you and all men are fallen from God and Holinefs, and Happinefs unto Self, and Sin, and Mifery, you know; that you are fo far Redeemed by Christ, you know, as to have a pardoning and faving Cayenant tendered you, and Chist and Mercy offered to your choice. But whether jon are truly pointent believers, and Renewed by the Holy Ghoft, and to united unto Christ, this is the Question yet unrefolved: This is the work that is yet to do ; without which there is no Salvation, and if then die before it is done, woe to thee that ever thou wast a man! Except a man be (f) Regenerate by the Spirit, and Converted, and made a New Creature, and of Curnal be made Spiritual, and of Earthly be made Hear verily, and of falfifb and finful be made Holy and Obsdient to God, lie can never be faved, no more than the Devil himself can be faved. And if this be so (as nothing is more fuse) I require thee now, who readest these words, as thou regardest thy Salvation, as thou wouldst escape Hell fire, and stand with comfort before Christ and his Angels at the last, that thou foberly confider whether Reason command thee not to try thy State, whether thou art thus (g) Renewed by the Spirit of Christ or not? and to (b) call for help to those that can advise thee, and follow or the fearch, till thou know thy case? And if thy foul be a flranger to this fanctifying Work, whether Reafon command thee not, without any delay, to make out to Christ, and beg his Spirit, and east away thy Sont, and give up thy felf entirely to thy Gods thy Savieur and Santifier, and enter into his Covenant, with a full Residucion never to forfake him i to deny thy felf, and the defires of the flesh, and this deceitful transitory world, and lay out all thy Hopes on Heaven, and speedily, whatever it cost thee, to make fure of the Felicity which hath no end ? zind darest thou refuse this when God and

Conscience do command? And further I advise you. X. Understand how it is that Satan bindreth fouls from being santified; that you may know how to relift his wiles. Some he deceiveth by (1) malicious Suggestious, that holiness is nothing but tansie or hypocrific! (And if God, and Death, and Heaven and Hell were fancies, this might be believed.) Some he debaucheth by the power of fleshly appetite and lust, so that their fins will not let their Renson speak; Some he keepeth in utter Ignorance, by the evil Education of ignorant Parents, and the negligence of (k) ungodly foul murdering Teachers. Some he deceiveth by Worldly Hopes, and keepeth their minds to taken up with worldly things, that the matters of Eternity can have but some loose uneffectual thoughts, as bad as none. Some are intangled in (1) ill company, who make a fcom of a holy life, or feed them with continual diverfions and vain delight. And some are so (m) hardened in their fin, that they are even past feeling, and neither fear God's wrath, nor care for their salvation, but hear their things as men afleep, and nothing will awake them; Some are discouraged with a conceit that Godliness is a life so (n) grievous, sad and melansholly, that rather than endure it, they will venture their fouls, come on it what will; (As if it were a grievous live to love God, and Hope for endless Joys, and a pleasant life to love the world and sin, and live within a step of Hell!) Some that are convinced, do (a) put off their conversion with Delay; and think it's time enough hereafter, and are pur poling and promiling, till it be too late, and life, and time, and hope be ended. And some that see there is a necessity of Whe Poor Pan's Family-Book. 243

holiness, are (p) cheated by some dead opinions, or names, or shews and Images of holiness; either because they hold a strist opinion, or because they join with a Religious party; or because they are of that which they think is the true Church; or because they are Baptized with water, and observe the sutward parts of Worship; and perhaps because they offer God a great deal of lip service, and lifeless ceremony, which never savoureth of a holy soul 'Thus deadness, sensuality, worldliness, and hypocrisse, do hinder millions from Sanctification and Salvation.

XI. If ever thou woulds be saved, oppress not Reafon by sensuality or diversions; but somerimes (q) retire from sober consideration. Distrassed and sleepy Reason is unuseful. God and Conscience have a great deal to say to thee; which is a crowd of company and business thou are not sit to hear. It is (r) a doleful case that a man who hath a God, a Christ, a Soul, a Heaven, a Hell to think of, will allow them none but running thoughts, and not once in a week bestow one hour in man-like serious (f) Consideration of them! Sure thou hast no greater things to mind. Resolve then sometimes to spend half an hour in the deepest thoughts of thy everlasting state.

XII (t) Look upon this world and all it's Pleasures, as a man of Reason who foreseeth the End, and not as a beast, that liveth but by sense or present Object. Do I need to tell thee, Man, that thou must dia? Cannot carkasses, and bones, and dust instruct thee, to see the End of Earthly glory, and all the pleasures of the flesh ? It is a Controversie whether thy flesh must Mortly perilh? and wilt thou yet provide for it before thy foul? What a fad farewel must thou shortly take, of all that worldlings fell their fours for! And O how quickly will this be! Alas Min, the day is even at hand. A few days more and thou art gone! And darest thou live unready, and part with Hea-

XIII. And then think fiberly of the (u) life to come: what is it for a Soul to appear before the hving God, and be adjudged to endless Joy or Misery! If the Devil tempt thee to deubt of fuch a life, remeintier that Nature, and Scripture, and the worlds Confent, and his own Temptations are witnesses against hira. O manacanst thou pals one day, in company, or alone, in business or Idleness, without some sober thoughts of Everlastingness? Nothing more sheweth that the hearts of men are affect or dead, than that the thoughts of Endless joy or pain, so near a: hand constrain them not to be bily and overcome not all the Temptations of the Hiff, as toys and inconsiderable things.

XIV. Mark well what mind men are most of, when they come to (ic) die! Unless it be some desperate forfaken wretch, do they not all speak well of a Holy Life? and wish that their lives had been spent in the most fervent love of God, and frittest Obedience to his Laws? Do they then speak well of left and pleasures, and magnific the wealth and honours of the world? Had they not rather die as the most mortified Saints, than as carelels fleshly, worldly sinners; and dost thou fee and know this, and yet wilt thou not be instructed, and he wife in time?

XV. Think well, what manner of men thise were

Was it a Life of fleshly Sports and Pleafures? Did they decide or perfecute a Holy Life? Were they not more strictly Hely than any that thou know'ft? And is he not felf condemn'd, that honoureth the Name of Saints, and will not imitate tham?

XVI. Think what the Difference is between a Chriflian, and an (z) Heathen. You are loth to be Heathens or Infidels; But do you think a Christian excelleth then; but in Opinion? He that is not holier than they is worfe,

XVII, Think what the Difference is between a (#) godiy Christian and an ungodly. Do not all the Oggoffes of folings among us yet speak for the Same Coa, and Christ, and Scripture, and profess the James Creat, and Religion with those whom they oppose? And is not this Chrift, the Author of our Holiness, and the Scripture the Commander of it? Search and fee whether the Difference be not this, that the Godly are ferious in their Profession; and the Ungodly are Hypocrites, who hate and oppose the practice of the very Things which thenselves profess; whose Religion serveth but to condemn them, while their Lives are contrary to their Tengues.

XX. Judge not of a Holy Life by hearfay, for it cannot fo be known. (f) Try it a while, and then judge as thou findest it. Speak not against the Things thou knowest not. Mercy, (1) everlasting Wee will be thy Portion, and then there will be no Remedy.

And now, Reader, I beg of thee, and beg of God on my bended Knees, that these few Words may fink into thy Heart, and that thou wouldest read them over and over again, and bethink thee as a Man that must shortly die, Whether any descrive thy Love and Obedience more than God? and thy thankful Remembrance more than Christ, and thy Gare and Diligence more than thy Salvation? Is there any Felicity more desirable than Heaven? Or any M. fery more terrible than Hell? Or any Thing to regardable as that which is Everlasting? Will a few Days st-shly Pleasure pay for the loss of Heaven and thy immortal Soul? Or will thy Sin and thy Prosperity be sweet at Death, and in the Day of Judgment? As thou art a Man, and as ever thou believest that there is a God, and a World to come, and as thou careft for thy Soul whether it be lav'd or damn'd, I beleech thee, I charge time, think of these things ! Think of them once a day et least! Think, of them with thy in It fober ferious Thoughts! Heaven is not a May game! And Hell is not a Fleabiting! Make not a Jest of Salvation or Damnation! II. The Parts and Practice of a Holy Life, for Perfonal and Family Instruction.

L L is not (3) done when men have begun a Religious Life; all Trees that bloffons prove nor fruitful; and all Fruit comes not to perfection. Many fall off, who feenerly to have good beginnings; and many dishonour the Name of Christ, by their Scandals and Infirmities; many do grieve their Teachers Hearts, and lamentably diffurb the Church of Christ, by their Ignorance, Errors, Self conceitedness, Unruliness, Headiness, Cententiousness, Sidings, and Divisions; Incomuch that the (b) Seandals and the Fends of Christians are the great Impediments of the Conversion of the Infidel and Meathen World, by exposing Christianity to their Contempt and Scoin, as if it were but the Errors of Men as unholy and worldly and proud as others that can never agree among themselves; and many by their Possions and Selfishness are a Trouble to the Families and Neighbours where they live; and more by

Light and Love, fuch Purity and Peace, fuch Fruitfulness and Heavenliness, as if it were accordingly shewed forth in the lives of Christians, would command admiration and reverence from the world, and do more to their Conversion, than Swords, or worlds alone can do: And it would make Christians useful and amiable to each other; and their lives a feast and pleasure to themselves. I hope it may prove some help to these excellent ends, and to the securing mens falvation, if in a few found experienced Directions I open to you the Duties of a Christian Life.

I. Keep still the true (d) form of Christan Dostrine, Defire and Duty, orderly printed on your Minds; that is, understand it clearly and distinctly, and remember it. II. Live daily by faith on (f) Jefus Chrift, as the Medistor between God and you; being well grounded in the Belief of the Gofpel, and under flanding Chrift's Office, make ufe of him fill in all your wants. Think on the fatherly Love of God, as coming to you thro' him alone. and of the Spirit, as given by him your Bead; and of the Covenant of Grace, as enacted and fealed by him; and of the Ministry, as fint by him; and of all Time, and Helps, and Hope as procured and given by him. When you think of Sin and Infirmity, and Temptations, think allo of his Sufficient, Pardoning, Justifying and Victoria ous Grace. When thou thinkest of the World, the Flesh, and the Devil, think how he overcometh them. Let his Dollrine and the Pattern of his most perfett Life be always before you as your rule. In all your Doubts, and Fears, and Wants, go to him in the Spirit, and to the Father by him, and him alone. Take him as the root of your Life and Mercies, and live as upon him and by his Life And when you die, refign your Souls to him, that they may be with him where he is and fee his Glary. VIII. Fly from Temptations, and crucify the (x) Flesh, and keep a constant Government over your Appetite and Sense. Many who had no defigned flated Vice, or worldly Interest, have shamefully fallen by the sudden forprize of Appetite of Lust. When Custom hath taught thefe to be greedy and violent, like a hungry Dog, or a lusting Bore, it is not a fluggish wish or purpose, that will mortify or rule them! How dangerous a case is that man in, who hath so greedy a Beast continually to restrain, that if he do but neglect his Watch one hour, is ready to run him headlong into Hell? Who can be safe, that standeth long on so verrible a Precipice? The tears and forrows of many years, may perhaps not repair the loss which one hour or all may bring. The case of David and many another, are dreadful warnings. Know what it is that you are most in danger of; whether lust and idleness, or excess in meat or drink, or play; and there fer your strongest Watch for your prefervation. Make it your daily butiness to mortify that luft, and icorn that your bruitish sense or appetite should conquer reason. Yet trust not purposes alone, but away from the Temptation, touch not, yea lock not on the tempting bait; keep far enough off, if you defire to be safe. What mileries come from fmall beginnings! Temptations leads to fin, and fmall fins to greater, and those to Hell. And Sin and Hell are not to be played with! Open your fin of Temptation to fome Friend, that fhame may fave you from danger.

Be not so solitary and deep in Mulings, as to over-fretch your Thoughts, and confound your Minds, or take you off from necessary Converse with others? But be sure that you he Confiderate, and dwell much at home, and converse most with your Consciences and your God! With whom you have the greatest Business ! Leave not your Thoughts unimploy'd, or ungovern'd, featter them not abroad upon impertinent Vanities: O that you knew what daily Busness you have for them! Most Men are wicked, deceiv'd and undone, because they are inconfiderate, and dare not, or will not retirely and foberly use their Reason; or use it but as a Slave in Chains, in the service of their Passion, Lust and Interests. He was never wife, or good, or happy, who was not foberly and impartially confiderate. How to be good, to do good, and finally enjoy good, must be the fum of all your Thoughes. Keep them first has ly, then charitable, clean and chafte. And quickly check them when they look towards in.

XI. Let (b) Time be exceeding precious in your Eyes, and carefully and diligently redeem it. What halte doth it make? And how quickly will it be gone? And then how highly will it be valu'd, when a Minute of it can never be recall'd? O what important Business have we, for every Moment of our Time, if we should live 1000 Years! Take not that Man to be well in his Wits, or to know his God, his End, his Work, or his Danger, who hath Time to spare. Redeem it not only from needless Sports and Plays, and Idleness, and Curiosity, and Complement, and excels of Sleep, and Char, and Worldliness; but also from the entanglement of leffer good, which would hinder you from greater. Spend Time as Min that are ready to pass into another World; where every Minute must be accounted for; and it neuft go with us for ever as we liv'd here. Let not Health deceive you in the expectation of living long, and to into a senseless Negligence. See your Glass moning, and keep a reckoning of the expence of Time : and fpend it just as you would review it when it is gone.

XII. Let the (c) Love of all in their several Capacities, become as it were your very Nature; and doing them all the good you can be very much of the Business of your Lives. God must be lov'd in all his Creatures: His natural Image on all Men; and his spiritual Image on his Saints. Our Neighbour must be lov'd as our natural Selves: That is, our natural Neighbour as our natural Self, with a love of Benevolence; and ou: spiritual Neighbour as our spiritual Self, with a Love of Complaisance: In Opposition to Complaisance, we may hate our finful Neighbour, as we may our felves (much more:) But in Opposition to Benevolence we must neither hate our selves, our Neighbour, or our Enemy. O that Men knew how much of Christianity doth confist in Love and doing good! With what Eyes do they read the Gospel, who see not this in every Page? Abhor all that Selfishness, Pride and Passion, which are the Enemies of Love; and those Opinions, and Factions, and Cenfurings, and Backbirings, which would destroy it. Take him that speaketh evil of another to you, without a just Cause and Call, to be Satan's Messenger, intreating you to hate your Brother, or to abate your Love. For to perfunde you that a Man is bad, is directly to perfunde you to far to hate him. Nor that the good and the bad must be confounded; but Love will call none bad without conftraining Evidence. Rebuke Backbiters, hurt no Man, and speak evil of no Man; unless it be not only just, but necessary to some greater good. Love is lovely, they that love shall be belov'd. Hating and hurting makes Men hateful. Love thy Neighbour as thy felf, and, Do as thou wouldst be done by, are the Golden Rules of our Dury to Men; which must be deeply written on your Hearts. For want of this, there is nothing to falle, to bad, to cruel, which you may not be drawn to think, or fay, or do against your Brethren. Selfishness and want of Love do as naturally tend to Ambition and Covetousness, and thence to Cruelty against all that stand in the Way of their Defires, as the Nature of a Wolf to kill the Lambs. All Factions and Contentions, and Perfecutions in the World proceed from Selfifmess, and want of Charity. Devouring Malice is the Devil's Nature. Be as zealous in doing good to all, as Satan's Servants are in hurting. Take it as the use of all your Talents,, and use 'em as you would hear of it at last Let it be your Business, and not a Matter on the By, epocially for publick Good and Men's Salvation. And what you cannot do your your selves, perswade others to. Give them good Books; and draw them to the Means, which are most like to prosit them.

XIII. Understand the right Terms of Church Commustion; especially the Unity of the Universal Church, and the Universal Communion which you must hold with all the Parts; and the Difference between the Church, as wifible and invisible. For want of these, how woful are our Divitions? Read oft 1 Cor. 12. and Eph 4. 1. to 17. John 17.21,22,23. Als 4.32. and 2.42. 1 Cor. 1. 10,11,13. and 3.3. Rom. 16. 17. You must have Union and Communion in Faith and Love, with all the Christians in the World. And refuse not Local Communion when you have a just Call; so far as they put you not on finning. Let your uftal Meeting be with the purest Church, if you lawfully may (and still respect the publick Good) but sometimes occasionally communicare, even with defective, faulty Charches, fo be it they are true Christians, and put you not on Sin; that fo you may flew that you own them a Chriflians, the' you dislown their Corruptions. Think not your Prefence makethall the Faults of Ministry, Worthip, or People to be yours (for then I would join with no Church in the World.) Know that as the myflical Cherch confifteth of Heart-Covenanters, lo doth the Church as visible consist of Verbal Covenanters, which make a credible profession of Content : And thre Nature and Scripture teacheth us to take every Man's Word as credible, till Perfidionfness forfeit his Credit; which Forfeiture must be prov'd, before any fober Profession can be taken for an insussicient Title, (d) Grudge not then at the Communion of any The Pool Ban's Family-Book. 261

Professed Christian in the Church Visible: (though we must do our part to cast out the obstinately impenitent by Discipline, which if we cannot do, the fault is not ours.) The Presence of Hypocrites is no Hurt, but oft a mercy to the fincere. How small else would the Church feem in the world! Outward privileges belong to outward Covenanters, and inward mercies to the fincere. (e) Division is wounding and tends to Death. Abhor it as you love the Churches welfare or your own. The Wisdom from above ic, first pure, and then peaceble. Never seperate what God conjoineth. It is Earthly Senfual, devilish wisdom, which causeth bitter envying, and strife, and confusion and every evil work. Bleffed are the Peace-makers.

XIV. Take heed of (f) Pride and Self-conseitedness in Religion: If once you over-value your own understandings, your crude conceptions and gross mistakes will delight you as some supernal light, and instead of having compassion on the weak, you will be nnruly and despifers of your Guides, and censorious contemners of all that differ from you, and persecutors of them if you have power : and will think all intolerable, that take you not as Oracles, and your words as Law. Forget not that the church hath always fuffered by centorious, unruly professors on the one hand, (and O what divisions and scandals have they caused!) as well as by the prophane and Perfecutors on the other. Take heed of both: And when contentions are on foot, be quiet and filent, and not too forward; and keep up a zeal for Love and Peace.

XV. Be faithful and conscionable in all your (g) Relations. Honour and obey your Parents, and other Superiors, Despise not, and resist not Government; If you suffer unjustly by them, be humbled for those sins, which cause God to turn your Protectors into Assistors; and instead of musmuring and rebelling against them, reform your selves, and then commit your selves to God. Princes and Pastors I will not speak to; Subjects, and Servants, and Children, must obey their Superiours, as the Officers of God.

XVI. Keep up the Government of God in your (h) families; h ly Families must be the chief preservers of the interest of Religion in the world. Let not the world turn God's service into a customary lifeless form. Read the Scripture, and edifying Books to them; talk with them seriously about the state of their souls, and everlasting life. Pray with them servently; Watch over them diligently, be angry against sin, and meek in your own cause; Be examples of Wisdom, Holiness and Patience; And see that the Lords day be spent in holy preparation for Eternity.

XVII. Let your (i) Calling be manag'd in Holiness and Labouriousness. Live not in Idleness, be not flothful in your work, whether you be bound or free; In the sweat of your brows you must eat your bread, & labour the six days, that you may have to give to him that needeth. Slothfulness is sensuality as well as silthier sins. The body (that is able) must have sit employments as well as the soul; or esse body and soul will fare the worse. But let all be but as the labour of a Traveller, and aim at God and Heaven in all.

XVIII. Deprive not your selves of the benefit of an able faithful (k) Pastor, to whom you may open your case in secret; or at least of a holy (l) faithful Friend; And be not (m) displeased at their free reproofs. Wo to him that is alone! How blind and partial are we in our own cause! And how hard is it to know our selves without an able faithful helper! You forfeit this great mercy, when you love a flatterer, and ansaling defend your for grily defend your fin.

XIX. (n) Prepare for sickness, sufferings and death; Overvalue not Prosperity, nor the savour of man! If selsish men prove salse and cruel to you, even those of whom you have deserved best, marvel not at it, but pray for your enemies, persecutors and slanderers, that God would turn their hearts and pardon them. What a mercy is it to be driven from the world to God, when the love of the world is the greatest danger of the soul? Be ready to die, and you are ready for any thing; Ask your heart seriously, what is it that I shall need at a dying hour? and let it speedily be got ready, and not be to seek in the time of your extremity.

XX. Understand the true method of Peace of Conscience, and judge not of the state of your souls upon deceitful grounds; As presumptuous hopes do keep men from Convortion, and embolden them in sin; so eanseless fears do hinder our love and praise of God, by obscureing his Loveliness, And they destroy our Thankfulness, and our delight in God, and make us a burden to our selves, and a grievous stumbling-block to others. The General grounds of all our comfort, are, 1. The (o) Gracious Nature of God; 2. The (p) sufficiency of Christ, and 3. The Truth and (q) Universality of the Promise, which giveth Christ and Life to All,

Consent to Gol's Covenant is the true Condition and Proof of your title to God as your Father, Saviour and Sanctifier, and fo to the faving bleffings of the Covenant; which Confint, if you furvive, must produce the Duties which you Confent to. He that Heartily confenteth, thit God be his God, his Saviour and Sanctifier, is in a state of Life. But this includeth the (r) rejection of the World. Much Knowledge, and Memory, and Utterance, and lively Affections, are all very definable! But you must judge your state by none of these; for they are all uncertain: But, 1. If God and Holiness and Heaven have the highest estimation of your practical Judgment, as being esteemed best for you, 2. And be preferred in the Choice and Refolution of your Wills, and that habitually before all the Pleasures of the World. 3. Christian, upon long and serious study and experience, I dare boldly commend these Directions to thee, as the way of God, which will end in Blessedness. The Lord Resolve and Strengthen thee to obey them.

This is the true constitution of Christianity. This is true Godliness, and this is to be Religious indeed! And all this is no more than to be seriously such, as all among us in general words profess to be. This is the Religion which must difference you from Hypocrites, which must settle you in peace, and make you an honour to your Profession, and a blessing to those that dwell about you! Hippy is the Land, the Church, the Family, which doth consist of such as these!

The Pool Pan's Family-Book. 265

These are not they that either Persecute or Divide the Church; or that make their Religion a fervant to their Policy, to their Ambitious designs, or fleshly lusts; nor that make it the bellows of Sedition, or Rebellion, or of an envious hurtful zeal; or a snare for the innocent; or a Pistol to shoot at the upright in heart: These are not they that have been the shame of their Profession, the hardning of ungodly men and Infidels, and that have caused the enemics of the Lord to blaspheme. If any man will make a Religion of, or for his Lufts; of Papal tyranny, or Pharifaical formality, or of his private opinion; or of proud cenforiousness, and contempt of others, and of faction and unwarrantable seperations and divisions, and of standing at a more observable distance from common professors of Christianity, than God would have them; or yet of pulling up the hedge of Disciplin, and laying Christs Vineyard common to the Wilderness; the storm is coming, when this Religion founded on the fand will fall, and great will be the fall thereof; When the Religion which confisteth in Faith and Love to God and Man, in mortifying the flesh, and crucifying the world, in felf-denial, Humility and Patience, in fincere obdience and faithfulness in all Relations, in watchful felf-government, in doing good, and in a Divine and Heavenly life, though it will be hated by the ungodly world, shall never be a dishonour to your Lord, nor deceive or disappoint your souls.

Of a Holy Family and how to govern it, and perform the duty of all Family relations; and others.

> Paul, A Teacher, Saul, A Learner. Speakers.

Elcome Neighbour : How do you like the new life which you have begun? You have taken home Instructions already which will find you work: But what do you find in the practifing of them?

S. I find that I have foolishly long neglected a necellary, noble, joyful life, and thereby loft my time. and made my felf both unskilful & indifpoled to the practice of it . I find that the things, which you have preferibed me, are high and excellent, and doubtless must be very sweet to them that have a suitable skill and disposevien; and some pleasure I find in my weak beginnings; Bue the greatuess of the work, and the great untowardness and strangeness of my mind, doth much above the sweetness of it, by many doubts and fears, and difficulties. And when I fail, I find it hard, both to Repent oright, and by Faith to fly to Ch ift for Pardon. And if you had not forewarned me of this Temptation, I should have thought by these troubles that my case is worse in point of ease (though not of Infery) than it was before. But I forefee that better things may yet be hoped for : And I hope I am the way.

P. Where is your great difficulty, that requireth

The Pool Pan's Kamily-1500k. 267

S. I find a great deal of work to do in my Family, to govern them in the fear of God, to do my duty to them all, especially to educate my Children, and daily to worship God among them ; And I am fo unable for it, that I am ready to omit all; I pray you help me with your advice.

P. My first advice to you is, that you resolve by God's help to perform your duty as well as you can; And that you (a) devote your Family to God, and take him for the Lord and Master of it, and use it as a feciet, fanctissied to him. And I pray you let these Reafons fix your Refolutions.

1. If God be not the Master of your Family, the Devil will; And if God be not first served in it, the Flesh and the World will. And I hope I need not tell you, how bad a Master Work, and Wages, they will then have.

2. If you devote your Family to God, God will be the Protector of it; He will take care of it, for fafety and provision as his own. Do you not need such a protector? And can you have a better? Or better take care for the welfare and fafety of you and yours? And if your Pamily be not God's, they are his Enemies, and under his curle as Rebels; Instead of his blessings of Health, Peace, Provision, and Success, you may look for fickness, dangers, crosses, distresses, unquietness and Death; or which is worse that your prosperity shall be a curse and snare to you and yours.

3. A Holy Family is a place of Comfort; A Church of God. What a joy will it be to you, to live together daily in this hope, that you shall meet and live together in Heaven. To think that Wife, Children and Servants shall shortly be fellow Citizens with you of the Heavenly Jerusalem. How pleasant is it to join with one heart and mind in the fervice of God and in his chearful praises? How lovely will you be to one another, when each man beareth the Image of God? what abundance of jars and miseries will be prevented which fin would daily bring among you; and when any of you die, how comfortable may the rest be about their bed, and attend their Corps unto the grave, when they have good Hopes that the Soul is received to Glory by Christ? But if your Family be ungodly it will be like a nest of Wasps; or like a Jail, full of discord and vexation; and it will be grievous to you, to look your Wife or Children in the face, and think that they are like to lie in Hell; and their fickness and Death will be tenfold the more heavy to you to think of their woful unseen end.

4. Your Family hath such conftant need of God, as commandeth you constantly to serve him . As every Man hath his personal necessities, so Families have Family necessities, which God must supply, or they are milerable. Therefore Family duty must be your

5. Holy (b) Families are the chief Seminaries of Christ's Church on Earth, and it is very much that lyeth upon them to keep up the interest of Religion in the World. Hence come Holy Magistrates, when Great Men's Children have a Holy Education And O what a bleffing is one such to the Countries where they are! Hence spring holv Pastors and Teachers to the Churches, who as Timothy, received holy instructions from their Parents, and Grace from the Spirit of Christ in their tender age. Many a Congregation that is happily fed with the bread of life, may thank God for the endeavours of a poor Man or Woman, that trained up a (c) Child in the fear of God to become their holy faithful The Pool Pan's Family Book. 260

Teacher. Though Learning be found in Schools. Godlinels is oftner received from the Education of careful Parents. When Children and Servants come to the Church with understanding godly prepared Minds, the Labours of the Paftors will do them good; they will receive what they hear with Faith, Love and Obedience; it will be a Joy to the Minister to have fuch a Flock; and it will be joyful to the Pcople that are fuch, to meet together in the facred Assemblies, to worthip God with chearful Heart; and fuch worthippers will be acceptable to God. But when Families come together in groß Ignorance, and with unfan-Diffied Hearts, there they fit like Images, understanding little of what is faid, and go home little the better for all the Labours of the Minister. And the motions of their Tongue and Bodies, is most of theWorship which they give to God, but their Hearts ar not offered in Faith and Love as a Sacrifice to him. nor do they feel the Power and Sweetness of the Word, and worship him in Spirit and Truth.

6. And in Times when the Churches are corrupted, and good Ministers are wanting, and bad ones either deceive the People, or are intufficient for their Work, there is no better supply to keep up Religion, than godly Families. If Parents and Masters will teach their Children and Servants faithfully, and worship God with them holily and constantly, and govern them carefully and orderly, it will much make up the want of Publick Teaching, Worship and Discipline. O that God would stir up the Hearts of Peaple thus to make their Families as little Churches, that it might not be in the Power of Rulers or Pastors that are bad, to extinguish Religion, or banish

Godliness from any Land! For,

7. Family Teaching, Worship and Discipline, hath many Advantages, which Churches have not.

1. You have but a few to Teach and Rule and the Pastor

Pastor hath many. 2. They are always with you, and you may speak to them as scasonably and as often as you will, either together, or one by one: And fo cannot he. 3. They are tied to you by Relation, Aftection and Covenant, and by their own necessities and interest; otherwise than they are to him Wife and Children are more confident of your love to them than of the Ministers: And Love doth open the ear to Countel. Children dare not rejed your words, becaule you can correct them or make their worldly State less comfortable. But the Minister doth all by hare exhortation; And if he cast them out of the Church for their Impenitence, they lole nothing by it in the world. And unless it be in a very hot persecurion, Families are not fo restrained from holy Doftrine, Worship and Discipline, as Churches and Miofters often are. Who filenceth you and forbiddeth you to Catechife and teach your Family? who forbideth you to pray or praise God, with them, as well and as often as you can? It is felf condemning Hypocrifie in many Rulers of Families, who now cry out against them as cruel persecutors, who forbid us Ministers to preach the Golpel, while they neglect to teach their own Children and Servants, when no man forbiddeth them : So hard is it to fee our own fins and duty in comparison of other mens!

8. You have greater, and nearer Obligations to your Family than Paftors have to all the People. Your wife is as your own flish, your Children are as it were parts of your felf: Nature bindeth you to the deatest affection, and therefore to the greatest duty to them; who should more care for your Childrens fouls, than their own Parents? If you will not provide for them, but famish them, who will feed them? Therefore as ever you have the bowels of Parents; as ever you care what becometh of your Childrens fouls for eyer, devote them to God, teach them his word, educate.

The Pool Pan's Family-Book. 271 educate them in holiness, restrain them from sin, and pe pare them for Salvation. S. I must confess that natural affection telleth me, that there is great Reason for what you say: And my own experience the more, convince th me; For if my Parents had better instructed and governed me in my Childhood, I had not been like to have lived so ignorantly and ungodly, as I have done: But alas few Parents do their Duty! diany take more Pains about their Horfes and Cattle, than they do about their Childrens fouls. P. O that I could speak what is deeply upon my heart to all the Parents of the Land! I would be lold to tell them that multitudes are more cruel than Bears and Lyons to their own Children, God hath committed their souls as much to their trust and care, as he hath done their Bodies. It is they that are at first to devote them to God, in the Covenant of Baptilin: It is they that are to (d) Teach them, and to exhort them to keep the Covenant which they made: to Catechife them; and to mind them of the State of their Souls, their need of Christ, the mercy of Redemprion, the excellency of holiness, and of everlasting life; It is they that, are to watch over them with Wifalom, Love and Diligence, to fave them from example of a holy life. But alas, instead of this, they bring their Children Hypocritically to make that Covenant in Baptilin with God, which they never heartily confented to themfelves: They turn allinto a meer ceremony, and know no more of it, than to have God-fathers and Godmothers as ignorant and ungodly as themselves, to promise and vow that in the name of the Child, which they never understood, nor intended to perform their promise for his holy Education; The Child being none of their own, nor ever instructed by them: And when they think that the Water, and Goffips. and the Words of the Priests, have thus made a Christian of their Child, they afterwards as formally teach him at Age to go to Church, and at last to receive the Lord's Supper; and this is almost all that they do for his Salvation. They never teach him the meaning of the Covenant which he was entered into. If they teach him to fay the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments, they never teach him to understand them; they never feriously mind him of his natural Corruptions, or of the need and use of a Saviour and a Sanctifier; nor of the danger of Sin and Hell; nor of the way of a Holy Life; or of the joyful State of Saints in Glory. They teach him his Trade and Business in the World, but never how to ferve God and be faved; they chide him for those faults which are against themselves, or against his Prosperity in the World: But those that are against God and his Soul only, they regard not: If they do not by their own Example teach him to be prayerless, and to neglect God's Word, to curse, to swear, to speak filthily, and to deride the Holy Life (which in Baptism he vowed to live) yet they will bear with him in all his Wickedness. The Lord's Day they are content that he should spend in idleness and sports. instead of learning the Word of God, and practifing his holy Worship, that so he may be the willinger to do their Work the Week following. In a word, they treacherously teach their Children to serve the Flesh, the World, and the Devil, which in their Baptism they renounced; and to neglect, if not despile God, the Greator, Redeemer, and Saultifier of Souls, to whom by Vow and Covenant they were dedicated. So that their Education is but a teaching, or permitting them to break or contract their Baptismal Vow; and under the Name of Christians, to rebel against God and Jefus Christ. And

The Pool Man's Family Book: 273:

And is not this greater treachery and cruelty, than if they famish'd their Bodies, or turned them naked into the world? Yea or if they murdered them, and eat their sless? If any Enemy did this, it were not so bad, as for a Parent to do it: Nay, consider whether the Devil himself be not less cruel, in seeking to damn them, than these Parents are? The Devil is not their Parent; He hath no relation to them, no charge of them, to educate and save them: He is aknown renounced Enemy: And what better could be expected from him? But for Father and Mother, thus to neglect, betray and undo their Children's Souls for ever! For them to do it, that should love them as themselves, and have the tenderest care of them! O worse than devilish persidious cruelty!

Repent, Repent, O you for worn unmerciful murderers of your Childrens Souls. Repent for your own sake! Repent for their Sakes! And yet teach them and remember them of the Covenant, which they made, and tell them what Christianity is. You have conveyed a sinful Nature to them; Help yet to instruct them in the way of Grace! But how can we hope that you should have mercy upon your Childrens Souls that have no mercy on your own? Or that you should help them to that Heaven which you despife your selves? Or save them from sin, which is your own delight and trade?

s. Your complaint is fad and just; But I find that men think that the teaching of their Children belongeth to the Schoolmaster and the Minister only, and not to them.

P. Parents, Schoolmafters, and Pastors have all their several parts to do; and no ones work goeth on well without the rest. But the Parents is the first and greatest of all. As when the lower School is to teach Children to read, and the Grammar School to teach them. Grammar, and then the University to teach them the Sciences: If now the first and second shall omit their Parts, & aBoy shall be fent to the University before hecan read, yea, or before he hath learnt his Grammar, what aScholar do you think that he is like to make? If you have a House to build, one must fall and square the Timber, and another must saw it, and another frame it, and then rear it: But if the first be undone, how shall the second and third be done? A minister fhould find all his Hearers Cathechifed and holily educated, that the Church may be a Church indeed, but if a hundred, or many hundred Parents and Masters, will all cast their work upon one Minister, is it like think you, to be well done? Or is it any wonder if we have ungodly. Churches, of Christians that are no Christians, who hate the Minister, and his Doctrine, and a Holy life, and the Physician that would heal their Souls is beholden to them if they do not deride him, and lay him not in the Jail.

I know that all this will not excuse Ministers from doing what they can for such! If you will fend your Children and Servants ignorant and ungodly to him, he must do his best: But O how much more good might he do, and how comfortable would his Calling be, if Parents would but do their parts!

We talk much of the badness of the world, and there is no men (except bad Rulers and Pastors) that do more to make it bad, than had Parents and Family Governours: The truth is they are the Devil's Instruments (as if he had hired them) to betray the Souls of their Families into his power, and to lead them to Hell with greater advantage than a ftranger could do, or than the Devil in his own name and snape could do.

Many call for Church Reformation, & State reformation, who yet are the plagues of the times themfelves, and will not reform one little Family. If men would reform their Families, and agree in a holy Edusection of their Children, Church and State would be feon soon reformed, when they were made up of such reformed Families.

S. I pray for me down fuch Instructions together, as you think bast, concerning all my duty to my Children, that I may do my part, and if any of them periffs, their damnation may not be long of me.

P. I. Be fure that you do your part in entring them at first into the Baptismal Covenant. That is; 1. See that you be true to your Covenant your felf. For the promile is made to (c) true Christians and their Seed. Noman can fincerely & rightly confent to the Covenant for his Child, that doth not confent to it for himfelf. 2. Do not think that his (f) bare being the Child of Godly Parents is his full Condition of Right to the benefits of the Covenant. That is but the fundamental part ; But you must also althally dedicate him to God (in Baptism, when it may be had; and when it cannot, yet in the same Covenant, which Baptism solemnizeth.) As you are a Believer, he and all that you have, are Virtually devoted to God; but besides that there must be an Affual dedication of him, The Child of a Believer attually offered or dedicated to God, is a rightful Receiver of Baptilin and its benefits. 3. Understand well the Covenant, and what you do; and first humble your felf for your own fins against the holy Covenant, and then with the greatest seriousness and thankfulness, enter your Child into the same Covenant.

H. Understand, that as his first Condition of Right is upon your Faith and Confent, and nor upon his own; fo the continuance of his Right, while he is an Infant, short of the use of Reason cannot be upon any condition on to be performed by him, but by Jon's which is the Continuance of your own (g) fidelity with your faithful Endeavours for his holy Education. And therefore if you should send a Baptized Child to be Educated as the Januzaries among Insidels, he falleth, as I think, from his Covenant Right by your persidiousness. And what Forseiture Parents's gross neglect at home may make, I leave to surther consideration.

venant they have made, and do by them just as I have done by you: Cease not till you have brought them heartily to consent to it at age themselves: And then bring them to the Pastor of the Church, that they may seriously and solemnly own the Covenant, and so may be admitted into the number of Adult Communicating Members, in a regular way.

IV. Let your Teaching of them to this end, be jointly of the words, the sence, the due affections and the practice. That is, r. Teach them (i) the words of the Covenant, and of the Creed, Lords Prayer, and Commandments, and of a Catechism, and also the words of such Texts of Scripture as have the same sense.

2. Teach them the meaning of all these words. 3. Joyn still some familiar earnest perswassens and motives, to still up holy Affections in them. 4. And shew them the way of practiting all.

No one or two of these will serve without all the rest, 1. If you teach not the Forms of wholsom or sound words, you will deprive them of one of the greatest helps for knowledge, and soundness in Faith. 2. If you teach them not the meaning, the words will be of no use.

3. If you excite not their Assessing, all will be but dead Opinion, and tend to a dreaming and prating kind of Religion separated from the Love of God. 4 And if you lead them not on to the Practice of all, they will make themselves a Religion of zealow affections corrupted by a common life, or quickly starved for want of suel. Therefore be sure you join all four. When you teach them the words of Scripture and Catechism, make them plain, and of mixt samiliar questions and discourse about Death and Judgment, and Eternity, and their preparations. Many professors teach their Children to go in a rode of hearing, reading and repeating Sermons, and joyning in constant Prayer, when all proveth but customary formality, for want of some samiliar, serious, awakning Speech or Conference interposed now and then.

To this end, 1. Labour to possess them with the greatest Reverence of God & the holy Scripsures. And then shew them the word of God, for all that you would teach them to know or do. For till their Consciences come under the Fear and Government of God, they will be nothing.2. Never speak of God, and holy things to them, but with the greatest gravity and reverence, that the Manner as well as the Matter may effect them. For if they are used once to flight, or jest or play withholy things, they arehardened and undone.3. Therefore avoid such kind of frequencies, and formalities in lifeless duties, as tendeth to harden them into a customary deadness and contempt. 4.Oft take an account, both what they know, and how they are affected and resolved; and what they do, both in their open and their secres practice. Leave them nor carelelly to themfelves, but narrowly watch over them.

V. Use all your skill and diligence by word and deed to make a holy Life appear to them as it is, the most Honourable, Profitable, Safe and Pleasant Life in the world, that it may be their constant delight, all your work lieth in making good things Pleasant to them:

And keep them from seeling Religion as a burden, or taking

To which end, 1. Begin with, needlest, or unpleasant thing. To which end, 1. Begin with, and intermix the easiest parts, such as the Scripture History; Datures is pleased somer with History than with Precept mand it sweets Iy in sinuateth a love of Goodness into Childrens minds; which maketh the Roman sathers of the Oratorian Order, make Church History one part of their exercise to the people. Let them read the lives of Holy men, written by Mr. Clark, and his Martyrology, and the particular lives of Mr. Bolton, Mr. Joseph Allen, Dr. Beard's Theatre of God's Judgments, Mr. Janeway's Life, &c.

2. Speak much of the Praise of ancient and later Holy Men; for the due Praise of the Person allureth to the same cause and way. And speak of the just disgrace that belong to those Sores and Beasts, who are the Despiters, Deriders and Enemies of Godliness.

3. Overwhelm them not with that which for Quality or Quantity they cannot bear.

4. Be much in opening to them the Riches of Grace, and the Joys of Glory.

5. Exercise them much in Psalms and Praise.

VI. Let your conference and carriage tend tot he just diffrace of sensuality, voluptuousness, pride, and worldlinefs. When Fools commend fineness to their Children, do you tell them how Pride is the Devil's fin: Teach them to defire the lowest room, and to give place to others. When others tell them of Rithes and: fine Houses, and preferments, do you tell them that these are the Devil's Baits, by which he stealeth Men's. hearts from God, that they may be damned. When others pamper them, & please their appetites, do you oft tell them how base and swinish a thing it is, to eat and drink more by appetite than by Reason. And labour thus to make pride, sinfuality, and worldliness odious to them. Make them oft read, Luke 12 and 16. and 18. and Jom 4. and 5. and Rom. 8. 1, 2. &c. VII. Wifeand Mat. 5. to 21. and 6.

The Poor Man's Pamily-Book. 279

VII. Wisely break them from their own Wills, and let them know that they must obey and like God's will and yours. Mens own Wills are the grand Idols of the world; and to be given up to them, is next to Hell, Tell them how odious & dangerous felf-willedness is. In their diet let them not have what they have a mind to, nor yet do not force them to what they loath; But use them to stand to your choice, & let them have that in temperance which is wholfome, and not loathfome & rather of the courser than of the finer or the sweeter fort. A corrupted Appetite, strengthen'd by custom is hardly overcome by all the teaching & counfel in the world. Specially use them not to firing drink, For it is one of the greatest snares to youth; I know that some wise parents (wife to further the everlasting ruine of the Childrens fouls) do still fay, that the more they are restrained, the more greedily they will seek it when they are at liberty. Unhappy Children that have such parents! As if the experience of all the world had not told us long ago, that Custom encreaseth the rage of appetite, and Temperance by Custom turneth to a Habit; And in those years of youth while they are restrained, we have Time to tell them the Reason of all, and to fettle their minds in a right Government of themselves; so that Custom and Teaching till they come to age, is the means on our part to fave them from sensuality and damnation. When they that will teach them fabriety with the Cup at their Nofes, or Tomperance at aconstant feast or full Table of delicious food; and this is their injudicious youth, deferve rather to be numbered with the Devils Teachers than Gods.

So if their fancies be eagerly set upon any vanity, deny it them, & tell them why. Use them not to have their wills; and let them know that it is the cheif thing that the Devil himself desireth for them, that they may have all their own carnal will fulfilled. But they must pray to God Thy will be done, and deny their swy.

VIII. As

VII. As you love their fouls, keep them as far from Temptations as you can. Children are unfit Persons to struggle against strong temptations. Their salvation or damnation lieth very much on this. Therefore my heart melteth to think of the milery of two forts. r The Children of Heathens, Infidels. Hereticks and Malignants, who are taught the principles of fin and wickedness from their infancy, and hear Truth and Godliness scorned and reproached. 2. The Children of most Great men and Gentlemen, whose Condition maketh it feem necessary to them, to live in that continual fulness, (or plainly) pomp and idleness, which is so strong a temptation daily to their Children, to the Sins of Sodom, Ezek. 16.24. Pride, falness of bread and Idleness, as that it is as hard for them to be Godly, fober perfons, as for those that are bred up in Playhouses, Alebouses and Taverns. Alas poor Children that must have your salvation made as hard, as a Camels passage through a needles eye! No wonder if the world be no better than it is, when the Rich must be the Rulers of it, of whom (k) Christ and James have faid what have they done!

Be sure there, 1. To breed your Children to a temperate and healthful dyet; and keep tempting meats, but especially drinks, from before them.

2. Breed them up to Constant Labour, which may never leave mind nor body idle, but at the hours of necessary recreation which you allow them.

3. Let their Recreations be such as tend more to the health of their Bodies than the humouring of a corrapted fancy; keep them from gaming for money, from Cards, Dice, and Stage-Plays, Play-books, and Lovebooks, and foolish wanton Tales, and Balads.

Let their time be stinted by you: And let it be no more then what is needful to their health and labour as wheting to the mover.

4. Let their Apparel be plain, decent, and warm, but not gawdy, neither such as useth to signify Pride, or to tempt People to it.

5. Be fure when they grow towards Ripeness, that you keep them from Opportunity, Nearness, or Familiarity with tempting Persons of another Sex.

I am sure this is the way to your Childrens safety. If presumptuous, self-conceited Persons, especially the Rich, will despise such Counsel, as they use to do, let them take what they get by it: If the Gentry be debauched, if their Children be everlastingly undone, if the whole Country, Church and State must suffer by it, and if their cwn Hearts at last be broken by such Children, it is not long of me; let them thank themselves.

IX. Be sure that you engage your Children in good Company, and keep them as much as possible out of bad. Wicked Children, before you are aware, will insect them with their wicked Tongues and Practices; they will quickly teach them to Drink, to Game, to talk Filibily, to Swear, to mock at Godliness and Subriety: And O what Tinder is in corrupted Nature!

But the Company of fober, pious Children and Serwants, will use them to a sober, pious Language, and will surther them in Knowledge, and the fear of God, or at least will keep them from great Temptation.

X. Do all that you do with them in Love and Wisdom; make them not so Familiar with you as shall breed Contempt; and be not so strange to them as shall tempt them to have no Love to you, or Pleasure in your Company. But let them perceive the tender Bowels of Parints, and that indeed they are dear to you, and that all your Counsel and Government is for their good, and not for any Ends or Passions of your own. And give them familiarly the Reason of all which they are apt to be prejudiced against. For Love and Reason must be the means of most of the good that you do them.

XI. Keep a special watch upon their Tongues, especially against Ribaldry and Lying; For dangerous corrupcions do quickly this way obtain Dominion.

XII. Teach them highly to value Time; tell them the preciousness of it; by reason of the Shoreness of man's life, the greatness of his work; and how eternity dependeth on these uncertain moments. Labour to make Time washing odious to them. And fet death ftill before their eyes; And ask them oft, whether they are ready to die.

XI. I. Use them much to the Reading of the most fuitable Books, fuch as Mr. Richard Allem, Mr. Joseph Allens, Mr. Whatleys New birth, and Redemption of Time, Mr. Gurnal, Mr. Bolton, Dr. Pred n, Dr. Sibbes, Mr. Pokins, Ded, Hildersham; of which more

XIV. Let correction be wifely used, as they need it, neither to feverely as to difaff-et them to you, nor to little as to leave them in a Course of fin and dilobedience, Let it be always in Love : And more for fin against God, than any worldly matter; and shew them Scripture against the fin, and for the Correction.

XV. Pray earneftly for them, and commit them by faith to Christ into whose Covenant you did engage them.

XVI. Go before them with a holy, and fiber example and let your practice tell them what you would have them be, specially in representing Godliness delightful and living in the Joyful Hopes of Heaven.

XVII. Chuse such Trades and Callings for them as have least dangerous temptations, and as tend most to the faving of their fouls, and to make them most useful in the world, and not those that tends most to the case of the flish, or worldly ends.

XVIII. When they are marriageable and you find it needful, provide fuch for them, as are truly fuitable, and flay not till folly and lust ensnare them. Thele Ale Poor Han's Family-Book. 283

These are the Councils which I earnestly recommend to you in this important work. But you must know that your Childrens sculs are so precious, & the difference between the good and bad fo great, that all this must not seem too much ado to you. But as you would have ministers hold on in the labour of their places, somust you in yours as knowing that a dumb & idle Parent is no more excufable than an unfaithful dumb and idle Miniffer. The Lord give you skill&will and diligence to practice all, for I take the due Education of children for one of the needfullest and excellenrest works in the world; Specially for Mothers.

S. I pray you next tell me my duty to my Wife, and hers to mic.

P. 1. The common duty of Husband and Wife, is 1. Entirely to (1) Love each other; And therefore chuse one that is truly Lovely, and proceed in your choice with great deliberation; And avoid all things that tend to quench your Love.

2. To dwell together, and (w) enjoy each other, and faithfully joyn as helpers in the Education of their Children, the Government of the Family, and the management of their worldly bufiness.

3. Especially to be helpers of each others falvation; To flir up each other to Faith, Love and Obedience, and Good Works ; To warn and help each other against sin, and all temptations; To join in God's Worthip in the Family and in private; To prepare each other for the approach of Death, and comfort each other in the in the hopes of life eternal.

4. To avoid all diffentions, and to bear with thole infirmities in each other which you cannot cure ; To affwage and not provoke unruly paffions; And in

5. To keep Conjugal Chaffity and Fidelity; and to avoid all unfeemly and immodest Carriage with any other, which may flir up Jealoufy; and yet to avoid all Jealoufy which is unjust.

6. To help one another to bear their Burthens (and not by Impatience to make them greater;) in Poverty, Croffes, Sickness, Dangers, to comfort and support each other; and to be delightful Componions in Holy Love and Heavenly Hopes and Duties, when all other ourward Comforts fail-

S. II. What are the Special Duties of the Hashands ?

P. They are, 1. To exercise Love and Authority together (never separated) to his Wife. 2. To be the chief Teacher and Governor of the Family, and Provider for its Maintenance. 3. To excel the Wife in (11) Knowledge and Patience, and to be her Teacher and Guide in the Matters of God, and to be chief in the bearing Infirmities and Tryals 4. To keep up the Wife's Authority and Honour in the Family over Inferiors.

S. III. What are the Special Dutles of the Wives?

P. 1. (0) To excel in Love. 2. To be obedient to their Husbands, and Examples therein to the rest of the Family. 3. Submissively to learn of their Husbands, (that can teach them) and not to be felf conceited, teaching, talkative, or imperious. 4. To subdue their Passions, deny their own Fancys and Wills, and not to tempt their Husbands to fatisfy their Humours and vain Defires, in Pride, Excess, Revenge, or any Evil: Nor to rob God and the Poor, by a proud and wasteful Humour, as the (p) Wives of Gentlemen ordinarily do. 5. To govern their Tongues, that their Words may be few, and grave, and fober; and to abhor a running and scolding Tongue. 6. To be The Poor Man's Family-Book. 285 contented in every condition, and not to torment their Husbands and themselves with impatient murmurings. 7. To avoid the Childish vanity of gawdy apparel, and following vain fashions of the prouder fort; And to abhor their vice, that waste precious time in curious and tedious dreffings, goffippings, vifits and feasts. 8. To help on the maintenance of the family, by frugality, and by their proper care and labour. 9. Not to dispose of their Husbands estate without his Confent, either explicite or implicite. 10. Above all to be constant helpers of the holy education of their Children. For this is the most eminent service that woman can do in the world: And it is so great, that they have no cause to grudge at God, for the lowness of their place and gifes; For mean gifts (with Wisdom and Godliness) may ferve to freak to Children. The Mother is still with them and they are still under her eye; Her love must chiefly work towards their Salvation. She must be daily Chatechizing them, and teaching them to know God; and speaking to them for holiness and against sin, and minding them of the world to come, and teaching them to pray. Godly Mothers may educate Children for Magistracy, Ministry, and all publick Services, by helping them to that honest and holy disposition, which is the chief thing necessary in every relation to the common good; And so they may become cheif Instruments of the reformation and welfare of Churches and Kingdoms, and of the World.

P. I. The duty of Children to their Parents is. 1. To love them dearly, and to be thankful for all that love and care, which they can never requite. 2. To learn of them submissively; especially the Do-Ctrine of Salvation. 3. To obey them diligently, in all lawful things: And that for Conscience sake in obedience to God. 4. To (r) Honour them in Thought and Words and Attions and avoid all appearance of fleighting, dishonour or contempt. 5. To be contented with their Parents allowance & provisions, & willing & ready to such labour or employment as they Command them 6. To take patiently the reproofs and correction of their Parents, & to confess their faults, with humble Penitence, and amend. 7. Touse such Company as their Parents command them, & not to turn into the Company of vain and tempting persons. 8. To be content with such a calling as their Parents chuse for them. 9. To marry by their Parents choice or consent only. 10. To relieve their Parents if they need.

S. What is the duty of Children towards God?

P. II. 1. To learn what they are by nature, and what that Covenant was which in Baptilm they were entred into; what are the duties and what the benefier: And to renew that Covenant with (f) God themselves; and understandingly, seriously and refolvedly to give up themselves absolutely and entirely, to God the Father, Son and Spirit, their Creator, Redeemer and Sanctifier. 2. To remember that the Corruption of their Nature must be more and more healed and their Sins forgiven; And therefore daily by their faith and obedience, to make use of the Justitying, Teaching and Sanctifying grace of Chift. 3. To remember that they are not here entring upon a life of rest or finful Pleasures; but upon a short and uncertain life of care and labour and fufferings, in which they must do all that ever must be done, or an everlatting Life that followeth: And that to make fure of Heaven is their work on Earth. 4. To Love and Learn the word of God, and to delight in all that is good and holy especially on the The Pool Ban's Family Book. 28-

To see that they love not sleshly pleasure more than God and Holines; And that they sly from (t) youthful lusts, from excess of earing and drinking sports; that they avoid wantonness and immodesty of speech or action, Cards, or Dice, Gaming, Pride, Love-Books, Play Books, loss of time by needless recreation 6. That they use their Tongues to sober and godly speech; and abhor lying, railing, ribaldry and idle foolish talk. 7. To subdue their Wills to the Will of God and their Superiours, and not to be eagerly set on any thing which is unnecessary, or which God or the Superiours forbid them.

S. What is the duty of Masters towards their Servants? P. 1. To (u) Rule them with fuch Gentleness as becometh fellow Christians; and yet with such Authority as that they be not encouraged to contempt. 2. To restrain them from sinning against God 3. To instruct them in the Doctrine of salvation, and pray with them, and go before them by the example of a sober holy life. 4. To keep them from evil Company and temptations and opportunities of finning. 5. To fet them upon meet labours; To keep no idle serving-men, nor yet over-labour them to the injury of their health, nor command them any unlawful thing. 6. To provide them such food and lodging as is wholesom and meet for them; and to pay them what wages is due to them by promife or defert. 7. them in all lawful things, belonging to their places to Command; And to avoid all words and carriage which savour of dishonour, contempt, or disobedience. 2. Willingly to perform all the labour which they undertake and is required of them, and that without grudging : And to be as faithful behind their Masters back as before his face, 3. To be trusty in word and deed: to abhor lying and deceit. Not to wrong their Master in buying or selling, or by stealing or taking any thing of theirs, no not meat or drink, against their will. Patiently to bear reproof and due correction, and to confess their faults and amend. 9. To pray daily for a bleffing on the family, on their labours, and on themselves. 10. And to do all this in true obedience to God, expelling their reward from him.

S. What is the duty of Children and Servants to one another?

P. 1. To provoke one another to all their duty to God, and to their Parents and Masters. 2. To help one another in knowledge and all the means of Salvation; especially by Godly profitable conference, when they are together. 3. To save each other from sin and temptation, by loving advice; and to take heed that they be not tempters to each other; either to lust, and wanton daliance, and unchast speech speech or actions or to excess of meat or drink or idleness, or deceiving their Master or by passionate words provoking wrath. But that they allwage the passions of each other, & keep peace in the Family. 4. To love each other as themselves, & do as they would be dong by, and not to envy one another, nor strive who shall have most, or who shall be highest, but humbly to fubmit to one another. And he helpful to each other in their labour and every way they can, 5. To bear patiently with little injuries to themselves, and open none of the faults of each other, when it tendeth but to stir up strife, and do no good. 6. But conceal not thole faults which by concealment will be cherished. and whose concealment hindreth the right Government of the Family, or tendeth to thy Masters wrong. But in fins against God, first admonish each other privately, if that prevail not reprove it before others. if that prevail not acquaint your Masters with it.

S. Now you have gone so far, tell us our duty to our Neighbours?

P. Your duty to your Neighbour lyeth in LOVE and JUSTICE: 1. To love them as your felf. 2. To do as you would be done by; For which the fix last Commandments are your Rule. Your Love must be be exercised, 1. Towards their Souls in surthering their Salvation by drawing them to hear God's word helping them to good Books, giving them seasonable, wise, and serious Exhortations; and by the example of a holy blameless Life. 2. Towards their Bodies, by doing them all the good you can; and doing them no wrong, nor speaking evil of them, nor provoking or scandalizing them; but patiently bearing and forgiving Injuries from them.

S. And what is the duty of Subjects to Magistrates.

P. 1. To reverence and honour them as the Officers of God, and speak not dishonourably of them. 2. To pay them due Tribute and to protest them to your power power in your place. 3. To (x)ohey them in all lawful things, which belongeth to their Everal Powers, Places and Offices to command. 4. To provoke others to the same Obedience. 5. To aviod all Conspiracies, Seditions, Treatons and Rebellions, and refiftance of the higher (y) powers, and patiently to fuffer where God forbiddeth us to obey. 6. To approve and further the Execution of true Justice. 7. To detect and relist all Treasons, Conspiracies and Rebellions in others, 8. To do all this for Conscience sake, in obedience to God, and for the Common good.

S. Must I not obty all the Laws and Commands of .Rulers?

P. No : You must obey none which Command you any thing which God forbiddeth; or which forbid you any thing which is at that time and place your duty by God's Command. Nor that which certainly and notoriously tendeth to the destruction of the Common good; (unless accidentally any obedience of yours to a particular Command be like to do more good than hurt, as to that end.)

S. Will you next lay me down distinct Directions how to Spend every day in my Family and by my self?

P. I will not fet you upon too much, nor upon any unecessary task lest I hinder you while I feem to help you. 1. Let the How to Spend time of your (z) fleep be so much only as health requireth; For preci-

2. Let your heart be so disposed God ward, that your (a) waking thoughts may make out towards him Lift up a thankful heart for your nights rest unto him and think what a bleffed rest you have in the presence

3. Quickly diess you; and use no (b) vain attire that shall steal your time. But if Sickness or other necessity make it long, either let one of your Children read a Chapter to you till you are ready; or let some suitable Meditations or Discourse take up the time.

4. If you have leifure go prefently to prayers by your felf or with your Wife: If you have not at least put in all the same request, in your Family Prayer: specially if you will be the Familes Mouth.

Let Family worship be kept twice a day, unless some extraordinary necessity hinder it; At the most convenient hours of the day.

6. Do all your Business as the work of God, more than your own; And do nothing but what it is his will that you should do. That you may expect from him both protection and reward, and oft renew your Devotion of your self and all your business to him and your adual intending to please and glorifie him.

7. Highly value all your time; And follow your labours with constant diligence; Believing that it is part of your service of God. Six days, you must labour and do all that you have to do, Idleness is the ruin of Souls Body and Estate.

8. Be well acquainted with your special Corruptions, and the special Temptations of every day; and never intermit your watch against them. 9. If you labour alone, take in some seasonable meditations as you need, and you business will permit; But turn it to good conference, if you are in company. Not so as to think and talk nothing else, to urn all to weariness, or affected formality, but at

11. At Evening return to your Food, and to God's Worship in your Family, and in secret, if you have Time, as was directed you in the Morning.

12. At Night look back how you have spent the Day: Not to waste Time in writing down all Sins and Mercies which are ordinary; (for the same coming daily to be repeated will turn all to Formality:) But to have a special Thankfulness for special Mercies; and a Special Repentance for great, or aggravated Sins, (yea, for all that you remember.) Then in in faithful fervent Prayer call on God through Jefus Christ in his Spirit; And so ar Evening.

S. I prayyou resolve me these few Questions, Quest. 1.

How oft in a day must I pray in my Family?

P. God hath not punctually determined just how oft. Therefore you must not superstitiously frign more Commands than he hath made. But the General Commands of Praying continually, and in all things. with the final Law, Do all to Edification, & the nature of Families, and their necessities and opportunities, and Scripture Examples, do fully prove that ordinarily twice a day a duty. Which because I must not here stay to prove, read the full proof in the fecond Part of my Christian Directions. Keep up the life of Grace within, and the fente of your Necessities, and of the worth of Mercy, and keep up the experience what lively Prayer and Thankfgiving is, and it will preferve you against the Libertines opinion, who cry down constant Worship in Families as Superstition.

S. Quest. 2. At what hours must I pray?

P. God hath not tied you to an hour by Scripture but his Providence will direct you; Ufually early and late are fittest; But all Familes have not the same Employments nor leifure. That hour must be chosen, which Family Occasions, and Bodily Temper and Company do make most fir.

S. Quest. 3. Must I pray in secret with my Wife and

294 The Poor Pan's Family-Book.

Only the general Rule of Edification, with your conveniences and opportunities must here also direct you. Family Prayer is of greatest necessity, because there each person is contained. But secret Prayer hath great advantages: The heart is there more free to open its particular sins and wants. And they that can do all must do them. But if you cannot, you must rather take up with Family Prayer alone than secret asone.

S. What do you mean by [Cannot:] Must not all Business give place to secret Prayer?

P. No, there are bulinesses of greater obligation which must be preferred. Learn what this meaneth, I will have mercy and not facrifice. A Physician in case of necessity may omit all Prayer to go help to save a sick Man's life. So may any Man to relieve the poor and mistrable when it cannot be put off to another time. So may a Magistrate to do Justice: And so may a Pastor to Preach to the Congregation; when he hath not time for both. And poor Men that cannot spare time from their labour, are not bound to spend as much time in Reading and Prayer as Rich men are, who have fuller opportunities.

Family Prayer much different from the case of them that joyn. For he that speaketh may put up all the same requests in the Family, as he may do in secret; and therefore a greater duty may oftner dispense with his secret Prayer; (for it is not to be used as a formality.) But he that joyneth with the Speaker, hath not the choice of his own Matter, nor can so easily keep up a Praying Mind, without distractions, as he can do when he speaketh himself. Therefore, (avoiding superstitious conceits, and making Laws to our selves as Gods, which he hath not made) secret Prayer is so great a Duty that every Man must use it, as oft, as other Duties at that time are not to be preferred, but will give leave. And some can find time for

The Poot Pan's Family-Book. 295 it, (with Meditation) in their Labour and Travel when they are alone.

S. Q. 4. Is long or short Prayers to be preferred?

P. The General Rule also must direct you in this; It varieth the Case as Times, and Persons and Occasiums vary when no greater duty (at that time) calleth you off, you can scarce be too long, if you continue sit for it in mind and expression; But when other Duties call you off, or you cannot be long without unmeet expressions and repetitions before others, or without your own to the Families dulness, and unsitness, shorter at that time may be the best. But see that formal affectations be not the lengthner of your Prayers, nor carnal meariness the shortner of them; at least do not justific either of these.

S.Q. 5. Is it better to pray by a fet Form or Book, or without, as I am able to express my Defires?

P. God hath not made you a Law against either; but left every man to the way that is sittest for him.

S. How shall I know which is fittest for me?

P. 1. In fecret usually, it is best to use your self oftest to Pray free'y, from the present sense of your condition; that you may be able to do it, and to vary as occasion serveth; for the best mans mind is apt to grow dull in using the same words an hundred times over; as a Musick Lesson play'd too oft doth become less pleasing. And it will not cure us to say, that it should not be so.

2. Therefore also you should learn to Pray freely from an habit, before others also as soon as you can.

3. But till you can do it without disgraceful expressions, repetitions and disorders, it is better in your Family to use a Book or Form.

4. If in Publick or Secret any one find that a Form, having more fit, large and lively Expressions, than he can have himself without it, doth quicken and enlarge him, he may best use it. But

296 The Poor Pan's Family-Book.

I will add these two Advices here. I Settle not your self in such a Calling and Way, as will not stand with Family Worship. 2. Take heed of growing in customariness and dead formality; Which may too castly befal you, even under extemporate Prayers.

S. Have you any more Council for me, for the good and .

order of my Family?

P. At this time I will add no more but these. 1. Watch against your worldly business, that it eat not out the life and seriousness of holy Duties. Alas, in most Families in the world, the world is all that they have any sense of (though yet our Calling must be followed.)

S. Truly Landlords are so hard, and People so very poor, that necessity is a constant and great temptation to them.

P.I know it is, but if Landlords be cruel, shall men be more cruel to themselves? If they keep you poor, will you therefore keep your Soul ungodly and miserable? The less comfort you have here, and the harder this world useth you, the more careful should you be in reason, to make sure of a better world. Poor men have Souls to save, and a Heaven to win, and a Hell to escape, and a Christ to believe in, and a God to love and serve, as well as the Rich. And I tell you, that your Temptations are less than theirs.

2. Do all that you can to keep up in your felf and Family, the joy of Believing, and a delight in God and all his fervice. And therefore let your daily Duty have much in it of Thanksgiving and Praise.

3. You that are a Farmer, and fit by your Servants in the long Winter nights, get a good Book, and (f) read to them while they are with you. I will not discourage your own Exhortations; But few Husbandmen can discourse so profitably, so closely,

Soundly, and searchingly, as many such Books will do, if you chuse aright. But more of this in the next days Conference.

The Eight Days Conference.

How to spend the Lord's Day in Christian Families. And in the Church, and in secret Duties.

Paul, A Teacher. Saul, A Learner.

Paul. V Elcome Neighbour; How go matters between you and your Family? Yea and your God?

S.O Sir, you have set me a great deal of work, work which my Conscience telleth me is good and necessary, and better than any else that I can spend my time in But my Heart is bad and backward and it is not so soonlearn'd as heard nor so soon done as Learned; and yet I come to you for more; For I am resolv'd to take God and Heaven for my All & therefore to be true to the Covenant I have made; I desire you now to instruct me about the right Observations of the Lord's day; And first tell me our Obligation to it.

⁽f) Deut. 17. 19. Acts 8. 28, 30.

S. You need fay no more; He that will contradict such proof as this hath anevil Spirit of contradiction. But that which is questioned is, whether it be a Sabbath, and come in the place of the Jewenth day Sabbath?

P. Trouble not your brains about meer Names; It is enough for you that it is a Day sparated by Christ & the kely Ghost to hely Worship and called the Lords day. If by a Sabbath be not meant A day of Jewish Ceremonial Rest (which is the Scripture sense of that word) then we confess that it is no Sabbath, but that all such Sabbaths are abolished, as types of better things.

S. I am the more easily satisfied by Reason and Experience for the holy keeping of the day; For, 1. Iknown that one day in seven is as due a Proportion now as when Moses's Law that was made. 2. I am sure it is a great mercy and benefit to Men, to be obliged every seventh day to rejoyce in God, and lay by our care and labour and learn the way to everlasting life Alas what would servants and poor men do without it? 3. It is a hedge and great engagements to the holy employments of the soul when every seventh day is separated to that use alone. 4. And I feel by experience the great benefit of it to my self. 5. And I see that Religion most prospereth where the Lords day is most conscionably kept, and falls where it is neglested. But I pray you set me down directions for the right spending of the day, both General and Parsicular.

P. I. The general Instructions which you must take are thefe.

I. That the chiefest use of the day is for the (b)
Publick worshipping of God, our Creater and Redeemer;
And therefore the Church-worship is to be preferred before all that is more private.

2. That the chief work which is to be fpent in, is Learning the Doctrine of the Gospel, and Praising, and Giving thanks to our heavenly Father, our Redeemer and Saultifier; The rest cometh under this.

3. Therefore the Manner of it, and the Frame of our hearts, should be Holy, Joy and Gratitude and Love stirred up by the exercise of Faith and Hope; And it should be spent as a day of Thanksgiving for the greatest Mercy. 4. Therefore the Positive part of duty is the main; viz. That Heart and Tongue be thus employed towards God. And the Negative part; (our abstaining from other thoughts and words and labours and sport) is so far our duty as they are any hinderance to this holy work; And not on the meer Geremonial account.

S. Now set me down all my Duty in it's order?

P. Make due preparation for the day before hand;

The Orders of the Duties of the Lords der you; Cast off worldly Thoughts, and remember the last Lords days Instructions, and repent of all the fins of the week past; And go in stason to your rest.

2. Let your first thoughts be suitable to the day, remember with joy the Resurrection of your Saviour; which begun the triumphant glorious state, as you awake in the beginning of this holy day. And let your heart be glad to think that a day of the Lord is come.

3. Rife full as early on that day as on your labouring days; and think not that Swinish sloth is your holy Reft.

4. Let your Dreffing time be fhort; and spent as aforesaid, in hearing a Chapter read, or in good thoughts or suitable speech to those about you.

5. If you can go first to secret Prayer; and let Servants dispatch their necessary business about Cattle, of Then call your Servants to Family Worship, and if you can have time, without coming too late to the Assembly, read the Scripture, sing a Psalm of Praise, and call on God with joyful thanksgiving, for our Redemption and the hopes of Glory. Or so much of this as you can do. But do all with seriousness and alacrity, and tell your Servants and Children, what it is that they go to do at the Church.

7. Go to the beginning of Publick Worship; and let none be absent that can be spared to go. Your duay there I must shew you by it self anon.

8. After you return while Dinner is preparing, is a seasonable time for secret Prayer or Meditation on the great business of the day, and to consider what you heard in publick.

Or if there were no Sermon, or one unsuitable to your family, read near an hour to them in some suitable and lively Book; (Of which anon) And Conclude with Prayer and Praise to God; and all with seriousness, and alacrity and joy.

13. Between that and Supper both you, and fuch Children and Servants, as can possibly be spared, betake your selves to secret Prayer and Meditation.

14. At Supper do as aforesaid at Dinner; (Still remember that though it be a Day of Thanksgiving, yet not of sensuality, gluttony or excess.)

15. When they have Supped examine your Children and Servants what they have learn'd that day (unless you appoint an hour on the week-day for it; And so for Catechising them.) Then sing a Psalm of praise, and so conclude with Prayer and Thanksgiving, Catechising must not be neglected; But if you can do most of it on week days or Holy days, it will be best, that it take not up the Lords day, which is for holy praise.

16. When you go to rest, review briefly the special occurrences of the day; Repent of fallings; Give-

These directions are soon given and heard; But

O happy you, if you fincerely practife them !

S. You talk of Reading to my family at nights, and on Holy days, and the Lords days; What Books be they which you would have me read.

P. Were you not a poor man, I would name many to you, because you are one of my Charge, I will bestow some of What Books to read my own upon you. 1. Here are, to the Family. The Call to the Unconverted. Directions for a Sound Conversion A Trentise of Conversion. A Sermon against making light of Christ A Treatise of Judgment. A Saint or a Brute, and Now or Never, with this prefine Book. Read these to them in order that I have named, as much at a time as you have Jeisure. And here is the Saints Rest; on the Lords day read oft in that; and when you have done thole, here is a Treatise of Self-denial and one of crucifying the world, and one of Self Ignorance; I will trouble you with no more. But if you have my Christian Directory, you may choose Rill what subject you think most seasonable.

For other mens works, I would you had Mr. Jofeph Allens Book of Conversion and his Life, and all Mr. Rich. Allens; And Mr. Dod on the Commandments, and Mr. Perkins on the Greed and the Lords Prayer, that you might read as an Exposition of the Catechism, one Article, one Petition. one Commandment, expounded at a time; which will be a great help to your felf and them. And the Prattice of Piety and Mr. Scudders Daily Walk, and Mr. Reynor, and Mr. Pinkes Sermons, are very good Books. But I dare name you no more, lest I overset you.

3. What Catechism would you have me use?

P. There are to many, that I know not which to. prefer: At prefent I commend to you Mr. Gouge's or Mr. Rawlets; the leffer of the Assemblies first, and the Larger after. But because you are one of my charge, I will here write you two in the end, a shorter for Beginners, and a longer for Proficients.

S. I pray you next instruct me, how to worship God inpublick: You have before told me what Christ I must joyn with: Have you more to Say of that?

P. Yes. 1. I advile you to hear the best Teacher that you can have; For experience telleth us that the bare Office WhatChurches and worketh not without meet abili- Teacher to choofe. ties; and that there is a very great difference to the hearer, (i) between man and man : Therefore be no indifferent herein.

S. Whom am I to account the best Teacher?

P. Not he that is most (k) Learned, Elegant, and Rhetorical, nor he that speaketh lowdest and most earnestly. But he that hath all the three necessary abilities conjuct: 1. A clear explication of the Gospel. to make the fudgments of the hearers (1) found. 2, He that hath the most convincing and perswading Reasons, to Resolve the Will, 3. He that doth this in the most Serious, Affectionate, Lively minner, together with practical Directions, to quicken up the foul to Practice, and direct it therein. But when you cannot have one that is excellent in all these, you must take the best that you can have.

P. If he be intolerable through ignorance, herefie, disability or Malignity, for sake him utterly; But is he be tolcrable, through weak and cold, and if you cannot remove your dwelling, then publick order and your Souls edification must both be joyned as well as you can. In London or other Cities where it is usual, you may go ordinarily to another Parish Church: But in the Country and where it would be a great offence, you may one part of the day hear in your own Parish and the other at the next, if there be a man much sitter within your reach; But communicating with the Church you dwell with.

2. I advise you that if there be Parish Churches orderly settled under the Magistrates Countenance, whose Teachers are sound, and promote the power of Godliness in Concord, though an abler Minister should gather a separated Church in the same place out of that and other Neighbour Parishes, and should have stricter Communicants and Discipline, be not too forward to joyn your selves to that separated Church, till you can prove that the hurt that will follow by discord, offence, division, encouraging Schism and Pride, is not like to be greater, than you Benesit can compensate. But where Liberty is such, as these mischiefs are not like to follow, take your Liberty if your Be-

3. But if this separated Church be a (m) fastious Anti-Church, set up contentiously against the Concordant Churches, though on a pretence of greater Purity; And if their meetings be imployed in contention and reviling others and making them odious that are not of their mind, and in killing the Love of Christians to each other, and in condemning other Churches as no Churches or such as may not lawfully be Communicated.

The Poor Pan's Family-Book. 305 municated with, in puffing up themselves with Pride, as if they were the only Churches of Christ, avoid such separated Churches, as the enemies of Love and Peace.

4. If a Church, in other respects sound, shall (n) require of you any sale superscriptions, promises, or oaths, or require you to do any unlawful thing, you must not do it: But hold Communion with them in other lawful things, if they will allow you. It not; be content to have spiritual communion with them at a distance in the same Faith, Love; and kind of worship; and joyn with others.

5. Though your ordinary Communion should be with the best Minister and Church that you can have without scandal and publick hurt, yet sometimes if it be expected, Communicate with more (0) imperfect Churches, so far as they force you not to sin, that you may keep up Love, and shew that you are for Universal Peace.

S. Will you instruct me how to hear with profit?

P. You must have distinct Helps for your particular uses; 1. To understand what you hear; 2. To be duly affected with it. 3. To Remember it. 4. To practise it.

S. 1. What are the helps for (p) understanding?

P. 1. A plain, clear, convincing Teacher. 2. Reading the Scripture and good Books to prepare you; especially Catechism. 3. Careful attending. 4. Specially marking the Doctrine, design and drift of the Preacher. 5. Laying the several parts together. 6. Meditating after, and asking the meaning of what you doubt of. 7. Remember with whom you (q) have to do, and of how great importance the buliness is which you are upon; Go to Church as one that is going to hear a mellinge from the God of Heaven, concerning your everlasting Salvation. 3. Remember that you have but a little time to hear, and then you must be laid in the dark with those that are under your feet, who lately fare where you now fit; and your foul must speed as Sermons did speed with you in hearing. 4. Observe how nearly the matter doth concern you: And stir up your minds from floth and wandring. 5. Remember that God, who fends the Message, doth wait for your Refolution and your Answer; whether you will yield to him or reject him? whether you will have his grace or not? And remember how you will flortly cry to him for mercy in your extremity, and wair for his answer to your cries. Resolve now as you would speed then; and answer God as you would be answered by him: If you would have Mercy then. receive it and obey it now. If you deny God but this once, you know not but he may leave you to your felf, and never make you fuch an offer more. 6. Bethink you how the (1) miserable Souls in Hell were like to hear such offers of Mercy, if they might be tried here again, and fit in your places. 7 Life up a fecret request to Christ for his quickening Spirit. 8. When you come home, preach over the Do-Arine again to your own heart, and urge it on your felf. o. And pray it all over to God, by begging his grace to make it powerful. 10. And preffing it on your family will quicken your felf.

S. III. What are the Helps for Memory?

P. Y. A through understanding. 2. And a deep Affestion: We easily remember that which we well understand, and are much affected with. 3. Method is a great help to Memory: Therefore observe the Preachers Method : At least the Doctrine or Subject. and somewhat of the explication, proof, and use. 4. Number much helpeth Memory. Mark how many the several Heads are. 5. Fasten upon some one figni ficant word of every head, which will bring in all the rest. 6. Grasp not ar more than you can hold, lest you lole all. But chuse out so much of the chief matter, which concerneth you, as you find your memory can bear. 7. In the time of hearing, you may off run over that fignificant word of each head which you heard first, to fettle it in your Memory, without turning your attention from that which followeth: Which is a fingular help. 8. Writing is the castlest help for memory. 9. If you forget the words; yet remember the main Drift and Matter. 10. Reviewit, or hear it repeated by others, when you come home.

S. IV. What are the helps for Practice?

P. 1. If you speed well in the three first, especially if the word take hold upon your Heart, the Practice will the more easily follow. 2. Be acquainted with the corruptions of your heart which need a cure, and the wants that need supply; and go with a defire to get that cure and that supply: As you go to the Market to buy what you want, or to the Phylician to be healed. An intent of Practice prepareth for practice. 3. Mark the Uses and the practical Directions; and let Conscience urge them on your felf as you are hearing them; Refolve to obey, whatever God maketh known to be his Will. 4. Take heed of those Preachers that Rifle Practice, I mean: 1. Libertines, called Antinomians, who under Pretence of extolling Christ and free Grace, destroy the Principles of Practice. 2. (1) Factions Disputers, who fill mens heads with little but Controversie. 3. Wordy Orators, who like founding Brass and tinkling Cymbals, make but a lifeless noise of words. 4. Malignants, who jear at holy Practice as Hypocrifie. 5. Pharifees, that fet up the Practice of their own Ceremonies (1) Tradition and Superflitions, instead of the Practice of the Commands of God. 5. Live if you can with praditing Christians. 7. Lastly keep a daily account, how you practice what you know.

S. How must I hear and read the Scripture them-

P. 1. Be fure you come to them with a (n) Believing, Reverend, Spiritual Mind, as to the word of the living God, by which you must be ruled, and judged, and which you must fully resolve to obey, as a humble Learner of heavenly mysteries from the Son and Spirit of God, and not as a proud arrogant (m) Caviller or Judge, nor as expecting Philosophy or curious words, instead of the Laws of God for our salvation. 2. P. What the Ends of the Sacrament are, and what are the Parts and Nature of ir.

S. What are the Ends of it?

P. Not really to (a) Sacrifice Christ again. Not to turn (b) Bread into no Bread, and Wine into no Wine; which if every Priest can do, he might Confecrate all the Bread and Wine in the Bakers Shop, and Vintners or any other Cellar, and so samish men-But the Papists themselves say, without his Intention it is not done: But no man knoweth the Priesti Intentions; therefore no man knoweth whether he take Bread or the Body of Christ. And if all the found mens fenses in the world, be not to be trusted, whether bread be bread, and wine be wine, then we can know nothing, no not that there is a Bible, or that ever God revealed his Will to Man, or that there is a man in the World: And therefore cannot possible be Believers.) Nor in the use of the Sacrament to confirm mens wicked Confederacies, nor to flatter wieked men in their presumption, nor to save them by the outward act along.

But the end of the Sicrament is, 1. To be a folemn (c) Commemoration of the Sacrifice of Christ by his death, until he come. That the Church may, as it were, fee his body broken, and his blood shed, and behold the Lamb of God, who taketh away the fins of the World.

2. To be a solemn Renewing of the (d) Covenant of Grace, on Christs part and on ours : even the same which you made in Baptism, and at Conversion; but with some addition; The one being the Sacrament of our New birth and Entrance; the other of feeding Nourishment, Continuance, and Growth. Here Chris for Life, is delivered to us; and we Accept him, and man delivereth up himfelf to Christ, and Christ accepteth him.

3. To be a Lively Means for Christ's Spirit and our fouls to work by, to flir up Fnith, Desire, Love, Thankfulness, Hope, Joy, and new Obedience, besides Repentance. By thewing us the doleful Fruits of Sin, the wonderful Love of God in Christ, the firmnels of the Promise or Covenant, the Greatness of the Gift, and our great Obligations. Thus we must here have Communion with God and Jesns Christ, in the exercife of all these Graces; And receive more Grace through our facrificed Redeemer.

5. It's a Sign and Means of the Union, Love, and Communion of the Saints, and their readine's to communicate to one another.

S. What are the Parts of the Sacrament, and their Nature?

P. It hath three General Parts : I. The Parties Covenanting; which are, 1. Christ, or God the Father. Son, and Holy Ghoft, as the Principal Giver: 2. His Minister, as his Agent; 3. The Receivers.

11. The Signs: That is, I. The fignifying Matter. 1. Bread. 2. Wine' 2. The Manner; 1. Broken Bread; 2. Wine poured out. 3. Both Dilivered or Given, III. The fignifying Actions; 1. Taking and Breaking the Bread; 2. Pouring out the Wine. 3. Giving both. 4. Receiving both. 5. Eating and Drinking both.

III. The things fignified. 1. As the Means. 1. The Sacrificing of Christ's Body and Blood on the Cross for our Sins. 2. The Givingof them to Believers. 3. The Receiving them by the Believers, and improving them unto life,

II. As the Ends. 1. The Contracted Union, and Mutual Relation between God and the Creator, Redeemer and Sanctifier, and the Receiver. 2. The Souls Receiving from Christ. 1. Pardon, Reconciliation, and Adoption, or Right to the Heavenly Inheritance. 2. More of the Holy Ghost to sanctifie, seal and comfort us. 3. The Souls Dedication of it self to God in Christ, for future Love, and Obedience. 4. And God's Acceptance of him.

S. What are the special Parts of the whole Sacrament?

P. II. They are three. I. The Confectation, II. III. The Communion. The Commemoration. IV Communication and Participation:

S. What is the Confectation.

P. Not

The Pool Man's Family=1500k.

I. Note the bare pronouncing of the words, as the Papifts think; nor the turning of the Bread into Christ's natural body ; But it is the (e) separation of the Bread and Wine to the Sacramental use, and making it to be no longer meer or commonBread and Wine, but the very Body and Blood of Christ Representative. This is done by the dedicating or offering this Bread and Wine to God and by God's Acceptance and Benediction, of which the Minister is his Agent; which is fitliest consummate, and declared by Christ's words, This is my body; and This is my blood; Though it is fo by Separation and Berediction, before it is to called and pronounced.

A. Christ was the true Messiah Incarnate, before he was sacrificed to God; and was sacrificed to God, before that facrifice was given to Man, for Life and Nourishment; So here, consecration first maketh the Bread and Wine to be the Body and Blood of Christ's Representative: And then the sacrificing of Christ to God, must be represented and commemorated; And lastly a facrificed Christ communicated to the Receivers, and accepted by them.

S. II. What is the Commemoration?

P. It is the (f) visible representation of the facrificing of Christ upon the Cross to the Father, for the fins of man, to keep up the Remembrance of it, and lively affect the Church thereby; and to profess our Considence in a crucified Christ, for the acceptance of our Persons and all our Personmances with God, as well as for the Pardon of our Sins.

S. III. What is the Communication and Participation?

P. It is the (g) giving of Christ himself really for Life (or with his Covenant Brnefits) to the Believing Receiver, by the Investin Sacrament of the Bread and Wine Ministerially delivered by the Pastor in Christ's Name; together with the Acceptance of the Receiver.

S. You him to me that which feemeth to reconcile the Controversie, about the Real Presence; But I would intreat you to make it Plainer to me: What is the Gift, and the Donation.

P. Suppose that a King should under his hand and Seal make a Grant of his Son, and the Son of himfelf to a poor Woman beyond Sea to be her Husband, and tend an Ambassadour with this Instrument, and with the Espousing signals, (his Estigies, the Ring or the like) as his Proxy or Agent to marry her to the Prince in his Name. The words of the Instrument run thus, ["I do give thee my Son to be thy Husband, " and he thereby giveth himself to thee, with thy due "interest in his estate, if thou consent and give thy " lelf to him as a Wife, and have fent this my Embac-" fadour with the figurals of Matrimony to Espouse thee in my Sons Name.] Hereupon she consenteth & the Agent in the Celebration delivereth to her the Effigies or Image of the Prince as the fignal, and faith "This is the Prince, who hereby givesh himself to thee as as a Husband, And he delivered her a Key, and faith, "This is fuels a house which he endoweth thee with.

Now you can easily (b) expound all this: It is the very Prince himself in Person : And not only the efThe Poor Man's Family-Book, 315 figies, that is now given her; But how? Not into present, Sensible physical, possession or contract: But in the true Right of Relation as a Husband. 2. The Image is the Prince Representative, not real, physically considered; And is physically an Image of him still 3. The Image which is the Prince Representative or Signal, is a Means or Instrument of Conveying Right and Relation on to the Prince. Real. But it is only the Secondary Infirument, viz. of Investiture. 4. Another Instrument and in part a Representer, is the Agent or Ambassador. 5. The chief Instrument is the written Donation which he is to read at the Marriage.

Just so, 1. It is the very Christ himself, and not only the figns, this is given to the Believer by means of the figns; that is, he is given not to contract but in Right and Relation as a Head and Saviour, by contract. But, 2. The figns are physically but figns still, though Representatively they are the very body and blood of Christ, that is, It is the very body and blood which is represented and given by him. 3. And the Gospel Covenant on God's part is his chief Instrument of this Right and Relation as conveyed. 4. And the Minister and the Sacrament are the two Subscribent Instruments. All this is not only plain in it felf, but that Doctrine which Christ's Church hath ever held. And Paul 1 Cor. 11. calleth it Bread three times after the Confe-

So that the Minister is the Ministerial Instrument, the Promise or Covenant is the Donative or Entitling Instrument, the Sacramental signs and actions are the Investing Instruments, by which Christ himself with all his Covenant-Benefits, are given and delivered to the believing Receiver, in Relation and true Right; and by which Christ's spirit confirmeth the soul. This is the true and plain destrine of that Sacrament: Study ir, till you understand it.

S. May every Christian come, how weak focuer?

P. Yes, if there be nothing to hinder him but weakness, and not some particular let or unpreparedness, which I am next to ip:ak to you of.

S. But what if he be in doubt whether he be lincere? P. He nuff do his best to besatisfied, and when he hath dene, must do according to the best Judgment that he is able to make of himfelf. A now, I rell you, that your Confint to the Covenant is your Chriftianity : I ack you whether you confent unfeignedly! It you do, you may fomewhat perceive that you do : A'd if you lay [I am not fure that I confent fincerely, but as far as I can know my Heart I think I do] you must been communicate; For it is the Being of Sincerty, and not the Affirance of it, which is necesfary; and we are all to unacquainted with our own Hearts, that if we must not speak according to our best discerning of them, without Affurance, we must lay by our thankigiving, and a great part of our other Dety

S. But what if I prove mistaken, and be not sincere ?

P. If you are not (i) fincere and yet think you are, it is your great Sin that you are not so, and will not content to the Covenant and Mercy offered you; and it's your fin to think that you confent when you do nor. And there is a greater weight lyeth upon this than your respect to the Sacrament; For you are an heir of Hell, till you tru'y confent, whether you receive the Sacrament or not.

take their help. S. Can any one else tell what is in me, if I cannot tell my sclf ? P. You can best tell what you feel: But a nother may better tell you what that figmfieth, and also by what rules and signs you must proceed in judging. The patient knoweth better than the Physician what he feeleth, and must first tell that to the Physician; But the Physician then can better tell him, what couse it com. eth from, and what is the nature of the diteale, and what is like to come of it, and how it must be cur'd. Many know not that covenant confent is that Christieanity and Faith, which they are to try; But think that Godliness is some other thing than indeed it is.

What Wonder, then, if they lie in doubtings? S. But may not an unregenerate man, come, that think-6th he is sincere, and doth mistake?

S. Then it seems the Pastor must not receive such?

P. The Pastor must receive (m) Hypocrites that are unknown to him to be such: For it is only God and Conscience that know the heart. It may be my duty to receive an Hypocrite, when it is his Sin to come and claim it.

S. But what if the open profane shall come?

P. S. III. What is the particular Preparation trat is ne-

P. 1. To renew our meditations of the nature and use of the Secrament, and how holy a work it is to transact so great a business with God and our Redeemer, before the Congregation, that so we may come with holy and reverent, and not with common and regardless minds. 2. To (0) examine our felves, both whether we continue our unfeigned Confent to the Covenant of God, and also whether we live according to our Covenant, in a Godly, Sober, Righteous and Charitable Life, and live not in any wilful fin, and what Falls we have been guilty of: And accordingly to humble our felves to God f and to man where the case requireth ic) by true Repentance; And to ask them Forgiveness whom we have wronged, and to forgive them that have wronged us, that we may be fit to receive forgivenels from God, and for Loving Communion to Receive. S. II. You have told me what the preparation must be? Will you now tell me what I must do at the Sacrament?

P. In General, You must renew your Covenant with God in Christ, and Receive renewed Mercies from him.

In particular, 1. You must stir up and exercise A firm Belief of the Doctrine of the Gospel, the trush of Christ and the World to come. 2. A lively

A hungring and thursting of him, and so his grace, and Communion with God. 4. A thankful sense of the wonderful Love of God in our Redemption. 5. The exercise of Love to him that hath thus loved us, and of Joy in the fente of to great Salvation, Love and Joy are the life of our Sacramental Communion. 6. A quieting Confidence in Christ and his Covenant now feated to us. 7. A renunciation of all other Love and Hopes, and carnal worldly Pleafures and felicity, forfaking all in Heart for Christ and ready to suffer for him whole (p) sufferings save us. 8. A hearty love to one another, and great defire of the Unity of Believers, and readiness to communicate to their wants. 9. You must renew the Dovoting and giving up your felf to God, your Father, Redeemer, and Sac Etifier, with a firm resolution sincerely to cleave unto him and obey him, to the death, 10. You must do all in Hope of Christ's second Coming, and of everlasting life. All these Graces must be exercised in the Sacrament.

S. What have I there to move me to all this?

P. 1. You bring with you a finful foul to humble you. 2. You have God's Truth there fealed, and Christ Crucified represented, and freely offered you, to exercise your Faith, and all his benefits and salvation given to you, to exercise you Delires, Thankfulness, Love and Joy. 3. You have a Commemoration of Christ, till he come in Glory; to keep up your hope and defire of that Glory which he purchased and prepareth for you. 1. You have the most wonderful demonstration of the Love of God, giving his Son and all his mercy to his Enemies, and promiting you life eternal by him, to win your heart to the Love of God. 8. To shew you how the flesh and the world and life it self is to be forfaken and contemned, and at what rates God must be pleafed, and how highly Souls must be valued. 9. You have the Church before you, as one Body, partaking of one Bread, one Cup, one Christ, to shew you how Love and unity must be valued. 10. And you there are a Receiver of the figns, and give up your felf to him that giveth them to you, to shew that you Receive Christ and his Salvation, and are obliged and absolutely devoted to him in Thankful Obedient Love.

P. I. Chuse such Matters to (e) Meditate on, as you have great ule for on your heart: Which is above all. 1. Of Meditation. The Truth of the Gospel and the Life to come to confirm your Faith and Hope, 2. The infinite Goodness and Love of God in Christ, and the joyful state of the blesled in Heaven, to enslame your Love, and heavenly defires and Joys. 3. The Sufficiency of Christ, in all Cases; to exercise your Communion with him by Faith. 4. The Operation of the Spirit; that you may know how to receive and improve them. 5. The Nature of all duties, that you may know how to do them. 6. The evil and nature of every fin and the ways of all temptations, that you may know how to avoid or overcome them. 7. The nature of all Mercies, that you may thankfully improve them. 8. The use of afflittions, and the nearness of death, and what will be then necessary, that you may be prepared with Faith and Patience, and all may be your gain.

II. For the Time and length of Meditation, let it be (whether at your works, or when you do nothing elle) at your best opportunity and leifure. And let it be as long as your Time will allow you without neglecting any other duty, and as your Head can well bear it. For folid fober men can carry on long and regular Meditations But Ignorant weak men must take up with fhort and broken thoughts, like short prayers: And Melancholly people are unfit for any Mufings or Meditation at all. For to do that which they cannot do, will but make them worfe.

III. As for the work it felf; Observe how profitable Ministers preach, and even so in Meditation do you (f) preach to your own heart. 1. Consider of the Meaning of the matter and Understand it. 2. Consider of the Truth of it, and believe it. 3. Consider how it is most Useful to you. And there Convince your Conscience by evident Reasons: Disgrace your fins by odious aggravations: Invite your foul to God and Christ and Goodness by spreading the Amiableness of all before it. Chide your felves sharply for your fins you find : Stir up your felf earnestly by all the powerful Motives that are before you. Comfort your foul, by spreading before it the present and the everlasting Joys, support it by thinking on the grounds of Faith. And direct it into the right way of duty, and drive it to Resolve and Promise obedience, for the time to come.

And in all this let Clearness and Liveliness concur. For as it is those that make a good Preacher, so it is those that make a profitable Meditation, Preach not coldly and drowfily to your hearts, but even as you would have a Minister preach.

I tell you, the benefit of fuch Meditation is very great, few men grow very wife or very good that use it not. We are full of our selves, and near our selves and know our hearts better, than others do, and many will hear and learn of themselves that will hardly hear and learn of others. And fecret duties have ufually most sincerity.

S. I would next intreat you to teach me, how to pray in Understand well what it is that you must Desire in your Heart, and in what Order, and those desires. For desire is the life of Prayer. To this End, fludy wen the true meaning of the (g) Lords Prayer. For that is the platform, and the very scale that should imprint the same matter and order of desires on your soul:

I have essewhere op ned that Prayer at large. (h)

II. When you have got this Impression of holy Desires on your heart (you are then a Christian indeed,) Let the expression or wording of them be according to occasion. You are not always to speak them just in the Order as they are in your heart and in the Lords Prayer: For (i) particular occasions may call you oft to mention some particular sins, wants or mercies, without then mentioning the rest, or to mention themmore largely than the rest, as there is a cause.

III. Think not that you have prayed, when your tongue hath gone (k) without your heart: Therefore get the deepest sense of your sins, wants, and mercies, and labour more with your Hearts & not your Tongues; And out of the abundance and treasure of a feeling servent heart, the tongue will be able so to speak as that God will accept it.

IV. Go to God only in the name of Christ, intrust upon his merits and Intercession; Fur all your prayers as into his hands, to offer them to God, and expect every mercy from God as by his hands. For fince fin defiled us, man can have no happy Communion with God in himself, but by a Mediator.

V. (m) Live as you pray, and think not that confessing fin to God will excuse you for continuing in it. And labour for what you pray for; and think not that praying is all that you have to do, to get God's grace, any more than to get your food and rayment, But you must labour and beg for God's Blessing thereon.

4. When you speak to the ignorant and sinful, do it not in a contemptuous proud magisterial way, but with clear convincing Reason, and with great Love and Gentleness. Let Instruction and sweet Exhortation be instead of Reproof, for the most part, and when you must reprove them, do it usually in secret and not before others; for disgrace will provoke them, and hinder them from repentance.

Death.

Speakers Spaul, A Teacher. Saul, A Learner.

Saul. IR I have been, fince I faw you, with divers of my Neighours at their death: And I fee that Weakness and Pain of Body and the Terrours of Death, and the Stir of Friends and Phylicians, are so great Infection to Mens Preparation than that I earnestly intreat you to help me to make ready while I am in kealth. For I am loath to leave so great a work to so weak a state and so sad and short uncertain time.

P. It is God's great Mercy to you to make you so wise, there is nothing in which the Amakeningthoughts the folly of imgodly men doth more appear, than in delaying, their serious preparations for death. Is there any man so brutish as not to know that he must die? And he is scarce a man, much less a Christian, who believeth not that Death will passhim into another state of life. There is no man can doubt but this change is sure, and very near, and no man knoweth how near or when. And O how great a change will it be? The Body which was spruced up and pampered, which must now be honoured & pleased and prefered, must then become a loathsom Corps: The pleasant Cups, the delicious food, the adorned rooms, the gay attire, the soft beds, the delightful gardens, walks and fields.

fields, the honour and precedency, power and commands are all at an end, and turned into a dark & filent Grave; The flesh that must be daily pleased. and nothing is too good for it, must be an ugly black and flinking Carcase, many Years rooting out of fight and smell, lest it should annoy the living & mar their mirth, before it can come to be dry and less abominable dust, and equal with the common Earth. (a) House and Lands, Wealth and Honour, Greatness and Vain-Glory, Sports and worldly Pleasures, are wholly at an end, and will follow them no further, but be to them as if they had never been. And the Soul must appear in another Society, among the spirits that have finished their course on Earth, and are gone before to receive their doom; There it must see what before we heard of; either the Hellish Misery of undone souls, which have cast away all their hopes for ever, and the wicked Devils that deceived them, or the perfect spirits of the Just, the glorious Angels, our glorified Redeemer, and the most glorious God. There they will foon fee the truth of that Word and that World which they doubted of; and quickly feel what they must trust to for evermore: O what a change is it suddenly to pass from our Company, our dwellings, our butiness, our pleasures, and from all this World, and to see a World, which we never saw before, and to enter presently upon the Joys or forrows. which must never, never, end or Charge; O what a stone is a hardned heart? What senses thing is an ungodly Man? That can either forget fuch a day and fuch change as this, or can think of it without awakening resolutions, presently and with their utmost diligence to prepare ? If they believe not GodsWord and the life to come, why do they not come and debate the cale with us, and hear what we can fay, till they are relolved, upon the best enquiry, whether it be so indeed or not? Do they think that we can give them no better proof of it, than what their unstudied brains lay hold on? Or no better than the Devil giveth them against it? But if they do believe it, O what felf-condemning wre ches are they. What! Believe fuch a change as fure and near, and not prepare for it? Believe that they must be in Heaven or Hell for ever! And yet live as if they cared not which of them it he?

S. I confess it is an evident truth and duty which you urge, and an underiable madness! In m n to forget so great and furcion I near a change Fir death is a thing past all dispute: It is no controversie whether we must die And a man that loveth himself should think then whither he must go next.

P. If we tell Mon, to preaching of things, which they never knew before they understand us not; and instead of lea ning they cavit and question whether they are true: And when we tell them of fuch things as they know already, and all the world knoweth, they despite it, and say. Who knoweth not this? B it by this you may fee, that we have need to preach of nothing more, than that which all mens tongues confess. It is a shame either for the Preachers or Hearers, that fo many Sermons are preached of death. If there be no need of itsthe (hame is ours : But if there be the shame is theirs. O man! what a dark, and dead and fortish thing are thou become thou hast need to! be told that thou must die! And need to be told it at every funeral! Yea every day and all too little! As if the place which we meet in did not tell it us, where we tread on the dust of so many Generations! And within a yard or two of our feet, some Carkasses lie in black and loathfome rottennels, and the skuls and bones of others forget what once they were pleafed with on earth! Our diseases and pains of Body fore-

The Poor Pan's Family-Book. warn us jour weariness in our labours tells us that we have a Body that must break at last, our gray Hairs tells us, as the golden Leaves on the Trees in Autumn, that our fall is at hand. Our Children tell us, that others are raising up in our steads, while we are going off the Stage. Every bir that we eat, and cup that we drink doth tell us what bodies we have, that can be no longer upheld than new Reparations are daily made of their decays, our every night fleep warmih us,to prepare for that fleep, from which the Refurredion only will awake us. All the poor Beafts and Birds and Fishes whose lives must go to keep oursido tell us that our own will not be long, and that we must die as well as they, and that a life maintained by io many lives at so dear a rate, should be well spent, for his service that giveth us these and all. When we plow up and dig the earth for our feed, and cast it in, where it must corrupt before it sprink up again, we do but represent the digging of our Graves, and the burial of this body till the rifing day. Every time that the Sun fetteth at night, and rifeth again the next morning, it warneth us how our lives must set and rife again; And to doth every fall and spring. Every Bell that tolleth or ringeth for the dead, is our call to prepare to follow them; Yea every Bell that calleth to the Church doth tell us, that the same Bells must shortly be tolled for our Burial. Every Clock that ffricketh, every Watch that moveth, every Hour glass that runueth, hath a Voice to call fensless Sinners; See and Hear, O Man or Woman, how thy Time passeth away! How quickly will thy last (b) hour come ! Yea every Breath that we fetch our felves, and every stroke that our Pulse doth beat, doth call to Sinners; your Days are numbred! It is de-

S. But sure, Sir, it is a thing that Men know so well, that they need not be told that they must die, but only be taught better how to prepare for it.

P. I tell you to the shame of corrupted nature, that men have need to be told and told again a thousand times, with the loudest voice, that they must die. It was not a vain Lesson which the Philosopher taught the great Emperor, Remember that thou art mortal. O had I a Voice that could be heard all over the Land, to cry to all men Remember that you must die, and could I speak it to their hearts! It would awaken the secure, it would unbefool the dreaming world, who are playing away their lives for nothing. I tell you, The Preacher that doth but thunder this in the ears of a sleepy worldly Congregation, O sumers, You must die, You must die, as sure as you are alive you must die, doth not preach an unsuitabe or unprofitable Sermon. If you believe me not, answer me these sew Questions.

Quest. 1. Why esse are men so surprized with the sears of death when it is just coming? They knew all their lives before, that it would come; and yet they live merrily and carelessy till it is just upon them! And then when the Physician tells them, there is no. Hopes, O what heart-sinking terrour are they in, as if they had never known that they must die till now! Sure there is a way to make death less terrible. And why is not this way used in time?

Quest. 2. And what maketh such a difference between their Healthy, and their Dying thoughts? Now nothing doth relish with them but the world and the The Poor Pan's Family-Book. 335

the flesh : And then they cry out, The World is Vanity. Now nothing is so unwelcome to them as the motion of a holy life; But then they cry out with Balaam, Num. 23. 10. O that I might die the death of the Rightcous, and my last end might be as his. Now praying wearieth them: But then they cry out for Mercy-Mercy, and learn to pray without Book, and without a Teacher! Now they cannot bear him, that telleth them of their fins; But then they can cry out as Judas, I have sinned. Now they must not be stopped nor troubled in their fins: But then they trouble themfelve more, and cry out, O that I had the time again which I have loft! O that God would try me once a. gain I would be a new man: I would lead a new life! I would never do as I have done. Then they can be ferious in thinking of their Change, and the dread of it amazeth them, and O that they could make fure of Heaven. But now they regard it as little almost, as if it did not much concern them, while they have time and helps, and warning to make fure. Either this change is wife or not. If not, why will they do it then? If it be, why not now? That which is best then is best now. Death should be the comfortable ending of a well spent life; and they make it either the terrible or the fenfless conclusion of a losers game, or a doleful Tragedy. And all because they be not awakened to learn to die in the time of health.

Quest. 3. Why is it that their Teachers never hear them once seriously enquire? How shall I make ready? And how shall I know where I must dwell for ever? If we can afford them no help therein at all, why do hey desire us to Counsel them on their death bed? If we can, why do we not hear this sooner from them? Do you understand Christ's Parable of the unjust Steward, Luke 16. 4, 5. His Wit is commended, that when he was to be turned away he

away he seriously bethought him, whether to go next, and provided himself of another Habitation. Nature taught him to make some Provision for his change. But we cannot get Men that know past doubt that shortly they must leave this World for ever, to bethink them carefully, whither they must go next; and how their poor Soul may find a comfortable Entertainment with God!

S. I pray you name some of the Benefits that would come to Men, by the scrious Warnings and Thoughts of Death! Otherwise we shall think that it is but troubling us before the Time, with the Fears of that which cannot be prevented, and so the increasing of our Sorrows.

P. O Friend! I tell you, Death is a powerful Preacher: It teacheth many Men that to the quick, which we have preached twenty years in vain; we preach them affeep; But the Sentence of Death doth awaken them to purpose. I will begin with my self.

and the rest of my Profession.

1 These serious thoughts of death doth teach Minifters how to Preach, and the People how to hear. I am fure, thro' God's Mercy, it hath been the Expectation of death thele 34 Years, which hath been a great means to help me to that little too little feriousness in preaching, which I have had. Who is to dull that if he thought that this were the last day that he should preach and live, would not importunately beg of his hearers to receive the Gospel, and repent of Sin, and return to God and fave their Souls? But when Men think that they have forty-Years more to live yet, and Preferments to get, and prosperity to enjoy, they make the publick Affembly a Stage, to fet out themselves and act the part of a Servant of Christ, to win the prize and reward of a worldling: They play with Scripture, and talk of Heaven and Hell in jest, and juggle out a few canting Words, contrived

The Poor Pan's Kamily-Book.

by Hypocrites to beget Hypocrifie, and from a senseless heart to make men more senseless, and teach them to take Christianity for a stage-play, and the service of God for a common thing: For all things would generate their like; The spirit of slumber as well as the

But death awakeneth the Preacher, to awaken the hearers. We are dying while we are speaking, and you while you are hearing. The breath which we speak by, is measuring our our time. We have but so many breaths to breath, and we have done. We shall all be shortly silenced in the grave. It is your mercy and our mercy, that yet we have Tongues to speak, and you have Ears to hear. But we Preach and you hear as men in a hoat which is all the while swiftly carryed down the stream, and will be quickly in the Ocean of Eternity: No wonder if Paul adjured Timothy to most constant and importing Preachings, 2 Tim. 4. 1, 2. And if Christ so often call out to sinners, He that hath an ear to hear let him hear. All that we have to fay must be quickly said, and all that you will learn must be quickly learnt; even now or Never. O how many a hundred times have I rifen off my knees with shame and consternation, to think that a dying man in so great necessity, could pray no harder at the door of Eternity! And how many a time have I come down from the Pulpit with shame and grief, to think that I could speak with no more affection to men that are so near another world! That my heart did not melt over miserable sinners, and that I did not with tears and importunity intreat them! That I could to easily and quietly go away without a grant of that which Icame for, when I know not that ever I should speak to them more! Methinks Dea h should make us all better Preachers, and you better Hearers, were it well forefeen! It ffire'd up Peter to ffir up his flock, knowing that speedily he must put off his Tabernacle,

2 Per.

S. What other benefit doth foreseen death bring?

P. 2. It teaches us the wilest estimate or all the wealth and honour and greatness of this World. For it sheweth them all to us in their final tlate; and what racy will prove to us in our greatest needs, if all the Congregation were fure that they were to dye to morrow, or the next week or month, how eafily could we keep them into a contempt of the world? though it changed not their Love to it (for they would still keep it, if they could) it would make them contess that all is vanity. Then what is Riches worth? What are Lands and Sumptuous House worth? What are honoms and places of Command worth? Now, are these, think you better than a Christ? Or worthy the purchasing with the loss of Heaven? Would not affurance of Salvarion now be better? Suppole the Preacher, that cometh to confort a dying man, thould come cohim only with worldly comforts; Suppose he lay, Sir, be of good Comfort, you have had many a merry Cup, many a fumptuous Feaft, many a gallant Entertainment; You have lived in Honour and Wealth and ease! Would be not fay, O but it is all past and gone, and I mult never more enjoy it! If the Priest thall lay, You have fair Houses and a great estate to comfort you: Will ne not lay, O that is my forrow; for I must leave them all for ever! If it be told him, Your Children shall enjoy it all when you are gone; Will not he lay, But they must leave it as I do And whether shall my foul go? And what comfort will their pleasure be to me? When the (c) rich Worlding in Hell would have had one to warn his Brethren on earth, lest they should follow him to the place of torment? The Churchyard is that Market place where the things of this world are duly rased. If they will purchase your Pardon from God, or open Heaven to you, or make your bones and dust more happy, value them and spare not. Seek them and keep them and use them as far as surthereth the service of God and your Silvation, and will give true comfort to a dying man. But if all your plenty prepare but for this farewel, (d) Thou Fool, this night shall the sould be required of thee, and then whose shall all these things be, which thou hast provided? such a parting is not worth so dear a price. Read Psalm 49. 6, 7, 13, 14.

S. What other benefit can you get by the Thoughts of death?

P. 3. Death is the great difgrace of Pride. It will tell you whether it be feemly for him to lock big and boast and domineer to day, who must shortly be buried in the fociety of bones and dust in darkness: O can that Man be proud, that is going to answer for all his fins, before that God that hateth Pride, and must leave his beloved body in the Earth? Swelling with haughtine's to day, and in the grave and perhaps in Hell to morrow? It is congruous to dress that body with needless cost, and corioticy, and spend precious time in adorning of that flesh, which must so quickly not and slink? The grave is the Looking glass which will teach proud gallants how to drefs them. If they law but what is now within them they would think that fuch dung & guts did scarce well suit with fuch curious Coverings. If you did but now see and smell one of your Neighbours Carkasses, which was furied a year or two ago, would you think it suirable for him to be proud that must come to this? That skull and these bones retain no signs of the proud mans glory. O foolish moreals, if you know not and remember not, that you must come, and quickly come to this!

S. What else learn you by the forefight of Death!

P. 4. It teach men how to value their mirth and fensual delight. All the pleasures of mear, drink plays, of suff, and all your flethly accommodation, are now past and gone, and never shall return. There you may see the skull and hole, where the meat and drink did once go in: But the delight is ended. And must all come to this? And yet will not men seek more durable delights? Your Swine and Ox is fed for your own table, and therefore it is worth the cost: But is it the wasting of your estate and the loss of your soul too, to feed and pamper a Corps for the Worms or Grave? Is it more comfortable to a dying man to hear syou have lived a merry life in the world, or to know that he shall live in the Heavenly joys with his Redeemer?

S. What other Lesson will Death teach if?

P. 5. It will teach us how to spend our Time. O precious Time! How basely art thou esteemed by idle, voluptuous and ungodly men? Now they can Play it away, and prate it away, and idle it away in a hundred vanities, as if God had made their lives too long; and they knew not what to do with it! But when they hear, You are past recovery, O then for more time! O that we might live but one year longer! O that we had now all that time to repent in, and make fure of Heaven, which we spent in sports and idleness, and worldliness! O that we had lived as obediently to God, and as holy lives as the ffrictest Saints, so we had but their safety and hopes of Heaven!OTime, Time, how art thou past away and gone, and all the world cannot call back one day or moment! O what a hateful word is patime! O happy men that have hearts to use it; for the ends that The Poor Pan's Family Book. 34T that God Created and Redeemed them, before it be too lite, and Time, and Soul, and Heaven he loft. It's Death that teacheth men the worth of Time.

S. Have you any more to Juy of this ?

P. 6. Death teacheth men how to behave themfelves to each other. How peaceably do those bones and that dust fie together! There is no striving, no cruelty, no domineering, or abusing others. On a deathbed you will say that you forgive all the World: You dare not desire revenge then, less God be revenged on you. And will you be worse living than Dead? Doth oppression and perfecution and treating down the poor and low, beseem them that must so soon be levelled with the lowest? And be unable to stir away a worm that seedeth on their heart and sace?

7. I will add but one more; Death teaches us whether we should rather sly from sufferings or from sin. Die we must, whether we will or no? And is it not better to die for Christ, if he require it, than die without any such advantage? Will it comfort us at death, to think what sufferings we escap'd by sin.

S. I have oft marvelled why God would not fave in from Dying, seeing Christ dyed for us; But now you kave partly Satisfyed my doubt.

P. Though Gods great day of Judgment be to come yet he will have some Justice done upon sinners in this world: And though Christ have suffered for us, there is a necessity both to our own and the Commongood, that even siming Christians suffer something themselves. But God doth so moderate it by his wisdom & mercy that even this punishment becometh a cure to the sin that causeth it, and a great means to our good. Were it but an uncertain thing, whether it should die or not, did but some die and some not die, yea, did men live but as many hundred years as before the deluge, O what a wicked world would this be!

342 The Poor Pan's Family-Book.

1. Covetoulnels then would have no restraint. How dearly would men love this world! O what striving then would be for it! They that will live in fin, and sell Heaven for a few years uncertain commodity here. what would they do for a thousand years riches, or for the hopes of living here for ever? But when this is written on all the worldlings doors, on his houses. on his wealth, on his flesh [Thou must die: Thou must certainly and shortly die: This is that mars the Market of the world! A fober look on a Skull and Coffin, or Grave, doth blast all the beauty of this world, and selleth Reason it self, it is but a dream: It writeth Vanity upon all. Who would say, (e) Soul take thine eale, eat, drink, and be merry, how rich loever he were. is he looked not to peffish it many Years, but expessed to hear, Thou Pool, this night shall thy Soul be required of this mid then whose shall these things be, which thou bast provided? Now take thy houses, and land, and mony with thee, if thou canst. At least take so much as will buy thee a drop of water to cool thy tongue. If death did not preach to wordlings, no other Pieathers could be heard. It cryethout of them [What mean you finners, to bestow all this labour for a few days vanity: Is it worth all this fir to make your Salvation more doubtful, and more difficult, as a Camels paffige through a Needles eye? To increase your 10ad and trouble your temprations? And all for the pleasures of a shore life!] If Death dil not preach with us, we should preach to little purpose.

2. And were it not for Death, Ambition would have no bounds: If Alexanders and Casfars are such plagues to minking while they are posting to the grave, what would they be, if they had any hope of an earthly Immortality: Then the great ones of the world would

The Poor Hamily Book. 343 be great indeed! How big would they look! How infolent would they Lord it over the poor! And how cruelly would they oppress and persecute the innocent! No wonder then, it their flatterers were fo many and fo bafe, as to make them think they were Gods, and to require a Divine obedience and honour. But forefeer Death doth curb this Arrogance, and flanderly like Haman's Gallows before their own doors: As he was highest, he had the honour to be hanged highest. When Satan hath brought them to the Pinack of the Temple, they see how low they have to fall, when he bath brought them to the exceeding high Mountain, and fliewed them the Kingdoms and Glory of the World, if they accept them as his Gift, and on his dreadful terms, it is a wonder that without torout they are able to fook down follow, as death affores them they must be cast. If you had the greatest caterrainments on the battlements of the fleeple; and were fure that therely you must be cast down, it would spoil the pleasure of them all. Its a brive thing for Absolom to be a King, and for Achtophel to be his cheir Counfellor? But had they both forefeen their hinging, it would have made them foch r hang down their head. Poor Men and Preachers may thank God that the ungodly great over of the world must dye; and that they are constrained to foreknow it. Or elle Easth would be like Hell, and oppression and persecution would be the flate of mankind. For man being in honour weu'd have no understanding Henow both they and their Posterity go on in the folly of their way, when they abide not, but are as the benft that perith, Pfalm 49. 12, 13, 20. what w. uld they do, if Death were not their instructor?

of the Cup! Who would not be (f) cloathed with purple and fine linnen, and fare fumptuoufly and delicionfly every day, that could? O but this Death, this Death, it is that marreth all the mirth. When selfhazzer feeth the hand-writing on the wall, in all his jollity his joynts do tremble. Ead. 11. 9. Rejoyce; O young man, in thy youth, and let thy heart clear thee; walk in the way of thy heart, and in the fight of thine eyes; but know thou, that for all thefe things God will bring thee into Judgment. This is it that spoileth all the sport, R member that thou dancest about the Grave! And Death must end the game at last! I tell you, except the promife of the life to come, there is nothing that to much marreth the Devils Markets, and spir fo much thame in the face of fin, as certain foreseen, ap. preaching Death, and therefore the Devil is wifer than to come with the ordinary bait to a dying man: Should be then offer him Cards and Dice, and tempt him to fornication or to drunkenness, yes, offer him Land and Dignities, he knows they would do no thing! What's this to a man that must die to morrow ! I conclude therefore as Eal. 7. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6. Il's better to go to the house of mourning, than to the house of fealling: For that is the end of all men, & the living will lay it to his heart - The heart of the wife is in the house of mourning, but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

S. It is awonder of shapidity, that reasonable mencan so much forget so great, and near, and sure a change? And that so few do bethink them, whither their Souls must go, and where they must dwell next? P. Some would have no Funeral Sermons; and I would have almost no other. All our Religion is but a continual preparation for death; to learn to die well, by learning and practifing to believe and love and live well. EverySermon must teach men this. Men

Ache Pool Pan's Family-Book. 345 would have a Funeral Sermon when they are dead, that will not hear the same dostrine while they live, as if they had more care of the Souls of those that furvive them than of their own. Look on their Tombs, and you shall see them almost all in a praying posture with hands lifted up; who prayed but seldom and coldly while they lived, which shewed what Conscience telleth men, will be best at last. On their death beds they desire us to pray for them to God. And now God sendeth us to pray to them for themfelves, and they will not hear us, and yet think God. must hear us for them then, God denyeth us nothing which he hath promised. But if we beg never so hard? of themselves but to care for the salvation of their own fouls, we cannot prevail with them, no not foberly

We must go whether we will or not, and shall we not care whither? 2. It is troublesome to think of Living for ever with Christ in Glory? What then is Pleasant? Or what more comfortable thoughts will they chuse? Is it better to die like a Beast, and live no more? If this milerable world seem better than Heaven to them, yet methinks, seeing they must leave it whether they will or not, they should be glad to hear how they may be next provided for, and should never be at rest till they.

P. It will be needful that I first tell you, I. Where-

How to make ready for Death,

. in your Readiness doth confist : II. And how much it is your Interest be ready. III. How much it is your work and duty to make ready; And then, IV. To tell you how you must do it. S. I like your order well; I pray you open she first.

P. There are two degrees of Readiness for death; The first is for a Safe Death; that you may be faved when you dye. The second for a comfortable Death; that you may die also in Peace and Joy.

1. All those and only those dye fafely and go to Heaven, who are pardoned by Christs blood, and Sanlished by his Spirit; the Spirit of Christ is your preparation; If you have that Spirit you are justified and shall be faved; for it is given you on purpose to fit you for Heaven, and to be God's feal upon you and the pledge and the earnest and first fruits of your Celestial happiness. Blessed are the (g) pure in heart; for they Shall See God.

2. But that besides fastey, you may have Comfort in your death, it is also necessary, 1. That you have some certainty or knowledge that indeed you have the Spirit. 2. That you have Faith, Hope and Love (the Graces of the Spirit) in suitable exercise. 3. And that the great impediments of your Comfort be removed.

S. Wherain is this Readiness to Dye our Interest.

P. II. Nature it self may tell you much of that, and Faith more. 1. He that is not ready for a Safe Death, is in a state of damnation, if he so dye, he is lost for ever, his endless state of joy or milery dependeth on it. Where then can a mans interest be so much concerned, especially considering that our slesh is frail,& liable to miny hundred diseases every hour & no man hath assurance to live another day or night? O what a madness is ir for such a person to live one day in an unprepared flate, if he can possibly gersout of it (as if he will, he may)! It is one of the mon notorious evidences, how much mans nature is enflaved by the Devil, that when they are fure to die 'ere long, and know not but each hour or day may be their laft, and hear from Gods word, that as they are found at death it must go with them for ever, and that without holimest none shall see che Lord; Yer they can sleep quietly and rife carelesly as if all were well with them, while they live in an unregenerate unlanglified flate. If fuch a person did indeed believe Gods word, and were not dead or asleep in fin, furely his heart would meditate terrours, he would think that he even law Hell ready to receive him; he would dream of it in the night, he would find pleasure in nothing in the world, till he were converted, and made holy, and prepared for Heaven by the Spirit of God; he would morning and evening, yea night and day, cry earnest ly to God in Prayer for that Grace which must prepare him for so great a Change; he would go to Ministers or Godly Friends, and ask them who he must make ready for death. 2 And he that is thus unready to die, is unready for all duty, for fuffering, for every thing, and is but losing the time that he liveth; and till he prepare for death, he is preparing for Hell No businels therefore, no other cares mould hinder or delay men; no profit, honours, or pleasure should quier them till they have got their fouls into a fafecondition; and are ready to die.

P. 2. The knowledge of your Safety is the ground of your Comfort. And it must needs be a terrour to a man that bath any fairh and fenfibility, to be utterly uncertain what shall become of his Soul for ever ! To believe that there is a Hell for all the unboly, believe that none but the holy shall be Glorified, and not to know at all, whether he be such or not. To know that he must shortly be in Heaven or Hell, and never more have a change of the place which he first pollesseth, and not to know which of these it will be. This must needs be an amazing dreadful thought. When the Body is languishing in pain, and all worldly help and comforts fail, to be then utterly doubtful of everlassing comforts, must needs be a most uncomfortable state. To think [I must now go to my long home, and take my unchangeable possession either of Heaven or Hell, but I know whether it will be;] is a sad thought to a dying Man.

Yea, all a Mans life must needs be uncomfortable, till he be prepared for the comfortable death: For it is not the perishing trisles of this world, that can suffice to comfort a wise man that still foreseeth their end. If therefore he cannot setch comfort daily from Haven, he can have none that's worth the having. How can as wise man live comfortably till he can die comfortably, when he knoweth still that death i

Yea till we have some good preparations even for a comfortable death, we live in continual danger of very heinous sin. If we be called to Myrtyrdom for Christ, the terrours of death may sorely tempt us to deny him. How can a man be saved that (b) loveth his life better than Christ and life eternal? And how can a man be willing to go out of this life, that hath

But if a man be ready to die well, he is ready to live well, and ready to fusser, and ready for any thing: When he can setch (i) comfort from the

Nothing can be more evident than that to be in a continual Readiness to die, is the great Interest of man, in comparison of which, nothing else is worthy to be minded or named.

S. III. What mean you by faying, that it is also our live?

P. He that knoweth that it is his chiefest Interest. must needs know that it is his chief Work, as long as Self-Love is so deep a principal in Nature, and Interest so much acteth and ruleth all mankind. As a man when he beginneth his Life, doth begin his Journey or Race towards Death, and life everlasting, fo God doth give him all his time to do his Work, and his Life is nothing but the Time allotted him to perpare for death and a better life, and every hour that is not spent in such preparation is cast away and lost. All the time and work of a Christians life, must be Holy and Religious, though not all spent in A&s of Worship: All must be a feeking of God and Glory. by the conduct of Christ, his spirit and word. And all Religion is nothing else but a preparing our selves and others for death. Many trouble the world, and cheat themselves with a Religiousness which rather unfitteth man for death, even a Religion made up of unprofitable opinions, contentions and disputes, but when they have wearied themselves and corrupted others, with their opinionative wrangling zeal, they will find that one day spent in learning to die well, would have tended more to folid comfort, than fuch a dreaming kind of life. I know that found Doffrine maketh found Christians; But it is Practical Doctrine that must do it. And all Christian practice is but a due due preparation for death. Christ is the only way; But Heaven, (that is God in the Heavenly Glory) is the only end. And Christ came from heaven, and is ascended to heaven, and sendeth his spirit into our hearts from Heaven to call up our Hearts and prepare us for it. Death therefore which is our pillage into heaven, must be in our eye in all the exercises of our Religion, and all the businesses of our lives. Away with those opinions and practices whatever, which no way tend to prepare you for a safe and comfortable Death.

S. IV. Now tell me how this preparation must be made?

P. I The chief part of it must be done in your health; II. And the rest in the time of your Sickness.

1. In your health, it must be the main business of your life to prepare for Death.

Death in Health. Particularly, Beslow much care and diligence, to strengthen your Belief of the truth of Go's word, of the Immortality of the Soul, and of the life to come. Nothing more perniciously strengthneth Temptations, killeth all hope, defire and endeavour, than secret doubtings, whether Gods word be true and whether there be another life indeed for man or not. Uncertainties will hardly prevail against fense and present things. Uncertainties will hardly sufficiently comfort a departing soul, when all worldly comforts must be parted with for ever. Every doubt here is as waser cast upon the fire; It quencheth all our desires and joys.

Now the strengthning of our Faith about the world to come is a thing, that is not done with a wish. There must be due and constant endeavours used. I define you to read the Directions I have given you in the second part of my Life of Faith; and if that feem not enough, read my Treatife against Insidelity, and my Reasons of the Christian Religion, and more Reasons. Now I only advise you.

1. Never

The Poor Han's Family-Book. 351

1. Never forget the Miracles, Refurrection and Ascension of Chaist.

2. Forget not the Miracles wrought by his Apostles and Evangelists in all the Countries where they came.

3. Forget not the Spirit of Miracles, given to all the first planted Churches.

4. But above all, forget not the spirit of Holiness, which in its estects is apparent, in all that are serious Christians, in all Ages and Countries; espicially (k) since the spirit is Christs standing Witness and Advocate in us, and a certain proof of that he is the Saviour of Souls: Forget nor that by this spirit, the living Image of God's Vital power, his Wisdom and his Goodness is printed on the sacred Scriptures, and the same Image by the spirit and by the Scriptures is printed on all true Believers souls: Which makes a notable difference between them, and the rest of the world, and is the certain, present, common evidence, that Christ is true, and that he is preparing for everlasting life.

5. Remember that God hath not given man in vain, a foul which is capable of Thinking on our Maker, and another world, of desiring and seeking an endless hope: The wise Creator sitteth all his Creator

tures to their uses.

6. Look up and think, whether all those vast and glorious spaces which are above us, are likely to be without Inhabitants, when we see every corner of this lower world both earth and water, are inhabitated.

7. And when we find by experience that the Invisible Spirits are our Helpers, and distain not to regard and serve our interest; is it not like that our souls, being intellectual spirits, as well as they, shall have Communion with them hereaster? Nothing is ings, as mens Souls.

8. And mark but the common experience of the world, which telleth us that certainly there are evil spirits, (by the Temptations which we feel to evil, the hindrance of Good, the strange power they have upon corrupted Fantasies, and the common War which is maintained against Christ and Godliness by all the wicked in the world.) And you may thus learn from the Devil himself, that all this malice is not against nothing.

9. And the certain Histories of witches will serve to confirm this evidence.

10. And so will the certain Histories of Apparitions: (For instance, see one in a little book called, The Devil of Mascon.)

11. And the common testimony of all mens Con-sciences; The consent of almost all the world.

(even among Heathens and Infidels) principally by the Hopes and Fears of a Life to come; (And God cannot need a Lie to Rule us) These and many such Reasons help to consirm our Faith; But it is the sacred Impressions of the Spirit sirst on the Scripture, and next on your own hearts, and the holy change which it hath made upon you, which is the near, the sure, the constant (m) Witness in your self, and with you that Christ is true, and that he is preparing us here for a better life.

These things must be daily thought of, and all suggestions to the contrary first consuted and then abhorred and cast away, till the soul grow up to such a Habit of believing, as will serve (n) instead of sight it self; and we can say we are sure that there is an

The Pool Han's Family-Book. 353

To all which must be added, a cherishing of the Spicit which is the Author of Faith. 1. By earnest prayer for his Grace. 2-And by obeying and improving ic.

II. Be sure that you truly (o) Repent of your known sin: For nothing makes Death so frightful to us, as our Guilt: Nothing else can make us reasonably sear whether God will save or damn our Souls, but unpardoned sin. And the mercy of God is so great and his promise so sure, that nothing can reasonably make us doubt of pardon, but that which maketh us doubt of the sincerity of our repentance, and faith in Christ-Space not sin then, but repent presently, repent deeply. Confess it plainly. For sake it resolutely, and then it will not leave such fears in the soul, as shall make the sentence of Death to be dreadful to us, is sin but half Repented of will do. Sin is the sting of death; And true Repentance hath the promise of forgiveness.

III. Put your fouls with all their fins and dangers, and all their interests into the hand of Jesus Christ your Saviour, and trust them wholly with him by arefolved Faith. It is he that hath purchased them, and therefore Loveth them. It is he that is the Owner of them by the right of Redemption. It is now become his own Interest. even for the fuccess and honour of his Redemption. to fave them. Be not too thoughtful about things unknown to you (as, How separated souls do act : with what manner of Intellection, and sense, &c. What I dea to have of spiritual bodies, of Heaven, &c.) But implicitly trust Christ with all these things, remembring that He knoweth what you know not: And as he possesseth Heaven for you, till he bring you ro possels it, so he knowerh all these things unrevealed, for you, till he bring you to fee and know them. Though our good works give nothing unto God, nor can Men or Angels merit any thing of him, in Commutative Justice, as to the value of the things, but only in point of Governing paternal Justice, as to the order of free Dominion; (it being impossible that any Creature should have any thing from God, but by his Gift, under what Covenant soever;) Yet God who is Holy is the Lover of Holiness, and the

And there is no such full and satisfying Evidence of that, as this (f) testimony of our Conscience, that in simplicity and godly succeity, and not in slephly Wisdom, we have had our Conversation in the World: That is, that we really lived not to the slesh, but unto God and how weakly soever our main business in the worldwas to serve and please him, with all the powers & estates he gave us. And that we did not principally live to the world, and put God off with the leavings of the flesh, nor made his service our secondary Business, and seek him and Heaven but in the second place. O that we knew well how much a life of total resignation, devotedness and serviceableness to God, doth tend to a quiet and comfortable death! We should live otherwise than most do.

S. But I have oft heard that we must put no considence in any work or holiness of our own, and that it is legal and pharisaical & popish to setch any of our comfort from them.

P. 1. We must not dream that any Work or holiness of ours'can justifie us, if we are judged by the Law of works Of trusting in our (or innocency) whole or in part.

Because nothing but perfect fin-less holiness, will so justifie. But when Christ hath fully satisfied for our violation of that Law, and made us a Law of Grace by which we must be judged, that (g) Law of Grace doth justifie or condemn men as they perform or not perform its conditions, giving free Justification against the Course of the fermed Law, through Christ alone, to all true Believers.

2. I told you before that nothing must be ascribed to our own Holine's or Works, that is proper to God the Father, or to Christ, or to the Spirit. And can you delive any more? It nothing under Christ, person or thing, be a means of our salvation, than no person or thing, must be loved or trusted as a means. But who is it that dare say so?

3. When any thing of our own is fet up in competition with Christ or opposition to him, and the question is, whether Christ or that, is to be trusted, or to be our comfort? it must not only be distrusted, but rejected as dung.

5. Do you think that no fin of our own should trouble us? Is there no fin which is just cause of doubting of our Justification? What! Not Unbelief, nor Impenitence, nor malignity, nor a fleshly or ungodly life? Shall not all perish that continue such? And is itnot part of our comfort to see that we are free from that cause of discomfort? If there be any damning sin in the world, or any difference of the wicked from the righteous, must not our dying comfort lie much in finding, that this is not our case ?

V. Take heed of quenching the Spirit of Grace. He is out Life from Christ our Head. What-

Quench not ever good we do in Health or Sickness,it must be by his gracious Operations: You the Spirit. may think of Christ and read over the Promiles, and think of the Joys of Heaven and all will have little power upon you if the Spirit help you not. You will but frive and come with difcouragement, and fay, I cannot get affurance with all my examination, I cannot believe, I cannot reach to any powerful apprehensions of God or Heaven, I cannot choose but fear and doubt even with the most evident arguments before my eyes. There is no effectual Light in any know. ledge, no holy Love and Delight in God, no Spirtual Life in any of our thoughts, but what is wrought by the Illuminating, Sanstifying, quickning Spirit. Otherefore tenderly cherish and preserve this heavenly Guest, as ever you would have Joy in health or fickness! For it must be the Joy of the Holy Ghost.

S. What is the Cherishing, and what the Quenching of the Spirit?

P. It is a great truth not sufficiently considered by the wifer fort of Christians, that God in his course of Government over the fouls, even of the justified, doth exercise great Rewards and great Punishments here.

here. And these are much more upon the foul within, than upon the body without; even the giving of more of the operations of his Spirit, is his great reward, & the with-holding, or denying its operations is his great Punishment. The sin which provoketh him is unthankful neglect of Convictions and holy per-Iwasions of the Spirit and much more wilful refistance of them: When we fin, it is not the bare fin that is all, as to the Act it felf, but especially the refisting of the Spirit which in that sin we were guilty of, which we pay dearest for; When the spirit convinceth us, reproveth us, and striveth with our hearts. and we will not yield but overcome it. And the punishment of withdrawing the Spirits Operations, is the more dangerous by how much the left perceived and lamented; usually the figus of this Judgment are, for men to lofe their Life and Love to Goodness by degrees, and to grow indifferent in the matters of God; To grow formal in Meditations, Exhibitations, and Prayer, and to keep up only an effected fervency. To grow stronger to God and the life to come, and more bold with fin, and more worldly wife to prove dury to be no duty, and fin no fin, and to plead for every fleshly interest. Many a true Christian that loteth not all Grace, yet cometh to so low a state of Faith, that Paith doth but Live, but afted not with the conquering and quickning vigour as it ought.

And, alas! I must tell you, that one gross sin, or many wilful leffer Sins, may so quench the Spirit, as that many a years time doth not recover it; nay with some it is never recovered in the same degree to their death, O if we knew what one hours fin may lofe us this way, we would not commit it for a world.

S. Alas! But what if I have quenched the Spirit, is there no way to recover it? What must I do?

P. You must deal faithfully with your felf by deep repentance, and free confessions; You must mark

what finful lust or affection bath got possession of your heart instead of holy spiritual affections; and you must fer upon the mortifying of those lusts resolvedly, especially you must get far enough away from the Temptations which have prevailed with you. You must note what declining you have made in cuty for matter of fervour; and you must set your self to all that duty which you have omitted. You must be much in Meditating on the greatest quickning truths and plead them oft and earnestly with your Soul. You must use (if possibly) the converse of lively spiritual Christians: And in a words the same means must be used again which God Llest to your quickning at first, especially carnest Prayer that God would restore that measure of his Spirits Operations which you have loft, and you must mark by what ways of Omisfion or Commission you quenched the spirit : And by the contrary must it be restored to you. And then in health and fickness you will have in you that heavenly fire, which will carry up your heart to God, and that Divine Nature which will make heaven and holiness connatural and suitable and desirable to you.

S. But how shall I know whether I have the spirit? Or whether I have more or less of it?

P. By the love of God, and holiness, and by the love of man and a defire to do good; For thefe are its proper works.

S. But how shall I know whether I love God truly?

P. By the love of God, and holiness, and by the Practice of it, and the thoughts How to know the Spirit, of your perfect holiness and heaven with Christ and his hoand the Love of God. ly Angels, in the perfect Love, Praise and Service of the most holy God, are all most pleasing to your Mind, and more defired by you than the Riches, Honours and fleshly Pleasures of this World: And when you long for the holiness of the World and the Prosperity of the Church, and the good of the Souls and Bodies of all Men, and hearti-Jy Pray for the hallowing of Gods Name and the Coming of his Kingdom, and the Doing of his Will on Earth as it is in heaven: And when doing all the good you can in the World, is you daily trade and pleasure. This is the sure evidence of the Love of God and of his Spirit.

S. I have heard far different signs of it from some, as if it lay in impulses, raptures, and revelation of more than is in the Scripture: And I have heard others much at all mention of the Spirit, as if there were no such thing, besides the effects of Nature, Art, Industry, and Imagination.

P. Between these two Malesactors the Church of Christ in all ages, hath been Crucified. But do you blefs God who hath given you that in (1) possession and experience, which others that have it not can hardly know. And yet it were caste for them, were they confiderate, to differn that the aforefaid Love of God and Mm is the true excellence of human nature; and that fome have it as I describe it, though not in perfection, and that no Men are brought to it; but by the Gospel and Gods special blefling on it, which is by the Operation of his Spirit.

VI. The fixth Direction to prepare for Death is, that You make it your chief care, to dwell continually in the sense of Gods Love; and be daily employed in fludying the greatest of it, in the Nature of God, and the Diffinctly note the parts of this Direction.

1. If you can but keep the fensible apprehension of God: (k) Love continually upon your heart, it must needs make Heaven definable to you, and the drawings of God's Love will overcome the fears of death.

2. Think much of the Infinite Perfection of God. Remember that his Goodness is equal to his Greatness; And what that is, Look up to the Heavens, and think of all the World, and you may see. Therefore he is called Love it self. And shall it be hard for a soul that desireth to please God to believe that Love it self doth Love him. and that infinite Goodness will be pleased with him in Christ?

3. The Son of God incarnate, in his whole work of Redemption, is to wonderful a Glass to reveal to man the Love of God, that (1) the studying of Christ doth as aptly tend to acquaint the Soul with Divine Love and Loveliness, as the greatest beneficence of the greatest friend doth tend to convince us of his

4. The (m) remembring all the great mercies of your lives, to your Souls and Bodies, in every place and state and company, will help to convince you, that he, that hath done all this for you, loveth you, and you may trust that God of Love at death, who hath filled up your lives with the benefits of his love.

y. And if you make (n) Praise and Thanksgiving to be half your prayers every day, and employ your heart and tongue still in them, this exercise of Love to God, will keep on your Soul a sweet apprehension of his Love to you, and make both health and sickness easie, if not full of delight.

VI. To live in the fense of Gods Love; and so in the exercise of Love to God, by Praise, and holy desires, and good works; is the very first struits and forecast of Heaven and Earth; and is a fruit of Believing, more excellent than Belief it self; and comforreth the Soul, and draweth it to God by the most powerful way, even by experimental taste of his Love and Goodness. And he will easiliest believe that there is a Heaven for him, who hath the beginning and forecasts of it already.

VII. And a great part of your Preparation lyeth in this, that you daily live as in Heaven while you areon Earth, by Faith, Hopt and Love, exercifed in Heavenly Contemplation.

If you live as a stranger to Heaven in health, you will be strange to it (it's like) in sickness: And the Soul will rather have terrour than pleasure in thinking of going to a strange Place, a strange God, strange Company, and strange Employment. Therefore Christ calleth us To lay up our Treasure in Heaven, Mit. 6. 20. That is to make it the work of our lives so to use all our present time and means and mercies, as may best make sure of the heavenly reward. And where your Treasure is, our Heaves will be, Mat. 6. 21. If you believe that you have a far greater happiness reserved for you with God, than this world assorbeth, Nature will teach you to desire your own happiness.

ness. And we are communded, Col. 3. 1, 2, 3, 4. 25 being risen with Christ to seek the things that are above, where Christ steeth on the right hand of God: To set our mind or effection on things above, and not on things on Earth, Because we are dead (to the world) and our Life (that is our felicity) is hid (or out of fight) with Christ in God (in the fight and truition of God in Heaven:) And when Christ who is our Life (casually and radically) shall appear (in his Glory to the fight of man,) then shall we also appear with him in Glory, (our happiness will be visible to all.) And Phil. 3. 20. it is said [Our Conversation] (or Burgetsthip, or City converse) is in Haven.]

Remember daily, that there is your Father, your Saviour, your Comforter, your Home, your Happin 1, your Chory, your Friends, your Interest, and your greatest business, You are already (0) Heirs and must quickly be possessions. (p) You are come to shown Sion, and to be city of the living God, the Heavenly ferusalem, and to an innumerable Gompany (or ten thussiands) of Angels, to the General Assembly, and Church of the soft born, which are carolled in Heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of Just men made perfect, and to Jesus the Mediator of the New Covenant and to the blood of sprinkling, which speaketh better things than Abels.

Therefore let me advite and intreat you, that you do all that you do in the World with Heaven still in your eye: Hear and read, and pray as if Heaven were open still before you: Relist Temptations, trade and follow your Ensine's in the World, as if Heaven were still in fight, as a Travellor holdeth on his fourney in remembrance of the End.

And spicially, use often to set your self purposely at seasonable hours (as you are able) to Meditate on the Heavenly Glory. And though we must form no Image in our minds of God himself, but think of him as an infinite Spirit, Infinitely powerful, wife and good, yet we may and must think by the help of Imagination of the Glorified Human Nature of Christ, and the Glorious state of Heaven it felf. And as, intuitively we here know out own Souls in Act, our Vitality, Understanding and Wills; so by knowing our selves, we may know in part, what God and Angels and holy Souls are. And as our Bodies thall be glorified, fo we may have answerable apprehensions of them, and where we may not think of Imagined Glories, (as, of the Light of the Sun, or shining Bodies) as if the Glory of Spirits were just the same, yet we may think of them. as (q) resemblances or similitude; As the new Jerusalem is described, Rev. 21. O 22. And from the sense and thoughts of all the Delights of Men on Earth, we may aggravate the unconceivable loys of Heaven.

Set therefore oft before your eyes, the certainty, the nearness, the greatness of that glory, think how many millions of holy Souls are there in Joy, while we are here in Fears and Cares; think of the excellent Servants of God who have passed thither through a world of tryals, and were lately compassed with such infirmities as ours, and passed through death, as we must do: remember that we go not an untrodden path, but are followers of all the spirit of the just think how much better it is with them than with us, how they are freed from all our sins and sufferings, doubts and sears: O think what it is for a perfected holy soul to see the gloristed Redeemer, and all the holy company of Saints and Angels, Yea to see the Glory of God himself, and to have the knowledge of all his Glorious Works: To feel his love poured out unto us, and to be rapt up, in Loving and Praising him for ever, in the most transcendent Joy and Pleasure of the Soul. Think of your holy acquaintance that are gone before you, and frequently fetch as it were a walk in the streets of the city of God; Suppose you saw their Glory, and heard their concordant praises of their Creator, Redeemer and Sanctifier. Let these kind of thoughts be so oft and serious, that they may be your daily Work and Pleasure, and the Conversation of your minds with God above.

And because your Heart will be backward drive it on, and as I told you about Meditation, you must use to Preach as it were to your self. Let Heaven be your subject: Convince your Heart with Evidence, urge it with Heavenly Motives, solace it with Heavenly Comforts; and when it is dull turn your thoughts by Petition to God, and beg his helps: Sometimes sprak to your selves, and sometimes Reverently to God; and thus keep a holy Communion and familiarity above; And this will make Heaven desirable to you at a dying hour.

Bur the fuller Directions for the practice of this dury I must refer you to in the fourth part of my Saints Ref.

VIII. The next Direction to prepare for Death is; That you mortifie the flesh in time of health, and see that nothing in this World be too dear and pleasing to you, and let not sense and imagination rule you.

If you be in Love with any thing here, you will be the lother to leave it: And if the flesh be too dear to you, it's suffering will be the more grievous, and you will be the lother to lay it to rot in the Earth. And if you use to live too much by sight and sense, you will grow so familiar with things sensible, and so through to things unseen, that you will scarce be able

o fee any further with the mind, that you can fee with your eyes; and scarce any thing will seem certain to you, or be effectual with you, which you see

But if you get your affections loose from the World, and mortifie the (r) flesh with its Affections and defires; and become indifferent to the things of sense; and the use to over-rule your sense by Faith, and live most upon unseen things, there will be little to entangle, and hinder the willingness of your departing Souls.

IX. Next I advise you, To Jettle well the flateof your Soul, by Examination and felf acquaintance, in a good afformace of your own fracerty; For as I told you, when you have overcome the doubts of the truth of Gods promites and the life to come, it will be the doubts of your own fincerity then, which will be your fear, and make you unwilling to die.

How you may do this I have told you oft and fully in a Book called, The Method for Peace of Confeience. At the present I shall add these brief Instructions.

1. By what Evidence or figns to judge I have here before oft told you; (f) Even by Faith working by Love to God and Man; Or by your true Confent to the Covenant of Graze, expressed in a holy obediene life. Particularly, I If God, to be seen and Loved in the joys of the Heavenly Glory, be the Chief End of your heart and life. 2. If Christ be taken for your only Saviour. 3. If you are desirous that by his Spirit he should perfectly Sanctiste you. 4. If you have no Sin but what you had rather leave than live in. 5. It you love the Word and Means which thould Sanctify you, and love a holy Life, and had rather have more Holines, than have all the Wealth and Pleasure of the World. 6. If you are willing to use God's means hereto. 7. If the main desire of your Heart and drift of your Life be to please God. 8. If you love God's Servants for their holiness, and desire the increase of holiness in the World, and labour to do good to the Souls and Bodies of others in your place as you are able: All these will prove the Truth of your Consent to the Covenant of God, and that you have his Spirit.

2. And having these certain Marks before you, examine your state impartially by them, as one that is going to the Judgment of God; and what you cannot do at one time, do at another; and cease not till you are able to conclude, that your Soul is sincerely devoted to God, and trustith on Christ for the Pardon of your Sins. And if you cannot satisfy your Conscience without help, advise with some able faithful Minister.

3. And when you see God's Graces evident in you, give him Thanks for them; and rejoyce in his Love, and watchfully study to keep and exercise and increase the Grace which he hath given you. And let not Satan make you still question all again at his pleasure.

4. Two extreams you must here carefully avoid, 1. Be not presumptuous and partial, and blinded by self-love, to think without proof, that all is well with you, meerly because you would have it so. 2. Keep not up a timorous scrupulous Disposition; like a childish Servant, who instead of doing his work as well as he can, do nothing but cry because he cannot do it to please his Master; as if when you sincerely defire to please God before your sless, and do your best or truly endeavour it, you could not believe that in Christ

Christ he will accept you: But are still thinking of God as an Enemy or cruel, that nothing can please but the death of Sinners.

When you have thus fettled the state of your foul, and can say, I know that I am passed from death to life. You are fortisted than against most of your Temptations, to sinful fears, and unwillingness to come to God.

X. The last part is more easily done. That is Scitle your worldly Estate and Assairs so, as one should do that is ready to depart. Make your will, that none may contend about your Estate when you are dead. If you have wronged any, make them restitution. If you are fallen out with any, be quickly reconciled, and forgive them.

To these I would have added that you learn before hand what temptations are like to assault you in sickness, and get particular defensative against them. But this I have spoken to before.

S. You have told me how to prepare for death in health.

I pray you tell me next how to prepare for it in fickness

P. I must not here overwhelm you with multitudes of directions, nor set you upon long and hard tasks of Meditation; for usually nature through pains and Sitkness. weakness, is unable for much work.

It is the time of health which is the working time. Yet because something is then to be do, especially by them that have longer sicknesses; which destroy not their reason I shall briefly advise such.

If it be one that is unto everted and unprepared before, Alas, what shall I say? The time is short, and the body week, i. By the unconand it is hard to know that their wirted.

are many things that such a man hath to Learn and Think on; and a great Change to be made before he can be saved! And is a little time of sickness sit for all this! But yet there is some Hope, and while there is life and hope we must do our best. To such therefore I say, Be it never so late, these three things must be done, or you are lost for ever.

1. You must be convinced not only that you are Sinners, but that you are Ungodly, Unconverted Sinners, and that Gods (t) Displeasing and Damnation is your due, till your humbled Souls do feel the need of a Saviour and Sanctifier.

2. When you feel that you are lost in mifery by sin, you must believe that Christ is a sufficient Saviour, who hath dyed for our fine, and is rifen and Glorified, and is our Intercellor with the Father, and hath made a Covenant that whoever truly (n) believeth in the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, and Repenterb of his finful life, and turneth to God, by his Son and Spirit, shall be pardoned and saved: And this Covenant is offered to you as well as others; And nothing but your obstinate refusal of Christ, and his fanctifying Spirit, Word and Grace, can deprive you of Pardon and Salvation: Therefore you must prefently and absolutely Confent, and give up your Selfy Soul and Body, to God the Father, to your Saviour and Sinclifier, to Justifie, Adopt, Sanctifie and fave you, reloiving if you recover, to live to God in a holy life, and not to the World, the Flesh, and the Devil; Even as if you were newly to be Baptized and vowed unto God.

3. You must think next of the Infinite Goodness of Gad; the Love which he hath shewed you in Christ, for Soul and Body; the mercifulness of his nature; the riches and certainty of his promises; and the unspeakable Glory which you shall have in Heaven with God and your Redeemer and his holy Angels, and Saints, if you refuse it not. O think what a blessed life it is to be for ever full of Joy in the Sight and Love and Praises of God in comparison of this life of Sin and Misery; Think of this goodness and Kingdom of God till your Heart, your Love it self be changed, and till you had rather have God in Heaven than to have all the pleasures of this world, for till then you are not sanctified, nor in a state of Salvation. All that is done by sear alone, till the Heart and Love be turn'd from Sin to God and Holiness, will not save you.

And feeing these three things must needs be had, or you are utterly undone, Pray hard for such a renewed heart your selves, and get others to pray for you; And know, that if your late Repentance have truly converted your Hearts from the Love of the World and Sin, to the Love of God and Heaven and Holiness, and you be such as would hold out if you should recover, you shall be saved how late soever it be. But if it be only the Resolution of a frightned Conficience, which would not bring forth a holy life, if you did recover, it will not fave you.

II. But if it be the Converted that I must direct for their further preparations their duty is as followeth.

1. Mistake not sickness and death, as it there were more harm in it, than there is indeed. Believe not slesh and sense in this, which cannot see into the (w) Love and Wisdom of God, which ordereth it; nor unto that quiet fruit of righteousness, which is the end. Sickness, is (though in its pains a fruit of fin, yet) now an Ordinance of God, on which you may confidently expect his bleffing, as on his Word and Sacraments. Labour therefore to get the benefit of it, to find out your fin, and repent of it, and abhor it, and fee more effectually the vanity and vexation of the world; and remember what a mercy it is, that man who is fo loth to die, should end his days in such pain and weakness, as make him weary himself, and make him the more willing to be dissolved. For though this alone without Faith and Love, will draw no mans heart to Heaven or fave him. yet fuch a help against the sinful Love of Life and Pear of Death, is no mercy. Get but the benefit of fickness, and experience will reconcile you to the providence of God, and prevent repining.

2. (2) Beg of God for the sake of your Redeemer such assistance and operations of his Spirit, as your low and weak condition needeth, and as are suitable to a dying man. He hath great belp and grace for great necessities.

3. Renew your Repentance and confessions of sin, and warn all about you to learn by your experience, and to set their hopes and hearts on Heaven, and to make it the work of all their lives to prepare for such a change, O tell them, what deceit and milchief you have found in sin! What Vaniry and Vexation you have found in the world! What Goodness you have found in God and Holiness! What comfort you have found in Christ, and his promises and the hopes of endless Glory! And what a miserable case you had now been in, if you had had no better a portion than this world, and nothing to comfort you but the pleafures of Sin; which now are all your shame and discomfort. Advise them to Live as they would Die, and tell them how little all the World doth signify to a dying Man: Call on them not to be deceived by such baits, as all dying Men since Adam have confessed to be but Vanity: Call on them to turn without delay, and not to pamper a Body for the Worms, but to set themselves presently with all their Hearts to receive their Saviour, and to obey his Spirit and Word, and to live to God, and to make much of their short uncertain time, and to make sure of everlasting Joys, whatever become of the Flesh and World.

4. Renew your believing thoughts of God's Love, and of all the Mercies of your Life, which he hath given you, instead of forrowing that they are at an end, rejoyce with thankfulness for what you have had; O think what a Mercy it is to be brought forth in a Land and Age of Light! To have had all the seaching and means and warnings and deliverances which you have had! And to have had that effectual Affistance of God's Spirit, which opened your Eyes, and turned you from Darkness to Light, and from the Power of Satan unto God! That all your Sins are pardoned through Christ and that you are reconciled to God, and adopted through hims and led by the Spirit to the Heavenly inheritance! O Triumph in that Love which hath thus delivered you, and brought you so near your Journey's (7) End, and faved you from fo many Tempations of Satan, and from the Flesh, and this deceitful World! Think on; and a great Change to be made before he can be laved! And is a little time of fickness fit for all this! But yet there is some Hope, and while there is life and hope we must do our best. To such therefore I say, Be it never so late, these three things must be done, or you are lost for ever.

1. You must be convinced not only that you are Sinners, but that you are Ungodly, Unconverted Sinners, and that Gods (t) Displeasure and Damnation is your due, till your humbled Souls do feel the need of a Saviour and Sanctifier. 2. When you feel that you are lost in mifery by fin, you must believe that Christ is a sufficient Saviour, who hath dyed for our fine, and is rifen and Glorified, and is our Interceffor with the Father, and hath made a Covenant that whoever truly (u) believeth in the Father, Son, and Holy Ghoft, and Repenteth of his finful life, and turneth to God, by his Son and Spirit, shall be pardoned and saved: And this Covenant is offered to you as well as others; And nothing but your obstinate refusal of Christ, and his fandlifying Spirit, Word and Grace, can deprive you of Pardon and Salvation: Therefore you must prefently and absolutely Confent, and give up your Selfy Soul and Body, to God the Father, to your Saviour and Sinclifier, to Justifie, Adopt, Sanctifie and fave you, resolving if you recover, to live to God in a holy life, and not to the World, the Flesh, and the and vowed unto God.

3. You must think next of the Infinite Goodness of God; the Love which he hash shewed you in Christ,

Davil; Even as if you were newly to be Baptized

The Pool Pan's Family Book. 373 for Soul and Body; the mercifulness of his nature: the riches and certainty of his promifes; and the unspeakable Glory which you shall have in Heaven with God and your Redeemer and his holy Angels, and Saints, if you refuse it not. O think what a blessed life it is to be for ever full of loy in the Sight and Love and Praises of God in comparison of this life of Sin and Mifery; Think of this goodness and Kingdom of God till your Heart, your Love it self be changed, and till you had rather have God in Heaven than to have all the pleasures of this world, for till then you are not sanctified, nor in a state of Salvation. All that is done by fear alone, till the Hears and Love be turn'd from Sin to God and Holiness, will not fave you.

And seeing these three things must needs be had, or you are utterly undone, Pray hard for such a renewed heart your selves, and get others to pray for you; And know, that if your late Repentance have truly converted your Hearts from the Love of the World and Sin, to the Love of God and Heaven and Holiness, and you be such as would hold out if you should recover, you shall be saved how late soever it be. But if it be only the Resolution of a fright sel Conficience, which would not bring forth a holy life, if you did recover, it will not save you.

II. But if it be the Converted that I must direct for their further preparations their duty is as followeth.

1. Mistake not sickness and death, agit there were more harm in it, than there is indeed. Believe not slesh and sense in this, which cannot see into the (w) Love and Wildom of God, which ordereth

2. (2) Beg of God for the fake of your Redeemer fuch assistance and operations of his Spirit, as your low and weak condition needeth, and as are suitable to a dying man. He hath great help and grace for great necessities.

3. Renew your Repentance and confessions of sin, and warn all about you to learn by your experience, and to set their hopes and hearts on Heaven, and to make it the work of all their lives to prepare for such a change, O tell them, what deceit and mischief you have found in sin! What Vanity and Vexation you have found in the world! What Goodness you have found in God and Holiness! What comfort you have found in Christ, and his promises and the hopes of endless Glory! And what a miserable case you had now been in, if you had had no better a portion than this world, and nothing to comfort you but the plea-

fures of Sin; which now are all your shame and discomfort. Advise them to Live as they would Die, and tell them how little all the World doth signify to a dying Man: Call on them not to be deceived by such baits, as all dying Men since Adam have confessed to be but Vanity: Call on them to turn without delay, and not to pamper a Body for the Worms, but to set themselves presently, with all their Hearts to receive their Saviour, and to obey his Spirit and Word, and to live to God, and to make much of their short uncertain time, and to make sure of everlasting Joys, whatever become of the Flesh and World.

4. Renew your believing thoughts of God's Love, and of all the Mercies of your Life, which he hath given you, instead of forrowing that they are at an end, rejoyce with thankfulness for what you have had; O think what a Mercy it is to be brought forth in a Land and Age of Light! To have had all the teaching and means and warnings and deliverances which you have had! And to have had that effecual Affistance of God's Spirit, which opened your Eyes, and turned you from Darkness to Light, and from the Power of Satan unto God! That all your Sins are pardoned through Christ and that you are reconciled to God, and adopted through him, and led by the Spirit to the Heavenly inheritance! O Triumphin that Love which hath thus delivered you, and brought you so near your Journey's (y) End, and faved you from so many Tempations of Satan, and from the Flesh, and this deceitful World! of his who hath endeavoured, in fincerity, though in finful weakness, to his will, and hath a high Priest interceding for him in Heaven, be assaid to go to such a God? What can encourage and draw up a Soul is Infinite Goodness cannot do it? If God were but as Loving as my dearest Friend: If he were but as Good and Amiable as the Sun is Light and Glorious, as the Heavens are spacious, as the Earth is sirm, as the Sea is Deep, should I not joyfully give up my Soul into his hands? And considently yield to his disposal? And searless come to him at his Call? O that we knew the Goodness of God! What a full content and satisfaction would it be to us? And turn our fears into fervent Love, and earnest longings for his glory?

1. Will you not trust the God and Father of your Spirits, who is Love it felf? Will you not trust your Saviour, that hath faved your so far already; and hath faved to many millions before you? Trust him with his own: Believe ir, he loved you better than you love your felf. He is as loth that you should de damned as you are to be damned, and more willing to fave you than you are to be faved ; O woe to you if through all your life he had not shewed himself more willing than you! Trust him against all the accusations of the Law! Trust him as the satisfier of Gods Legal Justice! Trust him as the Meriter of life eternal! As the Justifier of those that could not be justihed by the Law of Innocency; and their righteous works! As the Mediator of the New Covenant, fealed by his blood, by which free forgiveness and Life is given to all true believers! Trust him as the King and Judge of all; and as the Advocate of the faithful, and our great High Priest who intercedeth, for us, and hath himfelf possession of the Glory to which

5. Now steep your Souls in the believing thoughts of the Heavenly Glory, to which you are going. O now remember that the Time is but short, till you shall fin no more, and fear no more, and suffer no more: Till you shall know God and his Works, not only as much as you can now defite, but as much as then your heart can wish, and your enlarged capacity receive: Till you shall Love him more than now you can defire to love him; and your Joy shall be greater than now you can conceive and wish: When God shall be more to your Soul for ever, than the Sun is to your eyes, or your Soul is to your body! O what an hour will it be, when you shall be newly entered into the City of God, the Heavenly Society, and fing your first Song of joyful Praise in the blessed Choire, to God and to the Lumb! O what an enemy, what an unreasonable thing That can make us stand trembling without the doors, and afraid to enter, while millions of our Brethren are rapt up with triumphant Joys within! while our M Lord prepareth us our place, and with all his holy Angels is definous of our presence, and the Heavenly Host will welcome us with Joy.

he hath premised to bring us!

And, 2. Tiust him implicitly and absolutely, and give over Eve's desire of Knowing Good and Evil for your self! We little consider how much that Desire did letin at once Corruption and Calamity upon the nature of Mankind! When Adam and Eve should have only desire to know Gods perfection of Power, Wildow and Geodness, as the first and last, the shuntain and end of all our good; and to know their own Relation to him and their duty, expetting his Love (which is better than Life) upon their Love and Obedience; they were tempted to Selfishness and Independency, and to leave their Trust and and Rest in God, and to desire to be their own Garavers, and as Gods to themselves; like a Child that instead of trusting his father for his sood and rayment, must become judge what is best for himself; Or like a Patient who instead of trusting his Physitian, and Obediently taking what he giveth him, must needs know the Ingredients of his Medicines, and the reasons of them all; Thus soolish man fell from God to himself, and not putting all his Trust in God, would seign be his own Guide, and Judge and Carver, and take that care of his own assairs, which belonged not to himself but unto God. And as this misguideth all our lives, so this tormenteth us with cares and fears in life and at death.

But Christ came to recover us from our felves to God. Care then how to know your Creator and Redeemer, his Power, Wisdom and Love. Care how to trust him with soul and body and to do your duty; And then (2) care for no more; But leave soul and body more quietly and comfortably to his love and will, then if they were absolutely at your own will, to be, and do, and have what you would wish. For God is firter to choose for you, and to disspose of you than you.

Take not then one careful thought, of the corruption of your field, or of any of the amazing unfearchable difficulties of the nature of spirits, and the things unfeen, which overwhelm and bewilder those that must know Good and Evil themselves. But Rest your soul in the Will of God through your Redeemer! In that will which is Infinitely Good, and which is the Beginning, Guide, and End of all things, and the only felicitating Rest of Souls.

7. Let all these holy Assertions be exercised in your Expressions, if your diseases allow you an expressing strength. Magnise Gods Goodness, and speak good of his name and word and ways; not by a dissembled assectation, but from your heart: Make others to see that there is a reality in the comforts of Faith and Hope; and that the death of the righteous is so desirable, as maketh their lives desirable also. Your tongues are given you to praise the Lord, they have but a little while more to speak; Let their last work be done to his glory, as strength will bear. Tell men what you have found him, and speak of the Glory of his Kingdom which you epxect, that the Hopes and Desires of others may be excited.

And turn your last Words to God himself in Prayer and Praises, beginning the work which you must do in Heaven. Imitate your dying Lord. Luke 23. 46. (Father into thy Hands I commend my Spirit) And his suff Martyr, Act. 7. 59. (Lord Jesus receive my Spirit.)

INSTRUCTIONS

To be Read by the Master of the Family to them, or by themselves, especially the Opprepared.

"HOSE happy Persons who have made it the chief care and butine is of their lives to be always ready for a dying hour, have leaf need of my present council; It is therefore those unhappy fouls, who are yet undepend, whom I shall now fa-Arnal. AndOthat the Lord would blefs these words; and perfivade them yet, 'ere Time be gone.

Hin had not bewirched men, and made them Monflers of figifelelisels and unbelief, it could not be that an Endless life to ture, fo near, could be to foreithly made light of all their lives, as is by most, rill they orreceive that Death is ready to furprize them: Bur, poor finner if this have been thy Cafe, supposing than thou art unwilling to be damned, I carneftly increas thee in the Name of Christ, for the fake thy Immorral foul, that thou wile prefently lay to hearr these instructions, before Time and Hope are gone for ever.

I. At the last bethink thee what thou we? And for what End and Work thou carrieft into the World? Thou are a man of Reafon, and not a Bruit; and haff a Soul which was made to Know, and (a) Love, and Serve thy maker; and that not in the second Place, with the leavings of the flish; but in the first place, and with all thy Heart and Might. If this had been indeed thy Life, G d would have been thy portion, thy Father, and thy Defence, and thou mightest have lived in peace and comfort, and then have liv'd with God for ever. And should not a Creature live to the Ends and Uses which it was made for? Must God give thee all thy powers for Himfelf, and wilt thou turn them from him, to the fervice of the flesh, and that when thou hadst vowed the contrary in thy Baptism; How wilt thou answer for such treacherous ungodliness?

(a) Deut. 6.5. & 10.12. & 11.1,13.

II. It is time for thee now to have ferious Thoughts of the life which thou art going to. If thou could ? fleepily forget it all the way, it is time to awaken when thou comest almost there. When thy friends are burying that flesh in the earth, which thou didst more regard than God and thy Salvation, thy Soul must appear in an (b) endless world, and see those things which God foretold thee of, and thou wouldst not believe, or fet thy heart upon. As soon as Death hath opened the Curtains, O what a fight must thou presently behold! A world of angels and of holy souls adoring and praising, and admiring that God, whom thou didst refuse to mind, and love, and serve; a world of Devils and damned fouls in corment and despair, bewailing their contempt of Christ and Grace, their neglect of God and their Salvation; their serving the Flesh, and loving the World, and wilfully losing the time of Mercy, and all the means which God vouchfafed them. Believe it Sinner there is an endless Joy and Glory for the Saints, and an (c) Endless Mifery for all the ungodly; and one of these must quickly be thy case. Thy state is changeable while thou are in the Flesh : If thy Son be miserable, there is yet a Redemy; it's possible; Christ may renew and pardon it; But as foon as thou goeft hence, thou enterest into a state of Joy or torment which must never change; no not when millions of years are past. And dost not thou think now in thy conscience that such an Endless Misery should have been prevented with greater care and diligence, than all the fufferings of this life; And that the attaining of fuch an Endless Glory, had been worth thy greatest care and labour. And that it is far better to fee the Glory of God, and be filled with his Love, and joyfully praise him with his Saints and Angels for evermore, and by a holy life to have prepared for this; then to please the Flesh, and follow the World a little while, and be undone for ever? Hast thou got more by the World and Sin. than Heaven is worth? Thou art almost at the end of Worldly pleasures, and hast all that ever they will do for thee; but if God had had thy service, he would not thus have cast thee off! and his Rewards and Joys would have had no end. O how much happier are the bleffed Souls in Heaven than we?

III. And seeing you are so near to the Judgment of God where your Soul must receive it's final Sentence, it is high time now to (d) Judge your felf, and know what (e) estate your Soul is in; whether in a flate of juflification or of Domination? For this may be certainly known if you are willing. And first you must know, whom they be whom Christ will Justifie, and whom he will Conderm? And this the Word of God will tell you; for he will Judge them by That Word, in a word, "All thole whom Christ will "Juffific and fave, are made new(f) creatures by the renewing work of the Holy Ghoft: Their (g) eyes are "opened to fee the vinity of this world, and the "certainty and excellency of the Glory of Heaven; and to fee the odiquinels of finand the goodness of a "boly life; and to believe that christ is the (b) only " Englow to cleanfe them from their fins, and bring "them to that Glory; And therefore they forfake "the finful (1) pleatures of the fleth, and fet their (1) Thearts on the everlifting bleffednely, and feek it be-"fore all things, and lamenting and hating their former has, they give themselves fincerely to their God and Bather, their Saviour and their Sanctifier, to be "(1) taught and ruled, juffified, (m) fanctified, and Taved by him refolving, whatever it (n) cost the slesh to fland to this Choice and Covenant to the death. This is the case of all that Christ will justifie and fave the rest who never were thus renewed and fanctifi. ed, will be (0) condemned, as fure as the Gospel is time. Therefore let it be speedily your work to try, whether this be your cale or not. Have you been thus enlightned, convinced and renewed, to believe in Chifft, and the life to come, and to give up your felf in a faithful Covenant to God your Father, your Saviour and Sanctifier, to hate your fin, and to live and love a holy life, in mortifying the flesh, and feeking Heaven before the World? It this be not your Cafe, I should but flatter and deceive you, to tell you of any hope of being faved till you are thus renewed, and justified. Never imagine a lie, to quiet you till help is pass. No one that is unregenerate or unholy, shall ever dwell with God. Yet you may be saved, if yet you will be truly converted and sanctified; but without this assured;

IV. Therefore I counsel you in the Wame of Christ, to look back upon your (p) sinful life with forrew; not only because of the danger to your felf, but also because you have offended God! What think you now. of a finful and of a holy life? Had it not been barten that you had valued Christ and Grace, and lived in , the love of God, and in the joyful hopes of the life to come, and denied the finful defires of the flesh, and. been ruled by the Law of God, and spentiyour sime. in preparing for Evernity. Do you not heartily wish that this had been your course? Would you take this courfe, if it were to do again, and Godiccover you? Report, report, from the bottom of your heart, of the time you have loft, the mercy you have abused, the grace you have refifted of all your fleshly, worldly defires, words and dieds, and that you gave not up your foul and life to the Love of God, and life Eternal.

V. And now refolve (q) give up your felf in a hearty Covenant to God! Though it be late, he will yet accept and pardon you, if you do it in fincerity. Take God for your God, your portion and felicity, to live in his love and praise for ever; take Christ for your Sayiour to teach, and rule, and judific you, and bring you unto God; and the Holy Spirit for your San-Etifier; And certainly he will take you for his Child. But see that you be truly willing of his Grace, and refolved never to forfake him more. O happy Soul, if at last the Lord will make this (r) change upon thee! And I'le tell you dertainly how to know, whether this late Repentance will ferve for your falvation, or not? If it be but fear only that caufeth your Repentance, and the Heart and Will be not reviewed, but you would turn again to a fleshly worldly. and ungodly life, if you be recovered, then it will never fave your Soul: But if your Heart, your Will, your Love be changed, and this change would hold, if God recovered you to health again, then doubt not of Pardon and Salvation.

VI. And if God have thus changed your heart, and drawn it to himself, be thankful for so great a mercy. O bless him for giving you a Redeemer and a Sanklisier, and the pardoning Covenant of Grace! And now be not assaid or lorh to (f) leave a sinful world, and come to God. Pray harder for Grace and Pardon than for life. Committend Trust your Soul to Christ: He had never done so much for Souls, if he had not loved them, and been willing to receive them. How wonderfully came he down to man, to bring up

These will break forth into triumphant and harmonious thanks and praise in the presence of our glorified Redeemer, and in Concord with all the heavenly Hoft, the bleffed Angels, and the Spirits of the Juft. This is the End of Faith and Holiness, Patience and Perseverance : When Hell is the end of Unbelief, Ungodlinefe, Senfuality and Hypocrifie. How justly are they condemned who fell their part of endless Joys, for a shadow and dream of transitory pleasures: And can delight more in the filth of fin, and in a fading Vanity, than in the Love of God, and the fore-thoughts of Glory! What Love can be too great? What Defires too fervent? What Prayer and Labour can be too much? What sufferings too dear for such a Blessedness?

The Short CATECHIM.

Quest. 1. What is the Christian Religion?

The Christian Religion is the Baptismal Covenant made and kept; wherein God the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, doth give Hamfelf to be our reconciled God and Father, our Saviour and Sanctifier; And we believingly give up our selves accordingly to Him, renouncing the kieshe the World and the Devil. Which Covenant is to be offerenewed, especially in the Sacrament of the Lords Supper.

Ouest. 2. What is our Covenant Part, and duty feller opened?

In the Lord's Prayer, as the sum of our Belief. 2. In the Lord's Prayer, as the sum of our Delives. 3. And in the Ten Commandments; (as given us by Christ, with the Gospel explications) as the sum of our Practice. Which are as followeth.

The CREED.

Believe in God the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and Earth; And in Jefus Christ his only from our Lord, which was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pentius Pilate, was Crucified, dead and Buried, he descended into Hell, the third Days he tole again from the dead, he ascended into Deaven, and first hon the right hand of God the Father Aimighty, from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead: I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Maly Catholick Church, the Communion of Saints, UR Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be the thy Name; Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on Earth, as it is in Heaven; Give us this day f our daily bread. And forgive our trespasses as we forgive chem that trespais against us; And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; For thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory for ever. Amen.

The Ten Commandments.

I. T Am the Lord thy God which have brought I thee out of the Land of Egypt, out of the House of Bondage; Thou shalt have no other Gods before me. II. Thou fluit not make unto thee any graven Image, or any likenets of any thing that is in Heaven above or that is in the Earth beneath, or that is in the Water under the Earth, thou shalt not bow down thy felf to them, nor serve them; For I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the Fathers upon the Children unto the third and fourth Generation of them that hate me, and flewing mercy unto thoutands of them that love me and keep my Commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guilders that taketh his Name in vain-

X. Thou shalt not cover thy Neighbours House, thou shalt not covet thy Neighbours Wife, nor his Man-servant, nor his Maid-servant, nor his Ox, nor his Ass, nor any thing that is thy Neighbours.

Quest. 3. Where is the Christian Religion most fully

Answ. In the hely Scriptures, especially of the New Testament: Where, by Christ, and his Apofiles and Evangelists inspired by his Spirit, the His story of Christ and his Apostles is sufficiently delivered, the Promiles and Doctrine of Faith are perfected, the Covenant of Grace most clearly opened, and Church-Offices, Worship and Discipline established; in the understanding whereof, the strongest Christic, ans may increase whilst they live on Earth-

A SHORT CATECHISM for those that have learned the first.

Quest. 1. W H A T do you believe concerning Infinite Spirit of Life, Understanding and Will, most perfectly Powerful, Wise and Good, The Father, the Word, and the Spirit; The Creator, Governour and End of all things, our Absolute Owner, our most just Ruler, and our most Gracious and most Amiable Father.

1. The word [GOD] fignifieth both the Nature and the Relations.

1. Gods Nature or Essence is not known to us in it. felf immediately, but in the gloss of the Creatures, as the Cause in the effects; And especially by Gods Image on our own Souls. Therefore we have no names or words of God, but fuch as are borrowed from Creatures, as the first things signified in our use of them. Though God only be signified by them in this our application. Therefore we are fain to describe God in terms. 1. Of generical notion. 2. Of formal or special notion. 3. Of accidental notion. Though God is not properly matter or form, genus or species, not accident. 1. The generical notion is, that he is a SPIRIT, which include the more general notions; of a SUBSTANCE and a BEING, as distinct from accidents and nothing. A SPIRIT chiefly fignifieth (not only Negatively, that which is no Body, but also Politively) a pure Substance transcending our sensitive conception or apprehension; which some call Metaphylical Matter; for before we think what form or virtue a Spirit is possessed of, we think of it as fomething fulfactial, though not corporeal. But of the substance of a SPIRIT, as

The Pool Man's Family-Book. 399 different from a Body before we come to the formal virtues, we can have no fatisfying conception but its Purity and transcending the most perfect sense. What ever some say of Penetrability and Indivisibility (which are also considerable!) If any say, that the true nature of Fire is a Spirit, and so that a spirit is sensible. as far as motion, light and heat are, I only fay, if that were true, yet motion, light and heat are not sensed by us in pure fire, but only as from fire incorporate, in Air at least. But the word [SPIRIT] also includeth the formal special Notion of it, by which we most clearly discern it from a Body, called Matter; in which is included the three notions of Power, Force (Vis) and Inclination; and all together may be called A Virtue; So that to be a Pure Substance transcending fense not accidentally having, but naturally being, an active vital virtue, is to be a SPIRIT.

2. But though this formal Notion be included in the word SPIRIT, yet it is of distinct Conception from Essence and Substance. And this One formal Virtue in GOD is wonderfully, yet certainly Three in One, that is, I. Vital Actual Virtue. 2. In-This Spiritellective Virtue. 3. Volitive Virtue. tual Virtue is not an Accident in God, but his Essence; nor his Essence as Essence, but his Effence in its formal or specifick notion as distinct from other Effences. It is One Substantially and formally: It is Three as Active on a Three-fold Object, or by Connotation of the Object at the least. this we certainly gather from our Souls, which are Gods Image (of which anon.) And yet the word [SPIRIT] Understanding, Will and Life of Man, fignificathat which is not all of the same kind or fort, with that which the same words fignishe of God: But yet there is in us an Image of what is in God.

And when I speak of Active Vertue, it must be remembred, that it is another property of Spirit, that, lie is not pallive from a body, or any inferiour nature; | For all Action proceedeth orderly from the first Active Cause, and to down: God workerh upon all things: An intellectual Spirit can operate on n Sensitive, and that on a Negative, and that (as the rest) on Passive matter of Bodies, but not contracily

3. Though we are fain to use names of God, which fignifie bur Modes and Qualities in men, and so mention Powerful, Wife and Good; yet these in God are his very Effence, under the notion of Mu-

4. As we think of Creatures in respect of Quantity, and Degrees as well as Kind, fo we are fam to mention God's Attributes, and I comprehend a multitude in one, which is in Infinitencis of Perfections, which have the same signification, saving that one founded better as applied to Effice, and the other as to Quality. When I fay that God is Infinite it respect the a Durwion or Time, and for it his Ecorrity as O. Space and Extension, by analogy to which it is his Inequality. 器 Souls, and fo in God.

2. The Relations of God, respect his Greatures, 1. In their Being; and so he in 1, Fundamentallytheir G R E A T O R. 2. And thence their OWNER. 2. Or in their Well-being, and fo he is their BENEFACT OR, or the fift onle of all their good. 3 Or their Action, and to he is, 1. The MOVER. 2. The RULER, And 3. The END of every thing in its kind; but of Man in a special manner agreeable to his intellectual Nature. But the moral Relations which we have her reasons practically to Note, are all comprehended in the word [FATHER] which fignifieth that he is foundamenrally our CREATOR; and thence, 1. Our OWNER. 2. Our RULER. 3. Gur most AMIABLE GOOD, For a Father giveth being to his Child; and thence by Nature the Child is his own, and being uncapable of felt government, it is the Eather who hather. That Authority, 2. Wifdom. 3. And Love which maketh him racet to be the Ruler: And nature teacherh the Child to love his Father, as the cause of his very being. But in this Lift confideration God is more than a Enthersand is to be loved more than our fe'ves and more for his own Goodreft, which is his Amiableness, than for our selves. I hid put the Word [Friend] for the third Relation, as being most shorr and full to the sense intended, but ther it will be thou ht to found too familiarly; though zibraham and Christs Disciples have that Title.

The Actribute of God as our Owner is Absolute, and as our Ruler he is Just in which is Truch, which in the Justness of his fayings is included : And as our Pather and Friend he is doubly confidered, i. As Good to us and fo he is Gracious (or Loving and Merciful.) 2. As Good in Himfolf; and fo he is our Ultimate End, and that the Ultimate Object of our Love

Love, where the Soul resteth in the perpetual act of loving him, and in feeling his love, and this is the highest notion of Gods Relation to us, and of all

Note, That the Attributes of God must not be cast together on a heap, but distinctly said down. First, The Attributes of his Essence, (that he is One, Eternal, Immense, Necessary, Independent, Immutable, &c.) Then the Attributes proper to each Person, and those proper to each Active Principle, (which summarily are Perfession,) and the Atributes of Gods Relations, which are so very many, that I may not here stay to name any more.

The proof that there Is a God, is so evident in nature, that he is well called a Fool in Scripture: Pfal. 14 1. who denieth it. All things which we see in the World preach God to us, telling us, that they have a Goase above them and in them, which must needs be able to make and uphold the world (because we see that it is made and uphold, while every part is insufficient for it self, and no part made it self:) And he must have as much wisdom as is visible in the Essets, in the order of the Universe; and more goodness than all the World hath, because it hath none but from its sirst cause. So that One most powerful, wise and good sirst cause, that is GOD, is so notorious Reason, that he is mad that questioneth it.

And this GOD can be but ONE, because Two Infinites, Two Almighties most Wise, most Good, and sufficiently the Sec. is a contradiction. For if there be Two, One is but Half, and so not Infinite or Perfect: And that One is not the Cause of the other, nor his

That God is Immense, is evident; Because all the World must be contained in Him; else he had made that which is greater than Himself, and open ratesh

rateth where he is not. And he can have no bounds who hath nothing to bound him, and hath no proper locality. And he that is infinite in Duration, must be so too in Degree or Essence.

That God is Eternal, is most evident; Because else there was a Time imaginable before there was a God, and so before any thing. And then there never would have been any thing. For nothing can make nothing. The rest I pass by.

I must tell the Reader here, that though this first Leffen, what God is, be the hardest and highest in Divinity, yet order commandeth us to fer it fish: And till God be known, nothing is well known. Therefore I advise you to read this over, and understand as much of it as you can, and then pass unto the rest. And when you have gone through all once back again and learn this better. For God is as the Sum, most certainly known, but least comprehended and Rill most anknown. He is the First and Last: You must begin and end with him. You must know something from him, that you may know Christ, and the Scripture, that you may know more of God: For all other knowledge is but a means to help you to Know him (love and serve Him,) in which you must still grow to the last, till you come to the world of true Perfe-Elion.

Quest. 2. What believe you of the Creation, and the nature of Man, and the Law which was given to him?

Ansiv. GOD created all the World: And made MAN in his own image, an imbodied Spirit of Life, Understanding and Will, with holy Liveliness, Wildom and Love: to Know and Love; and Serve his Maker here and for ever, and gave him the inferiour Creatures for his use; But forbad him to eat of the Tree of Knowledge, upon pain of Death.

1. To Create is to make nothing, in the first hostion: And to God created only Spirits, and the Elements, Fire, Air, Water and Barth: But all the rest of his works he made of these, (as the Sun and Moon, and Stars, (90.) which is creating in the second notion, because they never were before.

2. The whole world which God made, is to usincomprehensible; It's like that is but a small part of it which we see; we know not how much more is unseen; And no part is perfectly known by Mortal: But we may have so much knowledge of all, as is needful to the ends of our own Creation in this imperfect state; And to spend our days in searching after more, is but to lose and neglect things possible and prositable, while we seek things impossible and upprositable; and so trouble our selves and the world with pretentions and contentions about meer Names. But all the true knowledge of God's Works which we can really attain, is uleful to us, though in great diversity of degrees.

termine not that body is a part of him; but only that the Soul or Spirit is to Noble a part as that the Body is but a habitation and fervant to it, (though a part of the Man) being made of the common pal-five Elements.

4. Image of God on Man, is three-fold, or bath three parts. 1. Natural; the Image of God's Perefection or Holinels. 2. Moral. 3. Dominion which.

is the Image of Gods Dominion over all-

A. In Gods Natural Image mans foul hath a notable Trinity in Unity. 1. In one Soul there are the vegetive, fenfitive, and intellective Powers. 2. In one superior intellectual Soul as such, there is the Virtue of superior Life (or Vital Assivity) and the Virtue of Understanding and of Free-Will. The Will is not the Understanding, the Will, nor the

The Pool Pan's Family-Book. 405 wital Power either Understanding or Will; Nor is any one of these a part of the Soul. But the whole Soul is Life, the whole is Understanding, and the whole is Will; yet not wholly; that is, no one of these words express all that is effectial to the Soul.

2. The Moral Image of God on the Soul is nothing but the restitude of health of these three Baculties, which is their holiness; that is, r. The holy Liveliness of the vital faculty (when it is lively towards God.) 2. The holy Wiscom of the Understanding (to know God) 3. The love of God and Goodness, which

3. Our Dominion over other Greatures, is the Image of Gods dominion; by which we are in Their Owners (under God;) And they are our own. 2. Their Governours under God, according to their Capacities; And they are ordered by us. 3. Their Benefallers under God, (we provide for them, feed them, manure the Ground;) And their End, under God; They are given us for our Use.

4. The End of Man's nature, evident in the faculties aptitude thereto, is (as t. In general, GOD who is the End of all things; fo 2. Specially HO-LINESS, or living to God; That is, 1. To know God practically. To love him. To ferve him. God maketh nothing in vain; much lots the Nobler Natures; when he made mans nature capable, and apt to know, love, and ferve him, it plainly telleth us, that he made him for that Ufe. Those therefore who deny this to be Natural to Adam, deny Humanity, and make man a bruit by nature, and suppose supernatural Grace to come after, and make Adam, as of another Species; as if Grace only made him a Man. And they that deny man to have such societies, know not what a Man is.

5. Mans foul being made apt for perpetual dura- fore all holy necessary knowledge of God and his own tion, is truly said to be Immortal. For God having duty; with which had he been content, he had been made it a simple Spirit, it is not liable to dissolution of Bhappy; But that God had really made this Fruit apt parts, and corruption of substance; Therefore if it to breed in Man a subtle and inquisitive wit, and perish, it must be by Annihilation, or by turning it sthat kind of needless, troublesom knowledge which into another Species of being; both which being opera- multiplieth fin and forrow still in the World; such tions or effects which must be contrary to the offablished course of Nature, it is not to be supposed that God will do them, though he can.

6. Bur man confissing of Soul and Body, was not fo immertal as his foul is: Yet God could have perpetuated his life; yea, and would have done it fo far as that he should not have died, had he not sinned, but it is most probable that he should at a certain period of time have been changed; As Henoth and Elias were, and Christ at his Ascension; and the Saints shall be who are found alive at Christs coming, and it's like the bodies that role and appeared at Christs death were so in their ascension.

7. Seeing the Soul, yea Adam, was to be thus for Immortal, his Felicity must be so coo; which is no other than the perfecting of his Knowledge, Love and Service of God in his perfected flate. And therefore briefly I fum up all in [Here and for ever.]

8.It pleased God to try and exercise Adam's Obedience by forbidding him the Fruit of One Tree; on pain of death. But this politive Law presupposed the Law of Nature, which is not mentioned as Spoken to man, because it was in the very Nature of him and the Creatures compared together, which objectively fignified to him what was Gods will as to his duty; from which fignification his duty did refule.

9. Why it is called the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil, is very hard to know. It's faid by most, because by it he was to have the sad experimental knowledge of Good by the lofs of it, and of Evil by the feeling of it. Others hold, that Adam had be-as is a great, deal of the present Philosophy, and vain formalities of Sciences, and wordy wrangling Craft; And the prefumptous distrussful search into Gods secrets, and into that which is not our part but his; as if the Patient must needs know all that the Physician giveth him, and why. And it seemeth that fome addition of knowledge fin brought them; And doubtless it was not of the good of Duty, nor a holyknowledge; but an afflicting unnecessary apprehenfion of natural Good and Evil.

10. The death threatned is all that penal evil that mans nature was capable of, which is, 1. The defertion of the finful Soul. 2. The pain and dissolution of the body. 3. The perpetuity of the Soul suffering, at least, it being a capable subject, without a

Quest. 3. What believe you of Mans fall into sin and

Answ. Man being tempted by Satan, did by wilful finning fall from his Holiness, his Innocency, and his Happinels, under the Justice of God, the condemnation of his Law, and the flavery of the Flesh, the World and the Devil; When finful, guilty and miserable Natures are propogated to all Mankind; and no meer Creatures is able to deliver us.

1. It was Satan in the Serpent that tempted Eve: And Satan by Eve (having by her fin got Power to use her as his Instrument) that tempted Adam 2. Man finned not till he was tempted. But he was but tempted and not forced to fin; much less was he forced or necessitated to it by God himself. 3. God could have made man indeficielle, or prevented his Fall; But he is no more bound to rell us why he did not, than to tell us why he made not all men Angels, or all Beatls Men. But we know that we will be no lofer by it; but equally be glorified, and pleafed in the way of recovering Grace, 4. God gave man free will which was mutable; and not unchangeable in holinels. For he would have fuch a free will to be the Subject of his outhly Government, which is but preparatory to a perfect and an unchangeable flare; Not that an undetermined murable Will is our Perfection, but fitted to this life and work which God would have to be a lower degree and way to Perfection. And free will was the first caute of sin, by an emission of its dury, and then by an ill determination of it felf, (Though Objects and Temptations) and the undestinding and fentes apprehensions were Anticadent, and Occasions.

5. The very de of far was a deputing from Iblineft, Innocency, and from Happiness; in it sell become ing mans Unbolineft, his Gall and Mifery,

5. Hercupon without any change, yet or all of God. 1. The Juffee of God flood related to the finner, as to one to whom death by right was due. 2. And the Law (without any change in it) did virtually condemn him, 3. And by God, hare permittion and defertion, the Flesh, World and Devil, which had tempted him, and overcome him, obtained a greater power to tempt and overcome him more, till the Spirit of God should recover and deliver him.

7. The three forementioned Eals which Alam contracted to himself, are all Propagated by him to his posserity. By natural Propagation Insants are 1. Policid with a finful Pravity. 2. Guilty both of that, and in their kind of Alam's sin. 3. And misterable by this sin and guilt, and the three forementioned penal consequents. To all which it is wonderful, derful to confider well, how much is done by the finner himfelf, and how little by God, either as to fin or punishment.

8. They that deny Original Sin, go against plain Scripture, Reason, and the experience of Mankind: And do make Infants saved without a Saviour, ei-

9. It is an Error to lay our guilt of Adams fin upon any fuch supposed Covenant, Will or arbitrary Imputation of God, which chargeth more on us, than we were Naturally guilty of. God doth neither make men finners by Imputation, who are not fo in themselves, nor judge falfly that men did what they did not. Adam was a publick Person, first naturally, and then reputatively: We were not then in him as Persons; and therefore sinned not in him as diffinet Perfons, nor are reputed by God fo to have done: But we were in him virtually and sconnally; not as a house is in the Workman, as its cause by art; but as those whose essence is generated by his effence: And as all of us that was then in him was guilty then, fo when we become Perfons, those Perfour are then guilty, as becoming now personal Subjetts of it; And all our personality is derived from a defiled, guilty and miferable Sinner, who can generate no essence or persons better than he was himself. But yet the due difference between the Principal Agent and his Off-ipring must be still acknowledged.

ro. The guilt which from our nearest Parents we contrast also (with such additional pravity and penalty as our natural Capacity, and the tenor of the new Covenant allow) is too sadly overlooked by most Divines, contrary to the whole scope of Scripture, from the days of Coin, to the rejection of the Jows, and contrary to the second Commandment; Which matter deserveth a larger explication.

Qu ft. 4. What believe you of Mins Redemption by Jefus Chrift?

Answ. GOD so loved the World, that he gave his only Son to be their Saviour: Who being GOD, and One with the Father, took our Nature, and became MAN; being conceived by the Holy Ghoft; born of the Virgin Mary; and called JESUS CHRIST: Who was perfectly Holy, without fin, fulfilling all Righteoufnels; and overcame the Devil and the World; and gave Himfelf a Sacrifice for our Sins, by fuffering a curled death on the Crofs to ranfom us, and reconcile us unto God; and was buried, and went among the Dead: The third day he rose again, having conquered Death, and having fealed the New Covenant with his Blood, he commanding his Apostles and other Ministers, to preach the Gospel to all the World: And promised the Holy Ghost: And then ascended into Heaven, where he is God and Man, The glorified Head over all things to his Church, and our prevailing Interceffor with God the Father.

1. Gods free love, without eitler merit, fuit or condition on Mans part, gave Christ for a Saviour to the World. It is not possible for any good to befal a Creature, which cometh not from the free gift of God.

2. God is said to love men, either when he willeth some good to them, or when he is pleased or delighted in them: With the sirst (called a love of Renewlence) he loveth man, not because he is good, but to make him good: But this is less properly called love, when it goeth alone. With the other more proper Love (of Complateence) he loveth every thing so far only as it is good and lovely. Both these concurred to lost Mankind; but the first most emimently: The good which which remainerh in fallen man as lovely, was his Nature which was God's work, and partly his Image, and therein his Capacity of that Grace, and all that holy Duty, and that heavenly perfection, in which

3. Christ is called the Saviour of the world, with different respect to the several parts of the World; Not as if he were equally the Saviour of all. So far as he faveth any, he is their Saviour; He hath fo far faved all men, as to make fo sufficient a satisfaction to the Justice of God for their fins, that none of them shall perish for want of such a fatisfaction made 5 and fo far as to make an universal Gift of free Pardon, Justification, Adoption, and the Spirit of all Mankind, on condition of acceptance; fo that nothing but their ungrateful refuting it, can deprive them of it; and hath commanded his Ministers to publish and offer this to all the world. And he giveth men various degrees of help, towards the winning of their own confent. But the confent of fema he effectually and insuperably procureth; and actually justifieth, fandifieth and glorifieth them. So that The is the Saviour of all men, especially of all those that believed; When yet those had a Saviour as to the antecedent Satisfaction, the covenant Offer and common helps only will perith for ever, for unthankful refuting the Salvation effered them, together with their other fins. For none are forgiven, where the Forgiver and his Grace are not accepted.

4. That Christ is both God and Man, is evident in Scripture. God (and therefore one substance with the Eather) from Etornity; But Mm in the sulvers of time, about four thousand years after the Creation of the World. Because he is God, he is of perfect sufficiency for all the work of our Redemption, and his Sacrifice, Merit and Intercession of sull force. Because he is man, he was fit to be Head of the Church, and to be a Messenger from God, familiarly to teach men, and to shew them a perfect example of Holiness, and to suffer for us in our stead, and to possess Heaven in our nature, and to intercede for us as the Mediator between God and Man-So that there is nothing wanting in Christ's Person as to sufficiency, or compassionate condescension and nearest to the consolation of penitent Believers.

5. That God, the Eternal Word of the Father. should take to him the Nature of man, is the most aftonishing wonder of all God's work: But having given us full proof of it by his Spirit, in his Doctrin, Miracles, and the fanctifying of Believers, it is the grand Article of our certain Faith: yea, he giveth us to believe it, as well as commandeth it. That God is most intimately near to all men, and especially all Saints, is no wonder ; For he is more than the Soul of the World: But his union with the Manhood of christ is an extraordinary Conjunction for extraordinary work; Though the manner of it is above our reach. It was not by turning the Godhead into Man, nor the Man-hood into the God-head; nor doth the Divine Nature lose by it any of his Perfe-Qion, or Honour. And he that feeth how the Sun doth infinuate it fulf into some Creatures as their very life, and yet leave others liveless, will not think it incredible that God should more nearly unite himself, to Christ's humanity than to others. We can hardly keep some Philosophers from believing that all mens fouls are parts of God: And yet as hardly get others to believe that God is so united to one man as to make one person.

6. Yet we must in this mystery take heed what notions we use: We must not say that the God-head

The Poor Wan's Family-Book. 413 is a part of the Person of Christ; for God cannot be part of any thing; For he is Infinite: And a part is less than the whole; and therefore not Infinite. Ner yet must we say, that the God-head is the whole Per-In; Part and whole are not words to be here used: But God and Man are one Christ As God and Creatures are one Universe of being: And yet God is not to be called the whole or part of that Universe.

7. Nor must we think that the God-head is instead of a human Soul to Christ's Flesh, and that he had no other Soul. For he was perfect Man, having h iman Soul and Body, which the God-head affumed into personal Union; and was as a Soul to his Soul. Much less was the God-head turned into humanity, or any way altered.

8. Christ was not generated as other men are, but without min was conceived of the Holy Ghost; that is, by the God-head operating outwardly by the Divine essectual Will or Love, and eminently by the third Person in the Trinity. Yet is Christ rather. called the Son of the Pather, than of the Holy Ghoft, because the Father is the first in order of operation.

Adams Soul was created and not generated: Our Souls are generated, and not meerly created of nothing: that is, God as the Fountain of Natural being, giveth multiplyed Essences wholly from himself; yet not as he first created things of nothing, but by an incomprehenlible influence on, and use of, the generating Souls; which under God, have a causality in the multiplication. But Christs Soul was neither meerly generated, nor meerly created; but was principally created fo far as it was conceived by the Holy Ghoft. and yet there was a participation of Generation, fo far as there was a concourse of the Virgin Soul. And by this wonderful conception, Christ was free both from the guilt and corruption of Original Sin. For though he be called the Son of Dawid wid and of Man, totally as a Man, and not as to his Flesh alone; yet was he not so by a proper and full Generation, as others are; but the Spirit Creative conception made him, even as to his humanity, more eminently the Son of God, than the Son of Man.

9. The name [Jesus] fignificth his Office, even [A Saviour;] and the name [CHRIST] fignificth the appointment of God, his Mission and Authority, and Qualification for this Office, [The Anointed of God.

10. Christ's perfect Holiness and Righteousness was both Habitual in his perfect Nature, and Active in his perfect Action; that is, in perfect Resignation, O. bedience and Love to God. The perfection of his Divine nature advanced the merit of his humane perfection two ways; 1. Cafaally, as it had the chief causality in producing it: 2. Relatively, as it was the Perfection of the same Person. The active Righteoulnels of Christ confisted in his conformity to the Divine Will, as fignified in that Law which was given to himself by God; which was, 1. That he should fulfil the Law of nature as a Man: 2. And the Mosaical Law as a Jew. 3. And a proper Law of Mediation, by his proper Mediatory Works, Do-Ctrine, Miracles, Sufferings, Institutions, &c. So that the Perfection or Righteousness of Christ, by which we are justified and faved as the Meritorious Cause, is All his in one; even his perfect Habitual and Actual Holiness, caused and relatively aigmified by his Divine Perfection.] Not as if one part merited one benefit for us, and another pair another: But all entirely movired all for us: For all together was that One Condition required of Christ by the Law or Covenant of Mediation: Upon which condition performed, he had right to all the promifed fruits of that Mediation, as to give us the pardoning and faving Covenant, &c.

The Poor Hours Family=1830k. 415

rt. Christ's conquering the Devil and the World as Tempters (and the flesh so far as without sin, its Matural defires were to be denied, as in the Love of Life, Sec.) was a great and needful part of his Work, that he might deliver us from the Tempters that had overcome us, and might consolated God's Enemies, and break the Serpents head, and vindicate the Truth and Holiness of God's Law by demonstration.

12. The reason of Christ's sufferings, were as a Sacrifica to expiate our fine by his tuffering in our stead; to demonstrate the Holiness of God, his Juflice and Truth, and the Authority and Equity of his Law, that God and his Law may not be difpiled, nor the world encouraged by impunity to unbelief and fin. By fuffering, he fulfilled that Law. which required him to fuffer, but he did not fulfil that Law which made fullering due to us; For it was not the punishment of another for him, Lut of every finner himfelf, which was due by that Law. But it was fatisfaction to the Lawgiver which he made by his fufferings: by giving him that which was equivalent to all our fusterings: Not that same thing by which the threatning of the Law is properly and fully performed; (For that is nothing but our destruction:) But it is something in its stead. Not altogether of the same kind neither; For our great punishment is, to be left in our fin it felf, (which is the mifery of the Soul,) and to be denied the Spirit of Life, and to be hated of God as unholy Creatures, and deprived of that Love of his, which all holy Souls are the proper object of, and to be tormented of our guilty Consciences for each sin, and to be tormented by Devils in H I and to despin of Deliverance; All which Christ was never cap ste of, nor did undergo. Bur he suffered the cursed death of the Cross, after a life of humiliation; and fensible forrows also in his T. 4. toul;

And Christs fusierings are fatisfactory to Divine Justice, not because they are the very same, in Jubjest, matter or duration, with while was due to us; but because they better attained the Ends of the Governour and Lawgiver aforefaid, then the Damnation of all the World would have done. Their aptitude to that End, was their latisfactory and meritorious

Dignity.

13. Christ suffered for our fins, and in our flead, because it was to free us from sufferings : And it freeth us as certainly (supposing us Believers) as if we had made satisfaction our felves. But yet he fussered in the Person of a Mediator, who indeed is one that undertook to fuffer in the Sinner stead; but never was, nor confented to be effeemed the very Sinner himself. If a man pay a Debt by his Servant, it is imputed to him as his own act and payment: Because the Law alloweth him to do it by a Servant, and the Servant is but his Instrument. But this is not our Case: Christ suffered in our stead: But as our Delegate, not in our Name and Person properly, but as a Voluntary Mediator, who may use after as he pleaseth, and give us the benefits as he will. We did not pay our own Debt by him: His sufferings were not ours indeed, nor in the law sence: We were not erucified in him: We did not satisfie Gods Justice by him : and therefore the effects are not oursitill he after give them us, and that in the degree that pleafeth him. It is not the fuffering in it felf which he giveth us, (that were a fad gift) nor the first esset in it self, (satisfaction;) for that it made to God for us, and not to us but it is the Fruits hereby procured of God.

14. Much less can it be truly and properly said, that Christ in our Person, and we in and by Christ, The Poor Plen's Family-Book. 417

did fulfil the Law of Works, by perfect habitual Holiness and outward Obedience and Love, and this dignissed by a Divine perfection. The same Habits. and Acts, or Righteoutness, being Accidents, cannot be in divers Subj &s. We are not justified by the Precept and Promise of the Law of Works; as if we had fulfilled it all by Christ: but by the Law of Grace. Had we fulfilled all the Law of Innocency by Christ, we could have no need of his Death, or any Pardon, because we should have no sin to pardon, either of Omission or Commission, from birth to death. To forgive all our fins, and to repute us to have never finned, but perfectly obeyed by another, are contradictory. And God judgeth not falfly; nor supposeth us to do what we never did: Therefore we have not present Right to all the benefits of Christs Merits of Righteonsness. Our punishments are no wrong to us while he correcteth us. He giveth us Pardon and Life, on condition that we be penitent Believers, and doth not tell us, that we repented, believed and were preferved in and by him, which shall be imputed to us, nor that we need it not because we are innocent in him. Nor did Chift by his death only fave us from punishment, and by his perfection only merit our Justification and Salvation. For to be acquit from all Punishment of sense and loss, is to have right to Life; and to be innocent of all fin, both of Onission and Commission, is to be Just. But we are not justified by Christ against this charge [Thou art a Sinner | simply: But against this charge | Thou art to be condemned for thy fin; Not by imputation of Innocency in it felf to us, and reputing us innocent; but by pardoning our four, and giving us Right to Life, and To accepting us. And so Christ is the Lord our Right :teoulnels; and as he was made fin for us, not indeed, nor did God so repute him, but as one that was to fusier for Sinners; so are we made the Righteousness of God in him. Being righteons by Gods gift of Pardon and Life, purchased by His Righteousness, demonstrating God's Righteousiness.

15. God is faid to be Reconciled to the World in general upon Christ's death, in that

2 Cor. 5. 19. he is no more obliged in Justice to punish them, as more Sinners by the Law of Works; but hath granted a conditional Pardon to all Mankind, and that free upon condition of meer acceptance of Christ and Life.

God is faid to be Reconciled astually to Believers, in that he is not at all obliged by Justice to condemn them, but hath as it were obliged himself by a Covenant of Grace to forgive and lavo them. So that it importeth no real change in God, but in us and in God's Covenant, and a change in God's relation to us. Yea, 2. Though also he judge us now just, and love us as just, who before judged us unjust, and loathed us as fuch, this change is in us, and not any other in God than in relation and denomination.

16. Christ was buried, that he might be at the lowest before he was exalted: Death feemed to have conquered him, before he shewed his conquest of it. So is it with us. The word translated [Hell] in Englifb, in the Greek and Letin ancient Greed desis and inferi, and fignifieth not necessarily the Place of the damned. But it is more than his Burial that here is meant and respecteth his Soul; and fignificth that [his Soul went among the Souls of the dead] without determining it to Heaven or Hell; the very feparating it from the Body, being part of Christ's humiliation. To Paradife it went, but whether elfe, or what it did, we are necessarily ignorant. But hence it is plain, that the Soul liveth is felf, when it is separated fr m the body. And Believers may joyfully follow Christ to the grave, and the state of separation.

17. Christ's Resurrection was the great Victory over

over Death, the beginning of his Triumph, and of the eminent Church-State under the Missiah, and the great proof of his Truth as the Son of God, and is the great comfort of Believers, affuring them that they have a victorious and a living Saviour, and that his word is true, and that they shall rife again.

18. The making of the New Covenant fealed with Christ's Blood, and commissioning a Ministry to publish it to the World, was the great ordained means, by which Christ would give out the fruits of his Metits and Sacrifice, with himfelf, for mens Juflification and Salvation: Of which more anon.

19. Christ's Ascention was the second ft. p of his Exaltation, His bodily prefence was more necessary in Heaven then on Earth: There he is fill God and Man: His Body and Soul being glorified, and natural flesh and blood changed into an incorruptible spiritual Body: For so it will be with Believers; For Pless and Blood connot enter into the Kingdom of God. So abfurdly do they ear, who fay, that Bread is no Bread; but Christs flash, and Wine is no Wine, but his Blood, when his glorified Body hath no Flesh and Blood at all. It is unspeakable joy to Belie. vers, that we have a Head in Heaven that is over all.

20. The Apostle distinguisherh

Christs Headship as it is [over all] Eph. 1. 22, 23. and as it is [ro the Church] For to Job. 17. 2, 3. this end he died, and tole, and Rom. 14. 9. revived, that he might be the John 5. Lord of the Dead and Living.

He hath Dominion over the Uncalled to call them 3 and over Believers to defend and glorific them; and over Ribels to defreoy them.

21. The Intercoffion of Christ is a great Article of the Christian Faith; and tignificth not only that he projeth for us, but that he is the beavenly Bigh Priest and Mediator with God: And that when once sin hath desiled us, there is no coming to GoJ but by a Mediator; no not in our Thoughts or Hopes, or Assertions: We must expect no acceptance of our Persons, or Prayers, or Duties, but through Christ: We must put all into his Hands, that he may present them to God: We cannot so much as love God but by him, as the Glass and Revealer of Gods Love and Goodness: And also we must look for nothing from God now but through him and by his hand: That is, by his Merits and his Administration: The Spirit and special Grace is Given by him even the Mediator: Ministers and Ordinances are by him: Magistrates, and the Rule of the natural World, for the ends of Redemption is by him; for all power is given him, and he judgeth all.

Quest. 5. What is the New Testament, or Covenant or Law of Grace?

Answ. God through Jesus Christ, doth freely give to all Mankind himself to be their Reconciled God and Father, his Son to be their Saviour, and his Holy Spirit to be their Sanctifier, if they will believe and accept the Gift, and will give up themselves to Him accordingly; Repenting of their sins, and consenting to forsake the Devil, the World, and the Flesh, and sincerely (though not perfectly) to obey Christ and his Spirit to the end, according to the Law of Nature, and his Gospel Institutions, that they may be glorified in Heaven for ever.

r. It is the same thing which in several respects, is called Christ's New Testament, Law and Covenant; It is his Testament, because he established it by and at his Death: and it containeth a free Gift or Legacy to man. It is his Covenant, because God on his part bindeth himself by Promise, to do all that is there offered; And requireth men to consent and covenant accordingly with him, if they will have the benefit.

The Poor Pin's Family-Book. 421

It is his Law, in that it containeth his established Terms, on which men shall obtain Remission and Salvation, or miss of it and be condemned, if they resuse; and by which Men shall be judged to Heaven or Hell.

2. This Law hath two parts: 1. The first is a prelippoied part, which is the Law of Nature, as to its obligation to Duty; which Christ dorn not new make, but find made, and taking Nature it felf and man as his own, upon the Title of Redemption, that Law also falleth into his hand: and as he doth not destroy, but perfett our Nature: so he doth not destroy the Law of Nature, but superadd his remedying Law. 2. Which is the fecond part, newly made by the Redeemer, and called the Law of Grace; the first being now a as part or appurtenance to this as used to our Sanctification, and yet the obedience of it, part of the end of this. This special Law and Covenant of Grace containeth, 1. A free Deed of Gift (though conditional) of God himself, the Father, Saviour and Sanctifier, as aforefail, with pardon of all fin, and right to the Love of the Father, the Grace of the Son, and the Communion of the Holy Ghost. and to the heavenly Glory. 2. The imposed condition of this free Gift, which is sincere believe and consent by covenanting accordingly with God, as is exprest. 3. The Preceptive part, which is to be the Rule of fincere Obedience, as it is in Gospel Institutions, the Law of Nature Supposed. 4. The Penal part, as it leaveth men unfaved, and threatneth a forer Punithment to all impenitent and unbelieving Refusers of the offered Grace. And this is now the Law and Covenant by which we must live and be judged: and which is Gods Instrument, like an act of Oblivion, and a Deed of Gift, by which the benefits of Christ are, with himself, to be regularly conferred on Mankind, and on which we must trust as our Title to Christ and Life.

Quest. 6. What believe you of the Ho.y Ghoft?

Ansiv. God the Holy Spirit was given by the Father and the Son to the Prophers, Apostles and Evangelists, to be their infallible Guide in Preaching and Recording the Doct in of Salvation; and the Witness of its certain Truth by his manifold Divine operations. And he is given to quicken, illuminate and Sanctificall true Believers, and to fave them from the Devil, the World, and the Flesh. 1. The Holy Spirit is God, the third Person in the Trinity: To him in Scripture is oft atcribed eminently, 1. The Love of God, and the Gifr of Love to Man; (as to the Son is accribed the Wifdom of God and the Word of Wildom.) 2. The exterior operations of God on the Creature; (as the Sun operatesh on the Earth by its motive, enlightning and heating beams, which are indeed it felt.) 3. The Perfecting of Gods operations especially. And to though the Three Persons are undivided, and all work together on the Creature; yet eminently the Father is called the Creator, and the Original of NA. TURE; the Son is called the Redemeer, and the giver of GRACE; the Holy Spirit is called the Sanctifier, and the Beginner of G L ORY. Or the NATURE of Man is of the Father, als MEDICINE is of the Son, and his HEALTH of the Holy Ghoft, given by the Eather and the Son.

The Holy Ghost is given in several measures to men, and for leveral ule , for the Church Edification. When any new Law or Doftring was revealed to the World, God gave the Spirit of Miracle, to prove it to be of him. So it was when Mofes gave the Law; and fometimes to the Prophets, when they brought any new West Le ; and a they prophesied of Christ, so they had the Spirit of Christ to inspire them. Bur the great and wonderful measure of the Spirit was given to the Aposses, and other Christians in.

The Pool Han's Family-Book. 423 in the first Age of the Gospel Church, to inable them infallibly to Preach and Record the History, and Doctrin, and Commands of Christ, and to Seal it with Miracles, by healing the Sick, raising the dead, speaking various Languages, &c. Therefore the Scripture written by the Spirit in them, is left as the Rule of our Faith and Life, and all the Motions or Revelations that feem to come from the Spirit now, are to be tried by the Scripture; because we have not the same Gifts or Measure of the Spirit as the Apostles had: So that to try the Spirit by the Scripture, is but to try our doubtful and finaller Gifts of the Spirit, by the Apostles certain and greater Gifts of the Spirit. The Belief of the Scriptures, indited by the Spirit, belongeth to this Article of our belief in the Holy Ghost. 3. The Ordinary Renewing work of the Holy Spiric is the accessary beggining of our Salvation: And withour Holiness none can see God. So great a work is this on Man, that Christ's own death and Refurrection, and Mediation in Heaven, is the means to procure and give us this Spirit; and its work is Gods Image on us, and called The Divine Nature. There are three parts of this operation on us. 1. Its Quickning Work to make us Alive to God who were dead and dull to all holy Acts. 2. Its Illumination to open the eye of our darkned Understanding. By Knowledge and Easth, curing our Ignorance and Unbelief. 3. Its converting and fan diffying Work on the Will.

pleatures, to the love of God and Holinels: Which because it is the perfective act. LOVE is taken in Scripture for the Sum of all Sanctification: And to give the Spirit of Adoption, and to give it the LOVE of/God, i the fame thing: To which Fuch in Christ is the means: And yet the Spirit worked, alto that tuining us from the Love of fenfual and worldly

Earth in us; But when he worketh Faith in us, he is but but opening the door and entring, that by LOVE he may dwell and work within us. As one compareth it to be a Bird, that first maketh her Nest, and then layeth her Eggs and hatcheth them, Faith in Christ is as the Bellowes by which the Spirit kindleth in us the LOVE of God; And Paith kindling LOVE, and LOVE kindled by Fatth, and working by holy fruitful Obedience, is all the Spirit's work and all our Religion. For Mortification, and conquest of the Flesh, the World, and the Devil is here comprized

This work of the Spirit is a certain proof that Christ is the true Saviour of the World, and his Gospel true : For none but God can thus renew Souls; and GOD would not do it by false Do-

Etrins.

This Article therefore of our Belief in the Holy Ghost, is of grand importance to be understood and well confidered. For while Christ is in Heaven, his Spirit is his Advocate and Agent in the fouls of men on Earth, and his Witness in all true Believers, to plead Christ's Cause, and prove his Truth, and finish his faving Works, and fit men for the Love of God, and for Glory. And this Spirit is to our Souls as our Souls to our Bodies (in some fore;) without which we can do nothing holily: It is our Life, Light and Love: It is our Earnest, Pledge and Eirst Fruits of heavenly Glory, giving us the fore taftes of it by Love; and so our Witness or Evidence, that we are the Children of God.

But it is a dangerous Error to think that the Spirit is given us to do all at once, or to do all abiolutely however we use it. It worketh the Love of God in us by degrees, and is to be working it in us while we live. It worketh it by means, even by the Gospel understood, believed and confidered; and we may no more look for the Spirit without the Word and Means ulcd

The Poor Pan's Family Book. used by us, than for Health without Food and Physick. Though he worketh infuperably, when and where he pleafe, yet men may by relistance forfeit and quench his operations. And (mark it well) The greateff Rewards for Obedience, and Punishments for sin, which God as Judge doth Execute in this Life, are by giving men more of the Spirit, or by denying or with-holding its operations on mens abufe; which is more to be feared than all our Judgments in this World.

Qu ft.7. What believe you of the Holy Catholick Church, the Communion of Saints, and the forgiveness of fins?

Aufw. All that truly consent to the Baptismal Covenant, are so sanctified Church or Body of Christ, and have Communion in the same Spirit of Faith and Love, and have the forgiveness of all their Sins : And all that by Baptism wishly Covenant, and that continue to profess Christianity and Holiness are the universal visible Church on Earth and must keep holy Communion with Love and Ponce in the particular Churches; in the Doctrine, Worship and MOrder Instituted by Christ.

1. The World is Christ's Kingdom by Right, and governed by his Wisdom and Power. The Church is Christs consenting Kingdom, Ruled by Wisdom and spedeial Love: He is the Head over all things to the Church. It is his Body Political, Relatively, yet really quickned by his Spirit. It is his Office to be both the Constitutive governing and quickning Head. Form of the Church is its Relation to him as its Head. He giveth it Laws, and judgeth and executeth them, and appointeth Officers to it by his Word and Grace. He is a mediating Head, he is the Conveyor of the Spirit from God to us.

The Church hath no Universal Head but Christ, None else hath Right: None else is capable or able, either as Principal or Vicar under him, He hath com-

Peter never governed the Apostles; They were never hid obey him. It was one of the Covinthians Schiffms, for form to make him a Head, as others did Paul and Apolo, and to lay, we are of Cephas: The Schifm was not cured by calling than all to take Peter from the Head. The Pepeis no more Peters Successor, than the Bilhop of Aniorb is and others: If he had, he had not been either Constitutive or Governing Head of the Church. He that is Head of Christs Vicar, must be an universal Proc phet, univerfal Prieft, and univerfal King of the Chreb. This Church of Rome is a Section Schilm from the Catholick Church: It is but about the fourth part of the Christians in the World, who all make up the Universal Church. The Abassium, Copties, Syriaus, Acmenians, Indians, the Greeks and Muscovites, with all the Reformed Churches, are, as many calculate, four parts of sive, but at least, two parts in three,

The Poor Dan's Family Book. 427 of the Church. The cutting off all these are none of Chist's Church, and making none in the World to be Chistians, but the Subjects of the Pope, and contending for this with Fire and Sword, and false railing Volumes, is the grand Schism in the World, and that which still keepsth open the Wounds of the Church, and the scandalous pernicious Contentions of Christendon.

The Pope had the farme Original with the Patriarchs, being bur the full of them, which all confets was Humin. Had not the Greek Church (then far higger than the Latin) thought his Primary to be human, they could never have claimed that right to Conflantinople, which they knew had none but human right. The truth is, the Pope was at firft, and for many hundred years, but the chief Bifhop in one Empire, as the Arch-Bishop of Ganterbury is in Enga lland; and it was the Churches of that Empire that made up the Councels called General, being called by the Emperors, who had no Power any where lelle through the World. And in time, his Ufurpation turned the Roman World into the whole World, and his Kingdom must be the whole Circumference of the Eirth, which is most unknown, and but three er four-times, was ever fo much as compaffed by Sea. And feeing it is the Apostolick Office to convert fouls as well as rule them, and he undertaketh that Universal Headship, which never any Apostle did, what a World of People in Turtory, India, the Turkifb Impire, Africa, at the Intipoder, and the unknown World, both this disperate Undertaker to answer for a A time Catholick must be of a greater Church thin that of Rome, even the universal Church containing all Christians. are the Church in the first fense, cruly holy: But the baptized (not apostarized) who are visible Consenters and Profesiors of Christianity, are the Church as visible and are holy by visible separation to God, and dedication to him; The confounding of the Church mystical and visible, tempted to some to separate from the Church visible, as if it were not holy. And the Papists have made a Church visible of their own invention, which is a Body politick, headed by a pretended human head: Some call it Lthe Church Congregate] to infinuate that it is fuch a Policy. But the grand Point in which we renounce Popery is this, and we hold, that there is no fuch Political Church on Earth, that hath any universal constitutive or governing Head besides Christ; who is visible in Heaven and was once visible on Earth, where his Church is still visible.

3. The unity of the Spirit of Faith and Love is the chief part of the Communion of Saints: And the second is in the exercise of that Faith and Love in external Communion; which is in doing all the good they can for each other, and communicating for the relief of those that need, as Men will do who love others as themselves: And also in a concordant holy Worshipping of God. For which End particular Churches are appointed by Christ, who are to be guided by their leveral Pastors, who are Ministers under Christ, in his Teaching, Priestly and Ruling Office. And that Worship is instituted by Christ in which Communion must be exercised, faving that the ordering and Circumstances are much left to the Church Guides. And the Lords day is separated for this solemn holy Communion. And Discipline is to keep clean the Church, that it may. be a communion of Saints.

The Poor Han's Family-Book. 429

4. The Remission of Sins is the other part of the Salvation of the Church; the Fruit of Christs blood, and the Gift of his Covenant, as Sanstification is the work of his Spirit. Remission of sin is our Juffication (including the Gift of Right to Life;) And it hath three degrees, or is of three sorts; 1: Constitutive, which giveth us Right to Impunity, and dictiolveth our Gullt or Obligation to Punishment; This is God's Act as Legislator and Donor by the New Covenant, which is the Gift of our Right.

2. Sentential, by which God as Judge pronounceth us pardoned and Just.

3. Executive, by which God actually freeth us from punishment (of sense and loss) and giveth us life.

Remission is; 1. Universal, of all sins past, and this is given at once; Really by God at the time of our true believing and consenting to the Covenant. But by solemn Ministerial delivery in Baptism (visibly;) in which Christ with pardon is solemnly delivered by Gods appointment to true Believers, and their Seed that by them are dedicated to God. 2. Particular, of every sin after Baptism and Conversion: For upon particular sepentance, God giveth us the pardon of particular sins from day to day. Sin may be said to be virtually forgiven before it is committed, because the cases of forgiveness are existent; But that is not properly actual forgiveness; for that which is not yet sin, cannot be forgiven sin.

The Condition of Pardon and Justification is sometime called Faith simply, sometimes also Repentance; and indeed is a penitent Believers consent to that Covenant of Grace, which is the condition of his Title to this and the other Rights of the Covenant at once; It being a free gift purchased by Christ's Sacrifice and meritorious Righteousnels, and by this Covenant made ours. This is the plain and full Dostrin of Remission and Justification; beyond which a good Christian need not trouble his head with the invented words and picities and controversities of these times. The fentential and executive Justification or Remission is begun on Earth, but perfected at the final Judgment: and both pass according to our Constitutive Remission and Justification by the Covenant. Adoption addeth some further dignity to Believers, above what is in bare Remission and Justification which cometh from the same Merits and Gift of Christ.

Quest. 8. What Believe you of the Resurrection and everlasting Life?

Answ. At Death the souls of the justified go to Happiness with Christ and the souls of the wicked to Misery: And at the end of this World, Christ will come to Glory, and will raise the bodies of all men from death, and will judge all according to their Works: And the Righteous shall go into everlasting Life, where being made perfect themselves, they shall see God, and perfectly love and praise him with Christ, and all the gloristed Church; and the rest into everlasting Punishment.

1. The Souls of the Righteous go presently at death to Christ in Paradile or Heaven; and the wicked to mifery, which is Hell.

2. Christ's second glorious coming is the day of our great Deliverance and Joy, which all true Believers love and should long for.

3. The Doctrin of the Refurrection is fully opened by Christ, Joh. 5. and by Paul, 1 Cor. 15. of which Christ's own Resurrection is our Pledge.

4. The last Judgment is that which endeth all Controversies, and finally and perfectly justifieth Believers, who were but initially and preparatorily justified before, Christ will be both Judge and our Advocate. (The Law of Grace and not Innocency) is it that we must be Judged by, but according to the divers divers Editions of that Law, which men lived under: And the Works that they shall be judged by, are the Performance or not Performance of the Conditions of this Law of Grace. For by the Works of the Law of Moses or of Innecancy, none can be justified; Nor, yet by any Commutative Merits of his Faith, Love or Gospel Obedience; but only as they are the terms on which God giveth the Life which is purchased by the Death, and perfect Righteousness of Christ; which in the thing it felf and value is a meer Gift, though the order of giving it is by the Law of Grace, by which we must be judged. So that Christ justifieth by his own Merits, Satisfaction, and free Gift thereon, against the charge of our deserving Damnation for fin as fin, against the Law of Innocency and Works: So be it, we be otherwise justifiable against the charge of being Infidels, Impenitent and Ungodly. For Christ did not Repent and Believe for us, nor was Holy to excuse us from being Holy; but we must Believe, Repent, and be Holy our felves by his Grace, and by these themselves be justified against the false accusation that we are Unbelievers, Impenitent and Unholy.

Christ doth not take away the faultiness of our Actions, or the guilt of Sin, as sin simply in it self, so that we shall be reputed Innocent or sinless: But he taketh away the Guilt of Punishment, and the Guilt of Sin respectively as binding to Punishment,

5. The Glory of Saints will be. 1. In the full Perfection of their own Souls and Bodies. 2. In the perfect Knowledge, Love and Praise (and Service) of God for his own sake, as the Infinite Good and Object of Love and Praise. 3. And in the full reception and joyful sense of Gods Love to us, and to all the Church. 4. And in the fruition of Christ in Glory. 5. With the blessed Society of all the glorised Quest. 9. You have told me what you II. Consent. Believe : Tell me now what is the full Resolution and Desire of your Will,

Answ. Believing in God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, I do presently, absolutely and resolvedly give up my self to Him, my Creator and reconciled God and Father, my Saviour, and my Sanctifier. And repenting of my Sins, I renounce the Devil, the World, and the finful defires of the Flesh. III. A Morning Prayer for a Family.

Almighty, All-feeing and most gracious God. who hath created us and all things for thy Glo-1y; We finful Worms encouraged by thy own Command and Promise, and the Mediation of Jesus Christ our Redeemer, do humbly cast down our selves before thee, to acknowledge the Mercles, to confess our Sint, to beg thy Grace, and tender thee our Praise and Service.

We thank thee that thou hast made us reasonable Creatures to know, and love, and ferve our Creator, and capable of everlasting happiness in thy Glory: We thank thee that we who were born in Sin, and were thy Enemies in our fleshly state, were not forfaken by thee in our Sins, nor left with the Devils to helpless desperation; but have a sufficient Saviour given us by thy Love, who hath redeemed us, with his Blood, and given a free pardon and title to Life, in his Covenant of Grace, to all that heartily accept him as their Lord and Saviour: We thank thee for his holy Gospel, for his holy Example, for his holy Spirit, given to his Apostles, Ministers and all mue Bellevers. We thank thee for our Birth, our Education, our Friends, our Health, our Peace and Liberty, and all our Comfort of this Life; We thank thee thee for our publick Teaching and our private helps, the comfort of thy holy worthip, and all the means of our Salvation : But especially that thou hast blef. fed any of it to our good, and didft not forfake our finful Souls, and give us over to the blindness of our own Minds, and the hardness of our hearts, and the flavery of our fleshly Desires and Will: How great was that Mercy, which did only spare our Lives, and keep us out of Hell while we were finning; but at last convinced any of us of our sin and mifery, and awakened our fleepy Souls unto Repenrance, and made us know the vanity of this world, and the certainty and glory of the Life to come, that we might know thee, and feek thee our End and Happiness! How great was thy Mercy, which opened to us the mysteries of thy Gospel, and draw us to thy Son as the way to thee!

But alas, we have ill requited thee for thy Love; Out Original Sin hath been too fruitful in our finful lives! Our Childhood and Youth was spent in too much folly, and fleshly tenfuality! How long did we forget our God and our Soul, our Death and our everlasting state; asif we had no life to live but this. and we hadfnot been made to live and die like Beafts? How long did we live in Ignorance and Unbelief, and little knew the nature and office, our want, - and the worth and riches of Christ? How long did we live before thy Love in Christ did melt us? And before we knew the life of Faith? And before we were brought to the Hatred of Sin, and Love of holiness? and before that ever we loved thee our God. and the heavenly Kingdom above this world? Alas we were decrived by the vanities here below, and followed the finful defires of the Flesh, and resisted. thy Spirit, which moved us to repent and to turn to thee. And fince we consented to thy Holy Covenant, we have too often yielded to temptations, and loved thee fo coldly, & served thee so sothfully, and lived so unfruitfully,& made fo ill a use of thy Mercles,& of our afflictions, that thou mightest justly have taken thy Spirit from us and suffered us to return to our former misery.

But O do not enter into Judgment with us; Forgive us for his fake who is the Sacrifice and Propitiation for our fins. Charge not upon us the fin of our corrupted Nature, or of our Lives, of our Childhood. Youth or riper Ages; our fins of Omission or Commission, of Knowledge or of Ignorance, of Rathness or of Negligence, of finful Luft & Passion, or of Sloth. Walh us in the blood, and accept us for the Merica of the perfect holiness & sufferings of our Redeemer. We dare not come to thee but in his Name, nor expeet any pardon or mercy from thee, but for his fake, and by his hand. Let our hearts be fincere in confenting to his Covenant by a lively Faith, that we may be one with him our bleffed head, and may receive the continual Communications of his Spirit. Our Souls are by Corruption dead to God, and dark through Isnorance, Error and Unbelief, and disaffected to the and to thy holy ways til! that Spirit do quicken, ill in i. nate, and sanctifie us. O give us this Spirit, the greatest of thy gifts on Earth! Let him dwell by a new and holy nature in us: Let him fill our hearts withholy life, that we may live to thee & die to fin: And with holy light that we may know thee in Christ, and know thy Word, and believe thy Truth: And with holy love that our whole defire may be to thee, and our delight be in thee, & being pleased in thee, we may through Christ be pleasant to thee for ever. O let not our Ignorance and Unbelief prevail! Let not our love to thee be still so cold! Our desires so dull, nor our endeavours so slothful! Nor our hopes of heaven so faint and weak! Let not the Pleafures, or Riches, or Honours of this World ever steal our hearts away from thee! Nor our fleshly desires overcome thy Spirit! Govern our Affictions, Thoughts, Words and Actions, our Senfes, our Appetites, and our Passions by thy Grace.

The world and all therein are thine: What ever pleaseth Thee, thou dost: Thy enemies and ours are in thy Power, thou givest life to all the living; and the Mercies are over all thy Works! Heaven and Barth are continued by thy Power and Will; and all things in them are ordered by thy Wisdom; Great art thou, O Lord, and greatly to be fear'd! Wife art thou, and absolutely to be obeyed! Good are thou, and unmeasurably to he loved! The Image and Glory of thy Perfection shineth into thy wonderful Works; But above all in our glorified Redeemer and his triumphent Church: where the light enlightneth, thy Love inflameth, and thy Glory glorifieth the bleffed Spirits of that glorious World; where Angels and Saints in beholding, and loving and praising, Thy Glory, are filled with everlasting Joy; For of Thee, and through Thee. and to Thee are all things; To Thee be the Glory for ever. A short Prayer for the Morning, in the Method of the Lords Prayer, being but an Exposition of it.

A Oft glorious GOD, who are Power, and Wif-1. dom, and Goodness it self, the Creator of all things, the Owner, the Ruler, and the Benefactor of the World, but specially of thy Church and chosen ones: Though by fin original and actual we were thy Enemies, the flaves of Satan and our Flesh, and under thy displeasure and the condenmation of thy Law; yet thy Children, redeemed by Jesus Christ thy Son, and regenerated by thy holy Spirit, have leave to call thee their reconciled Father : For by thy Covenant of Grace, thou hast given them thy Son to be their Head, their Teacher and their Saviour: and in him thou hast purdoned, allopted and sanctified them; fealing and preparing them by thy holy Spirit for thy Celestial Kingdom, and beginning in them that holy life and light, and love, which shall be perfected with thee in everlatting Glory. O with what wondrous love hast thou loved us, that of Rebels we should be made the Sons of God! Thou hast advanced us to this dignity, that we might be devoted wholly to thee as thine own, and might delightfully obey thee, and entirely love thee with all our hearts! And so might glorisie thee here and for ever.

O cause both us, and all thy Churches, and all the World, to hillow thy great and holy Name! And to live to thee as our Ultimate end; that thy fhinning Image on holy Souls may glorifie thy Divine Perfection.

And crute both us and all the Earth, to cast off the Tyraniy of Satan and the Elefh, and to acknowledge thy Supream Authority, and to become the Kingdoms of Thee and thy Son Jefus; by a willing and absolute subjection. O perfect thy Kingdom of Grace in our felves, and in the world, and haften the Kingdom of Glory.

The Pool Pau's Family-Book. 441

And cause us and thy Churches and all People of the Earth, no more to be ruled by the lufts of the flesh, and their erroneous Conceits, and by felf will, which is the Idol of the Wicked; but by thy perfect wisdom and holy Will revealed in thy Laws: Make known thy Word to all the World, and fend them the Messengers: of Grace and Peace; and cause men to understand, believe and obey, the Gospel of Salvation: And that with fuch holiness, unity, and love, that the Earth, which is now too like to Hell, may be made like unto Heaven; and not only thy scattered imperfect Flock, but tholeallo who in their carnal and ungodly minds do now refuse a holy life, and think thy Words and Ways too first, may defire to imitate even the heavenly Church, where thou art obeyed, and loved and praifed, with high delight, in Harmony and Perfection.

And because our Being is the subject of our well loing, maintain us in the life which thou hast here given us, until the work of life be finished; And give us fuch health of mind and body, and fuch protection and supply of all our wants, as shall best fit us for our duty; And make us contented with our daily bread, and patient if we want it! And fave us from the love of Riches, and Honours, and Pleafures of this World. and the Pride, and Idleness, and Senfuality which they cherish; And cause us to serve thy Providence by our Diligent Labours, and to ferve thee faithfully with all that thou givest us; And let us not make provision for the Fleth, to satisfie its desires and lusts.

And we befeech thee of thy Mercy, through the Sacrifice and Propitiation of thy beloved Son, torgive us ail our Sins, original and actual, from our Birch to this hour; our omillions of duty, and commicting of what thou didft forbid; our fins of beart, and word, and deed; our finful thoughts and affections, our finful passions and discontents; our scree U 5 and our open fins; our fins of negligence and ignorance, and rathness; but especially our fins against Knowledge and Conscience, which have made the deenest guilt and wounds. Spare us, O Lord, and let not our sin so find us out as to be our ruine; but let us fo find it out as truly to repent and turn to thee! Especially punish us not with the loss of thy Grace! Take not thy holy Spirit from us, and deny us not his assistance and holy operations. Seal to us by that Spirit the pardon of our fins, and lift up the light of thy Countenance upon us, and give the joy of thy favour and salvation. And let thy Love and Mercy to us fill us not only with Thankfulness to Thee, but with love and mercy to our Brethren and our Enemies, that we may heartily forgive them that do us wrong, as through thy grace we hope to do.

And for the time to come, suffer us not to cast our felves wilfully into Temptations, but carefully to avoid them, and resolutely to resist and conquer what we cannot avoid; and O mortifie those inward fins and lusts, which are our constant and most dangerous temptations: And let us not be tempted by Satan or the World, or tryed by thy Judgments, above the Arength which thy grace shall give us. Save us from a fearless considence in our own strength: And let us not dally with the fnare, nor tafte the bair, nor play with the fire of thy Wrath: But cause us to fear and depart from evil; lest before we are aware, we be entangled and overcome, and wounded with our Guilt and with thy wrath, and our end should be worse than our beginning. Especially save us from those radical fins of Error and Unbelief, Pride, Hypocrifie, Hardheartedness, Sensuality, Slothfulness, and the love of this present World, and the loss of our love to Thee, to thy Kingdom, and thy ways.

And fave us from the malice of Satan and of wicked men, and from the evils which our fins would-bring upon us.

And

IV. A Prayer for Morning or Evening in Families.

GOD, the infinite Eternal Spirit, Most Perfect in Power, Wisdom and Goodness. Though mortal eyes cannot behold thee, nor any created understanding comprehend thee, thou art present with us, and seest all the secrets of our hearts; Our sins and wants are known to thee! But thou requirest our confessions as the exercise of our desires and silial dependance upon thee. And O that our Souls were more sit for thy Holy presence, and for this great and Holy work! O thou whose mercy inviteth miferable Sinners to come unto thee, by the new and living way; meet us not in thy Justice as a consuming fire, but accept us in thy righteous and beloved Son in whose mediation is our trust.

444 Whe Poor Han's Family-Wook.

Thou who are the Greator of all things, didst make us in thy Image, to know thee, to love thee, & to ferve thee: But fin hath corrupted all our powers, and turned them from thee, and against those holy ends and uses, for which thou didit create us; In fin we were conceived, and in fin we have lived, increating our original guilt and mifery. Though we know that thouart our Owner, we have lived as if we were at our own disposal; We have called thee our King and Ruler; but we have rebelled against thee, and obeyed our Carnal wills and appetites ! Thou art Goodness and Love itself; and the Author of all that is good and amiable in all the World; and our Souls should have loved thee, with fervency and delight: But our hearts have been estranged from thee, and have sought delight in worldly vanities, and in the pleafing of our fleshly minds and lufts this deceitful world, hath had our Love, our Care, our Thoughts, our Words, our Time, our Labour, as if it had been our home and portion, and we had been to continue here for ever, whilst our God and our immortal Souls have been neglected. Thou hast made us capable of endless Glory, and called us to feek it, and to fet our hearts above on thee; But we have lived as if we believed not thy word, and have despised the joys of Heaven which thou hast offered us, and preferred our short and fenfual pleasures. We have trisled in thy Worship and forved thee hypocritically with our lips alone; we have taken thy dreadful Name in vain; we have milpent thy koly day, we have dishonoured our Superiours, and neglected our inferiours; Our Family which should have been ordered in holiness, as a Church of God, hath been a liquid of vanity, worldliness and discontent; our thoughts have been guilty not only of vanity, folly and confission, but of malice and of unclean and filthy lufts; Our tongues have been

been guilty, not only of idle and foolish talk, but also wrathful words and railings, of filthy and immodest speech, and of evil speaking and backbiting others, and of many a lie. We have not loved our Neighours as our felves! nor done by all others as we would have had them done by us: But we have been all for our carnal felves, Proudly defiring our own exaltation and effeem, and Covetoufly defiring our own Commodity, and Senfually desiring pleafures to our selves; whilst we have too little care for the corporal or spiritual good of others. We have been very backward to love our Enemies, and heartily to forgive a wrong. We have been unprofitable abusers of thy Talents and have wasted our precious time in vanity, and done but little good in the world.

And though thy wonderful mercy hath given us a Redcemer, and in him a fufficient remedy for our fins; and thou hast posed the understandings of Men and Angels, in this strange expression of thy Wisdom and thy Love; yet have we stagger'd at thy word in Unbelief, and flupidly neglected this great falvation. How carelesly have we heard and read thy Gofpel? How little have we been affected with all the Love and Sufferings of our Saviour? We could have been thankful to one that had faved our lives, or enriched us in the world: But how unthankful have we been to him who hath done so much to save our Souls from endless misery? Alas, our hard unhumbled hearts, do make light of our fins, and of thy . just displeature, and therefore make light of Christ and Grace: And it is just with thee to deny us for ever, the mercy which we fet so light by.

But deal with us, O Lord, according to thy goodness, and according to our great necessity, & not according to our desarts. We have sinned as Men, but be thou merciful as God, Where our sin aboundeth, O let thy Grace abound much more! Thou gavest mankind a Saviour when we were thine Enemies, and thou wast in Christ reconciling the World unto thy self: And it is thy great design to glorisie thy wonderful love and mercy, by the advantage of our great unworthiness and misery, and to forgive much, that we may love thee much: And if after all this, we should doubt of thy willingness, to forgive believing penitent souls, we should greatly much, that we may love thee much: And if after all this, we should doubt of thy willingness, to forgive believing penitent fouls we should greatly wrong the riches of thy grace. Thou foughtest us when we fought not after thee. And it is by thine own command that we feek thee, and beg thy mercy: And thou givest us thy very desires, which we pour out before thee: Thou beseechest us to be reconciled, and to receive thy grace: And shall we question then whether thou art willing to give it? There is enough in the Sacrifice and Merits of thy Son, to expiate our fins, and justifie penitent Believers in thy fight. Thou hast made him the infallible Teacher of thy Church : He is a King most fit to rule us, to defend and justifie us: Thy Spirit is the Sanctifier of Souls; And thy Love is sufficient to be our everlasting felicity and rest. We therefore humbly give up our selves, to thee our GOD; To thee our Father, our Saviour, and our Sanctifier; Beseeching thee to receive us upon the terms of thy Covenant of Grace. Remember not against us our youthful folly, ignorance and lufts: Forgive our fecret and our open fins; Our fins of negligence, rashness and presumption; especially those sins, which we have deliberately and wilfully committed, against our knowledge and the strivings of thy grace. Renew and fanctifie us throughly by the Spirit; take from us the old and stony hearts, and

us the divine and heavenly nature; and make us resign and devote our selves and all that thou givest us, entirely to thee, as being thine own. Bring all the powers of our souls and bodies, into a full subjection to thy Government. O shew us thine infinite Goodness and Perfections, and the wonderful Mercy, which thou hast given us in Christ; and shed abroad thy Love upon our hearts by the Holy Glory, that we may be constrained by thy Love, to love thee above all things, with all our hearts, and foul, and might. Let the beams of thy Love, fo fire our hearts, that we may love thee fervently, and delight to love thee, and taste the beginning of the heavenly Felicity and Pleasures in thy Love, and may perceive that we can never Love thee enough 5. but may still be longing to love thee more. We dare not say [O that we could love thee as thouart worthy! for that is above both Men and Angels: But O that we could love thee as much as we would love thee! Till we came to that most blessed state, where we should love thee more than now we can desire! If we never had sinned in word, or deed, the Want and Weakness of our Love to thee; is a fin which we can never fufficiently lament; and the very shame of our corrupted Natures; and a burthen that we cannot bear ! we crave no other felicity in this life, than to know the better and to love Give us the Spirit of Adoption, thee more. which may possels us with all child-like affections to thee, as our Reconciled God and Pather in Cause us to make our Ultimate End, Christ. and to feek thy Glory in all that we do. Let it be our chiefest study in all things to please thee, to promote thy Kingdom, and to do thy will. Set up thy Glory above the Heavens, and let thy name be fan-Sified in all the Earth. O that the world which is ruled by the malicious Prince of darkness, might receive and obey thy holy Laws; and in the beauty and harmony of holiness, be made more like the Saints in Heaven. Reform the Churches which are darkned and defiled, and cast down that Tyranny, Ungodliness, Herefie and Schism which keep out Knowledge, Holiness and Peace. Preserve and bless the Reformed Churches, especially in these Kingdoms where we live; Bless the Queen and all in Authority, teach our Teachers, and give both able and faithful Paflors to all the Congregations of these Lands. And give the People obedient, pious and peaceable minds. Cause us to seek first thy Kingdom and Righteoniness; and let all other things be added to us. Give us all necessaries for the sustaining of our natures; and make us contented with our daily bread, and patient, if for our fins we want it. Teach us to improve our precious time, and not to spend it in idleness, or fin, but dispatch the Work, upon which our endless life dependeth; and to live as we shall wish at last that we had lived. Let our daily fins be daily and unfeignedly repented of; and be daily pardoned through Jesus Christ; and let us live in the belief of his mediation, according to our continual necessities. Let thy exceeding Love and pardoning Mercy teach us to love our Neighbours as our selves; and to love our Enemies, and to pardon wrongs, and do good to all according to our power. Strengthen us in our warfare against the Flesh, the World and the Devil; that we may not only relist, but overcome. Keep us from the baits and mates of fin; and let us not thrust our selves into temptations. Save us from ignorance and un-

and worldliness, and flothfulness, and all finful pleafing of the flesh. Cause us to worship thee in holinels, and reverently to use thy dreadful Name, and to remember the keeping holy of thy Day. Keep us from finful disobeying our Superiours; and all unfaithful neglecting our Inferiours; and from injuring any in thought, word or deed. Keep us from finful wrath and passions: From all unchastity in thoughts, defices, words, or actions. Keep us from straling and defrauding others; from lying, fundering and backbiting; and mortifie that felfishness, which would fet us against our Neighours welfare; keep us from the judgments which we deferve? and let all afflictions work together for good. Another Prayer for Families: For Evening, cr.

Eternal God, infinite great and wife, and good, our reconciled merciful Father in Christ, reject not us vile and miserable Sinners, who constrained by one necessities, and invited by thy Goodness, cast down our selves in the humble confession of our sine, and thankful acknowledgement of thy manifold mercies, and earnestly begthy further Grace.

We were born with corrupted finful Natures, which from our Childhood we increased by actual fin. And though thy great Mercy had given us a fufficient Saviour and Covenant of Grace, and betime engaged us to thee in that Covenant by our Baptismal Fow, and gave us the great mercy of the Gospel, and Christian Education; yet did we sinfully forget our Creator, unthankfully neglect our Redeemer, and rebellioully refift the Holy Ghost: How blindly, how wilfully, and how long did we follow our flethly minds and lufts, and loved pleafure more than God, and lived brutishly by sense and appetite, and minded little but the Vanities of this World: Yet all this while didst thou preserve our lives, and supply our wants, and fave us from many a danger and calamity, when thy Justice might have cut us off in our fins, and fent us to Hell as we deferved: But we abufed thy patience, and all thy Mercies, and wasted our precious time in fin, and refused or delayed to repent. and hearkned not to the voice of thy Spirit & Word, thy Ministers or our Consciences, but hardned our hearts against them all. We know that we must die, but we prepared not for it: Nor seriously thought of the Life that followed! We did not by a changed heart and life, prepare for the great Change which death will make, nor confider that except we are born again of the Spirt, we cannot enter into the Kingdom of Heaven! We-were never fure one day, or night, or hour, to fee another, and we knew our time could not be long, and were oft told, that as we lived here, we must speed in Heaven or Hell for ever, and yet alas how fenflefly have we heard and known all this? And how little care have we taken for our fouls, that they might be faved from Sin & Hell, and live with Christ in thoheavenly Glory, in comparison of the care that we have taken for our bodies, which we know must shortly turn to dust! Alas, Pride, and Folly, and the Vanities of this world and example of sinners, and the floth, and appetite, and lusts of our own flesh have deceived us, and threed away our hearts from thee. And while we quieted our conscience with the name of Christianity and a dead and outside shew of Worship we were strangers to a holy and heavenly Heart and Life, and drew near thee with our lips, while our hearts were far from thee. And those of us whom thy Grace hath turned from this fin and vanity to thy felf, did too long stand out and delay our Conversion, and resist thy Spirit. And fince we have ferved thee, alas how poorly, how coldly, how unconflantly, with what wavering and divided hearts, as if we were loth to leave the world and fin: And by how many Failings have wa quenched thy Spirit, and wronged thy Glory, and our Brethrens souls, and hindred our own Comfort and increase of Grace? We have too little differed in heart and life from the ungodly, and from our former state of sin; and no wonder if our Faith, Hope and Love be weak, and if we have little of the Joys of thy Love and our Salvation.

But, O thou the merciful Pather of Spirits, have mercy upon us; Forgive our great and manifold Sins! Woe to us that ever we were born, if thou deal with us as we deferve! How quickly then shall we be in Hell, past all remedy, in endless pain and desperation? Where we shall have time to lament that sin in vain which we would not forsake in the day of our Visitation.

But we appeal from Justice of thy Law of Innocency, to the Blood and Merits of Jefus our Redeemer, and to thy Law and Covenant of Grace, which for his Propitiation freely pardoneth all penitent true Believers. We are Sinners, but he is Righteous and hath fatisfied for our fins, We are worthy of misery, but he is worthy for whom thy mercy should xorgive our fin ! O walh us in his Blood! Justifie, adopt and accept us in him. O take possession of our Souls by that Spirit which is the Advocate and Witnels of Christ, and which may dwell in us as a principal of Spiritual life, and may form us fully to thy Will and Image, and overcome in us the Flesh, the World and the Devil, and be our Seal and Pledge, and Earnest, and first fauits of everlasting life. Let his quickning virtue heal our Ignorance, Errour and Unbelief, and fill our minds with Faith, and Wisdom. Let his conversing, Sanctifying Virtue, kill in us the love of Pleatures, Honours and Riches of this World, and give us a fettled hatred of all fin, and fill our hearts with fervent love to Thee, thy word, thy ways, and fervants, and to all men in their several capacities, and cause us to delight our Souls in thee. Leave us not to ferve thee outwardly and unwillingly from fear alone: But make thy Love and Service to be our Food and Feast, our Business and our Recreation. O make thy ways so pleasant to us, that we may have no need to beg pleasure at the Devils door, nor to steal the forbidden

Let the thoughts of thy precious Love in Christ, of our Pardon and Peace with thee, and of the heavenly endless joys with Christ which thou hast promised us, be the readiest and sweetest thoughts of our minds; and a daily Cordial at our hearts, to rejoyce them under all the croffes and vexation of this World, and the pains of our flesh and the fore-fight of death, and to comfort us at a dying hour. O cause us all the days of our lives to comfort our selves and one another with these words, That we shall be for ever with our glorified Lord, more than with the possession and hopes of Life, or Health, or Wealth, or any thing which Earth affordeth. Teach us to Redeem our short and precious Time, and to cast away no part of it on vanity; but to lay up our Treasure in Heaven, and first to feek thy Kingdom and its Righteousness, and to give all diligence to make our calling and election fure, and to work out our Salvation with fear and trembling, remembring that we must be judged according to our Works. Teach us to worthip thee spiritually and acceptably through Christ; To reverence thy Name, and Word, and Ordinance, and to fanctifie thy Holy Day: To honour our Superiours, and behave our felves aright to our Equals and Inferiours: To wrong none in their Bodies, Chastity, Estates, or Names; but to do as we would be done by: To love our Neighbours, as our felves: To love and forgive our Enemies, and those that do us wrong. Cause us to hate and overcome our selfishness, pride, sensuality, worldlinels, hypocrifie, and all our fleshly lusts which fight against the Spirit, and are odious in thy Sight. Help us to govern our thoughts, affections, fenles, appetites, words and actions, by thy Word and Spirit: To labour faithfully in our Callings; to flie from idleness; and yet to be contented with our daily Bread. Prepare us for all fufferings with faith, hope and patience. Cause us to overcome in all Temptations, and to preserve unto the end; that having lived soberly, rightcouffy and Godly in this world, we may joyfully receive the sentence of death; and that may be the day of our entrance into the heavenly joys, which is the terror of the wicked, and the beginning of their endless milery.

O fend the word of life to the dark and miserable Nations of the Earth: Call the Kingdoms of Heathens and Infidels to the faving knowledge of Jesus Chilt. Let every Knee bow to him, and every Tongue confess him to thy Glory. Subdue the proud and rebellious Tyrants of the Earth, who keep out the Gospel, and keep up Wickedness, and set up their Interest against the Kingdoms and Interest of Christ. Deliver the Churches from all their oppress. fors and Deceivers; and reform them to fuch Wildom, Holiness and Concord, that their light may shine to Mahometans, and other Infidels, and domore to win them to Christ, than the scandal of their ignorance, wickedness and division, bath done, to hinder the Worlds conversion and falvation. O thew the partial, blind, uncharitable and contentious Christians, the true way of peace, in returning to the ancient simplicity and purity of Doctrine, Worship, Discipline and Conversation. Save all the Churches from their fins and enemies. Bless these Kingdoms, and never take thy Gospel from us: Bless the Queen, with all her Nobles, Judges & Magistrates, that they may Rule as being ruled by thy Laws and Spicit, promoting Knowledge, Holinels and Peace, and suppressing Deceivers, Ungodliness and Injustice, that we may live a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. Be merciful to all Christian Congregations, and give them able, holy and laborious Pastors; who will guide the Flocks in the way of life with the Wildom from above, which is first pure, and then peaceable and gentle; even by found Doctrine, and holy living, and by love and concord among themselves, according to the blessed Example of our Lord. Be merciful to the afflicted, by fickness, pains, wants, dangers or distress of soul: Bless their fuffering to their fanctification & falvation, and relieve them in the time and way as is most for thy Glory and their Good. Save the prosperous from the temptations of prosperity. Be merciful to this xamily, and let there be no ignorant, ungody, fleshly, worldly persons in it that shall serve the Flesh and the Devil instead of serving thee, and sell their souls for the pleasure of sin. Keep us all in holiness, love and peace, and in our duties to one another: And let thy bleffing be on all our fouls and Bodies, and on our labours and affairs; and let not thy Judgments feize upon us.

VI. APrayer for Converting Grace, to be used by Unconverted, which are convinced of their finful miserable state.

Most holy, just and dreadful God, yet gracious and ready to receive poor Sinners, who penitently return unto thee by Paith in Christ. Pirifully behold this miserable Sinner, who is prostrate as at thy Feet, and flyeth with fear from thy terrible Justice, in hope of thy pardoning and faving mercy. I hear from thy Word, that thou hast Redeemed the World by Jesur Christ, and he hath fatisfied thy Justice as a Propiniation for our fins, & hath merited thy pardoning faving Grace, for all that truly believe & repent, and heartily accept of Christ for the faving work and benefits of his mediation: But I hear, that except we repent, we shall all perish ; and that he that believeth shall not be damned : and that except we be born again of the Spirit, & be converted,& become as little Children, we cannot enter into the Kingdom of God; & that without holiness none shall see thee: And that if any Man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his; and that all that are in Christ are new Creatures, old things are passed away, & all things are become new; and that the carnal mind is enmity, & neither is nor can be subject to thy Law; & that if we live after the Flesh, we shall die: And that Christ is the Author of eternal Salvation to all that obey him.

I am convinced, O Lord, That thou art my Creator, and therefore my Owner, and that I and all that I have and can do, should be used to thy Glory, as thine own. As also that thou art the rightful Governour of the World: That thy Laws are holy, and just, and good; That my baseness, and folly,& corrupted will do make me unfit to rule mylelf. I am convinced, that thou art best and best to me, and that I should love thee with all my heart, and vilihe all the Pleatures, and Riches and Honours of this World, in comparison of thee. I am convinced that all this World is vanity, and that Heaven alone, where thou art feen and perfectly loved and praifed, is the only felicity of Souls; and should be sought before all transitory things. I am convinced that Thou art the first and tast, of whom, and through whom, and to whom, both I and all things are. And I am convinced that'my forfaking thee, and turning to my carnal felf and this deceitful World, and all my fins, deferve thy wrath, and my destruction and that I have no hope but in penitent fincere convertion to Thee, by Faith in Christ the only Reconciler.

But alas, the hardness of my heart, the power of unbelief and fleshly lufts, prevaileth against all this conviction! I fear left all my knowledge will but condemn me, to be beaten with many stripes !When I know that I should do good, evil is present with me; and the will of the flesh prevaileth against thy holy Will. The custom of funning hath increased my finful inclination: And I have not a will which hateth my pleasant and gainful fine: I forbear them oft through fear, while I love them, and wish that thou didft not forbid them. Long have I been withing and purpoling to repent, and come to thee; But alas, how many promites have I changed, and how how many promifes have I broken, and how many wishes have come to nothing? My corrupted will enflived by my fenfe, will not change it felf; nor forfake the pleasant Vanities, which it loveth. O that I had a Heart, a Will, to love thee as much above all the World, as I know I should love thee! And to delight in thee, and thy holy ways, in thy Grace, and in the hopes of glory, as much as I know, thou art more delectible than all the pleasures of the World and Sin! O that I had a heart that would enlargedly run the way of thy Commandments, and did delight to do thy Will, O God; and did fill obey thee, from thy power of love! O that the new nature did more strongly encline me to Thee, and to thy Service, then my corrupted nature, enclineth me, to the interest of carnal self and sense! O that I had a heart to believe in Christ, as strongly as I know I should believe in him, and to hate sin as much as I am consince that I should hate it; and to live by faith, and not by fight!

And though these desires may be but from the power of felf-love, and the fears of Hell, O that I had more spiritual and sincere desires!

I have corrupted this heart, O Lord, but I cannot renew it. I have defiled it, but I cannot cleanle it. I have kindled in it the fire of finful lufts, but I cannot quench it. I have undone my felf, and rejested that Saviour, and refisted that holy Spirit which should have functified and laved me; And I have not a thought nor a defire, a will nor an endeayour for my own recovery, but of that Gift; nor shall I so much as forbear my own sin and destruction, unless thy Mercy turn me or restrain me. I have none to fly to now, or in the hour of last extremity, but that God whom I have so hainously offended! I have none to trust in, but the Sayiour whom I have fo ~ X 2 unthankfully

Have mercy upon me, O God, according to the greatness of thy mercy, I have linned like a frail and foolith man; but do thou have mercy on me, as a gracious God. As my fin hath abounded, let thy Grace much more abound. When I hear of the wonderful defign of thy love in faving lost Sinners by Jesus Christ, and at what a rate he hath redeemed Souls, it reviveth my hope and fainting heart! When I think, that it is not the way of thy Providence, to bring Men by innocency to Heaven but by healing and recovering Grace, and that all mens souls, save Christs, that are now in Heaven, were once Sinners on Earth, as I now am, and that thou hast glorified none, but fuch as were first condomned by the Law, and had deferved everlasting death; It emboldneth me to hope for mercy and falvation. Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right Spirit within Men, I am dead in fin, and almost past feeling! O when wilt thou quicken me, and cure my flupidity! I have a heart as hard as a stone it self! It feeleth not fin! It feareth not thy Judgments as it ought! It relisheth not a right thy Mercy! It trembleth not to think of Death, and Hell, though I have no afsurance to be thence one day! O when wilt thou turn this stone into a new and tender heart! I have a prefumptuous and felf-flattering heart, that will hardly fear what it would not feel! I have a carelels fortish heart, which little regardeth the things of everlasting consequence; as if it cared not where I dwell for ever! O when wilt thou give me a necessary care of my own Salvation! The Spirit of flumber hath seized on me! I see my sins, and cannot forbear them! I see my duty, and have not a heart to do it! I fee my danger, and yet run upon it! I foresee the dreadful awakening day of Death and Judgment, when the most senseles Sinners shall reel and fear; and yet I have not a heart to stir, and cry for grace, and strive as for the life of a miserable Soul, nor fly to Christ, and improve the day of my Vilitation. I know that this is the accepted time, and this is the day of Salvation! And that all that ever must be done for Heaven must be quickly done! I know that I must now be faved from lin, or else I shall never be saved from Hell! And yet alas, my flumbering fenfeless Soul awaketh not! I fee time is swiftly posting away; my Glassis almost run out. The frailties of my decaying corruptible flesh are daily warning me to prepare! But I cannot, I cannot, alas, Lord, I cannot! There is not a heart in me to believe and feel, and fet on duty, and to do my part. My time is going! O precious Time! It is going, Lord, and almost gone! Many that have gone to to the Grave before me, have been my warnings! I have but a few breaths more to breath, and I am gone from hence for ever: And yet, alas, my work is undone! My Soul is unready! If I die this night, O where shall I awake, and where must I take up my endless dwelling! It is thy wonderful mercy which hath kept me alive and from hell so long! The time that's past will never return: It is in vain to call it back. When I am once gone hence there is no returning to live better, or to die better, and make a better preparation for eternity. It must be now or never: And yet my fenfeless fluggish soul scarce feeleth or firreth at all this. O thou that art the living God, and raised Jesus Christ from the dead, revived and raise this stopid Soul. Lord Jesus raise me, by thy quickning Spirit, which hath raised millions that were dead in fin. O speak effectually that word of life, Awake thou that fleepest, and stand up from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. Awake me by thy Grace, left the Thunder of thy wrath, and the fire of Hell too late awake me!

And, Lord, I have a dark, and ignorant, a prejudiced, and an unbelieving heart: It flaggereth at thy Word! Ir questioneth the Scriptures! It looketh strangely upon Christ himfelf! Iclooketh doubtingly and amizally towards the world to come, I am fo captivated in flesh, and used to live by fight and fence, that I can scarce believe or apprehend the things unfeen, tho' thou hast revealed them with certain evidence! O for one beam of thy heavenly Illumination! Pity a dark and unbelieving foul! Alay if unbelief prevail, Christ will be as no Christ to me, and the Fromise as no Promise, and Heaven as no Heaven. O heal this evil heart of unbelief, which hath neglected Christ, his Sacrifice, Merits, Do-Erine, Example, his Covenant, and his Intercession. and hath departed from the living God. A promife is left us of entring into Rest, O let me not fall shore by unbelief! Let me be taught by the inward Light: of thy Spirit, to understand the Light of thy holy Word and leave me not in the power of the Prince of darkness.

And Lord, my will is as finful as my mind. It is by affed by fence, and followeth the rage of lust and appetite! O how little is it inclined to thee, and to Heaven, and to any holy work, I can love my flesh, I can love my food, and eafe, and wealth, I can love my Friend! yea, wretch that I am, I can love my fin, my brutish God provoking fin! But O that I could fay, Hove my Saviour, and love my God, and love the Place of glorious Perfection above all these; O rough this Heart with the load-stone of thy Love: O kindle in this heavenly fire; Nothing will do it but the holy Spirit of Love, working with the Revelation through the merits and intercession of my blessed Saviour, who hath encouraged me with the Publican, to hang down this ashamed face, and smire upon this guilty Breast and in hope through his Name to cry anto thee, God be merciful to me a Sinner! Amen, Amen.

VII. A Confession and Prayer for a penitent Sinner. Most Great, Most Wile and Gracious God; I though thou hatest all the Workers of Iniquity and canst not be reconciled unto sin; yet through the mediation of thy bleffed Son, with pity helfold this miserable Sinner, who casteth himself down at the foot-stool of thy Grace. Had I lived to those high and holy ends, for which I was created and redeemed, I might now have come to thee with the boldness and confidence of a child, in assurance of thy Love and Favour. But I have played the Fool and the Rebelagainst thee, I have wilfully forgotten the God that made me, and my Saviour that redeemed me, and the endless Glory which thou didst fet before me: I forgot the business which I was fent for into the World: And have lived as if I had been made for nothing but to pass a few days in fleshly pleasure, and pamper a Carkass for the Worms: I willfully forgor, what it is to be a Man, who hath Reason given him to rule his sless, and to know his God: and to foresee his death, & the state of immortality: and I made my Reason a Servant to my Senses. and lived too like the Beafts that perish. O the precious time which I have loft, which all the world cannot call back! O the calls of Grace which I have neglected; and the teachings of God which I have relisted; the wonderful love which I unthankfully rejected! and the manifold mercies which I have abused, & turned into wantonness & sin! how deep is the guilt which I have contracted! and how great are the Comforts which I have loft! I might have lived all this while, in the love of thee my gracious.

wious God; & in the delights of thy holy Word & Ways; in the daily sweet fore-fight of Heaven, and in the joy of the Holy Ghost; if I would have been ruled by thy righteous Laws. But I have heakened to the flesh and to this wicked and deceitful world; and have preferred a short and sinful life, before thy Love and endless Glory.

Alas, what have I been doing fince I came into the World? Folly and Sin have taken up my time, I am ashamed to took back upon the years which I have spent: And to think of the temptations which I have yielded to! Alas, what trifles have enticed me from my God? How little have I had for the holy pleasures which I have loft? Like Efan I have prophanely fold my Birth-right for one morfel. To please my fancy, my app ite and my lust, I have let light by all the joys of Heaven! I have unkindly despised the goodness of a y maker; I have slighted the love and grace of my Redeemer! I have refifted thy noly Spirit, filenced my own Conscience, and grieved thy Ministers and my most faithful Friends! And have brought my felf into this woful cale wherein I am athame and burden to my felf; and God is my terror, who should be my only hope and joy.

Thou knowest my secret sins, which are unknown to men! Thou knowest all their aggravations! My sins, O Lord, have found me out! My sears and forrows overwhelm me! If I look behind me! I see my wickedness pursue my soul, as an army ready to overtake me and devour me! If I look before me, I see thy just and dreadful judgment, and I know that thou wilt not account the guilty! If I look with n me I see a dark defiled heart! If I look without me, I see a world still offering fresh temprations to deceive me! If I look above me, I see thine offended dreadful Majesty! And if I look beneath me, I see the place of endlist coments and the company with which I deserve to suffer! I am asraid to live, and more afraid to dye.

But yet when I look to thine abundant Mercy and to thy Son, and to thy Covenant, I have hope, Thy Goodness is equal to thy Greatness: Thou art love it felf; and thy mercy is over all thy Works: So wonderfully bath thy Son condescended unto Sinners, and done sustered so much for their Salvation, that if yet I should question thy willinguess to forgive, I should but add to all my fins; by dishonouring that matchless mercy which thou did defign to glorifie. Yea more, I find upon record in thy word, that through Christ thou hast made a Covenant of Grace, an Act of Oblivion, in which thou hast already conditionally but freely pardoned all; granting them the forgiveness of all their fins, without any exception, when ever by unfeigned Eaith and Repentance, they turn to thee by Jefus Christ. And thy present mercy doth increase my hope, in that thou hast not cut me off, nor utterly left me to the hardness of my heart, but shewest me my fin and danger before I am past remedy.

O therefore behold this prostrate Sinner, which with the Publican finitteth on his breaft, and is ashamed to look up towards Heaven. O God be merciful to me a Sinner. I confess not only my original Sin, but the follies and fury of my youth, my manifold Sins of ignorance and knowledge, of negligence and wilfulness: Of omission and commission: against the Law of Nature, and against the Grace and Gospel of thy Son! Forgive and save me O my God, for thy abundant Mercy, and for the Sacrifice and Merit of thy Son, and for the Promife of forgiveness which thou hast made through him: For in these alone is all my trust. Condemn me not, who condemn my felf. O thou that hast opened so precious a fountain for fin and for uncleannets, wath me throughly

The Poor Han's Family Book. throughly from my wick dness, and cleanse me from my fin. Though thy Justice might send me presently to Hell, let thy mercy triumph in my Salvation. Thou hast no pleasure in the death of Sinners, but rather that they repent and live! If my repentance be not fuch as thou requireft, O foften this hardned, flinty heart, and give me repentance unto life! Tuen me to thy felf. O God of my Salvation and cause thy face to fhine upon me! Create in me a clean heart, and renew a right Spirit within me! Meet not this poor returning Prodigal in thy wrath, but with the embracements of thy tender mercies! Cast me not away from thy presence; and sentence me not to depait from thee with the workers of Iniquity! Thou who didst patiently endure me when I dispifed thee, refuse me not now I feek unto thee and here in the dust implore thy merey! Thou didst convert and pardon a wicked Manaffeth, and a perfectiting Saul! And there are multitudes in Heaven who were once thine Enemies; Glorific also thy super abounding Grace in the forgivenels of my abounding fins.

Task not for liberty to fin again, but for deliverance from this finning nature. O give me the renewing Spirit of thy Son, which may fanctifie all the powers of my foul! Let me have the new & heavenly Firth and nature; and the Spirit of adoption to reform me to thine Image, that I may be holy as thou are holy. Huminate me with the faving Knowledge of thy felf and thy Son Jefus Christ. O fill me with thy love: that my heart may be wholly fet upon thee and the remembrance of thee may be my chief delight. Let the freest and sweetest of my thoughts run after thee; And freest and sweetest of my difcourfe be of thee, and of thy Glory and Kingdom, and of thy word and ways. O Let my treasure be laid up in Heaven, and there let me daily and delightfully converte. Make it the great and daily.

buliness of my devouted Soul, to please thee, and to honour thee, to promote thy Kingdom, and to do thy will! Pur thy fear into my heart, that I may never depart from thee: This world hath had too much of my beart already: Let it now be crucifyed to me, and I to it, by the Cross of Christ. Let me not love it, nor the things which are therein : but having Food and Rayment, cause me therewith to be content. Destroy in me all fleshly lusts; that I may not walk after the Blesh, but the Spirit. Keep. me from the fnares of wicked company, and from the councel and ways of the ungodly. Bless me with the helpful communion of the Saints; and with all the means which thou hast appointed to further our San Etification and Salvation. O that my ways were to directed that I might keep thy Statutes! Let me never return again to folly, nor forget the Covenant of my God! Help me to quench the first motions of fin, and to abhor all finful defires and choughts; and let thy Spirit strengthen me against. all temptations, that I may conquer and endure all remptations, that I may conquer and endure to the end. Prepare me for fufferings, and for Death and Judgment, that when I must leave this sinful world, I may yield up my departing foul with joy, into the faithful hands of my dear Redeemer! that I be not numbered with the ungodly who dye in their unpardoned fin, and pass into everlasting misery; tur may be found in Christ, having the righteousness which is of God by Faith; and may attain to the refurrection of the just: That so the remembrance of the fin and miferies from which thou haft delivered me, may further my perpetual thanks and p aile, to thee my Creator, my Redeemer, and my Prosper thy Gospel and the Kingdom of thy Son, that Sinners may more abundantly be converted to thee, and this Earth. may be made like unto Heaven: That when thou hast gathered us all into Unity in Christ we may all with perfect Love and loy afcribe to thee the Kingdom, the Power and the Glory, for ever and ever-Amen.

VIII. Prayer and Praise for the Lord's Day.

Lorious Jehovah, Thou art infinitely above the Praile of Angels! Much more of such tintul Worms as we are; Far be it from us to think. that thou needest any thing that we can do, or that all our praise can add unto thy blessedness! But thy love and mercy hath advanced us to this honour, and made our own felicity our duty : For all that are far from thee shall perish; but it is good for us to draw near to thee! And least the vanities & businets of this world thould hinder us, thou haft appointed us this thy special day, that our composed minds might be taken up with thy Love and Praise, and might attend upon thee without distraction, & might fore-taste our everlasting Rest. O be thou now to thy fervant's fouls, the Spirit of Life, the Spirit of Light, and Love, and Power! That the heavenly life may quicken us to this holy and heavenly work; that by Faith we may see thee in thine own communicated Light; and that our Love may rife with feryour and delight through the sweet communication of thy love, and that all within us which doth refift, mayche over-powered by thy fliength, which is manifested in our weakness; that so the facrifice of our Persons and of our Praises, which we hunbly Whepoorman's Family-Book.

Thou, and thou alone art God, the immortal and invisible Spirit; Eternal and Infinite in Being and Perfections! Before the forming of the World, from everlasting to everlasting thou are God. Thy Understanding is infinite! Thou perfectly knowest thy felf and all things; but act comprehended by none! Thy will is good, yea Goodnets it felf and perfect Love: loving thy felf and all thy works ! Thou art the Almighty, and nothing is too hard for thee, Thou art the Creator of all the World; Thou broughtest all things out of nothing! Thou spakest the word, and they were made; Thou gavest their Being to the glorious Angels, and all the intellectual Spicits! All the Heavens were made by thee! Thou faideft let there be light, and there was light! Thou madeft the Sun and all the Stars. Thou gavest them their wonderful powers, and their offices; that by their Light, and Ileat and Motion, they might be for Life and Action, and for Times and Scalons here below: How glorious art thou, O God, in these thy wondrous works ! the greatness, the glory, and the virtues whereof, are fo far beyond our dark apprehensions; The higher Spirits who better know them, and possess the high and glorious Mansions, do better praise thee, the great Creator, whose Word did form that noble frame, when the morning Stars did fing together, and all the Sons of God did fhout for joy. Thou madest the Earth, the Land and Sea, and all the Creatures that dwell therein: All Fowl and Fishes, Beasts and Plants. In wonderful Variety, Beauty and Virtue hast thou made them all. The Air and Clouds, the Thunder and Lightning, the Rain and Snow, the Winds and Earth-Quakes, the Marvellous Motions of the Sea, are all thy great unfearchable Works. The finalest Worm or

Flower

Flower doth far furpals our knowledge : How then thould mortals comprehend the greatness and harmonious order of the World; How thou hast founded the Earth upon nothing. And what is in the depths thereof; How thou movest and maintainest. and preferveft the order of the universal frame, and caulest the sweet and powerful influences of the fierv and coelestial parts, upon the things below; How thou shuttest up the Sea with sandy doors, and makest the Clouds to be its Garments, and the Darkness as its swadling Bands, and sayest, Hitherto and no further shalt thou come: How great O Lord, and manifold are thy works; In perfect Wifdom, Goodness and Power thou hast made them all.

But it is man whom thou hast made the noblest Inhabitant of this lower World : Thou breathedeft into his body the breath of life, and he became a living foul: Thou madft him a little lower than the Angels, that thou mightest crown him with glory and honour: Thou gavest him Dominion over the works of thy hands; and haft put all things below, as under his feet. Thou madest him in thine Image, with an understanding Mind, and unforced Will, and executive Power; to Know and Love, and Serve thee, his most Wife, and Good, and Great Creator. Thou placedst him in this lower World. that he might pass through it to the bleffed presence of thy Glory. Thou becamest a Father to him, being his Owner, his Ruler and his Chiefest Good; even his Great Benefactor, and his Ultimate End: That he might live in absolute Resignation, Subjection and Love to thee. Thou gavest him, in Nature and in thy Precept, a Law, which was holy, just and good, that by following thy conduct he might please thee, and attain to full felicity. Thou didft furnish him with all things necessary to his Obedience, and oblige him thereto by the abundance of thy Bleslings. But he quickly fell from his Innocency and Honour, by turning from his God: He believed the faste and envious Tempter, even when he accused thee of fasthood and envy: As if all thy wondrous Works and Mercy, had not proved thee to be True and Good. Thus did Man foolishly requite the Lord, and torsook the Rock of his Salvation. And by one man fin entred into the World and death by sin. But Mercy rejoyced against Judgment, and thou didst not let out all thy wrath: But with the sentence of death thou didst joyn the Promise of a Redeemer. O that Men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful Works for the Children of Men.

As thou gavest the mercies of the promise to the Pather; so in the sulness of time thou didst send thy Son. He came and took our Nature to his Godhead: Being convinced by the Holy Ghost: Made of a Woman, under the Law. Born of a Virgin: He made himself of no reputation; but took upon him the form of a Servant, and was made in the likeness of Men. O wonderful condescending love! Angels proclaimed it; and Angels admire it, and search into it, and in the Churches-Glass they still behold the manifold Wildom of God: How long then should Redeemed Sinners sall, in the humble admirations of this Grace! How high should they rise in the thankful praise of their Redeemer.

He came on Barth and converst with Men, to make known to Men the invisible God, and the unfeen things of the World above. He came as the Light and Saviour of the World, to bring to light immortality and life. He was holy, harmless and undefiled, separated from Signers, and suffilling all right teousness, that he might be a meet high Priest and es-

fellual Saviour of Sinners. He taught us by his per" f.& Doctrine and Example, to be humble and obedient, and to contemn this World; to deny our felvers and hear the Cross, that we may attain the everlasting Crown of Glory. He humbled himself to the falle occufations and reproach of Sinners, and to the shameful and bitter death of the Cross, to make himfelf a Sacrifice and Propitiation for our Sins, and a ranfom for our guilty Souls, that we might be healed by his ftripes. O matchless Love, which even for enemier, did thus lay down his precions Life! He hath conquered and fanclified death and the grave to all Believers. He therefore took part of Fieth and Blood, that he might by death destroy the Devil that had the power of death; and deliver them, who through the fear of death, were all their life-time fubje & unto bondage. He hath procured for mankind a Covenant of Grace, and fealed it as his testament with his Blood. And now there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mightest be chearfully feared and obeyed in hope. It was thine own love to the World, O Father, which gave thine only begotten Son, that who foever truly believed in him, should. not perifh, but have everlifting Life. Theu woft in Christ reconciling the World unto thy self. and not imputing their fins unto them. Thou hast committed the word of reconciliation to thy Ministers, to befeech Sinners even in thy Name, and in the flead of Christ, to be reconciled to thee. Thou commandest them to offer thy mercy unto all, and by importunity to compel them to come in, that thy house may be filled, and thy bleffed feaft may be furnished with quells. Thou refusest none that come to thee by Christ. Thou denyest thy mercy to none but the oblinate and final Rejecters of it. Thou givest cternal life to them who were the Sons of death; and'

and this life is in thy Son: For he is able to fave to the uttermost all that come to thee by him. To as many as receive him thou gavelt power, to become the Sons of God. Thou gavest them also the Spirit of thy Son; even the Spirit of Adoption, to renew them to thy Holy Image, that they may be like their Heavenly Father; to fanclifie them to thy felf, and by shedding abroad thy love upon their hearts to draw up their hearts in love to thee. Thou makeft | them a peculiar people to thy felf, and Zvalous of good works, for which thou doft regenerate them-Thou givest them all repentance unto life; and coucifiest their stells and all its lustes: Thou teachest them to live foberly, righteoutly and godly, and favest them from this present evil world, and mortificst their sinful love thereof, that thou mayest have their love, and their felicity. O with what Love hast thou loved poor rebellious Sinners, that they should be converted and made the Sons of God, yea, Heirs of Heaven, and Co-heirs with Christ; that when we have fuffered with him, we may also be glorified with him!

Thou dost build thy Church upon the Rock, the blessed Mediator; that the power of Hell may not prevail against it. Thou hast made him Teacher, Priest and King: Of him we learn to know thee and thy will. By him we have our peace, our acceptance and access to thee. He is the Lord both of the Dead and Living. Thou hast delivered all things into his hands, and made him Elead over all things to the Church. When he afcended up on high, he appointed his Ministers, to gather, and order and edifie this univerfal Church, which is his Body. He gave his Apostles the infallible Spirit, to lead them into all truth; and the Spirit of power to be his witness by Miracles to the world. They have taught us all things whatfoever he commanded them, The Pool Man's Family-Book. 475 them, and committed that Doctrine in the Sacred Scriptures, to those Pastors and Teachers, whom thou hast appointed to Preserve and Preach it, and ro feed thy flock to the end of the world. And though linsalas, hath wofully defiled and Schifm divided thefe thy Churches; yet art thou still amongst them, and bearest with their Instituties, and givest them thing Oracles, and callest them to holiness, love and peace,

O that men would praise the Lord for his goodnels, and for his wondrous works for the Children of men! How glorious art thou, O Lord in holinefs! to be reverenced in the affemblies of the Saints, and honoured of all that are about thee! Holinel's becometh thy house for ever: In thy Temple shall every man speak of thy Glory. We bless thy Name O our great Creator! We bless thy Name our gracious Redeemer! We blefs thy Name, most Holy Spirit! O that our fouls could with greater thankfulnels magnifie the Lord, and our Spirits rejoyce in God our Saviour! Who hath pitied us in our loft estate, for thy mercy endureth for ever. We thank thee for our being! We thank thee that thou hast redeemed us from Sin and Hell? We thank thee that thou half brought us by Baptism into thy Covenant and Church: We thank thee for thefe high and facred Privileges; that we are not foreigners or strangers among the Heathen and Insidel world, but fellow Citizens with the Saints, and of the houshold of God, that we may stand in the presence of thy Holiness, and praise thee in the assemblies of Believers, and are not banished from the facred focieties and works. A day in thy Courts is better than a thousand: We had rather be Door-keepers in the house of God, than to dwell in the Palaces of Wickedness. Blessed are they that know the joyful found, and faithfully live under thu

the dews of Heaven! they shall walk, O Lord in the light of thy Countenance: In thy Name shall they rejoyce all the day, and in thy Righteousness shall they be exalted: for thou art their glory and their strength; and in thy favour they shall be safe,

But especially those whom thou hast brought into the invilible Church of the regenerate, can never fufficiently magnifie thy Grace. When we lived as without thee in the world; and never fincerely loved or defired thee, but followed our fleshly lusts, and the deceitful vanities of the World; when God was not in all our thoughts, and we had no pleafure in thy holy ways, when we despised Grace. and relisted thy Spirit, and went on adding fin to fin: Then didst thou pity us in our blood; Thou sentest us thy Word; thou madest it powerful on our hardned hearts. Thou broughtest us to consider of our state and ways, and gavest us some relenting and contrition. It is comfortable to us to reveiw the stirrings and victories of thy Grace, the melting of thy Mercy, and the coinforts of thy Love! When we feared left our fins would have been our damnation, and that thou wouldest never receivefuch wretched Rebels; how freely didst thou pardon all? how graciously didst thou embrace us? delightning to shew mercy, and overcoming our hearts with the greatness of thy Love? O how many sins didst thou forgive? What work had thy Spirit to do upon these ignorant, proud and selfish minds? Upon. these carnal, worldly and disobedient hearts? Howmany mercies, preservations, comforts, hast thou fince that time vouchsafed to us? How many desires hast thou first given us, and then accepted from us? How many afflictions hast thou shortned or sanctified? how many joyful or profitable hours have we had with thee alone in secret? and with thee

The Poor Pan's Family=Book. and thy people in the Communion of Saints? Many O Lordare thy wonderous works, and thy thoughts of mercy towards thy Servants: If we would reckon them in order and declare them before thee, they are more than can be numbted. And after all thefe, as Priests to God, we are here to offer thee the Sacrifice of praise? rejoycing in thee our portions and falvation.

And when this short and troublesome life is ended, we have the Promise that we shall rest with thee for ever. If in this life only we had hope, we should be of all Men most miserable. But thou wilt conduct us through this Wilderness, and guide us by thy counsel, and bring us in season to thy Glory. For thou hast not given us these faculties, to see thee and know thee, and love thee, and delight in the in vain: Thou wilt furely perfect Nature and Grace, and cause them to attain their end. The great undertaking, work and fufferings of our Redeemer shall not be in vain. Thy sealed promise shall not be broken. Thy Spirit hath not in vain renewed us, and sealed us to that blessed day: Nor shall thy pledge, and earnest, and witness within us, prove deceits. These desires and groans shall not be lost; And these weak beginnings of Light and Love, do foreshew our full fruition and perfection. This seed of Grace portendeth Glory: And the fore-tafts of Love, do tell us that we shall be happy in thy Love for ever. Our hope in thy goodness, thy Son, and thy Covenant, will never leave us frustrate and ashamed.

We therefore bless thy Name, O Lord, as those that are Redeemed from Death and Hell! as those who are advanced to the dignity of Sons! as those whom thou favest from all their enemies, but especially from our felves, and from our fins. We blefs thy Name, as those who are entring into Glory! And hope to be with Christ for ever! where sin and forrow, enemies and fears, thalf he shut our, and thall moleft our fouls no more for ever!

We forefre by Faith that happy day; We fee by Faith the New Jerusalem; the innumerable Angels; the perfect Spirits of the Just; their glorious Light, their fliming Love, their perfect Harmony; We heat by Eaith their joyful Songs of Thanks and Praife. Lately they were as low and fad as we: In fins and forrows, in minifold weakneffes, sufferings and fears: But by Faith and Patience they have overcome: And in Faith and Patience we define to follow our Lord and them; The time is near; this flesh will quickly turn to dust, and our delivered souls shall come to thee; our life is short, and our sias and forrows will be fhort; Then we shall have light; we shall no more groun, and cry out in darkness, O that we could know the Lord: Then thall we love thee with pure unmixed perfect Love; and need no more to groun and cry, O that our Souls were enflamed with thy Love: Then shall we praise thee with thankful alacity and joy, which will exceed our prefent apprehentions and defires.

O bleffed streams of Light and Love, which will flow from thy opened glorious face, upon our Souls for ever: How far will that everlasting Sabbath, and those perfect praises, excel these poor and dull endeavours as far as that triumphant City of God excelleth this imperfect childish, discomposed Church.

Quicken Lord our longing for that bleffed state and day; O come Lord Jefus, Come quickly; and fulfil thy Word, that we may be with thee where thou art, and may behold thy glory: Stay not till Faith shall fail from the Earth. Stay not till the powers of darkness conquerals the remnant of thine Inheritance, and make this World yet liker unto Hell: nor till the godly cease and the faithful fail from among Ahe Pool Man's Family Book. among the children of men : O when shall the world acknowledge their great Creator and Redeemer, and al hor their Idols, and scale from their unbelief: When shall the rest of the Heathens and Insidels be thy Sons Inheritance, and the Kingdoms of the World become his Kingdom : O when shall Heaven be made the pattern of this Earth; and men delight to do thy will: When shall the proud, the worldly and the fenfual, renounce their deceits, and walk humbly and holily with their God; and the fool whose heart denieth the Lord, and calleth not upon thee, but eateth up thy people as bread, return unto thee, and fear thy mene, and fight no more against his Maker: Haften, O Lord, the falvation of thy people, and keep them in uprightness and patience to the end: Have mercy upon all the ignorant and unreformed Churches in the World. Deliver them from the Eastern and Western tyranny, which keepeth out the means of knowledge and reformation: And restore them to the primitive purity, simplicity and unity, that their light might shine forth, to the winning of the Heathen and Infidel world, whom now their pollutions derive from Christ. Preserve and repair the Churches which are reformed; and revive among them knowledge, holiness and peace. Blels these Kingdoms with the light and power of the Gospel, and with peace. O bless the Queen, and all in Authority, with the wisdom, holiness and prosperity, which are needful to their own, and to the common good : And keep the Subjects in their duty to thee, and their Superiours: That we may live a quiet and peaceable life, in all godliness and honesty. Let all the Congregations be bleffed with burning shining Light : and let the Buyers and Sellers be cast out of thy Temple: and let not the malice of Satan, or the Sacriledge of men be able to hinder the Gospel of thy Kingdom, nor alienare thy devoted faithful Labourers, from thy harve st work.

Give us the necessaries of this present Life, and contented mind with what thou gavest us. And kill in us our worldly love, and flethly lufts.

Teach us to live daily by faith on our Redeemer: And by him let us have continual access to thee? and the daily Pardon of our daily fins: And a heart to love and pardon others. O save us from all the suggestions of Satan, and from the fnares of this world, and the allurements of Sinners and from all the corrupt inclinations of the slesh. And give us not up to sin, nor to our own concupiscence: Nor to the malice of Satan, or ungodly Men: Nor to any destructive punishment which our sin deserves. O teach us to know the work of life, and the preciousness of our short and hasty time; and to use it as will most comfort us at our last review: Teach us so to number our days as that we may apply our hearts to wildom; and not like fools, to wast in vain those precious hours, on which Eternity dependeth, and which all the world cannot call back; Let us do thy work with all our might; especially in our particular Callings and Relations. Let'us make our Callings and Election sure; and spend our days in the delightful exercise of faith, hope and love. Keep us still watchful, and in a continual readiness for Death and Judgment, & longing for the coming of our Lord. Let our hearts and conversations be in Heaven, fromwhence we look for our glorious Redeemer; in whose words we sum up all our prayers. Our Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy Name, Thy Thy Will be done, on Earth as it is in King dom come. Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespals against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the Kingdom, the Power and Glory, for ever, Amen. A Shorter

Whe Poor Han's Family: Book.

Ashorter Form of Praise and Prayer for the Lords-Day. Lorious Jehowah, while Angels & perfected Spi-I rits are praising thee in the presence of thy Glory, thou hast allowed and commanded us to take our part in the presence of thy Grace: We have the same Most holy God to praise; and though we fee Thee not, our Head and Saviour feeth thee, and our faith discerneth thee in the Glass of thy holy works and word. Though we are Sinnets, and unworthy, and cannot touch those holy things, without the marks of our pollution: yet have we a great High Priest with thee, who was reperated from Sinners, holy, harmless and undefiled, who appeareth for us, in the Merits of his spotless Life and Sacrifice, and by whose hands only we dare prefume to prefent a Sacrifice to the most holy God. And thou hast ordained this Day of holy Rest, as a Type and Means of that Heavenly Rest with the triumphant Church to which we appire, and for which we hope. Thou, didft accept their lower Praise on Earth, before they celebrated thy Praife in Glory: Accept curs also by the same Mediator.

Glory be to thee, O God, in the highest : On Earth Pence ; good will towards Men, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty, who wast, and art to come; liternal, without beginning or end; Immense, without all bounds or measure; the Infinite Spirit, Father, Word and Holy Ghoft. The infinite Life, Underflanding and Will, infinitely powerful, wife and good of Thee, and through Thee, and to Thee are all things. To thee be Glory for evermore. All thy works declare thy Glory; for thy glorious Perfectious appear on all, and for thy Glory, and the pleafure of thy holy Will, didst thou create them. The Heavens, and all the Hofts thereof; the Sun and all the glorious Staristhe Fire with its motion, light & heat; The Earth and all that dwell thereon, with all its fwe the d beaut. ous Ornaments; The Air and all the Meteors; the great Deeps and all that swim therein; All are the Preachers of thy Praise, and shew forth the great Creators Glory. How great is that power which made so great a World of nothing; which with wonderful swiftness moved those great and glorious Luminaries, which in a moment send forth the influences of their motion, light and heat through all the Air, to Sea and Earth; Thy powerful life giveth life to all; and preserveth this frame of Nature which thou hast made. How glorious is that Wisdom which ordereth allthings and assigneth to all their place & office, & by its perfect laws maintaineth the beauty and barmony of all; How glorious is that Goodness and Love, which made all good and every good!

We praise and glorifie Thee our Lord and Owner; for we and all things are Thine own, We praise and glorifie Thee our King and Ruler; For we are thy Subjects, and our perfect Obedience is thy due; Just are all thy Laws and Judgments; True and sure is all thy word. We praise and glorifie Thee, our great Benefactor; In thee we live, and move, and are; All that we are, or have, or can do, is wholly from Thee, the Cause of all; And all is for thee; for thou art our End. Delightfully to love Thee, is our greatest duty, and our only selicity; For thou

When man by fin did turn away his heart from Thee, believ'd the Tempter against thy Truth, obeyed his Senses against thy Authority and Wildom, & forsaking thy Fatherly love and goodness, became an Idol to himself: Thou didst not use him according to his desart; When we forsook Thee, thou didst not utterly forsake us; When we had lost our selves, & by sin became thine Enemies, condemned by thy law; Thy mercy pitied us, and gave us the Promise of a Redeemer, who in the fulness of time, did assume our Nature.

Nature, sussilied thy Law, and suffered for our sins, and conquering Death, did rise again, ascended to Heavon, and is our gloristed Head and Intercessor. Him hast thou exalted to be a Prince and Saviour to give us Repentance and Remission of sins. In him thou hast given Pardon and Justification, Reconciliation and Adoption by a Covenant of Grace, to every penitent Believer. Of Enemies, and the Heirs of death, thou hast made us Sons and Heirs of life.

We are the brands whom thou hast pluckt out of the fire, we are the Captives of Satan whom thou hast redeemed, we are the condemned Sinners, whom thou hast pardoned; We praise thee, we glorifie thee our Merciful God, and Gracious Redeemer. Our Souls have now Refuge from thy revenging wrath. Thy Promise is sure : Satan, and the world, and Death are overcome; our Lord is risen; He is risen, and we shall rife through him. O death where is thy sting ! O Grave where is thy Victory! Our Saviour is afcended to his Father and our Father, to his God and our God, and we shall ascend; To his hands we may commit our departing Souls; Our Head is glorified, and it is his will and promise that we shall be with him where he is to fee his Glory; he hath scaled us thereunto by his holy Spirit; We were dead in fins, and he hath quickned us; We were dark in Ignorance, and Unbelief, and he hath enlightned us; We were unholy and carnal, fold under fin; he hath fan-Etified our wills, and killed our Concupiscence. We praise and glorifie this Spirit of Life, with the Father and the Son from whom he is fent, to be Life and Light, and Love to our dead, and dark, and difaffe &ed Souls. We are created, & redeemed & fanctifyed for thy holy Love, and Praise, and Service; Olec these be the very nature of our Souls, and the employment and pleasure of all our Lives; O perfeet thy weak and languid Graces in us that our Love Love and Praise may be more perfect: We thank thee for thy Word, and sacred Ordinance; for the comfort of the holy Assemblies and Communion of the Saints; and for the mercy of these thy holy days. But let not thy Praise be here confined; but be our

Fain we would Praise thee with more holy and more joyful Souls: But how can we do it with to weak a faith, and so great darkness and stranguess to thee? with so little assurance of thy Favour and our Salvation? Can we rightly thank thee for the grace which we are still in doubt of? Fain we would be liker to those blessed Souls, who praise thee without our fears and dulness. But how can it be, while we love thee fo little, and have fo little tafte and feeling of thy Love? and whilst this load of fin doth press us down, and we are imprisoned in the remnant of our carnal affections? O kill this pride and felfishness, these Lusts and Passions. Destroy this unbelief and darkness, and all our fins, which are the enemies of us, and of thy praise. Make us more holy and heavenly; and O bring us nearer thee in Faith and Love, that we may be more suitable to the heavenly employment of thy Praife.

Vouchsafe more of thy Spirit to all thy Churches and Servants in the world: That as their darkness, and schildness, and impersections, have desiled, and divided and weakened them, & made them a scandal and hardening to Insidels; so their knowledge, selfdenial, and impartial Love, may truly reform, unite and strengthen them: that the glory of their holiness may win the unbelieving world to Christ. O let not Saran keep up still so large a Kingdom of Tyranny, Ignorance and wickedness in the Earth, and make his World as the Suburbs of Hell; but let the Earth be more comformable to heaven, in the glorifying of thy holy name, the advancing of thy Kingdom, &

Let the People praise thee, O Gcd, fer all the people praise thee! Yea give thy Son the Hathen for his Inheritance, and let his Gosp-Jenlighten the dark forfaken Nations of the Earth. Let every knew bow to him, & every Tongue confess that he is Chaist, to their Salvation and thy Glory. Provide and lend forth the Messengers of thy Grace through all the Earth. Deliver all the Churches from Sin, Divition and Oppression. Let thy holy Word and Worship continue in these Kingdoms, whilst this World endureth. Bless the Queen and all in authority, with all that Wildom, Justice and Holiness, which are needful to her own and her Subjects safety, peace and welfare. Let every Congregation among us have burning and Thining Lights, that the ignorant and ungodly perille not for want of teaching and exhortation. And open mens hearts to receive thy Word, and cause them to know the day of their Vilitation. Be merciful to the afflicted, in fickness, dangers, wants or forrows, according to thy goodness and their necessities. Let all the Prayers and Praises of the faithful throughout the World, fent up this day in the Name of our common Mediator, by him be presented acceptable unto thee; notwithstanding the imperfections & blemishes that are on them, and the censures divisions and injuries, which in their forwardness, they are guilty of against each other: Let them enter as one in Christ our Head, who are too fadly and stifly distant among themselves. Prepare us for all that World of Peace, where the Harmony of universal Love and Praise shall never be interrupted by fins, or grief, or fears, or dif-

IX. A form of Prayer for the Sick, who are unready to die.

Erciful God, Reject not this fad unworthy fin-ner, who in pain and forrow flyeth to thy Grace in Jesus Christ. Though I have trisled away too much of the day of my Salvation, and finfully neglected thy Son, and his faving Grace; O fay not that it is now too late. For thy promise through Christ is large and free, forgiving all without exception, who in the time of this life are penitent Bolievers. O that I had better found out my fin, before it found me out; and that it had been more my grief, before it was so much my pain; and that I had better known the evil of it by thy Word and Grace, before my flesh and bones had felt it: But pity my misery, and forgive my sin, through the Propitiation which thy mercy hath provided and accepted. Remember not the Iniquity of my Youth, nor the fins which I have fince committed against thy great and manifold mercies, the motions of thy Spirit, and the reproofs of my own Confcience. I have finned foolishly as a man: But do thou forgive me mercifully as a gracious God. If the suffering of my Flesh do seem so grievous, how shall I bear thy burning wrath for ever on my Soul? O give me true Repentance unto life: Let not pain and fear only make me purpole to amend. But let thy spirit of Grace renew my Soul, by the powerful fense of thy love in Christ. Let this be the fruit of my affliction through his grace to purge & take away my fins, and to make me partake of thy Holiness. And have mercy on this weak and pained Telesh: Flesh; O sparea little and give me space to make a. better preparation for my change, before I go hence, and am feen no more; O let not my fearful Soul appear before Thee the holy dreadful God in an unpardoned or unrenewed state; Renew my Time, and renew my Soul, that I may live to thee, before I die. I have abused thy long suffering; I have sorfeited both health and life and hope; I have foolishly and finfully lost many an hour of precious time, which never can be called back. I forefaw this day, & was oft forewarned of it, by thy Servants & by my Conscience; but I took not warning; and now, alas, how unready is my Soul to appear before thee? My fins affright me, thy Justice & Holinel's affright me; Eternity, eternity, doth amaze my Sout, I have no affurance to escape thy wrath & everlasting misery. I have not so fet my heart on Heaven, nor lived in a heavenly conversation, as to desire to depart that I may be with Christ, & to come with boldness, & comfortable hope, before the Judge of all the World; Forgive my fin through the Sacrifice & Intercession of my Redeemer, O try me once more with the opporttunities & means of Grace; return, O Lord, deliver my Soul; O fave me for thy mercies sake. Kill me nor till my fin be killed. End not this life, till thou haft' prepared me for a better ; Though it be a life of . vanity & vexation, it is all the space that ever I shall have to prepare for the endless life which followeth. Cut not off my Time, till I am ready for eternity; Let me not die in my fins, nor fall in the hands of thy revenging Justice. I condemn my self; Do not thou condemn me; if thou wilt renew my days, it is the resolution of my Soulto hearken to thy Spirit, to obey my Saviour, to study thy wonderous love in Christ to feek the things that are above with him, & to forfake my fin & live to thee; but because I know that without thy Grace I cannot do it, O give me Y.4:

yet both Time and Grace: Or, if thou wilt try me no longer here on Earth: Now, Lord, before my Soul departeth fanctific it by thy Spirit, and wash it in the blood of Jesus Christ, and shed abroad thy love upon it, and give me such a fight of the heavenly glory, that in the lively exercise of Faith, Hope, and Love, my Soul may willingly forfake this World, and come to Thee. Though I have departed from thee, amidelighted not to know thee, refule not to know me, and bid me not depart with workers of Iniquity. And if this be all the Time that ever I shall have, to beg thy faving Grace and Mercy, though it be short, let it be an accepted time. Have mercy, mercy, mercy Lord, upon a finful undone foul, and bet me not be the firebrand of thy hot displeasure. Now glorific thy Grace in Jefus Christ who is an all fufficient Saviour; to whom I fly, and on whom I cast my miserable sout, Merciful Saviour, Receive it as thine own: Refule it not as unworthy, but for thy worthiness justifie it, and let thy Spirit now renew it, and let thy Grace abound where my fin aboundeth: It is thy promise, that him that cometh unto thee, thou wilt in no wife cast out. Let this enemy by Thee be reconciled to the Father, and adopred as a Son and Heir of life, and present ma spoclets and acceptable to God: Whether I live or die, I defire to be thine: And though I have broken my Covenant with thee. I here again renew it: I give up my felf to Thee, my reconciled God and Father, my Saviour and my Sanctifier. Accept me, and affure me of the bleffings of thy Covenant. And then though I deferve to dwell with Devils ! I thall fee thy Glory and be filled with thy Love, and with Spirits and Angels shall joyfully praise my Crat or Redeemer and Sanctifier for ever. Amen.

The Poor Pan's Family Book. 480 X. A Prayer for the faithful before Death, is the End of

A Short Prayer for Children and Servants.

Ver-living & most glorious God, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost! Infinite is thy Power, thy Wisdom and thy Goodness! Thou are the Maker of all the World, the Redeemer of lost and sinful Man, and the Sanctifier of the Elect! Thou hast made me a living reasonable Soul, placed a while in this flesh and world to know and love, and serve thee my Creator, with all my Heart and Mind, and Strength, that I might obtain the Reward of the heavenly Glory. This should have been the greatest care, and business, and pleasure of all my Life: I was bound to it by thy Law: I was invited by thy Mercy. And in my Baptism I was devoted to his holy life, by a folemn Covenant and Vow! Bur alas, I have proved too unfaithful to that Covenant: I have forgotten and neglected the God, the Saviour, and the Sanctifier, to whom I was engaged: And have too much served the Devil, the World and the Flesh, which Irenounced: I was born in fin, and finfully I have lived, I have been too care, less of my immortal Soul, and of the great work for which I was created and redeemed: I have spent much of my precious time in vanity, in minding and plea ing this corruptible Flesh: And I have hardened my heart against these Instructions, by which thy Spirit, and my Teachers, and my own Confcience, did call upon me to repent and turn to thee.

And now, Lord, my convinced Soul doth confess. that I have delerved to be forlaken by thee, and given over to my lust and folly, and to be cast out of thy glorious Presence into Dimention. But seeing thou hast given a Saviour to the World, and made a pardoning and gracious Law, promiting forgiveness and Salvation through his Merits, to every true peniteur Believer, I thankfully accept the mercy of thy Covenant in Christ; I humbly confess my sin and guiltiness : I cast my miserable Soul upon thy Grace, and the Merits and Sacrifice and Intercession of my Saviour. O pardon all the fins of my corrupted heart and life; And as a reconciled Father take me to be thy Child; And give me thy renewing Spirit, to be in me a Principle of holy Life, and Light, and Love, and thy Seal and Witness that I am thine; let him quicken my dead and hardned heart; let him enlighten my dark unbelieving Mind, by clearer knowledge and firm belief; let him turn my will tobe the ready Obedience of thy holy Will; let him reveal to my Soul the wonder; of thy love in Christ, and fill it with love to Thee and my Redremer, and to all thy holy word & works; till all my finful carnal love be quenched in me, and my finful pleasures turned into a sweet Delight, in God; give me felf denial, humility and lowliness, and save me from the great and harertil fins of Selfishness, Worldliness and Pride. O set my Heart upon the Heavenly glory, where I hope e're long to live with Christ and clibis holy mes, in the joyful fight and love and praise of Thee the God of love for ever. Deny me not any of those helps and mercies, which are needful to my Sanctification and Salvation. And cause me to live in a continual readines, for a sase and comfortable Death: For whar would it profit me to win all the World, or boff my Soul, my Saviour, and my God!

for ever, Amea. A plain and fort Prayer for Families, for Morning. and Evening.

Lmighty, At being and most Gracious God, the World and all therein is made, maintained and ordered by thee; Thou art every where present being more than the foul of all the World. Though thou art revealed in thy Glory to those only that are in Heaven, thy Grace is fill at work on Earth to prepare men for that glory; thou madeft us not as the Beafts that perish, but with reasonable immortal souls

o know and feek, and ferve thee here, and then to live with all the bleffed, in the everlafting fight of thy heavenly Glory, and the Pleasures of thy perfect Love and Praile. But we are ashamed to think how foolithly and finfully we have forgotten and negle&ed our God'and our Souls, and our hopes of bleffed Immortality, and have overmuch minded the things of this vilible transitory World, and the Prosperity and Pleasure of this corruptible slesh, which we know must turn to rottenness and dust. Thou gavest us a Law which was just and good, to guide us in the only way to life, and when by fin we had undone our felves, thou gavest us a Saviour, even thy eternal Word made man, who by his holy life and bitter Sufferings reconciled us to thee, & both purchased Salvation for us, & revealed it to us, better than an Angel from Heaven could have done, if thou hadft fent him to us finners on such a Message: but also how light have we fet by our Redeemer! And by all that Love which thou hast manifested by him, and how little have we studied and understood, and less obeyed that Covenant of Grace which thou hast made by him to loft mankind?

Bur O God be merciful to us vile and miserable finners! Forgive the fins of our natural pravity and the folies of our youth, and all the ignorance, negligence, omissions and commissions of our lives: and give us true Repentance for them or elfe we know that thou will not forgivet them. Our life is but as shadow that passeth away, and it is but as a moment till we must leave this world, and appear before thee to give up our account, and to speed for ever as here we have prepared. Should we die before thou hast turned our hearts from this sinful slesh and world to thee by true Faith and Repentance, we thall be lost for evermore. O wo to us that ever we were born, if thou forgive not our fins, and make us notholy before this short uncertain life be at an end:

Hadwe all the riches and pleasures of thisworld, they would shortly leave us in the greater forrows. We know that all our life is but the time which thy mercy allotteth us to prepare for death: Therefore we should not put off our repentance and preparation to a fick bed : But now Lord, as if it were our last and dying words, we earnestly beg thy pardoning and sandifying Grace through the merits and intercession of our Redeemer: O thou that haft pitied and faved so many millions of milerable finners, pity and fave us also, that we may glorifie thy grace for ever; surely thou delightest not in the death of somers, but rather that they turn and live: Hast thou been unwilling to shew mercy, thou would'st not have ranfomed us by so precious a price, and still intreat us to be reconciled unto thee: We have no cause to distrust thy Truth or Goodness, but we are afraid lest unbelief, and pride, and hypocrisie, and a worldly flethly mind, should be our ruine. O fave us from Satan, and this tempting world, but especially from our felves: Teach us to deny all ungodline's and flashly lusts, and to live soberly, righteoully and godly in this World. Let it be our chiefest daily work to please thee, and to lay up a treasure in Heaven, and to make sure of a blessed life with Christ, and quietly to trust thee with foul and body. Make us faithful in our callings and our duties to one another, and to all men, to our superiours, equals and inferiours: Bless the Queen, and all in Authority, that we may live a quiet and peaceable life, in all godliness and honesty: Give wife, holy, and peaceable Pastors to all the Churches of Christ, and holy and peaceable minds to the People: convert the Heathen and Infidel Nations of the world: And cause us, and all thy people to seek first the hallowing of thy name, the coming of thy Kingdom, the doing of thy will on Earth as ir is done in Heaven, Give us our daily bread, even all things necessary to life & godline!s.

linefs, and let us be there with content. Forgive us our daily fine, and let thy fore and mercy conftrain us to love thee above all; and for thy fake to love our Neighbours as our felves, and in all our dealings, do justly and mercifully, as we would have others do by us. Keepu from hurrful temptations, from fin and from thy judgments, and from the malice of our spiritual and corporeal enemie; And let all our Thoughts, Affections, Passions, Words and Actions, be governed by thy Word and Spirit to thy Glory: Make all our Religion and Obedience pleafant to us 3 and let our fouls be so delighted in the praise of thy Kingdom, thy Power and thy Glory, that it may fecure and fweeten our labour by day, and our rest by night, and keep us in a longing and joyful hope of the heavenly Glory: And let the Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the Love of God our Father, and the Communion of the holy Spirit be with us now and for ever, Amen.

Ye Saints that on him call; Magnifie him always his holy Churches all;

In him rejoyce And there proclaim His holy name

With founding voice.

My Soul. 5. My Soul beer thou thy part, triumph in God and above! With a well tuned heart, fing thou the fongs of love! Thou art his own.

Whose precious blood Shed for thy good His Love made known.

6. He did in Love begin, renewing thee by Grace; Forgiving all thy fin, shewed thee his pleased face; He did thee heal

By his own Merit: And by his Spirit

He did thee feal.

7. In faddest thoughts and grief, in sickness, fears and pain I cry'd for his relif, and did not cry in vain. He heard with speed,

The Pool Pan's Family-Book. 503 In time of need.

8. Let not his praifes grow, on prosp'rous heights alone.

let his great Love be known: Let no distress

Curb and controul My winged foul.

The Seof his chastning Rod. cond part. Take off my fervent heart from praising my dear God: Still let me kneel

And to him bring This offering what ere I feel.

10. Though I lose Friends and Wealth and bear Reproach and Shame;

Though I lose ease and health, still let me praise Gods Name:

That fear and pain, Which would destroy My thanks and joy. Do thou restrain.

11. Tho' human help depart and flesh draw near to Dust :

Let Faith keep up my heart, to love God True and Just! And all my days

Let no Disease Cause me to cease His joyful praise.

12. Though fin would make me doubt and fill my Soul with fears;

Though God seem to shut out my daily cries and tears;

By no such Frost Of sad delays Let thy sweet praise, Be nipt and lost.

I have thy promise Lord;
I have thy promise Lord;
To banish all Despair
I have thy Oath and Word!
And therefore I Shall see thy face,
And there thy Grace
shall magnisse.

Though (in and death conspire, to rob thee of thy praite;

Still towards Thee l'le aspire;

and thou dull hearts canst raise;

Open the door,

then I shall numbred be; Built on th' Eternal Rock his Glory we shall see.
The Heavens so high
With Praise shall ring
And all shall sing
In harmony.

It's brightest beams are dark,
to that most Glorious Sight.
There the whole Chore
With one accord
HO Shall praise the Lord
For evermore.
