The Order for Morning Prayer.

¶ Let him that Ministreth read with a loud voice these Sentences of Scripture, and after them the Exhortation following.

Will arise and go to my Father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against Heaven, and before Thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

S. Luke
15. 18, 19.

Like as a Father piteth his own children, even so is the Lord merciful unto them that fear him.

Psal. 103.

Dearly beloved brethren, the Scripture moveth us in sundry places, to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness, and that we should not dissemble nor cloke them before the face of Almighty God our heavenly Father, but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end, that we may obtain forgiveness of the same by his infinite goodness and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy Word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul. Wherefore I pray and beseech you as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice, unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me.

Morning Prayer.

¶ The Confession to be said of the whole Congregation after the Minister, all kneeling.

A Lmighty and most merciful Father ; We have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done ; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done ; And there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults. Restore thou them that are penitent ; According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake ; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

¶ The Absolution to be pronounced by the Priest alone, standing ; the People still kneeling.

A Lmighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desirest not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness and live ; and hath given power and commandment to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sins : He pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore let us beseech him to grant us true repentance and his holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

¶ The People shall answer here, and at the end of all other Prayers, Amen.

¶ Then

Morning Prayer.

¶ Then the Minister shall kneel, and say the Lords Prayer ; the People also kneeling and repeating it with him.

O R Father which art in heaven ; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation ; But deliver us from evil : For thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ Then likewise he shall say,

O Lord, open thou our lips.
Ans. And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise,
Priest. O God, make speed to save us.
Ans. O Lord, make haste to help us.

¶ Here all standing up, the Priest shall say,
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost,
Ans. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. Amen.
Priest. Praise ye the Lord.
Ans. The Lords Name be praised.

¶ Instead of the Venite, exultemus, shall be said this Hymn following, one Verse by the Priest, another by the Clerk and People.

H ear our Prayer, O God : and hide not thy self Psal. 55. 1.
from our Petition.

O deliver us from the wicked doers : and save us from the Psal. 59. 2.
blood-thirsty men.

Hide us from the gathering together of the wicked Psal. 64. 2.
ward : and from the insurrection of the wicked doers.

For they encourage themselves in mischief : and commune Psal. 64. 5.
among themselves how they may lay snares, and lay, that no man shall see them.

Morning Prayer.

- Psal. 68. 1. Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered let them also that hate him flee before him.
- Psal. 28. 4. Let him reward them according to their deeds : and according to the wickedness of their own inventions.
- Psal. 108. Through God we shall do valiantly : for it is he that shall tear down our enemies.
- Psal. 33. There is no king saved by the multitude of an host : neither is any mighty man delivered by much strength.
- Psal. 44. 8. But it is thou that save us from our enemies : and puttest them to confusion that hate us.
- Psal. 23. Be thou exalted, O Lord, in thine own strength : so will we sing and praise thy power.
- Glory be to the Father, &c,
- As it was in the beginning, &c.

If instead of the Psalms for the Day, shall these proper Psalms be used, XI. XXXII. LI.

The first Lesson, Isaiah LVIII.

After the first Lesson, shall follow Te Deum lausamus in English.

We praise thee, O God : we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship thee : The Father everlasting.
To thee all angels cry aloud : the heavens, and all the powers therin.
To thee Cherubim, and Seraphim : continually do cry,
Holy, holy, holy : Lord God of Sabaoth.
Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty : of thy glory.
The glorious company of the Apostles : praise thee.
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets : praise thee.
The noble Army of Martyrs : praise thee.
The holy Church throughout all the world : both acknowledge thee;

Morning Prayer.

The Father : of an infinite Majesty ;
Thine honourable, true : and only Son ;
The Holy Ghost : the Comforter.
Thou art the King of glory : O Christ.
Thou art the everlasting Son : of the Father.
When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man : thou didst not abhor the Virgin's womb.
When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death : thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God : in the glory of the Father.

We believe that thou shalt come : to be our Judge.
We therefore pray thee, help thy servants : whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.

Make them to be numbered with thy Saints : In glory everlasting.

O Lord, save thy people : and bless thy heritage.
Govern them : and lift them up for ever.
Day by day : we magnifie thee ;
And we worship thy Name : ever world without end.

Touchsafe, O Lord : to keep us this day without sin.

O Lord, have mercy upon us : have mercy upon us.

O Lord, let thy mercy lighten upon us : as our trust is in thee.

O Lord, in thee have I trusted : let me never be confounded.

The second Lesson, S. Matth. III. to verse 13.

Jubilate Deo. Psal. C.

O Be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands : serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.
Be ye sure, that the Lord he is God : it is he that hath hath made us, and not we our selves, we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

¶ go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise : be thankful unto him, and speak good of his Name.

For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting : and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

¶ Then shall be said the Creed by the Minister, and the People standing.

I Believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth :

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, who was conceived by the holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried, He descended into hell ; The third day he rose again from the dead, he ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty ; From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the holy Ghost ; The holy Catholick Church ; The Communion of Saints ; the forgiveness of sins ; The resurrection of the body, And the life everlasting. Amen.

¶ And after that, these Prayers following, all devoutly kneeling, the Minister first pronouncing with a loud voice,

¶ Be the Lord be with you.

Answer.

And with thy Spirit.

Minister.

¶ Let us pray.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

¶ Then

Morning Prayer.

¶ Then the Minister, Clerks and People, shall say the Lord's Prayer with a loud voice.

Our Father, which art in heaven ; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation ; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

¶ Then the Priest standing up, shall say,

Priest. O Lord, shew thy mercy upon us.

Answ. And grant us thy salvation.

Priest. O Lord, save thy King,

Answ. And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

Priest. Endue thy Ministers with righteousness.

Answ. And make thy chosen people joyful.

Priest. O Lord, save thy people.

Answ. And bless thine inheritance.

Priest. Give peace in our time, O Lord.

Answ. Because there is none other that fighteth for us, but only thou, O God.

Priest. O Lord, save thy servants,

Answ. Who do put their trust in thee.

Priest. Send us help from thy holy place,

Answ. And evermore thy help defend us.

Priest. Let the enemy have no advantage against us :

Answ. Nor the wicked approach to hurt us.

Priest. Be unto us, O Lord, a strong tower,

Answ. From the face of our enemies.

Priest. O Lord, hear our prayer,

Answ. And let our cry come unto thee.

¶ Instead

Morning Prayer.

¶ Instead of the Collect for the Day, shall be used this which followeth, both in Morning and Evening Prayer.

A Lmighty God, and most merciful Father; We miserable sinners do here humbly acknowledge before thee, that we are unworthy of the least of all thy mercies. We confess, O Lord, in the bitterness of our souls, that we have grievously sinned against thee; that all Orders of men amongst us, have transgressed thy righteous Laws; that we have hitherto rendezed both thy Mercies and thy Judgments ineffectual to a thorough amendment of our lives. It is of thy mere Mercy, O Lord, that we are not consumed; to thy good Providence we owe our preservation: for which our souls do magnifie and bless thy glorious Name. O God, who hast hitherto spared us, and wonderfully delivered us, to the end, that thy Goodness might lead us to repentance; let it be thy good pleasure, to give unto us all that gould sorrow, which worketh Repentance to Salvation, not to be repented of; that thou mayest turn from thy heavy displeasure against us; and mayest rejoice over us to do us good in subduing our Enemies both Ghostly and Bodily; through the Merits and Mediation of Jesus Christ our Lord and only Saviour. Amen.

¶ A Prayer, for the King, to be constantly used while His Majesty is abroad in the Wars.

O God, whose Providence Extends to all, even the meanest of thy Creatures, but is most Glorious visibly in watching over the Persons of Kings and Princes, the great Instruments of God to Mankind, We give thee most hearty thanks and praise praise for the many gracious Deliverances thou hast formerly vouchsafed to thy Servant King William; and more especially for thy late great Mercy towards him, in discovering the Designs, and disappointing the Attempts of Malicious and Bloody Men. We beseech thee still to continue him under the merciful Care and Protection of thy good Providence. Preserve him from all Secret and Treacherous Practices, and cover his Head in the Day of Battel. Be thou graciously pleased to go forth with his Fleets and Armies, and to bless them, and those of his Allies, with good Success in all their Undertakings. Bring him back in Safety to our Comfort; and make him in thy good-time the happy Instrument of establishing Peace and Truth in these and our Neighbouring Nations. We also humbly implore thy Blessing upon those whom he hath intrusted with the Administration of the Government, during his Absence, and grant that all their Counsels may tend to the glory of thy great Name, the honour of his Majesty, and the welfare of thy People. Convert the hearts of his Enemies, and give us all grace, under him to lead quiet and peaceable lives in all godliness and honesty, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Morning Prayer.

¶ The Collect for Peace.

O God who art the Author of peace and lover of concord, in knowledge of whom standeth our eternal life, whose service is perfect freedom; defend us thy humble servants, in all assaults of our enemies, that we surely trusting in thy defence, may not fear the power of any adversaries, through the might of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Litany.

¶ The Collect for Grace.

O Lord our heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God, who hast lately brought us to the beginning of this day; defend us in the same with thy mighty power, and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings may be ordered by thy governance, so do always that is righteous in thy sight, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Here followeth the Litany.

O God the Father of heaven: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Father of heaven: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Son, Redeemer of the World: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Son, Redeemer of the World: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Holy Ghost, proceeding from the Father and the Son: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Holy Ghost, proceeding from the Father and the Son: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O holy, blessed and glorious Trinity, three persons and one God: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

Remember not Lord our offences, nor the offences of our forefathers, neither take thou vengeance of our sins: Spare us, good Lord, spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed with thy most precious blood, and be not angry with us for ever.

Spare us, good Lord.

From

The Litany.

From all evil and mischiefs, from sin, from the crafts and assaults of the devil, from thy wrath, and from everlasting damnation,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From all blindness of heart; from pride, vain-glory, and hypocritie; from envy, hatred, and malice, and all uncharitableness,

Good Lord, deliver us.

From fornication, and all other deadly sin; and from all the deceits of the world, the flesh, and the devil,

Good Lord, deliver us.

Good Lord, deliver us.

From all sedition, pzyby conspiracy and rebellion; from all false doctrine, heresie and schism; from hardness of heart, and contempt of thy Word and Commandment,

Good Lord, deliver us.

By the mystery of thy halie Incarnation; by thy holy Nativitie and Circumcisio[n]; by thy Baptisim, Fasting and Temptation,

Good Lord, deliver us.

By thine Agony and bloody Sweat; by thy Cross and Passion; by thy precious Death and Burial; by thy glorious Resurrection and Ascension; and by the coming of the holy Ghost,

Good Lord, deliver us.

In all time of our tribulation; in all time of our wealth; in the hour of death, and in the day of Judgment,

Good Lord, deliver us.

We sinners do beseech thee to hear us, O Lord God, and that it may please thee to rule and govern thy holy Church universal in the right way;

We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord. That

The Litany.

C Let us pray.

O God merciful Father, that despisest not the sighing of a contrite heart, nor the desire of such as be sorrowful; mercifully assist our prayers that we make before thee, in all our troubles and adversities, whencever they oppresse us; and graciously hear us, that those evils which the craft and subtlety of the devil or man worketh against us be brought to nought, and by the providence of thy goodness they may be dispersed, that we thy servants being hurt by no persecutions, may evermore give thanks unto thee in thy holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

O Lord, arise, help us, and deliver us for thy names sake.

O God, we have heard with our ears, and our fathers have declared unto us, the noble works that thou didst in their days, and in the old time before them.

O Lord, arise, help us, and deliver us for thine honour.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghost;

Answer. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

From our enemies defend us, O Christ,

Graciously look upon our afflictions.

Mercifully behold the sorrows of our hearts,

Mercifully forgive the sins of thy people.

Favourably with mercy hear our prayers.

O Son of David, have mercy upon us.

Both now and ever vouchsafe to hear us, O Christ.

Graciously hear us, O Christ; graciously hear us, O Lord Christ.

Priest. O Lord, let thy mercy be shewed upon us,

Answ. As we do put our trust in thee.

C Let us pray.

WE bumbly beseech thee, O Father, mercifully to look upon our iniquities; and for the glory of thy Name, turn from us all those evils that we most

most righteously have deserved; and grant that in all our troubles we may put our whole trust and confidence in thy mercy, and evermore serve thee in holiness and pureness of living, to thy honour and glory, through our only Mediator and Advocate, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all them that are penitent; Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we worthily lamenting our sins, and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Lord, we beseech thee mercifully hear our prayers, and spare all those who confess their sins unto thee, that they whose consciences by sin are accused, by thy merciful pardon may be absolved, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Mostmighty God, and merciful Father, who hast compassion upon all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, who wouldest not the death of a sinner, but that he shouldest rather turn from his sin, and be saved; Mercifully forgive us our trespasses; receive and comfort us, who are grieved and wearied with the burden of our sins. Thy property is always to have mercy; to thee only it appertaineth to forgive sins. Spare us therefore, good Lord, spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed; enter not into judgment with thy servants, who are vile earth, and miserable sinners; but so turn thine anger from us, who meekly acknowledge our vileness, and truly repent us of our faults; and so make haste to help us in this world, that we may ever live with thee in the world to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then

The Litany, &c.

I Then shall the People say this that followeth, after the Minister.

Tell thou us, O good Lord, and so shall we be taught. Be favourable, O Lord, be favourable to thy people who turn to thee in weeping, fasting, and praying. For thou art a merciful God, full of compassion, long-suffering and of great pity. Thou sparest when we deserve punishment, and in thy wrath thinkest upon mercy. Spare thy people, good Lord, spare them, and let not thine heritage be brought to confusion. Hear us, O Lord, for thy mercy is great, and after the multitude of thy mercies look upon us, through the merits and mediation of thy blessed Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I A Prayer for all the Reformed Churches.

O Good the Father of mercies, who of thy great goodness hast united us into thy holy Church, the mystical body of Christ; we as living members thereof, mourning with them that mourn, and rejoicing with them that rejoice, do now present our supplications and prayers at the throne of Grace, in behalf of all the Reformed Churches; beseeching thee to look down in especial manner, with an eye of mercy and pity, upon the sad and mournful estate of such of them, whom thou hast delivered over to the hands of superstitious and merciless men; suffer not thy enemies still to triumph over thy heritage. Plead thy cause with them that blaspheme thy Truth and persecute thy People, that so all men may say, Verily there is a God that judgeth in the earth. Purge all thy Churches from their dregs, and make them meet for a glorious Deliverance. Enlighten all those who are in darkness and error, and give them Repentance to the acknowledgment of the Truth: That all the ends of the earth may remember themselves, and be turned to the Lord: And we may all become one flock under the great Shepherd.

Amen.

O Lord our God, who art justly displeased with us for our great and manifold sins, whereby we have provoked thy wrath and indignation against us, and for which we have cause to fear that thou shouldest give us up to the will of our Enemies; hear us, we beseech thee, that humble our selves before thee with Fasting and Prayer. Give us that deep sense of our transgressions, and that godly sorrow for our sins, which may work in us repentance not to be repented of; that so thou our gracious God, being reconciled to us for the sake of thy dear Son our Saviour, mayst still own us for thy People, and be our defence against all the enemies of thy true Religion established amongst us; and that we living safe under thy protection, and walking worthy of thee unto all well-pleasing, may for ever glorifie thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. God is he that goeth with you, to fight for you, against your enemies, to save you.

The Gospel. St. Mat. Chap. XXIV. Verse 4, to Verse 15.

A heard that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ: and shall deceive many. And ye shall hear of Wars, and rumours of Wars: Be that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet; for nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines and pestilences, and earthquakes in divers places. All these are the beginning of sorrows. Then shall they deliver you up to be afflited, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my names sake. And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another; And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold. But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

I believe in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And of all things visible and invisible:

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of very God, Begotten, not made, Being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made: Who for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, And was made man, And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate, He suffered and was buried, And the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures, And ascended into into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of the Father. And he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead: Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the holy Ghost, the Lord and Giver of life, Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son, Who with the Father and the Son gether is worshipped and glorified, Who spake by the Prophets. And I believe one Catholick and Apostolick Church. I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins, And I look for the Resurrection of the dead, and the life of the World to come. Amen.

¶ Then followeth the Sermon; and after that shall be said,

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorie your Father which is in heaven. S. Matth. v. 16.

As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of Faith. Gal. 6. 10.

Let us pray for the whole State of Christ's Church militant here in earth.

A Lmighty and everlasting God, who by thy holy Apostle hast taught us to make prayers and supplications, and to give thanks to all men; We humbly beseech thee most mercifully to receive these our prayers, which we offer unto thy divine Majesty, beseeching thee to inspire continually the universal Church with the spirit of truth, unity, and concord; and grant that all they that do confess thy holy Name may agree in the truth of the holy word, and live in unity and godly love. We beseech thee also to save and defend all Christian kings, princes and governors; and especially thy servant William our King.

that under him we may be worthy and quietely governed: and grant unto his Whole Council, and to all that are put in an hoste under him, that they may truly and indifferently minister justice, to the punishment of wickedness and vice, and to the maintenance of thy true Religion and virtue. Give grace, O heavenly Father, to all Bishopes and Curates, that they may both by their life and doctrine set forth thy true and lively way, and faithfully and duly administer thy holy Sacraments: And to all thy people give thy heavenly grace; and especially to this Congregation here present, that with meek heart and due reverence, they may hear and receive thy holy Word, truly serving thee in holiness and righteousness all the days of their life. And we most humbly beseech thee of thy goodness, O Lord, to comfort and succour all them who in this troublous life, are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity. And we also beseech thy holy Name, for all thy servants departed this life in the faith and fear; beseeching thee to give us grace so to follow their good examples, that with them we may be partakers of thy heavenly Kingdom. Grant this, O Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

O God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ our only Saviour, the Prince of Peace, look down in much pity and compassion upon this Church and Nation, now seeking unto thee in Fasting and Prayer; and grant, we beseech thee, that our Humiliation and Repentance may have that blessed effect, that we may all cleanse our selves from all uncleanness of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. Give us grace, O Lord, seriously to lay to heart the great Dangers we are in, by our unhappy Divisions. Take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatsoever else may hinder us from godly Union and Concord:

The Order for Evening Prayer.

¶ Let him that ministreth read with a loud voice these Sentences of Scripture, and after them the Exhortation following.

INDIANE, COM arise and go to my Father, s. Luke 15. 18,19.
any will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against Heaven, and before Thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.
Like as a Father piteth his own psal. 103.
children, even so is the Lord merciful unto them that fear him.

DEARLY beloved brethren, the Scripture moveth us in sundry places, to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness, and that we should not dissimile nor cloke them before the face of Almighty God our heavenly Father, but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of the same, by his infinite goodness and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy Word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul. Wherefore I pray and beseech you, as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice, unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me.

¶ The

Evening Prayer.

¶ The Confession to be said of the whole Congregation after the Minister, all kneeling.

A Lmighty and most merciful Father; We have sinned and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done; And there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults. Restore thou them that are penitent; According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

¶ The Absolution to be pronounced by the Priest alone, standing; the People still kneeling.

A Lmighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who despiseth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness and live; and hath given power and commandment to his ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sins: He pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore let us beseech him to grant us true repentance and his holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then

Evening Prayer.

¶ Then the Minister shall kneel, and say the Lords Prayer; the People also kneeling, and repeating it with him.

O ur Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, to ever and ever. Amen.

¶ Then likewise he shall say,
O Lord, open thou our lips.
Answer. An i our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.
Priest. O God, make speed to save us.
Answer. O Lord, make haste to help us.

¶ Here all standing up, the Priest shall say,
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son; and to the
holy Ghost;
Answer. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.
Priest. Praise ye the Lord.
Answer. The Lords name be praised.

¶ The Second Lesson, 1 Cor. X. to v. 15.

¶ Deus misericordia: Psal. 67.

¶ O God be merciful unto us, and bless us: and shew us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us.

That thy way may be known upon earth: thy saving health among all nations.

Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee.

O let the nations rejoice and be glad: for thou shalt judge the folk righteousness, and govern the nations upon earth.

Let the people praise thee, O God: let all the people praise thee.

Then shall the earth bring forth her increase: and God, even our own God, shall give us his blessing.

God shall bless us: and all the ends of the world shall fear him.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Evening Prayer.

¶ Then shall be said the Apostles Creed by the Minister, and the People standing.

I Believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead and buried, He descended into hell; The third day he rose again from the dead, He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I Believe in the Holy Ghost; The holy Catholick Church; The Communion of Saints; The forgiveness of sins; The resurrection of the body, And the life everlasting. Amen.

¶ And after that, these Prayers following, all devoutly kneeling, the Minister first pronouncing with a loud voice,

The Lord be with you.

Answer.

And with thy Spirit.

Minister.

¶ Let us pray.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Friar. Alلوو, beat out prayer,
Answ. And let our cry come unto thee:

¶ Instead of the Collect for the Day, shall be used this which followeth.

A Lmighty God, and most merciful Father; We miserable sinners do here humbly acknowledge before thee, that we are unworthy of the least of all thy mercies. We confess, O Lord, in the bitterness of our souls, that we have grievously sinned against thee; that all Orders of men amongst us, have transgressed thy righteous Laws; that we have hitherto rended both thy Heresies and thy Judgments ineffectual to a thorough amendment of our lives. It is of thy mere Mercy, O Lord, that we are not consumed; to thy good Providence we owe our preservation: for which our souls do magnifie and bless thy glorious Name. O God, who hast hitherto spared us, and wonderfully delivered us, to the end, that thy Goodness might lead us to Repentance, let

Evening Prayer.

Amen.

The second Collect at Evening Prayer.

O God, from whom all high desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give, that both our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee we being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

The third Collect for Aid against all Perils.

Leave our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord, and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night, for the love of thy only Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

O Lord, we beseech thee mercifully hear our prayers, and spare all those who confess their sins unto thee, that thy whole conscience by sin are accused, by thy merciful pardon may be absolved, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Most mighty God, and merciful Father, who hast competition upon all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, who wouldest not the death of a sinner, but that he thine Father turn from his sin and be saved; Mercifully forgive us our trespasses; receive and comfort us, who are grieved and wearied with the burden of our sins. Thy property is always to have mercy; to thee only it appertaineth to forgive sins. Spare us therefore, good Lord, spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed; enter not into judgment with us.

judgment with thy servants, who are vile earth, and miserable sinners; but so turn thine anger from us, who meekly acknowledge our vileness, and truly repent us of our faults; and so make haste to help us in this world, that we may ever live with thee in the world to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the People say this that followeth after the Minister.

Turn thou us, O good Lord, and so shall we be turned. Be favourable, O Lord, be favourable to thy people, who turn to thee in weeping, fasting, and praying. For thou art a merciful God, full of compassion, long-suffering, and of great pity. Thou sparest when we deserve punishment, and in thy wrath thinkest upon mercy. Spare thy people, good Lord, spare them, and let not thine heritage be brought to confusion. Hear us, O Lord, for thy mercy is great, and after the multitude of thy mercies look upon us, through the merits and mediation of thy blessed Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the Kings Majesty.

O Lord our heavenly Father, high and mighty King of kings, Lord of lords, the only Ruler of Princes, who dost from thy throne behold all the dwellers upon earth; most heartily we beseech thee with thy favour to behold our most gracious Sovereign Lord, King William, and so replenish him with the grace of thy Holy Spirit, that he may always incline to thy will, and walk in thy way: endue him plenteously with heavenly gifts, grant him in health and wealth long to live, strengthen him that he may vanquish and overcome all his enemies; and finally after this life he may attain everlasting joy and felicity, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the Royal Family.

Almighty God, the fountain of all goodness, we humbly beseech thee to bless Catherine the Queen Dowager, her Royal Highness the Prince's Anne of Denmark, and all the Royal Family: Endue them with thy holy Spirit; enrich them with thy heavenly grace; prosper them with all happiness; and bring them to thine everlasting Kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the Clergy and People.

Almighty and everlasting God, who alone workest great marvels; Send down upon our Bishops and Curates, and all congregations committed to their charge, the healthful Spirit of thy grace; and that they may truly please thee, pour upon them the continual dew of thy blessing. Grant this, O Lord, for the honour of our Advocate and Mediator, Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for all the Reformed Churches.

O Good the Father of Mervles, who of thy great goodness hast united us into thy holy Church, the mystical body of Christ; we as living Members thereof, mourning with them that mourn, and rejoicing with them that rejoice, do now present our Supplications and Prayers at the throne of Grace, in behalf of all the Reformed Churches; beseeching thee to look down, in especial manner, with an eye of mercy and pity, upon the sad and mournful estate of such of them, whom thou hast delivered over to the hands of superstitious and merciless men; suffer not thy Enemies still to triumph over thy Heritage. Plead thy Cause with them that blasphemeth thy Truth and persecute thy People, that so all men may say, Truly there is a God that judgeth in the Earth. ¶ A Prayer for the King, to be constantly used while His Majesty is abroad in the Wars.

O God, whose Providence Extends to all, even the weakest of thy Creatures, but is most illustriously Visible in watching over the Persons of Kings and Princes, the great Instruments of Good to Mankind, We give thee most hearty thanks and praise for the many gracious Deliverances thou hast formerly brought us to; to the Tyrant King William; and more especially for thy late great Mercy towards him, in discarding the Designs, and disappointing the Attempts of Dastardly and Bloody Men. We beseech thee still to continue him under the merciful Care and Protection of thy good Providence. Preserve him from all Evils and Treacherous Practices, and cover his Head in the Day of Battle. Be thou graciously pleased to go forth with his Forces and Armies, and to bless them, and those of his Allies, with good Success in all their Undertakings. Bring him back in Safety to our Comfort; and make him in the good time the happy Instrument of establishing Peace and Truth in these and our Neighbouring Realms. We also humbly implore thy Blessing upon those whom he hath intrusted with the Administration of the Government, during his Absence, and grant that all their Counsels may tend to the glory of the great Name, the honour of his Majesty, and the welfare of thy People. O God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ our only Saviour, the Prince of Peace, look down in mercy and compassion upon this Church and Nation, now seeking unto thee in Fasting and Prayer; and grant, we beseech thee, that our Humiliation and Repentance may have that blessed effect, that we may all cleanse our selves from all filthiness of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. Give us grace, O Lord, seriously to lay to heart the great Dangers we are in, by our unhappy Dispositions. ¶ A Prayer for our Enemies.

O Father of mercies, and Lord of Souls, who art kind to the unthankful and to the evil, and hast commanded us to extend our Charity, even to those that hate us. We beseech thee to have pity upon those who without any just cause are our enemies; disappaiting their devices, give them a due sight and sense of their pride and malice, shed abroad thy love in their hearts; rule them with a neck, and humble, and charitable Spirit; that they may be for, both in heaven and earth, at their Conversion, through Jesus Christ our Lord. ¶ The General Thanksgiving.

A Lmighty God, Father of all mercies, we thy unworthy servants do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving kindness to us and to all men.

when any that
have been prayed
for, desire to return praise.      [* particularly to those who desire now to offer up their praises and thanksgivings for thy late mercies vouchsafed unto them.]

We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life, but above all for thine ineffi-nable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And we beseech thee give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unspeakably thankful, and that we may shew forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up our selves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness
all our days, through Jesus Christ our Lord;
to whom with thee and the holy Ghost be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

¶ A Prayer of S. Chrysostom.

A Lmighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord, to make our common supplications unto thee, and hast promised, that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.
